404 upon the altar of the house of your 13 @D, which is in Jerusalem.
18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, that do with the rest of the silver and the gold, to do after the will of your 13 @D.
13 The 14 vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy 13 @D, those deliver thou before the 14 @D of Jerusalem.
20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy 13 @D, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house.
21 And 3 Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the 13 @D of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily.
22 Unto an hundred 15 talents of silver, and to an hundred 16 measures of wheat, and to an hundred 17 baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.
23 Whosoever is commanded by the 13 @D of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the 13 @D of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?
24 Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of 13 @D, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.
25 And Ezra, after the wisdom of the thy 13 @D, that is in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the People that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy 13 @D; and teach ye them that know them not.
26 And whosoever shall not do the law of thy 13 @D, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27 Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem:
28 And he hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes.
29 And I was strengthened as the hand of the Lord my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

8 These are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.
2 Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; Hattush.
3 Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of Pharaoh; Zerahiah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the men an hundred and fifty.

19 vessels. See note on I. 1.
20 bestow, bestow. Fig. Anadiplosis (Ap. 6), for emphasis.
21 I, even I. Fig. Epizeuxis (Ap. 6), for emphasis.
22 talents. See Ap. 61. 17.
23 measures... baths. See Ap. 61. III. 3.
26 to banishment: or exclusion from the assembly. Chald. = to rooting out. Occurs only here.
27 Blessed, &c. These two verses (27, 28) resume the Hebrew language.
chief = heads.

1 chief = heads: i. e. heads of houses.
2 them that went up. Most of these names appear in ch. 3 and Neh. 10. The number is 1,496. If there were no women with them, this might be the case of the "strange" marriages in ch. 10 and Neh. 10. Artaxerxes: i. e. Darius (Hystaspis). See Ap. 57 and 58.
3 by genealogy = a lineages.
4 Pahath-moab. Cp. 2. s.
5 sons of Shechaniah. Sept. reads 'sons of Zattu, Shechaniah'.
6 Of. Some codices, with one early printed edition and Sept., read "And of".
7 sons of Shelomith. Sept. reads 'sons of Bani, Shelomith'.
8 ten. Some codices, with Syr. read "twenty".
9 last. In contrast with others.
10 these. The only case where there were three heads. In all other cases (except v. 14, where there are two) only one head is mentioned.
11 them. Heb. text reads "him"; but some codices, with one early printed edition, read "them", as in A. V.

4 Of the sons of Pahath-moab; Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.
5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.
6 Of the sons also of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males.
7 And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.
8 And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zechariah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.
9 Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.
10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.
11 And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.
12 And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakkanan, and with him an hundred and ten males.
13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Sheamiah, and with them threescore males.
14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.
15 And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days: and I gathered the People, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemariah, and for Elkanah, and for Jarib, and for Elkanah, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshiaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all of them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us.

24 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them the silver and the gold, and the vessels; even the offering of the house of our God, which the kings, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered:

26 I even weighed unto them, even of the silver, a thousand talents, and six hundred talents of silver vessels; and of gold an hundred talents, and of gold six hundred talents;

27 Also twenty basins, of silver, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, "Ye are holy unto the LORD: and the vessels are holy also: and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go up unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33 Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites;

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children of those that were carried away: which were come out of captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD.

36 And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the People, and the house of our God.
9 Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonied.

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away;

5 And sat astonied until the evening sacrifice.

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to Thy profile, for our iniquities have increased over our head, and our trespass grown up unto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in His holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 Our fathers were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken Thy commandments.

11 Which Thou hast commanded by Thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons: nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

14 Let now our rulers, all the congregation, stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God be turned from us.

15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this matter; and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

18 And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaseiah, and Jiezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.

19 And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives: and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass.

20 And of the sons of Immer: Hanani, and Zebadiah.

21 And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziah.

22 And of the sons of Paschur; Eliasaph, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

23 Also of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimri, and Kelaiah, (the same is Kelita,) Pethahiah, Judah, and Elizer.

24 Of the singers also; Eliashib: and of the porters; Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

25 Moreover of the children of Zerah, of the sons of Parosh; Ramah, and Jeiel, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchiah, and Beniah.

9 But if ye turn unto Me, and keep My commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set My name there.

10 Now these are Thy servants and Thy People, whom Thou hast redeemed by Thy great power, and by Thy strong hand.

11 O Lord, I beseech Thee, let now Thine ear be attentive to the prayer of Thy servant, and to the prayer of Thy servants, who desire to fear Thy name: and prosper, I pray Thee, Thy servant this day, and grant him "mercy in the sight of this" man." For 3 was the king's cupbearer.

And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wind was before him: and I took the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now it had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, "Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but "sorrow of heart." Then I was very sore afraid.

3 And said unto the king, "Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the palace of my fathers' sepulchres, "lith waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?"

4 Then the king said unto me, "For what dost thou make request?"

So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, "If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it."

6 And the king said unto me, (the queen also "sitting by him",) "For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return?" So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

7 Moreover I said unto the king, "If it please the king, let letters be given to me of the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the "wall of the city, and for the house" that I shall enter into." And the king granted me, according to the "good hand" of my God upon me.

9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent "captains of the army and horsemen with me.

See Ap. 57 (Nothos = Greek "bastard"). Here ends the fourth of the ten Sedarat (or, Cycles for public reading) which commenced with Ezra 9, 33; thus showing that the two books were and are to be regarded as one. See note on p. 699; and op. notes on p. 996. Horonite. Not of Beth-horon (Josh. 11, 18), but an alien (ch.13,37,28) of Horonaim, a Moabite. Op.1sa.15,3. Jer.48,3,5. See also the Moabite Stone. Ap. 54.

6 the queen. Heb. ka-shēqāl = wife. Occurs only here and in Ps. 45, 9. Dan. 5, 2, 3, 20. Not a Heb. word, but borrowed from the Akkadian shā = a bride, and pat = great. Used of a foreign queen. Here it would exactly suit "the great bride" or "foreign (Jewish) queen," of another. (See notes on the Chronological Structure of Ezra-Nehemiah, p. 618.) Esther is introduced here (parenthetically) because of her sympathy and interest, which Nehemiah so greatly needed at this juncture, as Mordecai had needed it before (Est. 4, 14). it. Not reeling, by - close to. This the king. The fruit of Nehemiah's prayer (v. 4).

7 governors = pashas. A Persian word which occurs only here, Ecc. 2, 5, and Song 4, 13, which is rendered "orchards." Sept. renders it "paradise," which occurs twenty-eight times: (nine times = Eden, nineteen times = garden, Heb. gan) wall. Some codices, with one early printed Syr., and Vulg., read "walls" (pl.). These walls are the main entrance to the city, that I shall enter into. Also put by Fig. Melonymy (Ap. 6) for God's purpose.
2.10. NEHEMIAH.

To the servant, the Ammonite, he grieved them exceedingly. There was no man to seek the welfare of the children of Jerusalem.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 And I arose in the morning, and some men with me; neither told I any man what I had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that rode upon me.

13 And the next day I went out by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon wall, and to the dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and bowed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 Then said I unto them, "Let us rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God, which was good upon me; and also the king's words that he had spoken unto me.

p And they said, "Let us rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed at us, and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that ye do? will ye turn back and build? and ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem."

3 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah, they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel.

2 And next unto him built Zaccur the son of Imri.

3 But the fish gate did the sons of Hasenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

4 And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koze. And next

This is the first of six (see Ap. 10) forms which the opposition took. Note them, and observe how Nehemiah met each respectively: (1) Grief (2.10); (2) laughter (2.19); (3) wrath and indignation (4.1-7); (4) fighting (4.7, 8); (5) subtlety (6.1, 2); (6) compromise (6.5-7). Q S U (P. 637)
And our adversaries said, “They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.”

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt 5 by them said, they said unto us ten times, “From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.”

13 Therefore set I in 5 the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the People, “Be not ye afraid of them: remember the LORD, Which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.”

15 And enemies heard that it was known unto us, and 4 God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 “For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded.

And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, “The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, 10 one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.”

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, “Let every one of his 15 servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.”

23 So neither 3, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.

And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

For there were said that, “We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn 4 for them, that we may eat, and live.”

3 Some also there were that said, “We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.”

4 There were also that said, “We have borrowed money for the king’s tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children; and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them;

for other men have our lands and vineyards.”

And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.
7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the 'rulers, and said unto them, "If ye this exact usury, every one of his brother." And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them, "If ye this, after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us?"

Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, "It is not good that ye this; ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?"

10 Likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye did exact of them.

12 Then said they, "We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do "as thou sayest."

Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also I shook my lap, and said, "So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even be he shaken out, and emptied." And all the congregation said, "Amen," and praised the Lord. And the people did according to this promise.

14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, 3 and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that had been before me were charged with the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came up unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this People.

60 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.
61 And these were they which went up also from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel.

34 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.
35 And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stand up a priest with the Urim and Thummim.

66 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, 67 Beside their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women.

73 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the People, and the Nethinims, and all 7 Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

W 1 And all the People gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate;

V W1 g and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month.

X h 3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the People were attentive unto the book of the law.

i 4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Heshub, and Zechariah, and Meshullam.

j 5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the People; for he was above all the People;) and when he opened it, all the People stood up:

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the God. And all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," with lifting up their hands; and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshaia, and Bani, and Sherebiah, and Jamin, and Akkub, and Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Perahiah, and the Levites, caused the People to understand the law: and the People stood in their place.

h 8 So they read in the book of the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

W2 j 9 And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the People, said unto all the People, "This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep." For all the People wept, when they heard the words of the law.

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God That brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;
19 Yet 31 of Thy manifold mercies forsook them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to 12 lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also Thy good 3 spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not Thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them 15 water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst Thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing: their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover Thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Si

23 Their children also multipliedst Thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which Thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and Thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a 4 fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and 5 delighted themselves in Thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against Thee, and cast Thy law behind their backs, and 6 slew Thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to Thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore Thou deliverest them into the hand of their 7 enemies, which vexed them:

28 and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto Thee,

29 They hearest them from heaven; and 8 according to Thy manifold mercies Thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

30 But after they had rest, they did 9 evil again before Thee:

31 Therefore leftest Thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them:

32 yet when they returned, and cried unto Thee, 31 heardest them from heaven;

33 and many times didst Thou deliver them according to Thy mercies;

34 And 31 testifiedst against them, that Thou mightest bring them again unto Thy law:

35 Yet they 31 dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto Thy commandments, but 31 sinned against Thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

36 Yet many years didst Thou forbear them,
36 Behold, ye are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, ye are servants in it:
37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

LONGER NOTES ON SPECIAL PASSAGES IN NEHEMIAH.

2. 1 the twentieth year. The "seventy sevens" of Dan. 9. 24-27 begin here (454 a. c.).

The "seven sevens" (Dan. 9. 25), or forty-nine years begin here, and end in 405 a. c.; marked by the completion and dedication of the second Temple.

The "threescore and two sevens" (Dan. 9. 26), or 434 years begin (or rather, follow on) in 405 a. c., and end in a. d. 29, the year of the Cross.

The last "seven" is therefore, still future.

The first four of the "seven sevens" ended in 428 a. c., marked by the Decree of Cyrus, which ended the Babylonian Servitude of seventy years. See Ap. 50, 57, and 58.

5. 14-19 Moreover from the time that I was appointed, &c. Verses 14-19 are put within brackets for the following reasons:

As Nehemiah's record must have been written many years later, after the dedication both of the Temple (406 a. c.) and the Wall (403 a. c.), the reference to his policy during the twelve years of his governorship, from the twentieth to the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes (Darius Hystaspis, 419-407 a. c.), is introduced here, in order to emphasise the capacity of "the nobles and rulers" (5. 7), and his own conduct. For he says that, not only at that time (454 a. c.) did he not exploit the people for his own advantage, but that during his governorship (which ended in 407 a. c., some four or five years at least before the time of his writing the final record, more than forty years later than 441), when, according to Eastern views, he would have been justified in getting as much as he could out of his office, he not only lived entirely at his own charges but supported others also. See note below on 13. 4-9.

7. 4 the houses were not builded—no sign of houses being built. This statement refers to the permanent stable habitations of the city proper which Hagai speaks of as being in existence forty-four years later (Hag. 1. 4, b). The word beqeth, house, means a dwelling, and in 2. 3 and 3. 31 is rendered "place", which clearly indicates its meaning in these passages. Among the ruined houses left by Nebuchadnezzar many might easily have been made habitable sufficiently to fulfill the conditions of 8. 16.

7. 5 I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first. It must be borne in mind that Nehemiah wrote long after this date (428 a. c.); probably between 405 and 400 a. c. It is quite natural therefore that he should write of finding such a book as this. When he says, "I found a book, ", &c., it does not mean that Nehemiah found or discovered the register at that time; but, writing long after, he says, "I find that the list of names was, so and so", &c.

13. 4-9 And before this . . . the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon (13. 6).

The Artaxerxes (great king) here is Darius Hystaspis. The record here must have been written after the dedication of both Temple (406 a. c.) and Wall (403 a. c.). The thirty-second year is that of the king's age, not of his reign, for he only succeeded Cambyses in 411 a. c. His twentieth year (5. 14) was 419 a. c., when, on the death of Cyrus, Nehemiah was "appointed" to be "governor in the land of Judah," Consequently Nehemiah's twelve years of governorship end in 407 a. c., two years before the completion and dedication of the Temple, and when Darius Hystaspis had reigning three years.

In that year (407 Nehemiah evidently receives a report from his deputy (probably Hanani still) as to the Temple progress, and doubts of the Eliashib-Tobiah scandal. He determines to go himself, obtains leave of absence (with difficulty, apparently, 13. 6), and comes to Jerusalem. Arriving there, he "understands" the evil concerning Eliashib, casts forth Tobiah and his "stuff", and hurries on the Temple work towards completion.

Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace;

In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the kingdom, before him:

When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

And these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

Where were wine, white, and blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.

And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Memucan, Bigtha, Belteshazzar, and the princes of Persia and Media.

And he showed the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king.

To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for the king was fair to look on.

But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by the chamberlains. Then wrote the king for all the officer of his kingdom, which were in Shushan the palace, even in great and small, an charge of Vashti the queen, and the reason whereof.

For so it was in the king's name, by the hand of the king, and sealed with the king's seal: and the king said not, Why? Unto these was the king's commandment given.

And they hurried with the charge of the king's commandment to all the prince of the provinces of king Ahasuerus, even to the king's provinces.

The king also said to Vashti, Behold, how great and how fair was thy queen when she was强迫 to come at my commandment! why is she not as this day? this is the cause that she is not come at my commandment. For she is more fair and beautiful than all the virgins that are in the king's house: this commandment is nothing else than to make her royalty despised.

In the latter days, when Darius (Hyrtaspis) these had reduced to twenty-three, as stated and named on the Behistun inscription.

471 the king's commandment by his chamberlains; therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

A2 c (p. 656)

13 Then the king bade to the wise men, which knew the times, "(for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment;

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;)

15 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the 10th commandment of the king Ahasuerus 13 by the chamberlains?"

d And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, "Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, 'The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.'

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen, that shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) 'ALL THE WIVES SHALL GIVE TO THEIR HUSBANDS HONOUR, both to great and small.'

21 And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

A3 B1

2 After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the king's servants which ministered unto him, "Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women; to the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maid which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti." And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.
2. 7. ESTHER.

467 father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

B[1] 8 So it came to pass, when the king’s 8commandment and his 8decree was heard, and when many 4maidens were gathered together unto Shushan, the palace, to the 3custody of Hegai,

C[2] 9 that 7Esther was brought also unto the king’s house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

10 Esther had 9not shewed her People nor her kindred: for 5Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And 9Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women’s house, 9to know how 7Esther did, and what should become of her.

B[3] 12 Now when every 4maid’s turn was come to go in to king 1Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, 9for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of murr, and six months with sweet odours, and with 9other things for the purifying of the women;)

13 Thus then came every 4maid unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king’s house.

14 In the evening 8it went, and on the morrow 8she returned into the second house of the women, to the 3custody of Shaaqagaz, the king’s chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she was called by name.

C[3] 15 Now when the turn of 7Esther, the daughter of Abiah the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king’s chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And 7Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So 7Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month 5Tebeth, in the 7seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved 7Esther above all the women, and she 7obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the 7virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of 7Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even 7Esther’s feast; and he made a 9release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king,

19 And 7when the 7virgins were gathered together the second time, then 5Mordecai sat in the king’s gate.

20 Esther had 10not yet shewed her kindred nor her People; 9as 5Mordecai had charged her: 9for Esther did the 9commandment of
3. 2

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him.

k 1 Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto 2 Mordecai, "Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?"

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether 2 Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that 2 Mordecai was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that 2 Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on 2 Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the People of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of 1 Ahasuerus, even the People of 2 Mordecai.

7 In the first month, (that is, the month Nisan,) in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, 3 they cast 4 Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

8 And 5 Haman said unto king 1 Ahasuerus, "

8 'There is a certain People 5 scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand "talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries."

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave unto Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, 6 the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, "The silver is given to thee, the People also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee."

12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, l and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king 1 Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were sent by them unto all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon 13 the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The 13 posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the 12 decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, "What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom."

4 And Esther answered, "If it seem good unto the king, o LET THE KING AND HAMAN COME THIS DAY UNTO THE BANQUET that I have prepared for him."

5 Then the king said, "Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said."

6 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, "What is thy request? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request?"

7 Then answered Esther, and said, "My petition and my request is; if I may please the king, let it be known unto me, 1 IT PLEASE THE KING to grant me, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.""

8 But when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

9 Nevertheless Haman restrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

10 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, "Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but herself; and to morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet all THIS AVAILETH ME NOTHING, so long as 3 see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

14 Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, "Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet." And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

2 And it was found written, that "Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus."

3 And the king said, "What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this?" Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, "There is nothing done for him."

4 And the king said, "Who is in the court?"

5 And the king's servants said unto him, "Behold, Haman standeth in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."
6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, "What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour?" Now Haman thought in his heart, "To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?"

7 And Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king delighteth to honour,
8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:
9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of "one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him. Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour."

H

10 Then the king said to Haman, "Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken."
11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour."
12 And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hasted to his house mourning, and having his head covered.
13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, "If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him."
14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

7 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

B

2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine,
E

"What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom."
L

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, "If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my People at my request:

4 For we are sold, and my People, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's dammage."

K

5 Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, "Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so?"

6 And Esther said, "The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman." Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

7 And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.
8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, "Will he force the queen also before me in the house?" As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.
9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, "Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman." Then the king said, "Hang him thereon."
10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.
8.1. ESTHER.

8.1 On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen.

8.2 And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.

8.3 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

8.4 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischiefs of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

8.5 Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king.

8.6 And said, "If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and the king shall find any man lackings in this writing, I have set before the king, and I shall not stand before the king again.

8.7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew,

8.8 Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8.9 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring; for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

8.10 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred and twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every People after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

8.11 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

8.12 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

8.13 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

8.14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

8.15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

8.16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.
17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

9 Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them;) the 2 Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and none man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all the people.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred 2 men.

7 And Parshandatha, and Delphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha.

10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, "The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred 2 men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done." Then said Esther, "If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows."

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

It has been suggested that it is because they were hanged one above another. But, as each Hebrew character is a number as well as a letter, the numerical value of these names (regarded as an addition sum) amounts to 10,244, or 13,788; while Haman the Agagite is 117 (13 x 9), and Zeresh 607 (13 x 39), and the enemy of the Jews. See note on 3. 10, laid they not their hand. Cp. note on "take the spoil" (8. 13). They probably remembered taking the spoil instead of obeying in 1 Sam. 15. Hence the emphasis on this in 10. 15. 14. 13 let Haman's ten sons be hanged. One of the ten deaths occurs. Not alive, but hanged up after death. They were slain in conflict first. See vv. 6, 7.
18 The other Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey.

19 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far;

21 To establish among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make their days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them; 24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Pur after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and these days of Pur should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

21 establish—ordain. Cp. kham, as in vv. 29, 31.

25 device, which he devised—his great device. Fig. Polyptoton. Ap. 6.

26 Purim—lots. The name of the feast to this day. Pur. See note on 3. 7.

27 ordained. Cp. kham, as in vv. 21, 31.

28 should not fail. This sounds like a prophecy, and sets a seal on the inspiration of the book.

18 Mordecai, the son of Josiah, of the seed of the house of Saul, which had won the lives of the Jews, turned again to the king.

21 But now the better part, which was that portion of the good, was put in the hands of the king Ahasuerus.

22 As it went, there was no word spake in the mouth of the king, and the queen Esther spake, when he was drunk; for she was given grace before him, and she put the matter in this wise:

23 If it please the king, let it be given unto the people, and also to the provinces, to do as it shall turn out best for them, to destroy, and to slay, and to do whatsoever they please; for there is a day appointed, and an ordinance of the king, and an established matter.

24 And these lords made answer unto Mordecai, and said unto him, What is it according to your request? and how shall we answer thee? And he said, 25 If it please the king, let it be written for a commandment, and published amongst you, and among the provinciers, I and my sons, for the spoiling of the Jews.

26 For in this wise did the king Ahasuerus command the scribes and recorders, to write in all the king's provinces, both in ancient and in new writing, 27 Both in the name of the king, and in his might, and of the king's counselors, and of the king's scribes, and of the king's chamberlains, and the expatriation of the king Ahasuerus, which was written with the names of the cities of his provinces, and of the name of the king's counselors, in the language of every province; and it was translated in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia.

28 In the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia, written with the name of the king; 29 And in the second year of his reign, in the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day of the month, a letter was written to all the wise men of the provinces, and to the governors thereof, in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, 30 Which letter was written in the name of king Ahasuerus, and sealed with the king's seal; and was to be believed in all his kingdom. 31 (For he trusted in God.) 32 And the king Ahasuerus commanded to publish the letter; and it was published throughout all the king's provinces, both in ancient and in new writing.

33 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honor. 34 And when this had gone forth, the Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honor. 35 And Mordecai was numbered among the wise men of the king's counsellors. And Mordecai was numbered among the wise men of the king's counsellors. And Mordecai was numbered among the wise men of the king's counsellors.

36 Then the king made the诏令 for all the provinces of his kingdom, to do as had been written by Mordecai and Esther the queen, upon every man after his own law, in his own language, in his own writing. 37 And there was loud and great joy among the Jews, and among their adversaries, and among the friends that were unto them, and among their enemies. 38 And with joy and gladness they spoke in the king's name, and read the book, that it might be read. 39 And the king's commandment and decree was, that Mordecai should sit upon the right side of the throne.

30 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim, 31 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred and twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, 32 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enquired, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

10 And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.

2 And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his People, and speaking peace to all his seed.

NOTE ON THE DATE AND AUTHORSHIP OF THE BOOK OF JOB.

A lengthened account of the discussion of these questions would be without profit.

But, if Job was the son of Issachar (Gen. 46. 13), then we have a clue that may help us to a decision of both.

It is better to keep within the Bible itself for the settlement of its problems; and to treat the whole Book as the context of all its parts.

There is no reason why Jon should not be the son of Issachar, and no better evidence is forthcoming for a different view.

The three friends of Job were descendants of Esau; they would therefore be contemporaries.

Eliphaz, of Teman, in Idumea, was a son of Esau, and had a son called Teman, from whom his country took its name (Gen. 36. 10, 11). It was noted for its “wise men” (Jer. 49. 7); and is mentioned with Edom (Amos 1 11, 12). Compare Jer. 25. 21, where both are connected with Buz, the brother of Uz (Gen. 22. 21).

Bildad the Shuhite. Shurah was the sixth son of Abraham by Keturah (Gen. 25. 2); and is mentioned in connection with Esau, Edom, and Teman (Jer. 49. 9).

Zophar the Naamathite. Naamah (now Na‘anah, six miles south of Lod, in the lowlands of Judah).

If Jon was the son of Issachar (Gen. 46. 13), he would have gone down to Egypt with his father.

Issachar was forty at “the going down to Egypt”. (See Ap. 50. III, p. 52.)

If Jon was the third son (Gen. 46. 13), he would have been about twenty at that time (1796 B.C.).

We are told that he lived 140 years after his “double” blessing (42. 16). If that “double” blessing included length of years, then his age would have been 70 + 140 = 210 (i.e. three seventies of years). His lifetime would be from 1726–1516 B.C.

According to this, he was born the year after Joseph was sold, and died 119 years after the death of Joseph (in 1635 B.C.). When Joseph died, Jon was ninety-one. If his “double” blessing did include length of years, then his affliction took place twenty-one years previously, when he was seventy. His removal from Egypt to Uz must therefore have taken place earlier still.

When Jon died (1516 B.C.) Moses was fifty-five, and had been in Midian fifteen years (twenty-five years before the Exodus).

This would account for Jon being a worshipper of the God of Abraham, and explains how Moses could have been the author of the book, and perhaps an eye- and ear-witness of the events it records in Midian. If so, the time has come (as Dr. Stier foretold and hoped?) when this book would be regarded as “the Porch of the Sanctuary”; and when this “fundamental wisdom of original revelation will cease to be ascribed, as it now is by some of the best, to a later poet in Israel”.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

1. There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2. And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

3. His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred assses, and a very great household;

4. so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

5. And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts." Thus did Job continually.

6. Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

13 And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, "The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the Sabæans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and 3 only am escaped alone to tell thee."

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, "The fire of God is fallen from heaven, 14 and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and 3 only am escaped alone to tell thee."

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, "The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and 3 only am escaped alone to tell thee."

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, "Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And beheld, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and 3 only am escaped alone to tell thee."

20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and 3 shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped.

21 And said, "Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: 3 the Lord gave, and 3 the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of 3 the Lord."

22 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged 1 God foolishly.

2 Again there was a day when the sons of 3 God came to present themselves before 3 the Lord, and 3 Satan came also among them to present himself before 3 the Lord.
2. 8.

And he took him a potsherder to scrape himself with; and he sat down among the ashes.

Then said his wife unto him, "Dost thou still retain thine integrity? Dost thou still curse God, and die?"

But he said unto her, "Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?"

In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite:

for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.

And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him:

for they saw that his grief was very great.

3. 7.  JOB.

1656 7  Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.
8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.
9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; 0 let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:
M1 10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.
L 11 Why did I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?
12 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?
M2 13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest, 14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves;
15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:
16 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been, infants which never saw light.
17 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.
18 There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.
19 The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master.
L 20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul?
21 Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures;
22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they find the grave?
23 Why is light given to a 3man whose way is hid, and whom hath hedged in?
M3 24 For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my roaring s are poured out like the waters.
25 For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

4. 3.

O (p. 671)

Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands. 4. Thy words have upheld him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees. 5. But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

P Q

6. Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

R n

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

O

8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same. By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of His nostrils are they consumed.

Q p

12 Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof. In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake. Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

p

17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than His Maker?

4. 4.

Behold, He put no trust in His servants; and His angels He charged with folly: How much less in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth? They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.

O (p. 671)

Behold, how many others thou hast taught; And hast been wont to nerve enfeebled hands. But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

P Q

[Ought] not thy fear [of God to be] thy trust? And the uprightness of thy ways thy hope?

R n

Reflect; when has the guiltless been destroyed? Or when were any upright ones cut off?

O

[About] have I seen that they who evil plough And mischief sow, do ever reap the same. They perish, smitten by the blast of God, And by His angry blast they are consumed. [Hushed is] the lion's roar! the young lion's growl! And broken are the strong young lion's teeth! The fierce lion perisheth for lack of prey; The lion's whelps are scattered far and wide.

4. 5.

12 Now, unto me a thing was brought by stealth; Mine ear did catch a whispering thereof. When thoughts arise, in visions of the night, When falls on mortal vision-seeing sleep. Great fear did come on me, and trembling [dread]; It made my very bones to stand in awe! And o'er my face there then did pass a breath, Which made my very hair to stand on end. It stopped: but nothing could I then discern; I looked: and lo, an image without form. Silence: and then I heard a voice [which said]—

[Can mortal man more righteous be than God]?

O

[Or boastful man before his maker pure?]

4. 6.

In His own servants He will put no trust, His angels He will change with ignorance. How much more those who dwell in houses made Of clay; with their foundation laid in detest: [So frail], they will be crushed before a moth; Tween morn and eve destroyed will they be: Will perish utterly—with none to save.

me; that He would let loose His hand, and cut me off!

JOBS REPLY TO ELIPHAZ'S FIRST ADDRESS. 6. 1—7. 21 (K1, p. 669).

2 Oh, that my voice could be exactly weighed, And my moaning set in scale thereof!

3 The voice more heavy than the sand would weigh:

'Tis this that makes my utterances wild.

4 For Shaddai's arrows now [stick fast] in me, The heat whereof my spirit drinketh up:

GOD'S terrors now against me are arrayed.

5 Will the wild ass or tender herbage baray? Or loweth the ox while fodder he doth eat?

6 Can tasteless food be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in white of egg?

7 The very things my soul revolts at touch, Are, as it were, my uninviting food.

8 Oh, that my prayer might come [before my God]: That Eloah would grant my heart's desire:

9 That it would Eloah please to crush me quite;

That He would loose His hand, and cut me off.
10 I would harden, &c. Occurs only here. Let me even exult in my anguish (should He not spare) that I have not concealed, &c.

22 Did I say ... ? Fig. Erotésis. Ap. 6. Continued in v. 23.
30 Is there ... ? cannot ... ? Fig. Erotésis. Ap. 6.
28 Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is evident unto you if I lie.
29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is in it.
30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot my taste discern perverse things?
7 Is there not ... an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?
2 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:

10 I then should comfort find; yea, e'en in this,— (Though Hâ spare not, that I could yet endure,—
The Holy One whom I have not yet denied).
11 But what then is my strength, that I should hope?
Or what mine end, though I be patient still?
12 My strength; has it become the strength of stones?
Or has my flesh become like flesh of brass?
13 [Alas!] if my help lie not in myself,
All that is stable hath been driv'n from me.

U (p. 673)

14 E'en to th' afflicted, love is due from friends;
not even to the fear of Shaddai he forsake.
15 But wy friends prove illusive, like a brook;
Like streams whose flowing waters disappear,
16 And are not seen by reason of the ice;
[Or of the] snow, which, falling, covers them.
17 What time it waxeth warm, the streams dry up;
When it is hot they vanish from their place:
18 They turn aside from out their usual course;
Are lost; and gone up into empty air.
19 The caravans of Tema look about;
The travellers of Sheba long for them.
20 They feel ashamed that they had trusted them.
They reach the spot; they stand; and are amazed.

10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea,
'I would harden myself in sorrow; let Him not spare; for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.
11 What is my strength, that I should hope?
And what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass?
13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?
U (p. 673)
3 So I am made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say, 'When shall I arise and the night be gone?' and I am full of tossings and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: Thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place "know him any more.

11 Therefore shall not mine complaint rest in mine heart; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that Thou settest a "watch" over me?

13 When I say, 'My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint';

14 Then Thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifist me through visions:

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.

16 I loathe it; I would not live alway: let me alone; for my days are vanity.

17 'What is man, that Thou shouldest magnify him? and that Thou shouldest set Thine heart upon him?

18 And that Thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

19 How long wilt Thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto Thee, O Thou Preserver of men? why hast Thou set me as a mark against Thee, so that I am a burden to myself?

3 So I inherit months of vanity;

And nights of weariness have been my lot.

4 As soon as I lie down to sleep, I say:

'How long till I arise, and night be gone?'

And I am full of tossings till the morning.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms, and clods of earth;

My broken skin heals up; then runs afresh.

6 Swifter than weaver's shuttle are my days,

And they are spent without a gleam of hope.

7 Remember that my life is but a breath,

Mine eyes shall not again enjoy sea.

8 The eyes that see me now, will see no more,

But Thine will see me, though I shall not be.

9 As wasted cloud that vanishes away,

So he that goes to Sheol comes not back;

10 Nor more doth he return unto his house.

The place that knew him knoweth him no more.

11 [And hence my grief]. I cannot check my words;

In anguish of my spirit I must speak,

And utterance find for bitterness of soul.

12 Am I a restless sea? or monster of the deep, that Thou about me settest a bound?

13 Should I have said, 'My bed shall comfort me;

My couch shall yield a respite from my moans.'

10 know = recognise.

12 life = bones, or limbs: i.e. hands.

21 And why dost Thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and Thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.'

8 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 "How long wilt thou speak these things?

And how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?"
30 Doth not God pervert judgment? or doth not my God pervert justice?

4 If thy children have sinned against Him, and He have cast them away for their transgression;

5 If they would seek unto God, and make thine supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now He would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:

9 For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing; because our days upon earth are a shadow:

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite’s hope shall perish:

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider’s web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 So is it green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about in the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 If he destroy him from his place, then shall he deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will He help the evil doers:

21 Till He fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.”

13 If God will withdraw His anger, the proud helpers do stoop under Him.
14 How much less shall I answer Him, and choose out my words to reason with Him?
15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my Judge.
16 If I had called, and He had answered me; yet would I not believe that He had hearkened unto my voice.
17 For He breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplyeth my wounds without cause.
18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, He is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?
20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, 'I am perfect,' it shall also prove me perverse.

He who supplegates, I will not answer; And if to justice; who could summon Him?

20 Should I attempt to justify myself; My mouth would instantly the act condemn:
And, if I say that I am free from blame, Then it would only my perverseness prove.
21 Though I could say, "My heart and life are pure,"
I should [indeed] despise [and lose] myself.
22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, 'Yet destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.
23 If the scourgè slay suddenly, He will laugh at the trial of the innocent.
24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: He covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is yt?
25 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.
26 They are passed away as the swiftest ships: as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.
27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself:
28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that Thou wilt not hold me innocent.
29 If 3 be wicked, why then labour I in vain?
30 If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;
31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

32 For He is not a man, as I am, that I should answer Him, and we should come together in judgment.
33 Neither is there any Daysman betwixt us, that might lay His hand upon us both.
34 Let Him take His rod from me, and let not His fear terrify me:
35 Then would I speak, and not fear Him; but it is not so with me.

3 Is it good unto Thee that Thou shouldest oppress, that Thou shouldest despise the work of Thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

21 Though I could say, "My heart and life are pure,"
I should [indeed] despise [and lose] myself.
22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, 'Yet destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

3 Is it good unto Thee that Thou shouldest oppress, that Thou shouldest despise the work of Thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?
7 Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of Thine hand.

8 Thine hands have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet Thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech Thee, that Thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt Thou bring me into dust again?

10 Hast Thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and Thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast Thou hid in Thine heart: I know that this is with Thee.

14 If I sin, then Thou markest me, and Thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, woes unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see Thou mine affliction;

16 For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again Thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.

17 Thou renewest Thy witnesses against me, and increasest Thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

18 Wherefore then hast Thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had never seen Thy power!

19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 Are not my days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little, before I go whereto I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;

22 A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness."

11 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

11 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said.

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?
4 For thou hast said, 'My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in Thine eyes.'
5 But oh that * αδικίας!  would speak, and open His * lips against thee;
6 And that He would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are * δικαιοσύνη to * that which is! Know therefore that * αδικίας!  exacteth of thee less than thine * iniquity deserves.
7 * ἐξαρτήσασθαι αὐτῷ? Canst thou find out αδικίας!  and find out * ὁ θεὸς ἡμῶν? Canst thou find out * ὁ θεὸς ἡμῶν unto perfection?
8 It is as high as heaven; * what canst thou do? deeper than * ὑστεροφθαλμός; * what canst thou know?
9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.
10 If He cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then * ὁ ποιμὴν ὠνόμασθαι: Who can hinder Him?
11 For πανταχοῦς, vain * ἡμέρας: He seeth * ἀνθρώπων; * what will He not then consider it?
12 For * ἀνθρώπων; would be wise, though * ἀνθρώπων; be born like a wild ass's colt.
13 * ἐνθαρρύνεσθαι ἑαυτὸς, and stretch out thine hands toward Him;
14 * ἁμαρτία is in thine hand, put it far away, and let not * ἀνθρώπων; dwell in thy tabernacles.
15 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:
16 * ἐπιλειψαίης, shall forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away.
17 And * ἀνθρώπων; age shalt be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt * ἀναβάσις, shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.
18 And thou shalt * ἀναβάσις, be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt * ἀναφέρεσθαι, dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.
19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall * ἐξαρτήσασθαι upon thee.
20 But the eyes of the * ἁμαρτίας shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the "ghost."

And stretched forth thy hands to Him in prayer:

14 If sin were in thy hand, put it far off;
Nor dwell there, in thy tent, iniquity.
15 Thou wouldst thy face uplift without a stain;
Yes, firm thou wouldst stand, and need not fear.
16 For all thy misery thou wouldst then forget;
Or, think of it as waters passed away.
17 A time would come far brighter than the noon:
And thou soar upward like the rays of morn.
18 Thou wouldst have confidence; for there is hope;
And, having looked around, mightest rest secure,
And lay thee down, with none to make afraid;
Nor, many will be paying court to thee.
20 But as for wicked men, their eyes will fail, And every refuge to them useless prove;
Their hope will vanish like a puff of breath.

12 And Job answered and said,
2 "No doubt be * ἑαυτὸς are the people, And wisdom shall die with you.
3 But I have understanding as well as you;
3 am not inferior to you: yea, "who knoweth not such things as these?
4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and He answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.
6 The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.
7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee.
8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.
9 *Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of God hath wrought this?
10 In Whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and *the breath of all mankind."
11 Doth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat?
12 With the ancient wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

13 With Him is wisdom and strength,
Heth counsel and understanding.
14 "Behold, He breaketh down, and it cannot be built up; He shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening."
15 "Behold, He withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: also He sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.
16 With Him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceive are *His."
17 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and maketh the counsel of princes to perish.
18 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.
19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

3 But I have intellect as well as you;
And I am not inferior to you:
Who hath not knowledge of such things as these?
My neighbours come and mock me; and they say
"Aha! he calls on God, that He should answer him."
And I, an upright man, am made secure.

5 A lamp is scorched by one who feeleth safe;
And tis prepared for of them of tottering feet.
6 Prouerbs and peaceful are the spoilers' tents.
Security is theirs who God provoketh:
Abundance doth Eloah give to them.
7 Ask now the beasts: each will thy teacher be;
Nay, this thing of the things as these?
8 Hold converse with the Earth, and it will speak;
Yea, fishes of the sea will tell their tale.
9 Who knoweth not, by every one of these,
That tis Jehovah's hand that doeth this?
10 In Whose hand lieth every living soul,
The spirit of all flesh,—of every man.
11 Doth not the ear discern the sense of words,
Just as the palate doth distinguish food?
12 So with the aged wisdom should be found,
And length of days should understanding give.
13. 1. JOB.

13 1. Lo, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it. 2 What ye know, the same do I know also: 3 am not inferior unto you. 4 Surely 3 would speak to 7 THE ALMIGHTY, and I desire to reason with 7 GOD. 5 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of no value. 6 Will ye therefore speak wickedly of 7 GOD? and talk deceitfully for 7 GOD? 7 Will ye accept His person? 7 will ye contend for 7 GOD? 8 Is it good that He should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock Him? 9 He will surely reprove you, if ye do not secretly accept persons. 10 Shall not His excellency make you afraid? and His dread fall upon you? 11 Ye remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to 7 bodies of clay. 12 Hold your peace, let me alone, that 3 may speak, and let come on me what will. 13 Wherefore do I 7 take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in 7 hand? 15 Though He slay me, yet will I 7 trust in Him: but I will maintain mine own ways before Him. 16 And shall not 7 my salvation be come before Him? 17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears. 18 Behold now, I have 7 ordered my cause; I know that 3 shall be justified. 19 Who is it 7 that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall 7 give up the ghost. 20 Only do not two things unto me: then will I not hide myself from Thee. 21 Withdraw Thine hand far from me: and let not Thy dread make me afraid. 22 Then call Thou, and 3 will answer: or let me speak, and answer Thou me. 23 How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my 7 sin. 24 Wherefore hast Thou hid Thy face, and holdest me for Thine enemy? 25 wilt Thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and 7 wilt Thou pursue the dry stubble?

13. 19. Aye, come what may, I willingly the risk Will take; and put my life into my hand, 15 Though He may slay me, I will wait for Him; And, before Him, my doings would defend. 16 Yes, even He shall my salvation be, For ne'er will hypocrite before Him stand. 17 Hear now [my friends], give heed unto my word, And keep my declaration in your ears. 18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be declared just.

20 Only, [O God] do not two things to me; And then I will not hide me from Thy face: 21 Thy hand—from off me—take Thou far away, Nor let Thy terror fill me with alarm. 22 Then call Thou [me, and] I will answer [Thee]; Or, I will speak, and do Thou answer me. 23 How many are my sins,—iniquities,— Transgressions?—These, oh! make Thou me to know. 24 Why hidest Thou from me Thy countenance? Why shouldst Thou count me as Thine enemy? 25 Wilt Thou pursue me as a driven leaf? And chase me as the stubble [light and] dry?
26 For Thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.
27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; Thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.
28 And as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

14 Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.
2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.
3 And, as hast Thou open Thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with Thee?
4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean not one?
5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with Thee, Thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass:
6 Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.
7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, and it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.
8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;
9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.
10 But man dieth, and wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?
11 As the waters fall from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up;
12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.
13 Of that Thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that Thou wouldest keep me secret, until Thineen the past, that Thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!
14 If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.
15 Thou shalt call, and I shall answer Thee: Thou wilt have a desire to the work of Thine hands.
16 For now Thou numberest my steps: dost Thou not watch over my sins?

26 For bitter things, against me, Thou dost write, And dost entail on me my sins of youth.
27 My feet Thou settest fast within the stocks, And lookest closely into all my ways,
28 While these, thus marked, in rottenness wear out,
As garment when the moth hath eaten it.

14 Frail son of man that is of woman born, How few his days; and these, of trouble full!
2 He springeth like a flow'r, and is cut down: Heareth as a shadow; makes no stay.
3 Yet, op'nest Thou Thine eyes on such an one? And bring'st him into judgment with Thyself?
4 Oh that a clean thing could come forth from out A thing unclean! But there is no such one.
5 If now his days are all [by Thee] decreed, And fixed the number of his months with Thee, If Thou hast made him bounds he may not pass,
6 Then look away from him, that he may rest, And, like a hireling, may fulfill his day.
7 For full tree, indeed, there still is hope That, if it be cut down, 'twill sprout again; And that its suckers will not cease [to grow].

27 settest a print — they make a print on my feet.
28 ty, &c. — they (my feet) waste away.

14. 1 Man. Heb. 'adam. Ap. 14. I. "Man" is to e. t. what e. t. is to the whole paragraph. The Heb. accent (Dāš) emphasizes the word "man", and divides the verse into two members; viz. (1) man and (2) his characteristics which are three: (1) his origin (born In sin), (2) his brevity of life, and (3) his fulness of sorrow.

5 bounds. Four early printed editions read "fixed times".
7 For there is hope of a tree. This is a positive independent statement, about which there is no doubt. There should be a full stop here. Then the Heb. accents mark off two hypotheses: (1) if it is cut down (v. 7) the Spring will wake its sap; (2) if waxing old (v. 8) it may still send forth a new growth. But there is no hope of man's living again like a tree. If he is to "live again" he must be raised from the dead.

10 But man — he dieth; and, fallen, he departs: Yea, man — when he expireth — Where [is he]?
11 As waters fail, and vanish from the sea, And as a river wasteth and dries up;
12 So man lieth down and riseth not again:
Until the heavens are no more, they never Awake; nor are aroud' from their sleep.

15 Then shalt Thou call, and I will answer Thee; For Thou wilt yearn toward Thy handiwork.

16 But now — Thou numberest my ev'ry step: And Thou wilt not pass over [all] my sin.

15 Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,
2 "Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?
3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?
4 Yea, thou castest off fear, and restrainest prayer before God.
5 For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou showest the tongue of the crafty.
6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I; yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?
8 Hast thou heard the secret of God, and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?
9 What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?
10 With us are both the grayhaired and very aged men, much elder than thy father.
11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?
12 Why dost thou heartily seek mine advice? and what do thy eyes wink at?

1656 14 *What is a man, that he should be pure? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? *Behold, He putteth no trust in His saints; yea, the heavens are not clear in His sight. 15 *How much more abominable and filthy is he, which drinketh iniquity like water? *Behold, He putteth no trust in His saints; yea, the heavens are not clear in His sight. 16 *Behold, He putteth no trust in His saints; yea, the heavens are not clear in His sight. 17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare; 18 Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it: Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them. 20 The wicked man travailleth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor. A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him. He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is "waited for of the sword. "Where is it?" he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand. Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

14 What is a mortal, that he should be pure? Or he of woman born, that he be just? Lo! in His holy ones He puts no faith; (The very heavens in His sight are not pure.) 16 How much less [man], corrupt, defiled! He will not long be rich, nor will his wealth endure, nor will his shadow lengthen out. From darkness he will nevermore escape; His tender branch the flame shall wither up; In God's hot anger he will pass away. Let no one put his faith in vain deceit; For vanity will be his recompence; [And] he will be cut off before his time, So that his palm will not be always green. Because he stretched out his hand against GOD And haughtily El Shaddai did defy, [Because] he used to run with stiffened neck Against Him, with the bosses of his shield; Because his face he clothed with his own fat, And gathered rolls of fat upon his loins. Therefore he dwelleth in a ruined place; In houses where none other dwells to live; In places destined to be ruined heaps. He will not long be rich, nor will his wealth endure, nor will his shadow lengthen out. From darkness he will nevermore escape; His tender branch the flame shall wither up; In God's hot anger he will pass away. Let no one put his faith in vain deceit; For vanity will be his recompence; [And] he will be cut off before his time, So that his palm will not be always green. As shaketh off the vine its unripe fruit, Or as the olive casts away its flower, So will the household of the vile be taught; And fire consume the tents of the corrupt

JOBS REPLY TO ELIPHAZ’S SECOND ADDRESS.

16. 1—17. (K) (p. 689).

16 Then Job answered and said, 2 “I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all. 3 Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest? 4 For I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul’s stead, I could heap words against you, and shake mine head at you. 5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief. 6 Though I speak, my griev is not assuaged: and though I forbear, what am I eased? 7 But now He hath made me weary: Thou hast made desolate all my company. 8 They hast filled mine ear with the voice of my grief, and mine eyelids have been filled with tears, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face. 9 He teareth me in His wrath, Who hateth me: He gnasheth upon me with His teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth His eyes upon me. 10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me. 11 O GOD hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked. 12 I was at ease, but He hath broken me asunder: He hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for His mark. 13 His archers compass me round about. He cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; He poureth out my gall upon the ground. 14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach, He runneth upon me like a giant. 15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.

16. 19.

16. 1—17. (K) (p. 689).

16 OF such like things I have abundance heard; [Yeax ministers of trouble are ye all. 3 Shall such vain words come never to an end? Or what emboldeneth thee to answer still? 4 For I could also speak as well as ye. If ye were in distress instead of me; Against you I could heap together words; Against you I could shake my head in scorn; I with my month could [also] harden you; And with my lip I, too, could you restrain. 6 Though, if I speak, my grief is not assuaged: If I forbear, how much it of departs? 7 Ah! God hath verily exalted me! Yea all my family Thou hast destroyed! 8 And shivered up my skin. Look! what a sight! My leanness, like a witness, riseth up And testifieth my ruin to my face. * * * * * * 9 His anger rends, and maketh war on me,

And He hath gnashed upon me with His teeth. He is mine enemy; His eyes are swords; And, with contempt, they smite me on my cheeks, And hand themselves against me all at once. 11 GOD to the evil one delivers me, And headlong casts me into hands malign. 12 At ease I was, when He did shatter me: He seized my neck, and dashed me to the ground: Then picked me up, and set me for His mark. 13 His archers did encompass me around. One cleaves my reins asunder; sparest me not; Another pours my gall upon the earth; 14 Another breaketh me with breach on breach. He runneth at me like a man of war. 15 I have sewn sackcloth round about myself: My glory is defiled in the dust; 16 My face with weeping has become inflamed: And o’er my eyelids comes the shade of death. 17 [All this] was not for wrong that I had done; My prayer was pure [made in sincerity].

18 (O Earth! do thou not cover up my blood; And let my cry [for vengeance] have no rest.)

Then Job answered and said, 2 "How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words? 3 These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye make yourselves strange to me. 4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself. 5 If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach.

6 Know now that (God) hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with His net. 7 °Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment. 8 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and He hath set darkness in my paths. 9 He hath striped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head. 10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath He removed like a tree.

11 He hath also kindled His wrath against me, and He counteth me unto Him as one of His enemies. 12 His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle. 13 He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

14 My kinsfolk have faltered, and my familiar friends have forgotten me. 15 They dwell that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

2 How long will ye [thus grieve and] vex my soul, And break me all to pieces with your words? 3 Already ten times have ye taunted me; And still are not ashamed to wrong me thus. 4 Be it that I have sinned, [as ye say]; My sense of sin abideth with myself. 5 If [gainst me still ye magnify yourselves, And plead against me that I [must have] sinned:

6 Then know ye that Eloah hath o'erthrown My cause; and made His net to close me round. 7 Behold, I cry out ["Wrong!"] but am not heard: I cry out ["Help!"] but there is no redress: 8 My path He hedgeth up; I cannot pass; And on my way He maketh darkness rest. 9 From me my glory He hath stripped off, And from my head hath He removed the crown.

10 On all sides I am crush'd, where'er I go: He hath my hope uprooted like a tree; 11 Against me He hath made His anger burn, And counts me toward Him as His enemy.

12 Is not God high in heaven? Behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, "How doth God know? And through the thickest darkness can He judge?"

14 Thick clouds enrobe Him, that He cannot see; Alone He walketh in the vault of heaven."

15 Oh that thou wouldst consider well the way Which wicked men of old have ever trod.

16 They who were snatched away before their time, Their strong foundation swept, as with a flood.

17 Who unto God did say, "Depart from us!" [And ask'd], "What good could Shaddai do to them?"

18 Yet, He it was Who filled their homes with good.

The way of wicked men is far from me.

19 The righteous see that r提起 may well rejoice; The innocent will laugh at them, [and say],

"Surely our substance hath not been destroyed; While their abundance is consumed with fire."

20 Acquaintance make with Him, and be at peace; For thereby blessing shall upon thee come.

22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from His mouth, and lay up His words in thine heart.

23 If thou return to THE ALMIGHTY, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away "iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

24 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.

25 Ye, THE ALMIGHTY shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in THE ALMIGHTY, and shalt lift up thy face unto Sc.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto Him, and He shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, "There is lifting up; and He shall save "the humble person.

3 Oh, that I knew where I might find Him:

knew

How I might come unto His [Judgment] seat!

I would set out my cause before His face;

And I would fill all my mouth with arguments.

And well I know how He would answer me,

And understand what He to me would say.

6 Would He with His great pow'r contend with me?

Nay,

He would surely set me on His heart.

7 There I, an upright man, would plead with Him,

And [so] for ever from my Judge go free.

8 Lo,

to the East I go:

He is not there;

And to the West,

but I perceive Him not:

Or North,

where He doth work,

I look in vain;

Or in the South,

He hides where none can see.

10 But mine habitual way He knoweth well;

If tried,

I know I should come forth as gold.

11 My foot unto His steps hath firmly held:

His way I have observed,

nor gone aside:

12 From His commands I have not turned back;

His words I prised more than my daily food.

13 But He is [God] alone:

Who turneth Him?

What He desireth,

even that He doeth.

14 What is decreed for me He will perform:

And many such [decrees] He hath in store,

[Shut] from His presence out,

I am in fear;

I think of Him and I am sore afraid.

16 For GOD [it is]

Who maketh faint my heart;

Yea,

Shaddai is the One Who troubleth me.

17 Not from the darkness am I thus dismayed;

Nor yet because thick darkness veils my face.

24 Since, then,

events from Shaddai are not hid,

Why do not they who love Him know His ways?

3 Is there any number of His armies? and upon whom doth not His light arise?

C 4 How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

2 *How hast thou helped him that is without power? *How savest thou the arm that hath no strength?
3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?
4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

6 *Hell is naked before Him, and *destruction hath no covering.
7 He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.
8 He bindeth up the waters in His thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.
9 He holdeth back the face of His throne, and spreadeth His cloud upon it.
10 He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end.

2 *How hast thou helped him that is without power? *How savest thou the arm that hath no strength?
3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?
4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

24 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

26. 13.

13 By His "spirit He hath garnished the heavens; His hand hath formed the crooked serpent.
14 Lo these are parts of His ways: "but how little a portion is heard of Him? but the thunder of His power who can understand?"

27 Moreover Job continued his parable, and said,
2 As GOD liveth, Who hath taken away my judgment; and THE ALMIGHTY, Who hath vexed my soul;
3 All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of GOD is in my nostrils;
4 My lips shall not speak "wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.
5 God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me.
6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.
7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.
8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when he taketh away his soul?
9 Will 2 GOD hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?
10 Will he delight himself in the ALMIGHTY? 2 will he always call upon 2 GOD?
11 I will teach you by the hand of 2 GOD: that which is with 2 ALMIGHTY will I not conceal.
12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?
13 This is the portion of a wicked man with 2 GOD, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of 2 ALMIGHTY.
14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep.

27. 11—28. 28 (J9, p. 669). ZOPHAR'S THIRD ADDRESS. (Intervention and Alternations.)

11 I will teach you. This is Zophar's third and last address. (1) It is required by the Structure on p. 669 to complete the symmetry of the book. (2) The sentiments of 27. 11—28. 28 demand it, for they are the very opposite of Job's and the same as Zophar's in 27. 11; 20. 25. (3) If these are Job's words, then his friends had convinced him, which Elihu declares they had not done (92. 14). (4) The Heb. of 29. 1 does not mean "continued", but "added to take up his discourse", which may mean conclusion as well as continuance. (5) It marks off and instead of replying to Zophar, Job utters his "self-address" (28. 2). (6) Omnibiblical, Benzi and Wolfson assign a third address to Zophar, 3. 12. Behold. Fig. Asterisms.

13 This is the portion, &c. Zophar then takes up the words with which he had concluded his second address (20. 25). man. Heb. t'am. 14 children = sons. 15 buried in death = buried through pestilence. his widows. The widow of each one of them.

13 The heart's so fair His Spirit beautifies, The Serpent [constellation] He hath formed.
14 Lo, these are but the outlines of His ways: A whisper only, that we hear of Him; His wondrous pow'r, who then, can comprehend?

* * * * *

27 Moreover Job did add these words, and say:
2 As GOD doth live Who takes away my right, Even Shaddai, Who hath so embittered me;
3 So long as breath remaineth in [my mouth], And in my nostrils is Eloah's breath,
4 These lips of mine shall not perverseness speak,— My tongue shall never utter what is false.
5 No; never will I grant that you are right, Nor, while I live, my innocence let go;
6 My right I hold; I will not give it up!
7 My heart shall not reproach me all my days,
8 What hope is left the godless man, what gain,
9 Will GOD [indeed] give ear unto his cry
10 He is not one who doth in Shaddai joy!
16 Their issue buried, killed by pestilence,

8 When once Eloah doth his life demand?
9 Will GOD [indeed] give ear unto his cry
When [trouble or distress on him shall come?]
10 He is not one who doth in Shaddai joy!
Or on Eloah calls, at any time!

27. 11—28. 28 (J9, p. 669).

Their widows will not lamentation make.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;
17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.
18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.
19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.
20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.
21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.
22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would faint flee out of his hand.
23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

G n

28 *Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.
2 2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.
3 *Yet setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.
4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant: even the waters forgot of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from "men.
5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.
6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold.

G n

7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:
8 The "lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.
9 He putteth forth his hand upon the "rock: he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

16 Though silver, like the dust, he heapeth up,
And garments, made in number like the sand,
17 Though he prepare, the just will put them on;
His silver will the innocent divide.
18 The house he builds, 'tis frail as is the moth's,
Or as the booth which vineyard watchcr makes.
19 He lies down rich, [his wealth] not gathered in:
He openeth his eyes, and it is gone!
20 Terrors will overtake him as a flood:
A whirlwind in the night will sweep him off.
21 The east wind catcheth him, and he is gone;
Yes, as a storm, it hurlcs him from his place.
22 He who beholds was wont to flee from him,
Will now come down on him, and will not spare.
23 In triumph he will clasp his hands at him;
And hiss him forth from out his dwelling-place.

28 Yes, for the silver there exists a vein;
A place within where gold which they refine.
2 2 From out the earth iron was not,
And copper may be smelted from the ore.
3 To darkness [neath the earth] man sets a bound;
In all directions he explores [neath];
Yes, e'en the ores of earth in darkness [hid].
4 A shaft he sinks, [neath] where the settler d'wells:
And there, forgotten by the well-worn way,
The miners bore, and pass away [from sight].

28. 17.

keeper = watcher: i. e. vineyard watcher.
19 he: it: i. e. his wealth which is cut at interest.
gathered: gathered in, or collected.
he: it: i. e. his wealth is gone. Not he, the rich man, for if he opens his eyes, he "is", not "is not."
2 2 God is wrongly supplied. It means "he who was wont in times past to flee from the rich man will now come down on him".
would faint flee. Heb. a fleeing would flee. Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 8) = would hastily flee.

28. 1 Surely. This is the continuation of Zophar's last address. Not Job's words. Cp. 85. 16; 86. 2.
They are opposed to his own words, and confirm those of his friends. Cp. his second address, 20. 1-29.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks;
and his eye seeth every precious thing.
1 1 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?
13 Man knoweth not the price thereof;
neither is it found in the land of the living.

14 The depth saith, "I? is not in me:" and the sea saith, "It is not with me.
15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
1 6 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it; and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

G n

5 As for the earth, bread cometh forth from it:
Yet underneath it fire is stirred up.
6 Among its stones are glowing sapphires found;
And in its dust are nuggets of pure gold.

7 There is a path no bird of prey hath known;
Nor hath the eagle's eye discovered it.
8 [A path] which no proud beast hath ever trod:
Not e'en the lion ever passed that way.

9 Man lays his hand upon the flinty rock;
The hills he overturneth by their roots.
10 He cutteth water-channels in the rocks:
His eye detecteth every precious thing.

11 The overflowing floods he doth restrain;
The hidden things he bringeth forth to light.

12 But wisdom—where can wisdom be obtained?
And understanding: where is found its place?
13 No mortal man doth know the way thereto;
Among the living it can not be found.

14 Th' abyss exclaims "[Wisdom] is not in me."
And ocean roars—" Nor dwellth it with me."
15 Fine gold cannot be given in its stead,
Neither can silver for its price be weighed.

16 With Ophir's gold it never can be bought;
Nor with the onyx, or the sapphire gem.
17 Crystal and gold cannot compare with it;
Nor vessels of pure gold is its exchange.
28. 18. JOB.

18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.
19 The topaz gem of Cush vies not therewith; And pure gold with it can not be weighed.

20 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding? 21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air. 22 Destruction and death say, We have "heard the fame thereof with our ears." 23 God understandeth the way thereof, and knoweth the place thereof. 24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven; 25 To make the weight for the winds; and He weigheth the waters by measure.

26 When He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder: 27 Then did He see it, and declare it; He prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

28 And unto man He said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding."

29 Moreover Job continued his parable, and said.

2 Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me; 3 When His candle shined upon my head, and when by His light I walked through darkness; 4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle; 5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me; 6 When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil; 7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street!

20 Whence then, this wisdom? [Whence, then, doth it come?] And understanding, where is found its place? 21 So hidden from the eyes of all who live; And from the birds of heaven so close concealed. 22 Death and Destruction [both alike] declare: — "Our dignity of it, it hath reached our ear."

28 Eloah, though, hath understood the way; And He discerns the [secret] place thereof.

24 For He can look to Earth's remotest bounds, And all beneath the heavens He beholds. 25 So that He gives the air its density; And waters meteth out by measurement.

28 And to the sons of Adam thus He saith: — "Lo! Wisdom is to reverence the Lord; And understanding is to flee from sin."

8 The young men saw me, and withdrew themselves; Yea, all the elders would rise up, and stand. 12 That I did save the poor when he cried out: The fatherless, and him who had no helper. 13 My righteousness I put on as my robe: My justice, as my cloak and diadem. 14 I was instead of eyes unto the blind, And to the lame I was instead of feet. 15 A father was I to the needy ones; The cause I did not know I searched out. 16 I loved to break the jaws of evil men, And pluck the prey, still living, from their teeth. 17 I said, 'I shall grow old as doth the palm; Yes, multiplied like sand my days shall be: 18 My root unto the waters shall spread out, And all night long the dew be on my branch, My glory shall remain with me still fresh; My bow, within my hand, renew its strength." 19 To me men hearkened, waited, and gave ear, And at my counsel silence they did keep. 20 When I had spoken, none replied again, So that on them my wisdom still might fall. 21 Yea, they would wait, as men for showers wait, And open wide their mouths as for the rain. 22 That I should mock them they would ne'er believe, Nor would they cause a shadow on my face; 23 I was mine to choose their way, and sit as chief; As king among his subjects so I dwelt; And among mourners as a comforter.

As outcasts they are driven from the land.
9 But, *sow, I have become their mocking-song;
I have become a by-word among me;

And spare not to spit in my face.
11 Since He hath loosed my bow, and humbled me,
They too, before me, cast off all restraint.

They thrust aside my feet; [leave me no room];
Against me they oppose their hostile ways;
13 They mar my path; [my movements they impede];
They seek my hurt, although it helps them not,
14 As [waters] through a breach, they come [on me];
And like a tempest they rush in on me.

15 All now is overthrown: and, like the wind,
Terrors my dignity have scattered far;
And gone, like clouds, is my prosperity.

The days of my affliction hold me fast.

My throbbing nerves [within me] never rest.

31. I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?
2. For what portion of is there from above? and what inheritance of is from on high?
3. Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?
4. Doth not see my ways, and count all my steps?
5. If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hasted to deceit;
6. Let me be weighed in an even balance, that may know mine integrity.
7. If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if my blot cleaved to mine hands;
8. Then let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offsprings be rooted out.
9. If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;
10. Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.
11. For is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.
12. For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.
13. If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me;
14. What then shall I do when GOD riseth up? and when He visiteth, what shall I answer Him?
15. Did not He That made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?
16. If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;
17. Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;
18. (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as a father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb.)
19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering; 20 If his loins have not blessed me, and if be were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep; 21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:

22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone. 23 For destruction from GOD was a terror to me, and by reason of His highness I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, 'Thou art my confidence;'

25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much; 26 If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness; 27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the GOD That is above.

29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him: 30 (Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.) 31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, 'Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.'

32 The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveller. 33 If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom: 34 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?

40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley.\textsuperscript{1} The words of Job are ended.

32 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram; against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and my days are very old;

7 wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew mine opinion.

8 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of God giveth them understanding.

9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched out what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you that answered his words: I will answer his words:

13 Yet ye should say, We have found out wisdom; GOD thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now he hath not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 (They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking).

40 Let thistles grow. This is not an imprecation, but an argument in favour of his integrity: i.e. Had he been as his friends alleged, would he not have had bad instead of bountiful harvests? See translation below.

9 The greatest men are not at all times wise; Nor do the aged [always] rightly judge.

10 Therefore I said, “O hearken unto me; I too will show my knowledge, even I.”

11 Lo! I have listened unto your discourse; To all your reasoning I have given ear, Waiting till ye have searched out what to say.

12 But, though to you I carefully gave heed, There was not one of you who answered Job; Not one who really answered what he said.

13 I pray you, say not “We have wisdom found; ’tis GOD alone Who thrusts him down, not man.”

14 Since not against me hath he arrayed his words, I will not with your words reply.

Q^ R^ a^ (p. 706) 33 Therefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.
4 The Spirit of GOD hath made me, and the breath of THE ALMIGHTY hath given me life.

ELIHU. ADDRESS TO JOB’S FRIENDS. 84. 1-37 (Q3, p. 705).

34 Elihu then addressed [Job’s friends] and said:

2 Hear now my words, ye wise [and clever] men;
And ye who know knowledge, have ear to me.
3 For the ear that [proves and] trieth speech, Even as the palate shows what food is good.
4 Then, let us, what is right, choose for ourselves: Let us decide among us, what is good.

5 Now Job hath said—

i 7 Where is the worthy man [who] like to Job,
Drinks up as water all your scorners words?
8 And keepeth company with those who sin,
And doth associate with wicked men?

9 For he hath said—

“IT PROFETETH NOT MAN
That he should take delight in Elohim.”

10 To this, ye wise men, list to my reply:
Far be such evil from the mighty GOD,
And far from Shaddai such iniquity.
11 For, sure, man’s work He will repay to him,
And will requite according to his ways.
12 Nay, surely, GOD will not do wickedly,
And Shaddai never will pervert the right.
13 Who e’er to Him did delegate the charge
Of earth? or trusted Him with all the world?
14 Should He think only of Himself, [and all]
His breath, the breath of life withdraw; [what then]?
15 All flesh together would [at once] expire,
And man would straight to dust return again.
16 Now, if thou understanding hast, hear this;
Give heed unto the teaching of my words.
17 Can one who hateth justice rule [the world]?
Will thou condemn the Just, the Mighty One?
18 Shall one say to a King—“Thou worthless man”?
Or, unto nobles, “Ye ungodly men?”

9 For he hath said—

“IT PROFETETH NOT MAN
That he should take delight in Elohim.”

10 To this, ye wise men, list to my reply:
Far be such evil from the mighty GOD,
And far from Shaddai such iniquity.
11 For, sure, man’s work He will repay to him,
And will requite according to his ways.

34. 19. JOB.

19 *How much less to Him That accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of His hands. 20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand. 21 For His eyes are upon the ways of man, and He seeth all his goings. 22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves. 23 For He will not lay upon a man more than he can bear; that he should enter into judgment with God. 24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead. 25 Therefore He knoweth their works, and He overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed. 26 He striketh them as with the stroke of others; 27 Because they turned back from Him, and would not consider any of His ways; 28 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto Him, and He heareth the cry of the afflicted. 29 *When He giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when He hideth His face, who then can behold Him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only: 30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared: 31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, *I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more: 32 That which I see not teach; and If I have done iniquity, I will do no more. 33 *Should it be according to thy mind? He will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not three, therefore speak what thou knowest.

19 How much less wilt thou say it then to Him? Who [neither] doth accept the face of kings, Nor doth regard the rich above the poor, For they are all the work of His own hands. 20 They in a moment die, e'en in a night; The people tremble when they pass away: The mighty fall, but by no [human] hand. 21 For on the ways of men His eyes are set, And all their footsteps He doth see [and note]. 22 There is no darkness, and no shade of death, Where workers of iniquity may hide. 23 Man doth not need repeated scrutiny, When he to God for [final] judgment comes. 24 He breaks the strong in ways we cannot trace; And others, in their stead, He setteth up. 25 To this end takes He knowledge of their works; And, in a night He overthroweth them, [In such a way] that they are [all] destroyed. 26 *Sometimes He smites the wicked where they stand, In open sight of all men who behold; 27 Because they turned back from after Him, Nor any of His ways would they regard; 28 But, [by oppression], brought the poor man's cry to Him Who hears the plaint of the oppressed. 29 When He gives quiet, who can e'er disturb? Or who can see Him when He hides His face? (Whether it be a nation or a man, 30 Whether because the godless may not reign, Or those who of the people make a prey.) 31 If Job had [spoken] unto God, [and] said: "I have borne chastisement: and never more 32 Will I transgress; that which I do not see Teach me Thyself: if in the past I wrought Iniquity, I will not work more:" 33 Should He requite on thine own terms, [and say]: "As thou wilt choose [so be it], not as I?" Say therefore, now, O Job, if thou dost know, 34 For men would men of understanding speak; Yes, even wise men man now [will say]: 35 "Job, without knowledge, spoke in ignorance; And void of understanding were his words." 36 Oh would that Job be proved unto the end, For his replies are those of evil men. 37 Rebellion he doth add unto his sin: Defiant in our midst he claps his hands; And, against God he multiplie his words.

ELIHU. SECOND ADDRESS TO JOB. 35. 1-16 (Q1, p. 708). 1 Elihu further spake to Job and said:— 2 Dost thou count this sound judgment? Thou didst say, "My righteousness surpasseth that of God:"
35. 3

1656 3 For thou saidst, “‘What advantage will it be unto thee? ’ and, “What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin?’

m 4 and will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 o Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against Him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto Him?

7 If thou be righteous, what givest thou Him? or what receiveth He of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt; a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

V2 10 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

m 10 But none saith, ‘Where is God that giveth songs in the night; Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?’

12 There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of ‘evil men. ’

13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will THE ALMIGHTY regard it.

V3 14 Although thou sayest thou shalt not see Him, yet judgment is before Him; therefore trust thou in Him.

15 But now, because it is not so, He hath visited in His anger; yet He knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.”

36 Elihu also proceeded, and said,

2 “Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee that I have yet to speak on God’s behalf.

3 Yea—thou dost ask “What is the gain to thee?”

And, “Shall I profit more than by my sin?”

4 I—even I, will make reply to thee,

With thee, to these friends of thine as well.

5 Look up unto the heav’ns; consider them;

Survey the skies, so high above thy head.

6 If thou hast sinned, what doest thou to Him?

Be thy sins many, what dost thou to Him?

7 If thou art just, what dost thou give to Him?

Or from thy hand what giveth He receive?

8 Thy sin may hurt a mortal like thyself;

Thy righteousness may profit one like thee.

V2 9 Men make an outcry when they are oppressed:

They cry for help when ‘neath the tyrant’s pow’r.

m 10 But no one saith, “Where is my Maker, G0D, Who giveth songs to us in sorrow’s night;

And teacheth us beyond the beasts of earth,

And makes us wiser than the fowl of heav’n?”

12 But the true reason why He answereth not,

Although they cry, is—evil doesn’t pride,

13 For vanity God will in no wise hear,

Nor will th’ Almighty hold it in regard.

V3 14 How much less, then, when thou dost say to Him—

“I see Him not: [He doth not hear my cry]”

Yet judgment is before Him: therefore wait.

15 But now, because He hath not punished thee,

[Thou say’st]: “His anger doth not visit sin;

Nor strictly mark wide-spread iniquity.”

16 Thus Job doth fill his mouth with vanity:

And, without knowledge, multiplieth words.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: He That is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold,  GOD is mighty, and despiseth not any: He is mighty in strength and wisdom.

6 He preserves not the life of the wicked:

But giveth right to the poor.

7 He withdraweth not His eyes from the righteous:

But with kings are they on the throne; yea, He doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.
8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be held in cords of affliction;
9 Then He sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.
10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.
11 If they obey and serve Him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in gladness;
12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.
13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath; they cry not when He bindeth them.
14 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.
15 He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.
16 Even so would He have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no strictness; and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.
17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee.
18 Because there is wrath, beware lest He take thee away with His stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.
19 Will He esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.
20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.
21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.
22 Behold, GOD exalteth by His power: who teacheth like Him?
23 Who hath enjoined Him His way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?
24 Remember that thou magnify His work, which men behold.

8 And, if they be in [iron] fetters bound,
Or, [if] they be held fast in sorrow’s bonds,
[It is] that He may show to them their deeds
And their transgressions which have sprung from pride.
10 Thus openeth He their ear, and doth instruct
And warn them from iniquity to turn.
11 Then, if they hearken and obey [His voice],
They in prosperity shall spend their days,
[And end] their years in peace and pleasantness.
12 Should they not heed, they perish by the sword;
And die, not knowing [how it is, or why].
13 But hypocrites in heart will heap up wrath,
[Because] He bindeth them.
14 Wherefore] they die while they are yet in youth,
Their life is spent among polluted ones.
15 Yet He doth save the poor in all his woes,
And openeth their ear in their distress.
16 Thus, in like manner, He would save all,
And from the mouth of trouble draw thee out
Into a pleasant place—no trouble there;
Thy table well prepared with richest food.
17 But [if] with sinners’ pleadings thou be filled,
Judgment and justice shall lay hold on thee.
18 For, there is wrath; [beware, them,] of its stroke;
For, them, a ransom great will not suffice.
19 Nor treasure turn the threatened stroke aside,
Nor precious ore avail, nor all thy strength.
20 Oh, long not for the night [of death], in which [Whole] nations get upheaved from out their place!

21 Take heed! regard not thou iniquity;
For this thou didst prefer to all thy woes.
22 Lo, GOD is exalted in His praise, who can convey instruction like unto Him?
23 Who is it that assigns to Him His way?
Or who can say to Him—"Thou hast done wrong"?
24 Remember that thou shouldst extol His work,
Which men have contemplated, [and have sung]:
25 Yea, all have gazed in wonder thereupon;
And mortal man beholds it from afar.
26 Lo! GOD IS GREAT,—[greater] than we can know;
The number of His years past finding out.
27 'Tis He Who dreweth up the vapour-clouds;
And they distil [from heaven] in rain and mist;
28 E'en that which from the [low'ring] skies doth fall,
And poureth down on man abundantly.
29 Can any man explain the rain-clouds' balancings,
The thunder thunders of His canopy?
30 Behold, He spreadeth out His light thereon,
While making dark the bottom of the sea.
31 [Yet He His] judgment executes by these:
By these He giveth food abundantly.
32 He [graspest] in His hand the lightning flash,
And giveth it commandment where to strike.
33 Of this the noise thereof quick notice gives,
The [frightened] cattle warn of coming storm.

24 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of His tabernacle?
25 Behold, He spreadeth His light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.
26 For by them judgeth He the people;
He giveth meat in abundance.
27 With clouds He covereth the light;
And commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.
28 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour.
37. 1. JOB.

37. 1 At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.
2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound thereof out of his mouth.
3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth.
4 After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.
5 A cloud standeth not still: and the thick clouds thereof are not held together.
6 For he saith to the snow, 1 Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.
7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.
8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.
9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the north.
10 By the 1breath of his wind are given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.
11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: He scattereth his bright cloud:
12 In his hand he3 turneth the mighty waters: by his commandment they obey him:
13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy.
14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of GOD.
15 Doeth thou know when he disposeth them, and causeth the light of his cloud to shine?
16 Doeth thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him Which is perfect in knowledge?
17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

18 Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten glass?
19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.
20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.
21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.
22 Fair weather cometh out of the north:
with terrible majesty.
23 Touching THE ALMIGHTY, we cannot find him out: He is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: He will not afflict.
24 Men do therefore fear him: He respecteth not any that are wise of heart.”

37 [The rumbling thunder makes my heart to quake,
And (startled) it leaps up from out its place.
14 O Job! [I pray thee] hearken unto this:
Stand still and contemplate GOD’S wondrous works.
15 Know’st thou how Eloah gives charge to Him,
And how He makes His light on them to shine?
16 Or doest thou know the thick-clouds’ balancings,
His wondrous works, Whose knowledge hath no bound?
17 How [is it that] thy garments [feel so] warm,
When He makes still the Earth with southern heat?
18 Were thou with Him when He spread out the sky;
And made it like a molten mirror [firm]?
19 Oh, tell me that which we should say to Him:
We know not what to say; so dark we are!
20 Must Be told that I would speak to Him!
And if I speak, can man see Him and live.
21 But now, [though] men see not the light of God,
Yet He is bright in splendour] in the skies:
But when the wind has passed and cleared the clouds,
22 Then from the north there comes a golden light.

Ah! but with GOD there is a majesty
23 Divine. And Shaddai’s paths we cannot find;
So great, so great is He in pow’r; so full
Of righteousness and truth: He will not crush.
24 Therefore can men but stand in awe of Him:
For none can know Him, be they e’er so wise.

38 Then "the LORD" answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
2 "Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?
3 Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou Me.

5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?
6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof;
7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the "sons of God" shouted for joy?

The drops of Dew: who hath begotten them?
29 Who is the womb whence cometh forth the Ice?
And heaven's hoar-frost: who gave it its birth?

To harrow, will he follow after thee?
11 Wilt thou, for all his strength, confide in him? Or leave to him the tillage of thy ground?
12 Canst thou be sure he will bring home thy seed: Or gather corn to fill thy threshing-floor?
13 The Ostrich wing, admired thou 't it be: Is it the pinion of the kindly Stork?
14 Nay: she it is that leaves to earth her eggs, And in the dust she leaveth them to be warmed; Unmindful that the passing foot might crush, Or that the roaming beast might trample them.
16 She dealeth sternly with her young, as if Not hers: and fear not that her till be vain.
17 For God created her devoid of son; Nor gave her in intelligence a share.
18 Yet, when she lifteth up herself for flight, The horse and rider both alike she scorn.
19 The War-horse: didst thou give to him his strength? Or clothe his arching neck with rustling mane?
20 Make him leash lightly, as the locust does: The glory of his snorting fills with dread:
21 He paws the plain, rejoicing in his strength: He rusheth on to meet the armed host:
22 He mocketh at fear, and cannot be dismayed: Nor from the sword will he turn back or flee,
23 Though 'gainst him rain the arrows of the foe, The glitter of the lance, and flash of spear.
24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.
25 He saith among the trumpets, 'Ha, ha,' and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

F 26 Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch 0 her wings toward the south?
27 Doth the eagle mount up by thy command, and make 30 her nest on high?

29 From thence 29 she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.

4 "Behold, 0 I am vile; 0 what shall I answer Thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.
5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, 0 twice; but I will proceed no further."

Y K' 6 Then answered 1 the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
7 "Gird up thy loins now like a 0 man: I will demand of thee, and declare 0 thou unto Me.
8 Wilt thou also disannul My judgment? wilt thou condemn Me, that thou mayest be righteous?
9 Hast thou 0 an arm like 0 God? or canst thou contend with 0 Him? 10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.
11 Cast abroad the 0 rage of thy wrath: and behold every one 0 that is proud, and abase him.
12 Look on every one 0 that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the 0 wicked in their place.
13 Hide them in the dust together; and 0 bind their faces in secret.
14 Then will 3 also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

24 With noise and fury stampeth he the earth:
Nor standeth steady when the trumpet sounds.
And when it soundeth steady, "Aha!"
And from afar the coming battle scents,
The captain's thunder, and the shout of war.

F 26 Is it by thine instruction that the Hawk soars high, and spreads his pinions to the south?
27 Is it 0 thy command the Eagle mounts, and builds his eyrie in the lofty heights?
28 The rock he makes his home; and there he dwells
On crag's sharp tooth, and [lonely] fastnesses:
29 And thence he keenly sprieth out the prey
With his piercing eye beholds it from afar.
30 On his young ones he giveth to feed;
And where the slain are, there is he.

A' 40 Thus spake Jehovah from the storm to Job,
2 "Shall caviller to Shaddai knowledge give? Reprover of Eloah; answer Me!"

JOB'S FIRST REPLY TO JEHOVAH.
3 Then Job confessed, and made reply; and said,
4 "Lo! I am vile! What shall I answer Thee? Rather, I lay my hand upon my mouth.

5 Already have I spoken far too much;
I cannot answer. I will add no more."

JOEVAH'S SECOND ADDRESS.
40. 6—41. (K', above).
6 Again Jehovah said, from out the storm:
7 Now like a strong man, girl thou up thy loins:
'tis I Who ask thee: make thou Me to know.
8 Wilt thou indeed My judgment disannul? And Me condemn, that thou mayest righteous seem?
9 Hast thou an arm, then, like the mighty GOD? Or, canst thou contend with a voice like His?
10 Deck thyself now with glory and with might: Array thyself with majesty and power:
11 Send far and wide thy overflowing wrath: And on each proud one look, and bring him low:
12 Each proud one single out, and humble him; Yea, crush the evil-doers where they stand:
13 Hide them away together in the dust:
And in the deepest dungeon have them bound.
14 THEN, ALSO, I MYSELF WILL OWN TO THEE THAT THY RIGHT HAND TO SAVE THEE WILL SUFFICE.
15 Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

19 4, 5 is the chief of the ways of GOD: He that maketh him may make His sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

24 He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

41 Canst thou draw out leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down?

2 Canst thou put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Will thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?

JEHOVAH'S SECOND APPEAL TO JOB.

10-19 (K², p. 716).

15 Behold Behemoth now, which I have made as well as thee. Grass like the ox he eats.

16 Behold, his massive strength is in his loins: he moveth doth in his belly his muscles lie.

17 Shakes he his tail? 'tis like a cedar tree.

18 The sinews of his thighs are firm entwined.

19 His bones are strong, like unto tubes of brass; His ribs with bars of iron may compare.

20 A masterpiece of all GOD'S ways is he: Only his Maker can bring nigh his sword.

20 The mountains will bring produce forth for him, While all the beasts do, fearless, round him play.

21 Beneath the shady trees he lieth down, and rests in covert of the reed and fen.

22 The shady trees weave o'er him each its shade; While willows of the brook encompass him.

23 Suppose the stream should swell; he will not blench;

For he believes that Jordan he can drink.

24 Shall any take him while he lies on watch?

Or with a hook shall any pierce his nose?

41 Canst thou draw up Leviathan with hook? Or catch, as with [an angle's] line, his tongue?

2 Canst thou insert into his nose a reed? Or canst thou pierce his jaw through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many humble prayers to thee? Or ever say soft things to thee?

4 Will he engage in covenant with thee, That thou shouldst take him for thy lifelong slave?

10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up:

who then is able to stand before Me?

11 Who hath prevented Me, that I should repay him? whalssoever is under the whole heaven is Mine.

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

15 His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

14 The doors which close his mouth: who opens them? His teeth's surroundings are a scare to see.

15 The scales which form his armour are his pride: Each one shut up and closed as with a seal,

16 So near one to another do they lie That air between them cannot find a way:

17 So close unto each other do they cleave, And cling so fast, that none can sunder them.
41. 18. JOB.

18 By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.
20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.
21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.
22 In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.
23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves: they cannot be moved.
24 His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.
25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of 'breakings they purify themselves.
26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.
27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.
28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.
29 'Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.
30 Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.
31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.
32 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.
33 Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear.
34 He beholdeth all high things: ye is a king over all the children of pride.

42. Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

2 "I know that Thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from Thee.
3 "Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 "Hear, I beseech Thee, and 3 will speak: "I will demand of thee, and declare thunto me.

JOBS SECOND REPLY TO JEHOWAH.

42. 1-6 (Z, p. 713).

1 Then answered Job, and to Jehovah said -
2 "I know, I know, that Thou canst do all things:
No purposes of Thine can be withheld.
3 [Thou askedst (38. 3; 40. 2)] —
"Who is this that counsel hides,
And darkens all, because of knowledge void?
'tis I! I uttered things I could not know:
Things far too wonderful, beyond my ken.
4 Hear now, I pray thee: let me speak this once.
[Thou saidst (40. 2)] —
5 I heard of Thee by hearing of the ear,
But now mine eye hath seen Thee, I abhor
6 [Myself]. In dust and ashes I repent."
42. 7.  JOB.  42. 17.

("My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends:

for ye have not spoken of Me the thing that is right, as My servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and My servant Job shall pray for you:

for him I will accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of Me the thing which is right, like My servant Job."

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the Lord commanded them:

M 10 the Lord also accepted Job.

B P 10 And the Lord turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before.

Q 11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

P 12 So the Lord blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning; for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

Q 13 He had also seven sons and three daughters.

A R 14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

S 16 After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, not spoken of Me the thing that is right. We have therefore, an inspired record of what they said; but all they said was not inspired, and cannot be quoted as the Word of Jehovah.

THE PSALMS.

THE STRUCTURE OF THE BOOK AS A WHOLE.

1—150. THE FIVE BOOKS.

I. 1—41. THE GENESIS BOOK. CONCERNING MAN. The counsels of God concerning him. All blessing bound up in obedience (cp. 1. 1 with Gen. 1. 28). Obedience is man’s “tree of life” (cp. 1. 8 with Gen. 2. 16). Disobedience brought ruin (cp. Ps. 2 with Gen. 3). The ruin repaired only by the Son of Man in His atoning work as the seed of the woman (cp. Ps. 8 with Gen. 3. 15). The book concludes with a Benediction and double Amen.

II. 42—72. THE EXODUS BOOK. CONCERNING ISRAEL AS A NATION. The counsels of God concerning Israel’s Ruin, Israel’s Redeemer, and Israel’s Redemption (Ex. 15. 13). Cp. Ps. 68. 1 with Ex. 15. 3, “JAH”. It begins with Israel’s cry for deliverance, and ends with Israel’s king reigning over the redeemed nation. The book concludes with a Benediction and a double Amen.

III. 73—89. THE LEVITICUS BOOK. CONCERNING THE SANCTUARY. The counsels of God concerning the Sanctuary in its relation to man, and the Sanctuary in relation to Jehovah. The Sanctuary, Congregation, Assembly, or Zion, &c., referred to in nearly every Psalm. The book concludes with a Benediction and a double Amen.

IV. 90—106. THE NUMBERS BOOK. CONCERNING ISRAEL AND THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH. The counsels of God concerning the Earth, showing that there is no hope or rest for the Earth apart from Jehovah. Its figures and similes are from this world as a wilderness (cp. the references to mountains, hills, floods, grass, trees, pestilence, &c.). It begins with the prayer of Moses (the Man of the Wilderness), Ps. 90, and closes with a rehearsal of Israel’s rebellions in the wilderness (Ps. 106). Note “the New Song” for “all the earth” in Ps. 96. 11, where the theme is contained in one sentence which gives an Acrostic, spelling the word “Jehovah”: “Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad” (see note on 96. 11). The book concludes with a Benediction and Amen, Hallelujah.

V. 107—150. THE DEUTERONOMY BOOK. CONCERNING GOD AND HIS WORD. The counsels of God concerning His Word, showing that all blessings for Man (Book I), all blessings for Israel (Book II), all blessings for the Earth and the Nations (Book IV), are bound up with living on the words of God (Deut. 8. 3). Disobedience to Jehovah’s words was the source of Man’s sorrows, Israel’s dispersion, the Sanctuary’s ruin, and Earth’s miseries. Blessing is to come from that Word written on the heart (cp. Ex. 31. 18; Deut. 10. 16, 17). Ps. 119 is in this book. The Living Word (John 1. 1) began His ministry by quoting Deut. 6. 13, 16; 8. 3; 19, 20 in Matt. 4. 4, 7, 10. The book begins with Ps. 107, and in v. 20 we read, “He sent His Word and healed them”, and it concludes with five Psalms (one for each of the five books), each Psalm beginning and ending with “Hallelujah”.

* Manuscript and Massoretic authorities, the Talmud (Kidushin 33a) as well as the ancient versions, divide the Psalms into five books. The Midrash on Ps. 1. 1 says: “Moses gave to the Israelites the five books of the Law; and corresponding with these David gave them the five books of the Psalms.”

Many attempts have been made from ancient times to discover the reason for the classification of the Psalms under these five books; but none of them is so satisfactory as to preclude this further attempt. It is certain that the present order in which we have the Psalms is the same as it was when they were in the hands of our Lord, and were quoted repeatedly by Him, and by the Holy Spirit through the Evangelists and Apostles. Indeed, in Acts 15. 25, the Holy Spirit by Paul expressly mentions “the second Psalm”. This puts us upon sure ground.

There must be a reason therefore why “the second Psalm” is not (for example) the seventeenth: and why the nineteenth (which is the most ancient of all the Psalms, being a prayer of Moses) is not the first.

The similar endings to each book are noted above. There are in all seven “Amen’s”, and twenty-four Hallelujahs. All the latter (except the four in Book IV) are in Book V.

NOTES ON THE STRUCTURE, PAGE 721.

* In the first Book of the Psalms the leading thought corresponds with that of the first Book of the Pentateuch. The counsels of God are shown from the beginning to the end in relation to Man.

As Genesis begins with the Divine blessing on Man (1. 28), so Psalm 1 opens with "Blessed is the man". All blessedness for man is shown to consist in subjection to, and occupation with, God's Law. It is the Tree of Life to him; and, meditating on this, he becomes like a well-watered tree in the Paradise of God.

But, in Gen. 3, Man rebelled against that Law; and Ps. 2 describes the consequences of that rebellion; while Ps. 3 takes its title from one who rebelled against God's King. The ruin can be repaired only by "THE MAN CHRIST Jesus" (the Seed of the woman, Gen. 3. 15); and in the Psalms of this first Book (the third section) we see Him in His atoning work, which alone sets man again in the blessedness which he had lost.

The first Book consists of forty-one Psalms. The central Psalm is 21, which sets forth the eternal life and blessedness of God's King. All that have titles (37) are David's—the man of God's choice.

Of the Divine Titles, Jehovah occurs 279 times, and Elohim only 48 times, 9 of which are joined with Jehovah. (See Ap. 4.) Note also the references to the events, &c., of Genesis in this first Book. (See Ap. 63. V.)

† Pss. 1 and 2 are linked together by having no Titles; and by Ps. 1 opening, and Ps. 2 closing with "Blessed".

The first or Genesis book is divided into three sections, which (on p. 721) are stated thus:—
1. The First (Pss. 1-8) concerning "MAN".
2. The Second (Pss. 9-15) concerning "THE MAN OF THE EARTH" (the Antichrist).
3. The Third (Pss. 16-41) concerning "THE MAN CHRIST JESUS" (the Messiah).

‡ Pss. 9 and 10 are linked together by having an irregular alphabet running acrostically through the two. The alphabet is broken and irregular, like the "times of trouble", "the great tribulation", of which they speak.

‖ Ps. 16 is the first Michtam Psalm. The others are Pss. 56-60. See Ap. 65. xii.

§ Ps. 32 is the first Maschil Psalm, denoting instruction.

Title. Shiggalion = a loud cry in danger or joy, from sh'dag, always rendered "roar". Occurs twenty-one times. Both meanings are seen in this Psalm, and Hab. 3:1 (pl. "set to" = concerning), the only two occurrences. See Ap. 66, XX. words = matters, or business. Cush. Who it was is not known: an evidence of genuineness.

Benjamite. Hence probably an adherent or servant of Saul, and therefore long before Shimeai and Absalom.

13 ordaineth = will ordain.

16 pate = head; especially the smooth skull. Put by Fig. Synedrocho (of Part), Ap. 6, for the whole person, for emphasis. From "plate" = the smooth top of the head (Skeat).

To the chief Musician. See Ap. 64, upon Gittith = relating to the Feast of Tabernacles (for which it was suited), because it commemorated safe dwelling after deliverance. See Ap. 65.

Title. A Psalm. See Ap. 66, xvii.

4 The LORD is in His holy temple,
The LORD'S throne is in heaven:

children of men.
5 The LORD trieth
But the wicked and him that loveth violence
6 Upon the wicked He shall rain snares,
Fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

For pure Praise is to the LORD:
His countenance doth behold the upright:
To the chief Musician upon Sheminith.

1 Help, O LORD; for the godly man ceaseth;
For the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity one with his neighbour:
With flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.

2 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy,
Now will I arise, saith the LORD;
I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

3 The words of the LORD are pure words:
As silver tried in a furnace of earth,
Purified seven times.

4 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD:
Thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

5 The wicked walk on every side,
When the vilest men are exalted.
To the chief Musician.

1 How long wilt Thou forget me, O LORD?
How long wilt Thou hide Thy face from me?

2 How long shall I take counsel in mine soul,
Having sorrow in my heart daily:
How long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God:
Lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;
Lest mine enemy say, “I have prevailed against him;”
And those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

A Psalm of David.

Lx 14 (p. 732)

1 *The fool hath said in his heart, "There is *no God."
Their corrupt, they have done abominable works,
*There is none that *doeth good.

2 *The LORD *looked down from heaven upon the *children of *men,
To see if there were any that did understand,
And seek God.

3 They are *all gone aside, they are all together become *filthy:
*There is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have all the workers of *iniquity no knowledge?
Who *eat up My People as they eat bread, And call not upon the LORD.

5 There were they in great fear:
For *God is in the generation of the *righteous.

6 Ye have shamed the counsel of the *poor,
Because the *LORD is his refuge.

7 *Oh that the salvation of *Israel were come out of Zion!
When the *LORD bringeth back the captivity of His people,
*Jacob shall rejoice, and *Israel shall be glad.

15 *A Psalm of David.

H T 15 (p. 732)

1 *LORD, who shall abide in Thy *tabernacle?
Who shall *dwell in Thy *holy hill?

2 He that *walketh *uprightly, and *worketh righteousness,
And *speaketh the *truth in his heart.

3 *He that backbiteth not with his tongue, Nor doeth *evil to his *neighbour,
Nor *taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

Michtam of David.

1 Preserve me, O GOD: for in Thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, "Thou art my LORD; My goodness extendeth not to Thee; But to the saints that are in the earth, And to the excellent, in whom is all my delight."

3 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: Their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, Nor take up their names into my lips.

4 The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: The redbreast maintaineth my soul.

5 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; Yea, I have a goodly heritage.

6 I will bless the LORD, Who hath given me counsel: My reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

7 I have set the LORD always before me: Because He is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

8 Therefore my heart is glad, and my song rejoiceth: My flesh also shall rest in hope.

9 For Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; Neither wilt Thou suffer Thine Holy One to see corruption.

10 Thou wilt show me the path of life: In Thy presence is fulness of joy; At Thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

A Prayer of David.

1 Hear the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, Give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of my feigned lips.

1 I will love Thee, O GOD, my strength.
2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;
3 The LORD is the rock of my strength;
4 Sing praises to the LORD; for He is good; sing psalms to the remembrance of His righteousness.
5 For He is a rock for His people, and the山寨for His anointed one.
6 The LORD is known by name; his face sheweth faithfulness and righteousness.
3 I will call upon thee, LORD, Who is worthy to be praised.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled:
The foundations also of the hills moved
And were shaken, because He was wroth.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down:
And darkness was under His feet.

14 Yea, He sent out His arrows, and scattered them;
And He shot out lightnings, and disfitted them.

16 He sent from above, He took me,
He drew me out of many waters.

My GOD, my strength, in Whom I will trust:
My buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

The sorrows of death compassed me about:
The snares of death prevented me.

In my distress I called upon the LORD, And cried unto my God:
He heard my voice out of His temple, And my cry came before Him, even into His ears.

And fire out of His mouth devoured:
Coals were kindled by it.

Then the earth shook and trembled:
The foundations also of the hills moved
And were shaken, because He was wroth.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down:
And darkness was under His feet.

And He rode upon a cherub, and did fly:
Yea, He did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness His secret place;
His pavilion round about Him
Were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 He bowed the heavens also, and came down:
And darkness was under His feet.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens,
And the highest gave His voice;
Hallstones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, He sent out His arrows, and scattered them;
And He shot out lightnings, and disfitted them.

15 Then the channels of waters were seen,
And the foundations of the world were discovered
At Thy rebuke, O LORD,
At the blast of the breath of Thy nostrils.

16 He sent from above, He took me,
He drew me out of many waters.

18. 17.  PSALMS.  18. 44.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, And from them which hated me:
For they were too strong for me.
18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity:
But the Lord was my stay.
19 He brought me forth also into a large place;
He delivered me, because He delighted in me.

20 The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands hath He recompensed me.
21 For I have kept the ways of the Lord, And have not wickedly departed from my God.
22 For all His judgments were before me, And I did not put away His statutes from me.
23 I was also upright before Him, And I kept myself from mine iniquity.
24 Therefore hath the Lord recompensed me according to my righteousness, According to the cleanness of my hands in His eyesight.

25 With the merciful Thou wilt shew Thyself merciful;
With an upright man Thou wilt shew Thyself upright;
With the pure Thou wilt shew Thyself pure; and with the froward Thou wilt shew Thyself froward.
26 For Thou wilt save the afflicted people; But wilt bring down high looks.
27 For Thou wilt light my candle:
The Lord my God will enlighten my darkness.
28 For by Thee I have run through a troop; And by my God have I leaped over a wall.
29 As for God, His way is perfect:
The word of the Lord is tried:
He is a buckler to all those that trust in Him.
30 For who is God that girdeth me with strength, And maketh my way perfect.
31 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, And setteth me upon my high places.
32 He teacheth my hands to war, So that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.
33 Thou hast also given me the shield of Thy salvation; And Thy right hand hath held me up, And Thy gentleness hath made me great.
34 Thou hast enlarged the steps under me, That my feet did not slip.
35 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtook them:
Neither did I turn again till they were consumed.
36 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise:
They are fallen under my feet.
37 For Thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle:

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind:
I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.
43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the People;
And Thou hast made me the head of the heathen:
A People whom I have not known shall serve me.

3 There is no 5 speech nor 5 language,
    5 Where their 5 voice is not heard.

4 Their 5 line is gone out through all the 5 earth,
    And their 5 words to the end of the 5 world.

In them hath He set a 5 tabernacle for the sun.

5 Which is 5 as a bridegroom coming out of his 5 chamber,
    And rejoiceth as a 5 strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven,
    And his circuit unto the ends of it:
    And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The 5 law of the Lord is 5 perfect, 5 converting the soul;
    The 5 testimony of the Lord is 5 sure,
    Making wise the simple.

8 The 5 statutes of the Lord are 5 right, rejoycing the heart:
    The commandment of the Lord is pure,
    Enlightening the eyes.

45 be afraid = some trembling.
46 man. 5 Heb. 5 teh. Ap. 14. II.
49 Therefore, &c. Quoted in Rom. 15. 9.
50 Anointed = Messiah. Looking beyond David, to David's Son and David's Lord.

To the chief Musician. See Ap. 64. The changes from 2 Sam. 22 were made when David handed the Psalm over for general use in public worship.

19 [G, p. 731]. ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF CHRIST'S GLORY IN CREATION, AND REVELATION.

1 The heavens. The word written there: (eight lines).
1. J | - 4-6. In them (bomem) the sun (six lines).
2. G | H 7-10. The Scriptures. The word written therein (eight lines).

The position of this Psalm in the Structure (p. 731) shows that it corresponds with “S”, Ps. 29, with its two answering parts, the “Glory” and the “Voice” of Jehovah.

The verbs in the first part (1-4) are literary, and in the second part astronomical, thus interlacing and uniting the two parts in one whole.

Title. A Psalm of David. One Psalm: one whole, not two odd scraps strung together by some late "re-"dactor". See Ap. 65. XVII.

1-9 (G, above). THE HEAVENS.

Introversion.

1 The heavens. a] 1. The heavens.
2 b] 2. Their testimony. Incassent. (Poss.)
3 c] 3. Their words. Inaudible. (Neg.)
4 b] 4-6. Their testimony. Universal. (Poss.)

5 The heavens.

2 Day unto day = Day after day.

uttereth = constantly poureth forth. Heb. mæba', to tell forth, or prophesy.

speech = speaking. See note on 18. 30.

uttereth = speaking.

knowledge = intelligence, information.

3 language = words.

Where. Omit this word. There is no Ellen (Ap. 6).

voice = sound: i.e. "their voice is not heard".

4 Their, &c. Quoted in Rom. 10. 18.

line = inheritance. Heb. measuring, or allotting line.

Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause, Ap. 6, for inheritance).

Sept., Syr., and Vulg. read "voice". So Rom. 10. 18, thus connecting the written word. See note on 17. 6.

earth. ἤρες = the earth (as created.)

5 world. Heb. ἑβέλ = the world (as inhabited.)

45 law = words.

7 law. Note the synthetic parallelism of the second half of this Psalm, which compares the written words in the Scripture with the written words in the heavens, and preserved in the names of the signs of the Zodiac and the constellations. See Ap. 12. Note in vv. 7-9 the six titles of the Word, its six attributes, and its six effects (see Ap. 10).

The Covenant God in contrast with El (v. 1) the Creator. Occurs seven times in this latter half of the Psalm.

perfect = returning. As the sun returns in the heavens, so here the same word is used of the sinner's conversion (or returning). Note that all the verbs in this second half are astronomical, as those in the first half are literary. See note above.

testimony = witness. Cp. 89. 37, 38.

sure = faithful and enduring; as the sun is "the faithful witness in the heavens" (89. 37).

8 statutes = precepts. Heb pîkâdîm.

Found only in the Psalms, and in the PL.

right = righteous: i.e. equitable and just.

enlightening = giving light, as the sun (Gen. 1. 15, 17, 18. Isa. 60. 19).
10. 9. PSALMS.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever:
The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
10 More to be desired are they gold, yea, than much fine gold:
Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
11 Moreover by them is Thy servant warned:
And in keeping of them there is great reward.
12 Who can understand his errors?
Cleanse Thou me from secret faults.
13 Keep back Thy servant also from presumptuous sins;
Let them not have dominion over me:
then shall I be upright,
And I shall be innocent from the great transgression.
14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight.
O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

He asked a life of Thee, and Thou gavest it him.

Even length of days for ever and ever.

His glory is great in Thy salvation: Honour and majesty hast Thou laid upon him.

Thou hast made him most blessed for ever:

Thou hast made him exceeding glad with Thy countenance.

Thine hand shall find out all Thine enemies:

Right hand shall find out those that hate Thee.

Thou shalt make them as fiery oven in the time of Thine anger:

The Lord shall swallow them up in His wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

Their fruit shalt Thou destroy from the earth, and their seed among the children of men.

For they intended evil against Thee:

They imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

Therefore shalt Thou make them turn their back, when Thou shalt make ready Thine arrows upon Thy strings against the face of them.

Be Thou exalted, O Lord, in Thine own strength:

So will we sing and praise Thy power.

I will declare Thy Name unto my brethren:
In the midst of the congregation will I praise Thee.

Ye fear the LORD, praise Him;
All ye the seed of Jacob, glorify Him;
And fear Him, all ye the seed of Israel.

For He hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;
Neither hath He hid His face from them;
But when He cried unto Him, He heard.

My praise shall be of Thee in the great congregation:
I will pay my vows before them that fear Him.

The meek shall eat and be satisfied:
They shall praise the LORD that seek Him:
Your heart shall live for ever.

All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD:
And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before Thee.

For the kingdom is the LORD'S:
And He is the Governor among the nations.

All that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship:
All that go down to the dust shall bow before Him:
And none can keep alive his own soul.

It shall be accounted to the LORD* for a generation.

They shall come, and shall declare His righteousness unto a People that shall be born,
That He hath done this.

Title. A Psalm. See Ap. 65. XVII.

The right to the earth. Of David = concerning David and the true David. Relates to the entrance of the Ark into Zion (see Ap. 68), typifying the coming glory of Heb. 1. 16. C. 2. Sam. 6. 2, 1 Chron. 15. 25, Ps. 88 relates to the setting out of the procession. Ps. 24 to the entrance up to Zion. Ps. 57 to the joy of the entrance with dancings and shoutings. Ps. 110, for subsequent celebrations of the event.

1 The earth. Heb. 'erez, the earth (see created), the Lord's. Heb. Jehovah's. Ap. 4. 11. The emphasis is on Jehovah = Jehovah's is the earth. The fullness = all that fills it. Quoted in 1 Cor. 10. 22.

world. Heb. tebel, the world (as inhabited).

2 Founded, &c. C. 2. Pet. 3. 5, Ps. 136. 8, Gen. 1. 1.

3 The hill = the mountain of Zion, south of Moriah.

Seven times so called: here, and Gen. 22. 14, Num. 10. 33, Isa. 2. 2; 80. 26. Mic. 4. 2, Zech. 8. 3. See Ap. 68. Or. The A. V. '16. 21; read 'And'. Changed in 1769 to 'Or'.

4. 5. Change. rose up. Cp. 1. 1. to holy. See note on Ex. 3. 2.

6. 7. This = such. i.e. not a 'new chart' (sa. 6. 3), but the Kohathites. See Num. 7. 9; 4. 2, 16. Deut. 10. 8; 31. 2, &c; and cp. 2. Sam. 6. 12, 1. Chron. 15. 2.

The second Acrostic Psalm (see Ap. 65. VII). The omission of K (Koph) makes twenty-one letters (7 x 3) instead of twenty-two, and marks off one verse (v. 11) as central, which is the first confession of sin in the Psalms; thus linking on Repentance to Suffering and Resurrection (Ps. 16. 22), as in Luke 24. 44-47. The double = (Alef) in vs. 2 connects the looking up of the worshipper with the double (R = Rosh) of vs. 18, 19, which speaks of the looking down of Jehovah. These two are linked on to Ps. 25 by the Selah of 24. 10 and 24. 4. See note on Selah (24. 10). Title, of David by David, or pertaining to the true Shepherd. Verses i and 2 are connected with vs. 18, 19, as linking David's looking up with Jehovah's looking down.

27. 10. PSALMS.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, Then the LORD will take me up.
11 Teach me Thy way, O LORD, And lead me in a plain path, Because of mine enemies.
12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies:
For false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.
13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD
In the land of the living.
14 Wait on the LORD:
Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart:
Wait, I say, on the LORD.

28 A Psalm of David.

1 Unto thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me:
Lest, if Thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.
2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto Thee, When I lift up my hands toward Thy holy oracle.
3 Draw me not away with the wicked, And with the workers of iniquity, Which speak peace to their neighbours, But mischief is in their hearts.
4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours:
Give them after their work of their hands; Render to them their desert.
Because they regard not the works of the LORD, Nor the operation of His hands, He shall destroy them, and not build them up.
6 Blessed be the LORD, Because He hath heard the voice of my supplications.
7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; My heart trusted in Him, and I am helped:
Therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; And with my song will I praise Him.
8 The LORD is my strength, And He is the saving strength of His anointed.
9 Save Thy People, and bless Thine inheritance: Feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

29 A Psalm of David.

1 Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty, Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
2 Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness, times in 01 and fourteen times in 02. See note on 28. 1.
10 take me up = receive and protect me with His saints.
11 Teach = Point out, or Direct. enemies = those that observe me.
13 If I had fainted, unless. The Hebrew word has the extraordinary points (see Ap. 81) in the MSS, to show that the Massorites regarded it as not having been in the primitive text. Its presence accounts for the insertion (in italics) in the A.V. and R.V. They are not found in some codices, the Sept., Syr., or Vulg. The verse should read: "I have believed that I shall see the goodness", &c.
In the land of the living. See note on Isa. 38. 11.

(Division.)

S 01 (P. 745)

1 Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty, Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto His name:
Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness,
3 The voice of the Lord is upon the waters;
The voice of the Lord is powerful;
The voice of the Lord is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedars;
Yea, the Lord breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf;
Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness;
The Lord shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to calve,
And discovereth the forests:

10 The Lord sitteth upon the flood;
Yea, the Lord sitteth King for ever.

11 The Lord will give strength unto His people;
The Lord will bless His people with peace.

A Psalm and Song at the dedication of the house of David.

1 I will extol Thee, O Lord; for Thou hast lifted me up,
And hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O Lord my God, I cried unto Thee,
And Thou hast healed me.

3 O Lord, Thou hast brought up my soul from the grave;
Thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

4 Sing unto the Lord, O ye saints of His,
And give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness.

5 For His anger endureth but a moment;
In His favour is life;
Weeping may endure for a night,
But joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperity I said,
"I shall never be moved."
7 O Lord, by Thy favour Thou hast made my mountain to stand strong;
Thou didst hide Thy face, and I was troubled.

when I go down to \textit{the pit}?
10 Hear, O \textit{LORD}, and have mercy upon me:
\textit{LORD,} be Thou my helper.
11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing:
Thou hast put off my \textit{sackcloth},
and girded me with gladness.
12 To the end that \textit{my} glory may sing praise unto \textit{Thee}, and not be silent.

O \textit{LORD} my \textit{God}, I will give thanks unto \textit{Thee} for ever.
\textit{To the chief Musician.}

\textit{A Psalm} of \textit{David.}

1 In \textit{Thee}, O \textit{LORD}, do I put my trust;
let me never be ashamed:
Deliver me in \textit{thy} righteousness.

2 Bow down \textit{Thine} \textit{ear} to me;
\textit{deliver} me speedily:
Be \textit{Thou} my strong \textit{rock},
for an house of defense to save me.

3 For \textit{Thou} \textit{art} my \textit{rock} and my fortress;
Therefore for \textit{Thy} name's sake \textit{lead} me,
and \textit{guide} me.

4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me:
For \textit{Thou} \textit{art} my strength.

5 \textit{Into Thine} \textit{hand} \textit{I commit my} \textit{spirit}:
\textit{Thou} hast \textit{redeemed} \textit{me}, O \textit{LORD} \textit{GOD} of \textit{truth}.

6 I have hated them that regard \textit{lying vanities};
But \textit{3} trust in \textit{the LORD}.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in \textit{thy} \textit{mercy}:
For \textit{Thou} \textit{hast} considered our \textit{troubles};
\textit{Thou} knowest \textit{our} \textit{soul} in \textit{iniquities};
And hast not shut me up into the \textit{hand} of the \textit{enemy}:
\textit{Thou} hast set my \textit{feet} in a \textit{large} \textit{room}.

9 \textit{Have} mercy upon me, O \textit{LORD}, for I am in \textit{trouble}:
Mine \textit{eye} is consumed with \textit{grief}, yea, \textit{my} 10 For my \textit{life} is spent with \textit{grief}, and my \textit{years} with sighing:

My \textit{strength} faileth
Because of mine \textit{iniquity}, and my \textit{bones}

11 I was a \textit{reproach} among all \textit{mine} enemies,
But especially among \textit{my} \textit{neighbours},
and a \textit{fear} to mine \textit{ancestors}:
They that did see me without \textit{fled} from me.
12 I am forgotten as a dead \textit{man} out of mind:
I am like a \textit{broken} \textit{vessel}.
13 For I have heard the \textit{slander} of \textit{many}:
\textit{Fear} was on every \textit{side}:
While they took counsel together against me,
They devised to take away my \textit{life}.

But \textit{3} \textit{trusted} in \textit{Thee}, O \textit{LORD}:
I said, "\textit{Thou} \textit{art} my \textit{God}.

Deliver me from the hand of mine enemies,

16 Make Thy face to shine upon Thy servant:
Save me for Thy mercies' sake.

17 Let me not be ashamed, O
LORD; for I have called upon Thee:
Let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.

18 Let the lying lips be put to silence;
Which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 Oh how great is Thy goodness, which Thou hast laid up for them that fear Thee;
Which Thou hast wrought for them that trust in Thee before the sons of men!

20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of Thy presence from the pride of man:
Thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD:
For He hath shewed me His marvellous kindness in a strong city.

22 For I said in my haste, "I am cut off from before Thine eyes:"

Nevertheless Thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto Thee.

23 O love the LORD, all ye His saints:
For the LORD preserveth the faithful,
And plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

24 Be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart,
All ye that in the LORD.

Surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him. 7 Thou art my hiding place; Thou shalt preserve me from trouble; Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with Mine eye. 9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: Whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee. 10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: But he that trusteth in the Lord, and rejoiceth, ye righteous:

And shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart. 33 (T.) PSALMS. 33 (p. 721). HIS PEOPLE'S NEW SONG IN VIEW OF PSALM 20. (Division.)

Ap. 4, II. 2. A new song. First occurrence of seven new songs in the O.T. (six in the Psalms: 33, 3; 40, 9; 86, 1; 98, 1; 113, 7; 114, 9; 156, 1; and in Isa. 22, 10). V. 0 g k

1 Plead my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me:
2 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit;
3 Say unto my soul, "Thy salvation."
4 Let them be confounded, and put to shame that seek after my soul:
5 Let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.
6 Let them be as chaff before the wind:
7 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit,
8 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me:
9 And let his net that he hath hid catch himself:
10 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD;
11 All my bones shall say, "Yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?"
12 They rewarded me evil for good:
13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth:
14 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother:

18 (P) The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; And saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.
19 (P) Many are the afflictions of the righteous: But the LORD delivereth out of them all.
20 (P) He keepeth all his bones: Not one of them is broken.
21 (P) Evil shall not slay the wicked:
22 (P) The LORD redeemeth the soul of His servants: And none of them that trust in Him shall be cast desolate.

7 without cause.

10 All my bones — all the members of my body.

12 They rewarded me evil for good:

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth:

14 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother:
35. 15.

I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together:
Yea, the objects gathered together against me, and I knew it not; They did tear me, and ceased not:

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, They gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 LORD, how long wilt Thou look on? Rescue my soul from their destructions, My darling from the lions.

I will give Thee thanks in the great congregation:
I will praise Thee among much People.

19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me:
Neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

For they speak not peace: But they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.

Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, And said, "Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it."

This Thou hast seen, O LORD: keep not silence:
O LORD, be not far from me.

23 Stir up Thyself, and awake to my judgment, Even unto my cause, O my God and my LORD.

24 Judge me, O LORD my God, according to Thy righteousness:
And let them not rejoice over me.

Let them not say in their hearts, "Ah, so would we have it:" Let them not say, "We have swallowed him up."

Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at mine hurt: Let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify themselves against me.

Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause: Yea, let them say continually, "Let the LORD be magnified, Which hath pleasure in the prosperity of His servant."

28 And my tongue shall speak of Thy righteousness And of Thy praise all the day long. To the chief Musician.

35. 36.

A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

1 The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, That there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, Until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit:
He hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 He deviseth mischief upon his bed; He setteth himself in a way that is not good; He abhorreth not evil.

5 Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; And Thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

18 adversity = halting or falling. Cp. 58, 17. Jer. 20, 10. objects = outcasts.

it. Supply Ellipsis (Ap. 6), by reading "[them]."

19 tear me. Heb. kar’i (with Ayin =’). Spelt with Aleph (kar’i); it means "cry out." See note on Isa. 11, 4.

20 without a cause. Note the same Greek word there (dovvan) as in Rom. 8, 24, rendered "freely", but meaning "without a cause." Cp. 1, 7, and 89, 4; 109, 3.

23 deceitful matters. Heb. "words of frauds",

V. | S | 1-4. The wicked. Their misdeeds.
S | 11, 12. The wicked. Their end.

Title. of David =by David. The servant of the LORD. In the Heb. text these two words are reversed, and the title stands thus: "Relating to Jehovah’s servant, by David." This is exactly what it is. His prayer and praise in view of Ps. 22 (see p. 721, and Isa. 42, 1, &c.), in death and resurrection. Ps. 18 is the only other Psalm so entitled.

within my heart = within me; "my heart" being put by Fig. Synecdoche (of the Part), Ap. 6, for the whole person; i.e. assureth or convinceth me that, &c. Not seeing the Fig., or the force of the Heb. na’az, many follow the hypothesis of the Sept., Syr., and Vulg., and read "his heart."

there is, &c. Quoted in Rom. 8, 18.

God. Heb. Elohim. Ap. 4, I. His relation, as Creator, to His creatures. This word one knows not Jehovah; and fears not Elohim.

his eyes. Answering to "his heart" in preceding clause.

5-9 [For Structure see next page].

5 mercy = lovingkindness, or grace (as in v. 7). LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4, II.
6 Thy righteousness is like the great mountains;
   Thy judgments are a great deep:
O LORD, Thou preservest man and beast.

7 How excellent is Thy lovingkindness, O God!
Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Thy wings.

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of Thy house;
And Thou shalt make them drink of the river of Thy pleasures.

9 For with Thee is the fountain of life:
   In Thy light shall we see life.

10 O continue Thy lovingkindness unto them that know Thee;
And Thy righteousness unto the upright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me,
And let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen:
   They are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

37

A Psalm of David.

1 (6) Fret not thyself because of evildoers,
Neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
   And wither as the green herb.

3 (2) Trust in the LORD, and do good;
   So shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thyself also in the LORD;
   And He shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 (2) Commit thy way unto the LORD;
   Trust also in Him; and He shall bring it to pass.

6 And He shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light,
   And thy judgment as the noonday.

7 (1) Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him:
Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way,
   Because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 (7) Cease from anger, and forsake wrath:
Fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 For evildoers shall be cut off;
   But those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be;
Yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth;
   And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

V. 12 (7) The wicked ploteth against the just,
   And gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

When the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 (Q) I have seen the wicked in great power,
And spreading himself like a green bay tree.

36 Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not:
Yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 (Q) Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright:
For the end of that man is peace.

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together:
The end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 (Q) But the salvation of the righteous is of the Lord:
He is their strength in the time of trouble.
38 "A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

1 O LORD, rebuke me not in Thy wrath:
Neither chasten me in Thy hot displeasure.

2 For Thine arrows are strong fast in me,
And Thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because Of Thine anger; Neither is there any rest in my bones because Of my sin.

4 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head:
As an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt
Because of my foolishness.

6 I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly;
I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease:
And there is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken:
I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 O LORD, all my desire is before Thee;
And my groaning is not hid from Thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me:
As for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore;
And my kinsmen stand afar off.

12 They also that seek after my life lay snares for me:
And they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things,
And imagine deceit all the day long.

13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not;
And I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not,
And in whose mouth are no reproves.

15 For in Thee, O LORD, do I hope:
Thou wilt hear, O LORD, my God.

16 For I said, "Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me;"
When my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

17 For I am ready to halt,
And my sorrow is continually before me.

18 For I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies are lively, and they are strong:
And they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

20 They also that render evil for good Are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that is good.

21 Forsake me not, O LORD:
O my God, be not far from me.

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace,

3 My heart was hot within me,
While I was musing the fire burned:
Then spake I with my tongue,

4 "LORD, make me to know mine end,
And the measure of my days, what it is;
That I may know how frail I am.

5 Behold, Thou hast made my days as an handbreadth;
And mine age is as nothing before Thee:
Verily every man at his best state is "altogether vanity. "Selah.

6 Surely every man walketh in a vain shew:
Surely they are disquieted in vain:
He heareth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, "LORD," what wait I for?
My hope is in Thee.

8 Deliver me from all my "transgressions:
Make not me the reproach of the "foolish.

Thou maketh his beauty to consume away like a "moth:
Surely every "man is vanity. "Selah.

12 Hear my prayer, "LORD, and give ear
To my "cries:
Hold not Thy peace at my tears:
For I am a stranger with Thee,
And a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

NOTES ON THE STRUCTURE, PAGE 759.

Exodus is the Greek Ἐξοδος, and is the name given to the book by the Septuagint Translators as descriptive of its chief event—the going out of Israel from Egypt. But the Hebrew title for it is יִשְׂרָאֵל נַעֲמָן (‘sō‘lekh še‘mōth), “And these are the names.” The Book is thus called because it begins with the names of those who came into the place whence they were redeemed and delivered from their ruin and oppression.

It is indeed the book of “the Names”; for not only does the Lord speak so pointedly of knowing Moses “by name” (38. 12, 17), but Moses asks by what Name he is to speak of the God of their fathers to the Israelites (3. 15), and the Lord reveals His Name (3. 14, 16); while in 6. 3; 33. 19; and 34. 5-7, He further proclaims it. So, again, of the “Angel” that was sent before the People (23. 20), Jehovah said, “My Name is in Him” (23. 21). Moses speaks to Pharaoh in the Name of Jehovah (5. 22); and Pharaoh is raised up “that My Name may be declared throughout all the earth” (9. 16). It is in this book that we first have the third Commandment concerning the Name of the Lord (20. 7). Bezaleel is said to have been “called” by name (31. 2), whereas a different phrase is used of Aholiab (31. 6) both here and in 35. 30 and 34. It is in Exodus also that we have the particular instructions as to the engraving of the names on the shoulder-stones of the ephod (23. 9-12), and on the breastplate stones (12-21), which were strictly carried out (39. 6; 7 and 8-14). Thus “the names of the sons of Israel” were borne before the Lord with the Redeeming Blood in the Holy of Holies. Moreover, these names appear at the beginning of Exodus, in connection with the Ruins; and at the end in connection with the Redemption “before God in the Sanctuary”; while we have the Name of the Redeemer proclaimed and celebrated throughout, “The Lord is His name” (Ex. 15. 3).

Exodus is therefore the Book of Redemption; and Redemption is individual and by name. It is the book in which the Redemption of the People is first mentioned: “Thou in Thy mercy hast led forth the People which Thou hast redeemed: Thou hast guided them in Thy strength unto Thy holy habitation.” (Exod. 15. 12).

The Title “Exodus” also occurs in Luke 9. 31 (rendered “departure” in A.V. and R.V.), where it is the subject of which Messiah spake with Moses and Elijah on “the holy mount.” This subject was His Redemption work, viz. the “exodus” which He should accomplish at Jerusalem, which was the great Antitype of that accomplished by Moses.

The types of Exodus are also types of Redemption. The Divine title Jah (יה), see Ap. 4. III, the concentrated form of Jehovah, occurs for the first time in the Book of Exodus (15. 2); and it occurs also for the first time in the Psalms in this second or Exodus Book (Ps. 68. 4).

In this second Book of the Psalms we find the subject-matter corresponding with that of Exodus. Like the other books, its teaching is dispensational. In the Genesis Book, Man is the central thought; in this Exodus Book, it is the Nation of Israel around which the counsels and purposes of God are centered. It opens with the “cry” from the depth of the Ruin and Oppression, as Exodus does; and it ends with the King reigning over the redeemed Nation (Ps. 72), brought “again the second time” from the four corners of the earth (Isa. 11. 11); as it was brought the first time from Egypt; and, at length, made a blessing to all the families of the earth.

Of the Divine names and titles: Elohim occurs 602 times (two of them with Jehovah), El 14 times, and Jehovah only 37 times. Note the references to Sinai, Miriam, and other events in Exodus, in this second Book.

† Psalms 42 and 43 are linked together by a recurring question and answer. See the Structure (p. 759).
‡ As Ps. 32 is the Sin Offering and Ps. 40 the Burnt Offering, so Ps. 69 is the Trespass Offering.

(Repeated Alternation.)

1 As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God.
2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God:
   When shall I come and appease before God?
3 My tears have been my meat day and night.
4 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me:
   For I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God,
   With the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.
5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
   And why art thou disquieted in me?
   Hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise Him.
6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me:
   Therefore will I remember Thee from the land of Jordan,
   And of the Hermonites, from the hill of Mizra.
7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of Thy waterspouts:
   All Thy waves and Thy billows are gone over me.
8 Yet the Lord will command His loving-kindness in the daytime,
   And in the night His song shall be with me,
   And my prayer unto the God of my life.
9 I will say unto God my rock, ‘Why hast Thou forgotten me?
   Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?’
10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me;
   While they say daily unto me, ‘Where is thy God?’

11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
   And why art thou disquieted in me?
   Hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise Him,
   Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

Fig. Eilapaes (Complex). Ap. 6, by which each is to be repeated in the other = “His loving-kindness [and His song] in the daytime; and in the night His song [and His loving-kindness] shall be with me.”

10 As with. Some codices read “Like”.

The second Psalm of each book has its subject the enemy. See Ap. 10. 11 health = salvation.
43. 1. Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation:
O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.
2 For art thou the God of my strength:
why dost Thou cast me off?
Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
B 3 O send out Thy light and Thy truth:
let them lead me;
Let them bring me unto Thy holy hill,
And to Thy tabernacles.
4 Then will I go unto the altar of God,
Unto God my exceeding joy:
Yea, upon the harp will I praise Thee, O God my God.
C 5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?
Hope in God; for I shall yet praise Him,
Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

Significant, because of its fulfilment in Messiah (Rev. 19, 7. Cp. Isa. 54. 5-8). ### Title.

A Psalm. The sixth of nine so ascribed. Heb. pizmur. See Ap. 65. XVII.

Korah. See Ap. 68. VIII.

1. people = peoples.

world = age = transitoriness. Heb. 'eled = the world as transitory, as in 17. 14. Cp. 38. 5, "age"; 59. 47, "time". Job 11. 17. These are all the occurrences.

poor = helpless. Heb. 'eyom. See note on Prov. 6. 11, together = alike.

4. dark = deep.

5. days of evil. His were in Matt. 26. 38, Luke 22. 41, 55. John 13. 27. Heb. 6. 7, of my heels: or, my footsteps. Put by Fig. Synedcote (of Part), Ap. 6, for the whole person, in order to call attention to, and thus emphasize, the reference to Gen. 3. 12. When our iniquities were laid upon Christ, then He was vulnerable and was wounded for our transgressions.

by any means redeem. Heb. Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6) = "redeeming will redeem", redeem = deliver by power. Heb. padath. See notes on Ex. 6. 6 and 13. 12, his brother. Some codices read "surely" instead of "a brother". In this case the two lines read, "Surely no man (Heb. 'ish. Ap. 14. II) can redeem, nor give to God atonement for himself". God. Heb. Elohim. Ap. 4. I.

9. That, &c. Connect this with the end of v. 7. still live for ever = live on continually.

10. precious = costly, or, so costly is it that, &c. it = the redemption of themselves. That, &c. Connect this with the end of v. 7. still live for ever = live on continually.

49. 13.

PSALMS.

13 This their way is their folly:
Yet their posterity approve their sayings.
Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave;
Death shall feed on them;
And the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning:
And their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave:
For He shall receive me.
Selah.

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich.
When the glory of his house is increased;
For when he dieth he carry nothing away:
His glory shall not descend after him.

17 Though while he lived he blessed his soul:
And men will praise thee, when thou dost well to thyself.

18 He shall go to the generation of his fathers;
They shall never see light.

19 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not,
is like the beasts that perish.

50

A Psalm of Asaph.

1 The mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken,
And called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
Our God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence:
A fire shall devour before Him,
And it shall be very tempestuous round about Him.

4 He shall call to the heavens above,
And to the earth, that He may judge His people.

5 Gather My saints together unto Me;
Those that have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness:
For God is judge of the earth.
Selah.

7 Hear, O My People, and I will speak;
O Israel, and I will testify against thee:
I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices
Or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before Me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house,
Nor he goats out of thy folds.

10 For every beast of the forest is Mine,
And the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains;
And the wild beasts of the field are Mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee:
For the world is Mine, and the fulness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats?
50. 15.  PSALMS.  51. 10.

15 And call upon Me in the day of trouble:
I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify Me.

16 But unto the wicked God saith,
"What hast thou to do to declare My statutes,
Or that thou shouldst take My covenant in thy mouth?

17 Seeing thou hastest instruction,
And castest My words behind thee,
18 When thou wast a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers, 19 Thou givest thine mouth to evil,
And thy tongue frameth deceit.

20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother;
Thou slanderest thine own mother's son.
21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence;
Thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself:
But I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God,
Lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth Me:
And to him that ordereth his conversation aright
Will I shew the salvation of My God.
To the chief Musician.

51  A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

1  Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Thy lovingkindness:
According unto the multitude of Thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions,
Wash me throughly from mine iniquity, And cleanse me from my sin.

2  For I acknowledge my transgressions:
And my sin is ever before me.
4 Against Thee, Thee only, have I sinned,
And done this evil in Thy sight:
That Thou mightest be justified when Thou speakest,
And be clear when Thou judgest.

5  Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; And in sin did my mother conceive me.

6  Behold, Thou desirest truth in the inward parts:
And in the hidden part Thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7  Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8  Make me to hear joy and gladness;
That the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice.

9  Hide Thy face from my sins,
And blot out all mine iniquities.

13 Then will I teach transgressors Thy ways; And sinners shall be converted unto Thee.

Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God.
Thou God of my salvation:
And my tongue shall sing aloud of Thy righteousness.

O LORD, open Thou my lips; And my mouth shall shew forth Thy praise.

For Thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it:
Thou delightest not in burnt offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:
A broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise.

Do good in Thy good pleasure unto Zion:
Build Thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering:
Then shall they offer bullocks upon Thine altar.

52 Maschil, A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

2 Thy tongue deviseth mischief; Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3 Thou lovest evil more than good; And lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

5 GOD shall likewise destroy thee for ever, He shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, And root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, And shall laugh at him.

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength;
But trusted in the abundance of his riches,
And strengthened himself in his wickedness.

8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of GOD:
I trust in the mercy of GOD for ever and ever.

Maschil, A Psalm of David.

1 Give ear to my prayer, O LORD; And hide not Thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise:

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, Because of the oppression of the wicked: For they cast iniquity upon me, And in wrath they hate me.

4 My heart is sore pained within me: And the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, And horror hath overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove!"

7 Lo, then would I wander far off, And remain in the wilderness. Selah.

8 I would hasting escape From the "windy storm and tempest."

9 Destroy, O LORD, and divide their tongues:

For I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: Mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: Deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me; Then I could have borne it: Neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; Then I would have hid myself from him:

13 But it was the "a man" mine equal, My guide, and mine acquaintance.

14 We took sweet counsel together, And walked unto the house of God in company.

15 Let death seize upon them, And let them go down quick into hell:

For wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God; And the LORD shall save me.

17 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: And He shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me:

For there were many with me.

19 GOD shall hear, and afflict them, (Even He that abideth of old). Selah. Because they have no changes, Therefore they fear not GOD.

ο congregation: or, O faction. Heb. ἀγαθόν. Occurs only here and in the sub-scription of Ps. 55. = silent. So human judges are dumb when they ought to speak, and deaf when they ought to hear (v. 4).

2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness;
Ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 The wicked are estranged from the womb: They go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent: They are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear;

5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, Charming never so wisely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: Break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Lord.

7 Let them melt away as waters which run continually:
When he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.

8 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away:
Like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, He shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.

10 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance:
He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

A Psalm of David.

1 Let them arise, let them enemies be scattered:
   Let them also that hate Him flee before Him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away:
   As wax melteth before the fire,
   So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God:
   Yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

Sing unto God,
   Sing praises to His name:
   Extol Him That rideth upon the heavens
   By His name "Jah", and rejoice before Him.

A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows,
   Is God in His holy habitation.

God setteth the solitary in families:
   He bringeth out those which are bound with chains:
   But the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

1 Save me, O God;
For the waters are come in unto my soul.
2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing:
I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.
3 I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried:
Mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.
4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head:
They that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty:
Then I restored that which I took not away.
5 O God, Thou knowest my foolishness,
And my sins are not hid from Thee,
6 Let them that wait on Thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake:
Let not those that seek Thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.
7 Because for Thy sake I have borne reproach;
Shame hath covered my face.
8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren,
And an alien unto my mother's children,
9 For the zeal of Thine house hath eaten me up:
And the reproaches of them that reproach Thee are fallen upon me.
10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting,
That was to my reproach,
11 I made sackcloth also my garment;
And I became a proverb to them,
12 They that sit in the gate speak against me;
And I was the song of the drunkards.
13 But as for me, my prayer is unto Thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time:
O Lord, in the multitude of Thy tender mercies
Hear me, in the truth of Thy salvation.
14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink:
Let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.
15 Let not the waterflood overflow me,
Neither let the deep swallow me up,
And let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.
16 Hear me, O Lord; for Thy lovingkindness is good:
Turn unto me according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies.
17 And hide not Thy face from Thy servant;
For I am in trouble: hear me speedily.
18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it:
Deliver me because of mine enemies.
19 For hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour:
Mine adversaries are all before Thee.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded
That seek after my soul:
Let them be turned backward, and put to confusion,
That desire my hurt.
3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame
° That say, “Aha, aha.”

4 Let all those that seek Thee rejoice and

And let such as love Thy salvation say

5 But I am poor and needy;
Make haste unto me, O God:
Thee art my help and my deliverer;
° O LORD, make no tarrying.

6 By Thee have I been holden up ° from the womb:
Thou hast me out of my mother’s bowels:
My praise shall be continually of Thee.
7 ° I am as a wonder unto many;
But thou art my strong refuge.
8 Let my mouth be filled with Thy praise
And with Thy honour all the day.
9 Cast me not off in the time of old age;
Forsake me not when my strength faileth.
10 For mine enemies speak against me;
And they that lay wait for ° my soul take counsel together,
11 Saying, “° God hath forsaken him:
Persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him.”
12 ° God, be not far from me:
O my God, make haste for my help.
13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to ° my soul;
Let them be covered with reproach and 16 I will go in ° strength of the ° Lord

God:
I will make mention of Thy righteousness,
even of Thine only.
18 Now also, when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not; Until I have shewed "Thy strength unto this generation.
And Thy power to every one that is to come.

19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high,
Who hast done great things:
O God, who is like unto Thee!

20 Thou, Who hast shewed me great and sore troubles,
Shalt quicken me again, And shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, And comfort me on every side.

22 I will also praise Thee with the psaltery,
Even Thy truth, O my God:
Unto Thee will I sing with the harp,
O Thou Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto Thee;
And my soul, which Thou hast redeemed.

24 My tongue also shall talk of Thy righteousness all the day long:
For they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

A Psalm for Solomon.

1 Give the king thy judgments, O God, And Thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2 He shall judge Thy People with righteousness, And Thy poor with judgment.

3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, And the little hills, by righteousness.

4 He shall judge the poor of the People, He shall save the children of the needy, And shall break the pieces of oppressor.

5 They shall fear Thee as long as the sun and moon endure, Throughout all generations.

6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass:
As showers that water the earth.

7 In his days shall the righteous flourish; And abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, And from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; And his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.
12 For he shall deliver * the needy when he crieth; The * poor also, and * him that hath no helper.
13 He shall spare the * poor and *  needy, And shall save the * souls of *  the needy. He shall * redeem * their soul from deceit and violence; And precious shall their blood be in his sight.

17 * Blessed be * the LORD * God, the * 1 God of Israel, Who only doeth wondrous things.

* Leviticus is the title which man has given to the third book of the Pentateuch, because of its subject-matter: viz. the ordinances, &c., pertaining to the Levites. The title in the Hebrew Canon is קדמך נדנ נד (rappidna'), "and he called." It is emphatically the Book of the Sanctuary. It tells how God is to be approached; and teaches us that none can worship except such as are "called" (65. 4), and whom "the Father seeks to worship Him" (John 4. 23, 24). In Lev. 1. 1, 2, we see the exemplification of the words: "Blessed is the man whom Thou choosest, and causest to approach unto Thee, that he may dwell in Thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of Thine house, even of Thy holy temple" (65. 4). The types in Leviticus are types of the Sanctuary; i.e. of Access and Worship.

In this Leviticus-Book of the Psalms we find the corresponding thought. Its teaching is Dispensational, as in the other books; but, in this, the counsels of God are seen, not in relation to Man (as in Genesis), not in relation to the Nation (as in Exodus), but in relation to the Sanctuary, which is mentioned or referred to in nearly every Psalm of this third book. The Sanctuary is seen from its ruin, to its establishment in the fullness of blessing.

In the first Division (73—83, A1) Elohim (Ap. 4. 1) occurs sixty-five times (twice with Jehovah); and Jehovah only fifteen times. In the second Division (84—89, A2) Jehovah occurs fifty times, and Elohim only twenty-eight times (four of which are with Jehovah). El (Ap. 4. IV) occurs five times.
† All the Psalms in the first Division (A1) are Psalms of Asaph.
‡ Maschil. See Ap. 65, XI.
§ All the Psalms (except 86 and 89) in the second Division (A2) are Psalms of the sons of Korah.

18 Surely Thou didst set them in slippery places; Thou castest them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! They are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a dream when one awaketh; So, O Lord, when Thou awakest, Thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved, And I was pricked in my reins.

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before Thee.

23 Nevertheless am continually with Thee: Thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt guide me with Thy counsel, And afterward receive me to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but Thee? And there is none upon earth that I desire beside Thee.

26 My flesh and my heart faileth: But God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

27 For, lo, they that are far from Thee shall perish:

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God; I have put my trust in the Lord God, That I may declare all Thy works.

74 Maschil of Asaph.

1 O God, why hast Thou cast us off for ever?

2 Remember Thy congregation, which Thou hast purchased of old;
The rod of Thine inheritance, which Thou hast redeemed;

3 Lift up Thy feet unto the perpetual desolations;

4 Even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

5 Thine enemies roar in the midst of Thy congregations;

6 They set up their ensigns for signs.

7 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

8 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

73. 18. PSALMS. 74. 6.

18 Surely. See note on "Truly", v. 1. didst set = wilt set.

19How are they = How [is it that] they are. They are = [How is it that] they are.

20 Lord*. One of the 134 emendations of the Septuagint by which they changed Jehovah, of the primitive text, to Adonai. Ap. 32. awaketh = ariseth. Fig. Anthropopatheia. Ap. 6. image = image of which they dreamt.

21 Thus. Cp. the Structure "C" (v. 3) and "C" (v. 21).

25 Whom have I? This is ever the cry of God's saints. Fig. Erotésis. Ap. 6. See note on Ex. 15. 11.

26 strength. Heb. gâr = rock, or refuge.

27 whoring from. Supply Ellipsis (Ap. 6) thus: whoring [in departing] from. Refers (spiritually) to idolatry, or anything that takes us from God.

28 it is good for me. The Heb. accent (pasekh) emphasizes the Pronoun "me". Others may go "far from Thee" (v. 27), but "as for me, I will draw near to Thee" (cp. v. 29). The "good" is seen in the twofold result: (1) I find a refuge in Him; (2) I tell forth His praises, put my trust = flee for refuge. Heb. ἀνευρέσασθαι. Ap. 68. II. The Lord God = Adonai Jehovah. Ap. 4. VIII. 2, and II.

7 They have cast fire into Thy sanctuary.
They have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of Thy name to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, "Let us destroy them together;"
They have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signs:
There is no more any prophet:
Neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach?
Shall the enemy blaspheme Thy name for ever?
Why withdrawest Thou Thy hand, even Thy right hand?
Pluck it out of Thy bosom.

12 For is my King of old,
Working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 Thou didst divide the sea by Thy strength:
Thou brakest the heads of the dragons in pieces,
And gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood:
Thou didst make mighty rivers.

16 The day is Thine, the night also is Thine:
Thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth:
Thou hast made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD,
And that the foolish people have blasphemed Thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul of Thy turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked:
Forget not the congregation of Thy poor for ever.

20 Have respect unto the covenant:
For the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 Let not the oppressed return ashamed:
Let the poor and needy praise Thy name.

22 Arise, O God, plead Thine own cause:
Remember how the foolish man reproacheth Thee daily.

23 Forget not the voice of Thine enemies:
The tumult of those that rise up against Thee increaseth continually.

*To the chief Musician, *Al-taschith.
75. 1. PSALMS.

75 A Psalm or Song of Asaph.
1 Unto Thee, O God, do we give thanks, Unto Thee do we give thanks: for that Thy name is near Thy wondrous works declare.
2 When I shall receive the congregation 3 I will judge uprightly.
3 The earth And all the inhabitants thereof are disposed:
3 ¶ Bear up the pillars of it. Selah.
4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly:
And to the wicked, Lift not up the horn:
5 Lift not up your horn on high: Speak not with a stiff neck.
6 For promotion cometh neither from east, nor from the west, Nor from the south. But God; the judge: He putteth down one, and setteth up another.
7 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; It is full of mixture; and He poureth out of the same:
But the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.
9 But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
10 All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; But the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

76 A Psalm or Song of Asaph.
1 In Judah is God known: His name is great in Israel.
2 In Salem also is His tabernacle, And His dwelling place in Zion.
3 There brake He the arrows of the bow, The shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah.
4 They are more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey.
5 The stouthearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep:
And none of the men of might have found their hands.

The members U', V', U', V' are in the third person. The members V', V', V' are in the second person. The Structure is determined by the two Selahs; and points to the historic event, the taking of Jebus by David (2 Sam. 5. 4-9; 6-10) 660 B.C.

1 Judah Great emphasis on the locality. Note the three terms, Judah, Salem, Zion, and "there" (p. 3). God. Heb. Elohim. Ap. 4. I. Known = made known, or making Himself known. Israel. Named because the taking of Jebus was in connection with David's taking of the throne of Israel.

2 Salem. The ancient Jebusite name for Jerusalem. Cp. Gen. 14. 18. Heb. 7. 1, 2. Isaiah come, or is set up. tabernacle: i.e. David's tabernacle on Zion. In 18. 11 pavilion, or dwelling. Heb. sukka, not skalah. Zion. This is where David's tabernacle was set up after the taking of Jebus. Cp. 2 Sam. 5. 8-12; 6. 7. 1, 2, &c. See Ap. 68. Zion had no place in history till this event.

3 There. Emphatic. He hath He brake He hath broken in pieces. Battle. Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Adjunct), Ap. 6, for other weapons used in battle. Selah. Connecting the Jebusite defeat with God Who gave it; and passing on from the third person to the second. See Ap. 68. II. Note the emphasis on "zion."

4 mountains of prey. The great mountain (Zion) which had become a prey: i.e. a prey seized, as in next verse: the mighty men had become a spoil, or been plundered. none . . . found their hands. Idiom for helplessness. Like losing heart or finding heart (2 Sam. 7. 27).

6 At Thy rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

7 Then, even then, art to be feared:
And who may stand in Thy sight when once Thou art angry?

8 Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven;
The earth feared, and was still,
When Thou didst arise to judgment,
To save all the meek of the earth.

10 Surely the wrath of a man shall praise Thee:
The remainder of wrath shalt Thou restrain.

11 Vow, and pay unto the Lord your God:
Let all that be round about Him bring presents unto Him that ought to be feared.

12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes:
His soul is terrible to the kings of the earth.

A Psalm of Asaph.

I cried unto God with my voice,
Even unto God with my voice; and He gave ear unto me.
In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
My soul refused to be comforted.
I remembered God, and was troubled:
I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed.
I thought holiest mine eyes waking:
I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient times.
I call to remembrance my song in the night:
I commune with mine own heart:
And my spirit made diligent search.

Will the Lord cast off for ever?
And will He be favourable no more?
Is His mercy clean gone for ever?
Doth His promise fail for evermore?
Hath God forgotten to be gracious?
Hath He in anger shut up His tender mercies?

And I said, "Thy ways, O God, is in the sanctuary:
Who is so great a God as our God?"

14 Thou art the 9 GOD That doest wonders:
Thou hast 9 declared Thy strength among the 9 people.
15 Thou hast with Thine arm redeemed Thy people,
The sons of Jacob and 9 Joseph. 9 Selah.
18 The waters saw Thee, O God,
The waters saw Thee; they were afraid:
The depths also were troubled.
17 The 9 clouds poured out water:
The skies sent out a sound:
Thine 9 arrows also went abroad.
19 Thy way 9 is in 9 the sea,
And Thy 9 path in the great waters,
And Thy 9 footsteps are not known.
20 Thou leddest Thy People like a flock
By the hand of 9 Moses and Aaron.

"Maschil" of Asaph.

1 Give ear, O my People, to my law:
Incline your 9 ears to the words of my mouth.
2 9 I will open my mouth in a 9 parable:
I will utter 9 dark sayings of old:
3 Which we have heard and 9 known,
And our fathers have told us.
4 We will not hide them from their 9 children, Shewing to the generation to come the praises of 9 the LORD,
And His strength, and His 9 wonderful works that He hath done.
5 For He established a testimony in Jacob,
And appointed a law in Israel,
Which He 9 commanded our fathers,
That they should make them known to their 9 children:
6 That the generation to come might know them, even the 9 children which should be born;
Who should arise and declare them to their 9 children:
7 That they might set their hope in 9 God,
And not forget the works of 9 GOD,
But keep His commandments:
8 And might not be as their fathers,
A stubborn and 9 rebellious generation;
A generation 9 that set not their heart aright,
And whose 9 spirit was not steadfast 9 with
9 GOD.
9 The 9 children of 9 Ephraim, being armed,
and 9 carrying bows,
Turned back in the day of battle.
10 They 9 kept not the covenant of 9 God,
And refused to walk in His law;
11 And forgot His works,
And His 9 wonders that He had shewed them.
12 Marvellous things did He in the sight of their fathers,
   In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through;
   And He made the waters to stand as an heap.
14 In the daytime also He led them with a cloud,
   And all the night with a light of fire.
15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness,
   And gave them drink as out of the great depths.
16 He brought streams also out of the rock,
   And caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against Him
   By provoking the MOST HIGH in the wilderness.
18 And they tempted 7 GOD in their heart
   By asking meat for their 7 lust.
19 Yea, they spake against 7 God;
   They said, “Can 7 GOD furnish a table in the wilderness?
20 Behold, He smote the rock, that the waters gushed out,
   And the streams overflowed;
   Can He give bread also?
   Can He provide flesh for His people?”

21 Therefore 7 the LORD heard this, and was wrath:
   So a fire was kindled against Jacob,
   And anger also came up against Israel;
22 Because they believed not in 7 God,
   And trusted not in His salvation:
23 Though He had commanded the clouds from above,
   And opened the doors of heaven,
24 And had rained down 7 manna upon them to eat,
   And had given them of the corn of heaven.
25 Man did eat 7 angels’ food:
   He sent them meat to the full.
26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven:
   And by His power He brought in the south wind.
27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust,
   And feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea;
28 And He let it fall in the midst of their camp,
   Round about their habitations.
29 So they did eat, and were well filled:
   For He gave them their own desire;
30 They were not estranged from 7 their lust.

But while their meat was yet in their mouths,
31 The wrath of 7 God came upon them,
   And slew the fattest of them,
   And smote down the chosen men of Israel.
32 For all this they 17 sinned still,
   And believed not for His 7 wondrous works.

33 Therefore their days did He consume in vanity, And their years in trouble.

34 When He slew them, then they sought Him; And they returned and enquired early after "GOD.

35 And they remembered that God was their rock, And "THE HIGH GOD Their °redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did flatter Him with their mouth, And they lied unto Him with their °tongues.

37 For their heart was not right with Him, Neither were they stedfast in His °covenant.

38 But °f, °f being full of compassion, forgave their °iniquity, and °destroyed them not: Yea, many a time turned He His anger away, And did not stir up all His wrath.

39 For °He remembered that they were but °flesh: °A wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 °How oft did they provoke Him in the wilderness, And grieve Him in the desert!

41 Yea, they °turned back and tempted °GOD, And °limited °the Holy One of Israel.

42 °They remembered not His hand, Nor the day when He °delivered them from the enemy.

43 How He had wrought His °signs in Egypt, And His wonders in the field of °Zoan:

44 And had °turned their rivers into blood; And their floods, that they could not drink.

45 He sent divers sorts of °flies among them, which devoured them;

46 °He gave also their increase unto the °caterpillar, And their °labour unto the locust.

47 °He °destroyed their vines with °hail, And their sycomore trees with °frost.

48 He gave up their cattle also to the °hail, And their flocks to °hot thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of His anger, Wrath, and indignation, and trouble, By °sending °evil angels among them.

50 He °made a way to His anger; He spared not their °soul from death, But gave their life over to the pestilence;

51 °And smote all the firstborn in °Egypt; The chief of °their °strength in °the tabernacles of °Ham:

But the sea °overwhelmed their enemies.

55. He cast out the "heathen also before them,
And divided them an inheritance "by line,
And made the tribes of Israel to dwell in 56. Yet they tempted and provoked "the MOST HIGH God,

And kept not His testimonies:
57. But "turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers:
They were turned aside like "a deceitful

58. For they provoked Him to anger with their

And moved Him to jealousy with their "graven images.

59. "When God heard this, He was wroth,
And greatly abhorred Israel:
60. So that He forsook the "tabernacle of

The tent which He placed among "men;
61. And delivered His "strength into captivity,
And His "glory into the enemy's hand.
62. He gave His People over also "unto the

And was wroth with His inheritance,
The fire consumed their young men;
And their maidens "were not given to marriage.
63. Their "priests fell by the sword;
And their widows made no lamentation.

64. Then "the LORD* awaked "as one out of

And like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.
66. And He smote His enemies in "the hinder parts:
He put them to a perpetual reproach.

67. Moreover He refused the "tabernacle of Joseph,
And "chose not the tribe of Ephraim:
68. But chose the tribe of Judah,
The mount Zion "which He loved.
69. And He built His "sanctuary like high palaces,
"Like the earth which He hath established for ever.
70. He "chose David also His servant,
And took him from the sheepfolds:
71. From following the ewes great with young
He brought him
"To feed Jacob "His people, and "Israel
His inheritance.
72. So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart;
And guided them by the "skilfulness of his hands.

79. A Psalm of Asaph.

1. O "God, the "heathen are come into Thine inheritance;
Thy "holiness have they defiled;
They have laid Jerusalem "on heaps.
2. The dead bodies of Thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven,
The flesh of Thy "saints unto the beasts of the earth.
Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

How long, LORD? wilt Thou be angry for ever?

Shall Thy jealousy burn like fire?

Pour out Thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known Thee, and upon the kings of those that have not called upon Thy name.

For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.

Remember not against us former iniquities;

Let Thy tender mercies speedily prevent us;

For we are brought very low.

Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for Thy name’s sake.

Wherefore should the heathen say, “Where is their God?”

Let Him be known among the heathen in our sight

By the revenging of the blood of Thy servants which is shed.

Their reproach, wherewith they have reproached Thee, O LORD.*

So we Thy people and sheep of Thy pasture

Will give Thee thanks for ever;

We will shew forth Thy praise to all generations.

To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim-Eduth.

A Psalm of Asaph.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, Thou That leadest Joseph like a flock; Thou That dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up Thy strength, and come and save us.

Turn us again, O God, And cause Thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

O LORD God of hosts, How long wilt Thou be angry against the prayer of Thy people?

A Psalm of Asaph.

Give ear, O LORD, To the voice of my supplication.

If Thou wilt perceive the sufferings of Thy people, If Thou wilt redeem Thy heritage.

Remember the congregation which Thou hast purchased of old, Which hast redeemed Israel.

Thou hast redeemed Thine people, O God, the remnant of Israel.

Glory to the LORD in the land of Israel.

If only Thy saving health were seen among us, The pride of them that rise up against us

That the name of our God would not be put to shame.

Turn us again, O God, And cause Thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

How long wilt Thou be angry against the prayer of Thy people?
80. 5. | PSALMS. | 81. 5.

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; And givest them tears to drink in great measure.
6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours:
And our enemies laugh among themselves.
7 Turn us again, O God of hosts,
And cause Thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.
8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt:
Thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.
9 Thou preparedst room before it,
And didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.
10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it,
And the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.
11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea,
And her branches unto the river.
12 Why hast Thou then broken down her hedges,
So that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?
13 The boar out of the wood doth waste it,
And the wild beast of the field devoureth it.
14 Return, we beseech Thee, O God of hosts:
Look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;
15 And the vineyard which Thy right hand hath planted,
And the branch that Thou madest strong for Thyself.
16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down:
They perish at the rebuke of Thy countenance.
17 Let Thy hand be upon the man of Thy right hand,
Upon the son of man whom Thou madest strong for Thyself.
18 So will we not go back from Thee:
Quicken us, and we will call upon Thy name.
19 Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts,
Cause Thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

This is the second of four such suspended letters (the other two being Job 38. 13). Read with this letter, the word means "forest:" without it, and with an Aleph (a) instead, it is m i y y 'a r, "river". The ancient Jewish interpreters took this suspended letter as denoting that, when innocent, Israel would be assailed only by a power weak as a river animal; but, when guilty, it would be destroyed by a power as strong as a land animal. Until the Roman power arose (whose military ensign was the "boar"), it was understood as "river" (meaning Egypt); but after the Sept., Chald., and Vulg. read "forest".

83  A Song or Psalm of Asaph.

1 Keep not Thou silence, O God:
   Hold not Thy peace, and be not still, O God.

2 For, lo, Thine enemies make a tumult:
   And they that hate Thee have lifted up the head;

3 They have taken crafty counsel against Thy People,
   And consulted against Thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, "Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation;
   That the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance."

5 For they have consulted together with one consent:
   They are confederate against Thee:

6 The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites;
   Of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek;
   The Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8 Assur also is joined with them:
   They have holpen the children of Lot.

9 Do unto them as unto the Midianites;
   As to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

10 Which perished at En-dor:
   They became as dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb:
   Yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna:

12 Who said, "Let us take to ourselves
   The houses of God in possession."

13 O my God, make them like a wheel;
   As the stubble before the wind,

14 As the fire burneth a wood,
   And as the flame setteth the mountains on fire;

15 So persecute them with Thy tempest,
   And make them afraid with Thy storm.

16 Fill their faces with shame;
   That they may seek Thy name, O LORD.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever;
   Yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

18 That men may know that Zebu, Whose name alone is JEHOVAH,

Wilt Thou draw out Thine anger to all generations?

6 wilt Thou not revive us again:

7 Shew us Thy mercy, O LORD,
And grant us Thy salvation.

8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak:
For He will speak peace unto His People,

But let them not turn again to folly.

9 Surely His salvation is nigh them that fear Him;

2 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit,
   In darkness, in the deeps.

3 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me,
   And Thou hast afflicted me with all Thy waves.

4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit:
   I am as a man that hath no strength:
   Free among the dead,
   Like the slain that lie in the grave,
   Whom Thou Rememberest no more:
   And they are cut off from Thy hand.

5 Thou hast made me an abomination unto them:
   I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

6 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction:

7 Lord, I have called daily upon Thee,
   I have stretched out my hands unto Thee.

8 Wilt Thou shew wonders to the dead?
   Shall the dead arise and praise Thee?

9 Shall Thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave?
   Or Thy faithfulness in destruction?

10 Shall Thy wonders be known in the dark?
   And Thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

11 But unto Thee have I cried, O LORD;
   And in the morning shall my prayer prevent Thee.

12 LORD, why castest Thou off my soul?
   Why hidest Thou Thy face from me?

13 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up:
   While I suffer Thy terrors I am distracted.

14 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me;
   Thy terrors have cut me off.

15 They came round about me daily like water;
   They compassed me about together.

16 Lover and friend hast Thou put far from me,
   And mine acquaintance into darkness.

   With my mouth will I make known Thy faithfulness to all generations.

Title. Maschil—Instruction. The eleventh of thirteen so named. See note on Title, Ps. 25, and Ap. 85, XI.

The title, rearranged as above, removes the difficulty of this Psalm being ascribed to two different writers.

Ezrahite. Put for Zerahite. Probably the name of a district. Cp. the case of Elkanah (1 Sam. 1:1). The Psalm is prophetical of Messiah's humiliation, corresponding with Ps. 86. See the Structure, p. 786.

4 am—have been.
   I am—am I become.

5 Free—Set free: i.e. by death, so as to be free from the law (according to the Talmud, Shabbath, fol. 161 B), the grave = sepulchre. Heb. geber. See Ap. 36.

7 upon me. Same word as "over me", v. 14, with which the member corresponds.

Selah. Connecting v. 6 with its amplification in vv. 8, 9.

10 dead. Heb. Rephaim, who have no resurrection. See note on Isa. 26, 14, where it is rendered "deceased"; and 13, where it is rendered "the dead". Cp. Ap. 23 and 25.

13 prevent—come before.

14 face. Fig. Anthropopathia. Ap. 6.

15 over me. Same word as "upon me", v. 7.

17 daily—all the day.

18 put far from me. Cp. v. 8, the corresponding member.
2 For I have said, "Mercy shall be built up for ever:
Thy faithfulness shalt Thou establish in the very heavens."

3 I have made a covenant with My chosen,
I have sworn unto David My servant,
And I will establish his seed for ever,
And build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.

5 And the heavens shall praise Thy wonders,
O LORD; Thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD?
Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

7 To Thee 1 faithfulness round about
And to be had in reverence of all them that are about Him.

8 O LORD 2 God of hosts,
Who is a strong LORD, like unto Thee? Or to Thy faithfulness round about Thee?

9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea:
When the waves thereof arise, Thou stillest them.

10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain;
Thou hast scattered Thine enemies with Thy strong arm.

11 The heavens are Thine, the earth also is Thine:
As for the world and the fulness thereof,
Thou hast founded them.

12 The north and the south 3 Thou hast created them:
Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in Thy name.

13 Thou hast a mighty arm:
Strong is Thy hand, and high is Thy right hand.

14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of Thy throne:
Mercy and truth shall go before Thy face.

15 Blessed is the People that know the joyful sound:
They shall walk, O LORD, in the light of Thy countenance.

16 In Thy name shall they rejoice all the day:
And in Thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

17 For 4 Thou art the glory of their strength:
And in Thy favour our horn shall be exalted.

18 For the LORD is our defence;
And the Holy One of Israel is our king.

19 Then Thou spakest in vision to Thy Holy One;
And saidst, "I have laid help upon one that is mighty;
I have exalted one chosen out of the People.

20 I have found David My servant;
With My holy oil have I anointed him:

2 I have said. Some codices, with Sept. and Vulg., read "Thou hast said". Cf. v. 19 (W., below). The words of Ethan, reminding Jehovah of His covenant with David.

Mercy = Lovingkindness, or grace. Note "Mercy" (v. 2); "covenant" (v. 9); "seed" (v. 4); repeated in W., below (vv. 19-22 and vv. 33-37).

3 made = solemnised.

4 covenant. See 2 Sam. 7, where Jehovah, being the only party, the covenant is unconditional, and a "promise" among "the sure mercies of David", &c. But it looks beyond David.

5 sworn. See 2 Sam. 7, 11, &c.; the word is not used there, but the terms of the oath are given.

Selah. Connecting the recital of Jehovah's covenant with the praise offered for it. See Ap. 66. 11.

21 With whom My hand shall be established:
Mine arm also shall strengthen him.

22 The enemy shall not exact upon him;
Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

23 And I will beat down his foes before his face,
And plague them that hate him.

24 But My faithfulness and My mercy shall be with him:
And in My name shall his horn be exalted.
25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.

26 If shall cry unto Me, 4I will show him My covenant broken, and My covenant My 7GOD, and the rock of my salvation, shall keep and make him My firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth.

28 My 2mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and My covenant shall stand fast with him.

29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.

30 If his 5children forsake My law, and walk not in My judgments; if they 6break My statutes, and keep not My commandments;

32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 Nevertheless My lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer My faithfulness to fail.

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of My lips. Once have I sworn by My holiness, that I will not lie unto David.

35 But Thou hast cast off and abhorred, Thou hast been wroth with Thine anointed.

36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before Me.

37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.

38 But Thou hast made void the covenant of Thy servant; Thou hast profaned all his hedges; Thou hast brought his strongholds to ruin.

41 All that pass by the way spoil him: He is a reproach to his neighbours.

42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversary; Thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle.

44 Thou hast made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground.

45 The days of thy youth hast Thou shortened; Thou hast covered him with shame. Selah.

46 How long, 1 LORD? wilt Thou hide thyself for ever? Shall Thy wrath burn like fire?

47 Remember how short my time is: Wherefore hast Thou made all men in vain?
NOTES ON THE STRUCTURE OF THE FOURTH BOOK (p. 810).

The name of the book is that given to the fourth book of the Pentateuch, on account of the numbers recorded in chapters 1-3 and 26. The name is from the Latin Vulgate (Numbers), which is again a translation of the name given by the Septuagint Translators (Arithmoi). The title in the Hebrew Canon is פִּסְמָדָבָא, "The Book of the Wilderness" (the fifth word in v. 1, Hebrew). This title covers all the events recorded in this book. "Numbers", therefore, is the Book of the Wilderness; and its types are wilderness types, or types of our pilgrimage.

In the Numbers-Book of the Psalms we find the corresponding subject. It opens with Psalm 90, "A Prayer of Moses"—the man of the wilderness! Its teaching, like that of the other books, is Dispensational, with the Emphasis on its central thought. God's counsels and purposes are celebrated with regard to the earth, and the nations of the earth, from the ruin to the glory; as we have seen them set forth in the other books with regard to (1) Man, (2) Israel, and (3) the Sanctuary.

Sin has come into the world, and ruined, not merely man, but the earth itself: "Cursed is the ground for thy sake." Sin has made the paradise of God a wilderness, and death has filled it with sorrow and sadness. There is no hope for the earth, no hope for the nations of the earth, and no hope for creation, apart from Jehovah. The first and second Psalms (90 and 91) set this forth, and give, as it were, the key-note and epitome of the whole book. Its figures are from this wilderness-world; as mountains, hills, floods, grass, pestilence, trees, &c., which the reader will notice for himself. Happiness for the world will be found only when He, "Whose right it is", shall come again to reign and "judge the world in righteousness". In Christ, the coming King, not only Israel, but all the nations of the earth, will be blessed. This is the theme of the book. (See note on Psalm 96, II.)

It consists, like Book III, of seventeen Psalms, all of which are anonymous (though not all without titles) except 90 (and 91), Moses's, and 101, 108, which are David's.

Of the Divine Titles in this Fourth Book, Jehovah (Ap. 4. II) occurs 126 times, and Elohim (Ap. 4. I), 31 (10 of which are with Jehovah).

Psalms 90 and 91 1 are evidently one Psalm in two parts, written by Moses at the beginning of the thirty-eight years of penal wanderings in the wilderness (in 1490 B.C.), which are the subject of this Fourth Book.

Psalms 90 is suggested by, and occupied with, the sorrows of the vast multitude (associated with the 603,550 "men of war") in the wilderness, numbered, and sentenced to death; all from 20 years old and upward (Num. 14: 29).

It is of these that verses 9 and 10 speak.

If a man was 20 when he was numbered (for the war) he died at or before 60

The average age would be 50, hence verse 10.

Psalms 91, on the other hand, presents the contrast of those under "the shadow of the Almighty." The deliverance of "the Church in the wilderness", from the causes and instrumentalities of death for the countless condemned thousands (in Psalm 90) whose carcasses were to fall in the wilderness, is set forth at length.

If a man was 19 when the penal wanderings began, he would be 57 (19 + 38) at the close.

If a lad of 10, he would be 48; and so on.

This Psalm was therefore written for the comfort of "the Church in the wilderness" during the 40 years. Towards the close, myriads must have been cut off by the various agencies named:

- The terror by night.
- The arrow that flieth by day.
- The pestilence in darkness.
- The destruction (contagion) at noonday.
- The lion and adder.

With regard to the latter, in the night journeys (Num. 9. 21) they would be exposed to danger and death from the adders which infest the district, and from the attacks of wild beasts. From all of these the trusters would be delivered.

They would see with their eyes "the reward of the wicked"—thousands dying around, yet nothing permitted to assail them.

If tent is right in verse 10, this is confirmation that Moses wrote this Psalm, and at, or about, the time suggested—viz. 1490 B.C.

1 If 91 be a Psalm of Moses (following Psalm 90), then all the Scriptures quoted in our Lord's temptation (even that which the evil one tried to quote) were from the writings of Moses!

O satisfy us
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein Thou hast afflicted us,
And the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let Thy work appear unto Thy servants,
And Thy glory unto their children.

And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us:
And establish Thou the work of our hands upon us:
Yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it.

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the MOST HIGH Shall abide under the shadow of THE ALMIGHTY.

I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress:
My God; in Him will I trust."

Surely shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
And from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with His feathers,
And under His wings shalt thou trust:
"His truth shall be thy shield and buckler."

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night;
Nor for the arrow that dieth by day;
Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness;
Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side,
And ten thousand at thy right hand;
But it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold
And see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the LORD
"Which is my refuge;"

"Even" the MOST HIGH, thy habitation;
There shall no evil befall thee,
Neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For He shall give His angels charge over thee,
To keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands;
Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:
The young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

Because he hath set his love upon Me, therefore will I deliver him:
I will set him on high, because he hath known My name.
He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him:
I will be with him in trouble;
I will deliver him, and honour him.

1 It is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, And to sing praises unto Thy name, O Most High:
2 To shew forth Thy lovingkindness in the morning, And Thy faithfulness every night,
3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; Upon the harp with a solemn sound.
4 For Thou, Lord, hast made me glad through Thy work; I will triumph in Thy works of Thy hands.
5 O Lord, how great are Thy works! And Thy thoughts are very deep.
6 A brutish man knoweth not; Neither doth a fool understand this.

7 When the wicked spring as the grass, And when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; It is that they shall be destroyed for ever:
8 But Thou, Lord, art most high for evermore.

9 For, lo, Thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, Thine enemies shall perish;

All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

10 But my horn shalt Thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn:
I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

11 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies,
And mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree:
He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 Those that be planted in the house of the Lord
Shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age;
They shall be fat, and flourishing;

15 To shew that the Lord is upright:
He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

The Lord reigneth. Three Psalms commence thus (93, 97, 99): they each end with the thought of "holliness" (the last has the word "holy" three times), indicating that, when He reigns, "all will be holy" (Isa. 23, 18. Zech. 14, 20, 21). This explains the cry of the Zoria (Rev. 4, 8), because His judgments will prepare the way for His reign.

10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not
He correct?

11 He that teacheth man knowledge, shall not He know?

12 Blessed is the man whom Thou chasten-est, O LORD,
And teachest him out of Thy law;

13 That Thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity,
Until the pit be digged for "the wicked.

14 For the LORD will not cast off His People,
Neither will He forsake His inheritance.

15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness:
And all the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers?
Or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

17 Unless the LORD had been my help,
My soul had almost dwelt in silence.

18 When I said, "my foot slippeth;"
Thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me
Thy comforts delight my soul.

20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with Thee,
Which frameth mischief by a law?

21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous,
And condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the LORD is my defence;
And my God is the rock of my refuge.

23 And He shall bring upon them their own iniquity,
And shall cut them off in their own wickedness;
Yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

1 the LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4, II.

95 O come, let us sing unto the LORD:
Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

D M1 N (p. 814)
2 Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms.
3 For the LORD is a great GOD, and a great King above all gods.
4 In His hand are the deep places of the earth; the strength of the hills is His also.
5 The sea is His,
And by His hands the dry land.
6 Come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD our maker.
7 For is our God; and we are the People of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand.

To day if ye will hear His voice,
8 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted Me, provoking Me to be angry, and saw My work.
10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, "It is a People that do err in their heart, and are no things known My ways;"

Unto whom I spake in My wrath, That they should not enter into My rest.

Sing unto the LORD a new song; Sing unto the LORD, all the earth.
2 Sing unto the LORD, bless His name; Shew forth His salvation from day to day.
3 Declare His glory among the heathen, His wondrous works among all people.

For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised; He is to be feared above all gods.
5 For all the gods of the nations are idols:
But the LORD made the heavens.
6 Honour and beauty are ascribed to Him;
Strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people,
Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
8 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto His name:
Bring an offering, and come into His courts.
9 O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness;

Fear before Him, all the earth.
Say among the heathen that the LORD reigneth:
The world also shall be established that it shall not be moved;
He shall judge the people righteousness.

1 I will sing of mercy and judgment:
   Unto Thee, O LORD, will I sing.
2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way.
   O when wilt Thou come unto me?
   I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.
3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes:
   I hate the work of them that turn aside;
   It shall not cleave to me.
4 A froward heart shall depart from me:
   I will not know a wicked person.
5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off:
   §am that hath an high look and a proud heart will I not suffer.
6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me:
   He that walketh in a perfect way, his shall serve me.
7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house:
   He that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.
8 I will cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

102 A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LorD.

1 Hear my prayer, 0 LORD, And let my cry come unto Thee.
2 Hide not Thy face from me in the day I am in trouble;
Incline Thine ear unto me: In the day when I call answer me speedily.
3 For my days are consumed like smoke, And my bones are burned as an hearth.
4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass;
So that I forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of the voice of my groaning My bones cleave to my skin.
6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.
7 I watch, and am As a sparrow alone upon the house top.
8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; And they that are mad against me are sworn against me.
9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, And mingled my drink with weeping,
10 Because of Thine indignation and Thy wrath:
For Thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.
11 My days are like a shadow that declineth; And 3 am withered like grass.

5 great. The conception of Deity is grand; and the cosmogony is neither Hebrew nor Babylonian, but Divine.
6 clothed. Fig. Anthropopatheia. Ap. 6. So throughout the Psalm.
7 curtain. Of the fifty-three occurrences of this word, only one (here) in the Psalms. No less than forty-seven of them have to do with the Tabernacle; forty-three of them being in Ex. 26. 31.
8 the clouds = the thick clouds.
9 chariot. Fig. Anthropopatheia. Ap. 6.
12 Who coverest Thyself with light as with a garment: Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain: Who layeth the beams of His chambers in the waters: Who maketh the clouds His chariot: Who walketh upon the wings of the wind: Who maketh His angels spirits; His ministers a flaming fire: Who laid the foundations of the earth. That it should not be removed ever for ever.

6 Thou coverestd it with the deep as with a garment:
7 The waters stood above the mountains.
7 At Thy rebuke they fled;
At the voice of Thy thunder they hasted away.
8 They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys
Unto the place which Thou hast founded for them.
9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over;
That they turn not again to cover the earth.
10 He sendeth the springs into the valleys,
Which run among the hills.
11 They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild asses quench their thirst.
12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation,
Which sing among the branches.
13 He watereth the hills from His chambers:
The earth is satisfied with the fruit of Thy works.
14 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle,
And herb for the service of man:
The He may bring forth
food out of the earth;
15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man,
And oil to make his face shine,
And bread which strengtheneth man's heart.
16 The trees of the Lord are full of sap;
The cedars of Lebanon, which He hath planted;
17 Where the birds make their nests:
As for the stork, the fir trees are her house.
18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats;
And the rocks for the conies.
19 He appointed the moon for seasons:
The sun knoweth his going down,
20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night:
Wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth:
21 The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their meat from the Lord:
22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together,
And lay them down in their dens:
23 Man goeth forth unto his work;
And to his labour until the evening.
24 O Lord, how manifold are Thy works!
In wisdom hast Thou made them all:
The earth is full of Thy riches.
25 So is this great and wide sea,
Wherein are things creeping innumerable,
Both small and great beasts.
26 There go the ships:
There is that leviathan, whom Thou hast made to play therein.
27 These wait all upon Thee;
That Thou mayest give them their meat in due season.
28 That Thou givest them they gather:
Thou openest Thine hand, they are filled with good.
29 Thou hidest Thy face, they are troubled:
Thou takest away their breath, they die,
And return to their dust.

8 hast founded = didst prepare.
11 The wild ass: are provided with water. Cp. n.15.

19 knoweth. Fig. Prosopopeia. Ap. 6.
24 how manifold. Fig. Apostrophe. Ap. 6.
26 ships: or naphth, the "spirit" of v. 25.
leviathan = sea monster, or the "great" of v. 25. made = formed. play = sport.
28 hand. Fig. Anthrropopathia. Ap. 6.
29 troubled = dismayed.
earth = ground. Heb. 'adamah.
31 his works. His own works.
the wicked = lawless ones. Heb. riuchah. Ap. 44. x.
be no more = be there no sign of them. Cp. 108. 16.
Praise ye THE LORD (Heb. Jah. Ap. 4. III.), Heb. Halith-jah. This is the first "Hallelujah" in the T. The Talmud and the Midrash call attention to the fact that it is connected with the overthrow of the wicked. We may note that it is the same with the first Hallelujah in the N.T. (Rev. 19. 1, 2).

He toucheth the hills, and they smoke.
33 I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live;
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
34 My meditation of Him shall be sweet:
I will bless the Lord of my soul,

1 Praise ye THE LORD. Heb = Hallelu-jah.
mercy = lovingkindness, or grace.
2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? Who can shew forth all His praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, And they that do righteousness at all times.

4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that Thou bestowest upon Thy People; O visit me with Thy salvation;

5 That I may see the good of Thy chosen, That I may rejoice in the gladness of Thy nation, That I may glory with Thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers, We have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not Thy wonders in Egypt; They remembered not the multitude of Thy mercies;

8 Nevertheless He saved them for His name's sake, That He might make His mighty power to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up; So He led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And He saved them from the hand of them that hated them, And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters covered their enemies: There was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they His words; They sang His praise.

13 They soon forgat His works; They waited not for His counsel:

14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, And tempted the LORD in the desert.

15 And He gave them their request; But sent leanness into their soul, 16 They envied Moses also in the camp, And Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, And covered the company of Abiram.

18 And a fire was kindled in their company; The flame burned up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb, And worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they changed their glory Into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They forgat GOD their saviour, Which had done great things in Egypt; Wondrous works in the land of Ham, And terrible things by the Red sea.

22 Therefore He said that He would destroy them,

23 Had not Moses His chosen stood before Him in the breach, To turn away His wrath, lest He should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land, They believed not His word:

25 But murmured in their tents, "And hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 Therefore He lifted up His hand against them, To overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, And to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also unto Bal-peor, And ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked Him to anger with their inventions:

30 And the plague brake in upon them.
30. Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment:
And so the plague was stayed.
31. And that was counted unto him for righteousness
Unto all generations for evermore.

32. They angered Him also at the waters of strife,
So that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:
33. Because they provoked his spirit,
So that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34. They did not destroy the nations,
Concerning whom the Lord commanded them:
35. But were mingled among the heathen,
And learned their works.
36. And they served their idols:
Which were a snare unto them,
37. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,
And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
Whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan:
And the land was polluted with blood.
39. Thus were they defiled with their own works,
And went a whoring with their own inventions.

40. Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against His People, Insomuch that He abhorred His own inheritance.
41. And He gave them into the hand of the heathen;
And they that hated them ruled over them.
42. Their enemies also oppressed them,
And they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43. Many times did He deliver them;
But they provoked Him with their counsel,
And were brought low for their iniquity.
44. Nevertheless He regarded their affliction,
When He heard their cry:
45. And He remembered for them His covenant,
And repented according to the multitude of His mercies.
46. He made them also to be pitied
Of all those that carried them captives.

47. Save us, O LORD our God,
And gather us from among the heathen,
To give thanks unto Thy holy name,
And to triumph in Thy praise.
48. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting:
And let all the People say, "Amen."

Praise ye the LORD.

NOTES ON THE STRUCTURE, PAGE 826.

Deuteronomy is man's name for this book. It comes from the Greek Septuagint, and means "the second Law". It was given because Deuteronomy was a repetition of the Law, with variations, to suit the needs of the new generation in the Land. The title in the Hebrew Canon is שֵׁבֶט הַדֶּבָּרִים, Shēḇēt ha-Dēḇārīm, "These are the Words". It is the book which contains the words of God; and consists almost wholly of the testimonies, statutes, judgments, &c., of Jehovah. It was from this book that the Saviour made His three quotations, when He met the tempter with the threefold "It is written". It follows the Book of the Wilderness; and gives the reason for all the trials of the pilgrimage: "The Lord thy God led thee these forty years... that He might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live" (Deut. 8, 3). The natural life, the giving of which is recorded in Genesis, is nothing worth if man be not begotten by the Word, and if the new nature thus given be not nourished by the Word. For only thus can man be truly said to "live".

Hence, in this Deuteronomy-Book of the Psalms we have the same leading subject. Its teaching, like that of the other books, is Dispensational; and it is grouped around the Word. All blessing for Man (Book I), all blessing for Israel (Book II), all blessing for Zion (Book III), all blessing for the Earth and its Nations (Book IV), is bound up in the Word and Law of God. The breaking of that Law had been the source of Man's sorrow, Israel's dispersion, the Temple's ruin, and the Earth's misery. It will yet be seen that all blessing for Man, the gathering of Israel, the building of Zion, and restoration for the earth, is bound up with the Word of God, and with His Law written by His Spirit on the fleshy tablets of the heart (Jer. 31, 31-34; Ezek. 36, 24-34).

What a wonderful thing for one to be brought to say "O how I love Thy Law!" (Psalm 119, 97), when the breaking of that Law had brought in all the suffering! But it will be noted that this is said only after (in Psalm 119) the Resurrection of the Righteous Magnifier of that Law has been celebrated.

This is the theme of the Deuteronomy-Book of the Psalms. It consists of forty-four Psalms, in which the title Jehovah occurs 208 times; and Jah, 13; while Elohim occurs only 41 times (4 of which are with Jehovah); El, 10 times; Eloha, twice.

While the structure of the other books consists of two or three sections, this book, like the Law of God itself, is a perfect whole. It is the only book which has an even number of Psalms. Its first Psalm (107), as is the case with the first Psalms of the other books, is at once its key-note and epitome.

† Heb. Shāḇāth = graves, or pits (from Shāḇāth - to destroy), occurs only here and in Lam. 4, 20. The two passages, taken together, tell us that it is not merely the written Word which delivers from deep afflictions, but that the Living and Divine Word, Who was "taken in their pits", is the alone Deliverer of His People from their graves.

‡ It will be noted that Ps. 119 is characteristic of the Deuteronomy Book of the Psalms; while Ps. 84 is characteristic of the Levitical Book, and Ps. 90 of the Numbers Book. We cannot imagine these as being appropriate to any other Books.

The Quickening and Sustaining Word. This is characteristic of Ps. 119. Cp. vv. 25, 34, 40, 50, 88, 93, 107, 149, 154, 155, 156 (eleven occurrences). Moreover, the verb hāḇāth (= to breathe, to live, to continue to live) is used sixteen times in this Psalm, always in the sense of keeping alive, or continuing in life. See K.J. (Future), v. 17, 77, 116, 144, 175. Psal. (Pref.), v. 26, 83. Psal. (Imperative), vv. 24, 37, 49, 88, 107, 149, 154, 155, 156.

In this connection, how suitable to Hezekiah. See Ap. 67, and note the Distress, which is the subject of the first Psalm of each of the five groups of "the songs of the Degrees"; and Hezekiah's earnest prayer. Ap. 67 (iv and xiv).

§ The Songs of the Degrees are 15 in number (129-134, 42, above). They correspond in number with the 15 years added to Hezekiah's life. Ten are by Hezekiah (corresponding with the number of "the Degrees" by which the shadow of the sun went backward on the sun-dial of Ahaz, 2 Kings 20, 8-11). Five are by others (4 by David and 1 by Solomon). Solomon's Psalm occupies the centre (127); and, of the 7 on either side, 2 in each 7 are by David; and 10 (5 in each 7) by Hezekiah.

In each 7 the name of Jehovah occurs 24 times, and Jah once in the third Psalm of each 7. In the central Psalm Jehovah occurs 3 times.

The fifteen Psalms are arranged in five groups of 3 each. In each group, the subject of the first is Distress; the second is Trust in Jehovah; while the third speaks of Blessing and Peace in Zion.

They are here in fulfilment of Hezekiah's promise recorded in Isa. 38, 20. (For further information see Ap. 73, and Dr. J. W. Thirlwall's Old Testament Problems. London, Henry Frowde.)

¶ The last five Hallelujah Psalms (146-150, F, p. 820) are an echo and reminiscence of the whole of the five books of the Psalter:—

7 He led them forth. When this case, the way is always "right": it is His way: not the shortest, or most direct, or most pleasant; but it is the way of Grace and Favour. It is the way of Trial (Deut. 8, 2-4); the way of Safety; the way of Divine Provision and Miraculous Supplies; and it ends "right.

contemned = despised. the MOST HIGH. Heb. 'Elyon. Ap. 4, VI.

[Note: The text is a detailed transcription of the biblical Hebrew and Greek, focusing on the Book of Psalms, particularly Psalms 107-150, with extensive notes and references to the Deuteronomy book and other biblical passages.]
19. Then they cry unto 1 the LORD in their trouble,
And He saveth them out of their distresses.
20. He sent His Word, and healed them,
And delivered them from their destructions.

21. Oh that men would praise 1 the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to "the children of men!
22. And let them declare the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And declare His works with rejoicing.
23. They that go down to the sea in ships,
That do business in great waters;
24. He maketh the stormy wind,
Which lifteth up the waves thereof.
25. They mount up to the heavens, they go down again to the depths;
The soul is melted because of trouble.
26. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
And 2 are at their wit's end.

28. Then they cry unto 1 the LORD in their trouble,
And He bringeth them out of their distresses.
29. He maketh the storm a calm,
So that the waves thereof are still.
30. Then are they glad because they be quiet;
So He 3 bringeth them unto their desired haven.
31. Oh that men would praise 1 the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to "the children of men!
32. Let them exalt Him also in the "congregation of the people,
And praise Him in the "assembly of the elders.
33. He turneth rivers into a wilderness,
And the watersprings into dry ground;
34. A fruitful land into barrenness,
For the "wickedness of them that dwell therein.
35. He turneth the wilderness into a standing water,
And dry ground into watersprings.
36. And there He maketh the hungry to dwell,
That they may prepare a city for habitation;
37. And sow they fields, and plant vineyards,
Which may yield fruits of increase.
38. He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly;
And "suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
39. Again, they are ministered and brought low
Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

40. He poureth contempt upon princes,
And causeth them to wander in the "wilderness, where there is no way.
41. Yet setteth He "the poor on high from affliction,
And maketh him families like a flock.
42. The righteous shall see it, and rejoice:
And all "iniquity shall stop her mouth.
43. Whoso is wise, and will observe these things,
Even they shall understand the "loving-kindness of 1 the LORD.

38. He sent His Word = He senteth. This is the key-note to the whole book. All blessing is bound up in this. Note the prophetic reference to Christ, the "Living Word (John 1.1, 1, 14), and contrast with the written Word (Ps. 119). See the Structure, p. 826.
39. sent = senteth. healed = healeth.
d. (Judas =) delivered = delivereth.
d. (Judas =) destructions = graves. Heb. shâkâth. Occurs only here and Lam. 4.20. The Divine Deliverer was "taken in their pits"; and He alone can deliver from the grave.
40. They that go down, &c. In the Heb. text, vv. 23-28 are marked by "inverted Nêma" i.e. the letter Nêm (N), inverted C). There are nine altogether (see Ginzberg's Massorah, Letter 2, §15, Vol. II, p. 259). There are two in Num. 10.35, 36 (see note there), and seven in this Psalm. Verses 23-28 each have one; also v. 40. These inverted letters are used as our "brackets", in order to indicate that, in the opinion of the Sopherim, the verses so marked should be transposed. But this is only an opinion, arrived at from not seeing the Structure of the Psalm, which, when examined, leaves nothing "inexplicable", as the transition from v. 35 to v. 36 is said to be.

24. works. Some codices, with two early printed editions, read "work" (sing.).
30. bringeth = guideth: or, will gently guide.
32. congregation = assembly, or convocation.
33. assembly = session, or seated company.

107. 33-41. (B, p. 826). JUDGMENT AND BLESSING. (Alternation.)
B | e | 33, 34. Judgment.
   | f | 35-38. Lovingkindness.
   | e | 39, 40. Judgment.
   | f | 41. Lovingkindness.
34. wickedness. Heb. ra'a'. Ap. 44. viii.
35. And. Note the Polyglossion (Ap. 6) in vv. 35-38, emphasising each item which goes to make up the fulness of blessing.
38. suffereth not, &c. Fig. Tapeinosis (Ap. 6)=will abundantly multiply.
39. Again, &c. So far from the transition from v. 38 to 39 being "inexplicable", or v. 39 being an "interpolation", the perfection of the repetition of the subject ("judgment") is shown by the Structure above.
40. in the wilderness, where there is no way = a pathless waste.
41. the poor = a needy one. Heb. 'ebôn. See note on Prov. 6.11.
42. iniquity. Heb. 'a'el. Ap. 44. v1.

43. these. The edition of A.V., 1611, reads "these", lovingkindness = lovingkindnesses (pl). Same word as "mercy", in v. 1. A, thus corresponding with A, in Heb., though not in A.V.

40. He poureth contempt upon princes,
And causeth them to wander "in the "wilderness, where there is no way.
41. Yet setteth He "the poor on high "from affliction,
And maketh him families like a flock.
42. The righteous shall see it, and rejoice:
And all "iniquity shall stop her mouth.
43. Whoso is wise, and will observe "these things,
Even they shall understand the "loving-kindness of 1 the LORD.
108.  A Song or Psalm of David.

1 O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

3 I will praise Thee, O LORD, among the people:
And I will sing praises unto Thee among the nations.

4 For Thy mercy is great above the heavens:
And Thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

5 Be Thou exalted, O God, above the heavens:
And Thy glory above all the earth.

6 That Thy beloved may be delivered:
Save with Thy right hand, and answer me.

7 I will sing praises unto Him in my melody:
I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine:
Ephraim also is the strength of mine head:
Judah is my lawgiver;

9 Moab is my washpot;
Over Edom will I cast out my shoe;
Over Philistia will I triumph.

10 Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who will lead me into Edom?

11 Wilt not Thou, O God, Who hast cast us off?
And wilt not Thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

12 Give us help from trouble:
For vain is the help of man.

13 Through God we shall do valiantly:
For it is Thou that shalt tread down our enemies.

*To the chief Musician.

1 Hold not Thy peace, O God of my praise;

2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me:
They have spoken against me with words of hatred;
And fought against me without a cause.

3 For my love they are my adversaries:
But I will give myself unto prayer.

4 And they have rewarded me evil for good,
And hatred for my love.

5 Set Thou a wicked man over him:
And let Satan stand at his right hand.

6 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned:
And let his prayer become sin.

7 Let his days be few;
And let another take his office.
9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg.
Let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.
11 Let the extortioner catch all that he hath;
And let the strangers spoil his labour.
12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him:
Neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.
13 Let his posterity be cut off;
And in the generation following let their name be blotted out.
14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD;
And let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.
15 "Let them be before the LORD continually,
That he may cut off the memory of them from the earth."

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy,
But persecuted the poor and needy man,
That he might even slay the broken in heart.
17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him:
As he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.
18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment,
So let it come into his bowels like water,
And like oil into his bones.
19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him,
And for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.
20 "Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD,
And of them that speak evil against my soul."

But do upon me, O God the LORD, for Thy name's sake:
Because Thy mercy is good, deliver Thou me.
22 For I am poor and needy,
And my heart is wounded within me.
23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth:
I am tossed up and down as the locust.
24 My knees are weak through fasting;
And my flesh faileth of fatness.
25 "Let them be also a reproach unto them:
When they looked upon me they shook their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God:
O save me according to Thy mercy:
27 That they may know that this is Thy hand;
That Thou, O LORD, hast done it.
110 A Psalm of David.

1 The Lord shall make Thee a priest for ever, after the order of Melchizedek.
2 The works of the Lord are great, full of wonderful beauty.
3 His works are honourable and glorious; and His righteousness endures for ever.

begotten thee [a son]". Cp. 2. 7. There should be 4 sworn. Corresponding with "said" (v. 1.) himself, who was not of the tribe of Levi.

the order. Cp. Gen. 14. 18. Heb. 5. 6. 18; 8. 20; 7. 1-24. Melchizedek. His priesthood was unique, and did not pass to another, as did Aaron's. Hence, Christ's priesthood, being in Resurrection life and Ascension glory, will continue for ever, and He will be a priest upon His throne (Zech. 6. 12), and a priest for ever.

heads = head (Rev. 19. 11-12): i.e. the Antichrist. many countries = a great land. 7 off from. The verse begins with this word (Heb. = M—from), and thus corresponds with the "from" of v. 3 (member M, above).

112 Praise ye  THE LORD.

(1) Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD.

(2) That delighteth greatly in His commandments.

2 (3) His seed shall be mighty upon earth:

(1) The generation of the upright shall be blessed.

3 (7) Wealth and riches shall be in his house:

(1) And his righteousness endureth for ever:

4 (1) Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness:

(2) He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteousness.

5 (2) A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth:

(1) He will guide his affairs with discretion.

6 (2) Surely he shall not be moved for ever:

(2) The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

7 (2) He shall not be afraid of evil tidings:

(1) His heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.

8 (5) His heart is established, he shall not be afraid:

(3) Until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9 (2) He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor:

(3) His righteousness endureth for ever:

(3) His horn shall be exalted with honour.

10 (7) The wicked shall see it, and be grieved:

(2) He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away:

(7) The desire of the wicked shall perish.

117 O praise the Lord, all ye nations:
   Praise Him, all ye people.
2 For His merciful kindness is great toward us:
   And the truth of the Lord endureth for ever.
   Praise ye the Lord.

118 Give thanks unto the Lord; for He is good:

6 The Lord is on my side; I will not fear:
   What can man do unto me?
7 The Lord taketh my part with them that help me:
   Therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.
8 It is better to trust in the Lord

9 It is better to trust in the Lord

   They were quenched as the fire of thorns:
   For in the name of the Lord I will destroy them.
13 Thou hast strengthened me at that I might fall:
   But the Lord helped me.
14 The Lord is my strength and song,
   And is become my salvation.
15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous:
16 The right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly.
17 I shall not die, but live,

18 The Lord hath chastened me sore:

ALEPH.

1 (N) Blessed are the undefiled in the way, Who walk in the law of the LORD.

2 (N) Blessed are they that keep His testimonies, And that seek Him with the whole heart.

3 (N) They also do no iniquity: They walk in His ways.

4 (N) Thou hast commanded us To keep Thy precepts diligently.

5 (N) That my ways were directed To keep Thy statutes!

6 (N) Then shall I not be ashamed, When I have respect unto all Thy commandments.

7 (N) I will praise Thee with uprightness of heart, When I shall have learned Thy righteous judgments.

8 (N) I will keep Thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

23 This is the LORD's doing. Messiah's exaltation is thus like the humiliation (109. 27).

24 Save now, &c. Heb. "Hosanna" = Save, I pray, Not a Particle of time, but of eternity (as in Ecc. 12. 1).

25 Repeated four times for emphasis. Lit. "I pray Thee, Jehovah; Save, I pray Thee; I pray Thee, O Jehovah".

Bind. Heb. 'aser, to bind, or join. Here, in its idiomatic usage, to join, so as to make ready (Gen. 49. 29. Ex. 14. 6. 1 Kings 18. 14. 2 Kings 9. 2), or begin (1 Kings 20. 14. 1 Chron. 13. 3).

even unto. Heb. 'ad = up to or during: i.e. even until it is consumed at the horns of the altar. 'Ad denotes progression in time. Translate: "Make ready the feast sacrifice with garlands until it is consumed at the horns of the altar." Cp. Acts 14. 13.

There is nothing about "to the altar" here.

28 praise = give thanks.

1 (N) The way.

3 (P) They, upright. (General.)

4 (Q) Command.

O (N) My ways.

5 (P) I, upright. (Individual.)

Q (O) Promise.

5 The LORD is thy 1 keeper: The LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.

6 The sun shall not smite thee by day, Nor the moon by night.

7 The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: He shall preserve thy soul.

8 The LORD shall preserve thee going out and thy coming in From this time forth, and even for evermore.

122 A Song of degrees of David.

1 I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into 1 the house of the LORD, To stand within thy gates, O 1 Jerusalem.

2 Jerusalem is builded As a city that is compact together:

3 With whom the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD.

Unto the testimony of Israel, To give thanks unto the name of the LORD.

5 For there are set 1 thrones of judgment, The thrones of the house of David.

6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:

They shall prosper that love thee.

7 Peace be within thy walls, And prosperity within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

9 Because of 1 the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.

Title. A Song, &c. Same as Ps. 120. 1 dwellest in the heavens. The reference is to 2 Kings 19. 16 and Isa. 37. 16.
2 "Behold, "as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, And as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; So our eyes wait upon "the LORD our God, Until that He "have mercy upon us.

2 Have mercy upon us, O "LORD, have mercy upon us; For we are exceedingly filled with "contempt.

Our soul is exceedingly filled With the "contempt of those that are "at ease, And with the "contempt of the "proud.

1 "If it had not been "the LORD Who was on our side," Now may Israel say;

2 "If it had not been "the LORD Who was on our side, When "men rose up against us:

Then "they had swallowed us up "quick, When their wrath was kindled against us:

4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, The "stream had gone over "our soul:

5 Then the proud waters had gone over "our soul.

Blessed be "the LORD, Who hath not given us "as a prey to their teeth.

Our soul is escaped "as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: The snare is broken, and we are escaped.

Our help is in the "name of "the LORD, "Who made heaven and earth."

They that "trust in "the LORD Shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth "for ever.

As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, So "the LORD is round about His People From henceforth even "for ever.

For the "rod of "the wicked shall not rest upon the "lot of the "righteous; Lest the "righteous put forth their hands unto "iniquity.

Do good, O "LORD, unto "them that be good, And to "them that are upright in their hearts.

As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, The "LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of "iniquity:

But peace shall be upon Israel.
126 *A Song of degrees.

1 When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, We were like them that dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, And our tongue with singing: Then said they among the heathen, "The LORD hath done great things for them."

3 The LORD hath done great things for us; Whereof we are glad.

4 Turn again our captivity, O LORD, As the streams in the south.

5 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, Shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

127 A Song of degrees for Solomon.

1 Except the LORD build the house, They labour in vain that build it: Except the LORD keep the city, The watchman waketh but in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, To eat the bread of sorrows: For he giveth His beloved sleep.

3 Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: And the fruit of the womb is His reward.

4 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; So are children in the hand of the owner of them.

5 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: They shall not be ashamed, But they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

128 *A Song of degrees.

1 Blessed is every one that feareth the LORD; That walketh in His ways.

of Jehovah. Some codices, with Sqq., Syr., and Vulg., read pl. sleep = in sleep: i.e. while they sleep: i.e. without their labour. So He gave to Solomon (1 Kings 3. 6–10); to Adam (Gen. 2. 21, 22); Abraham (Gen. 15. 12, 13); Jacob (Gen. 28. 10–15); Samuel (1 Sam. 3. 3, 4), &c.

3 Lo. Fig. Aeterismo. Ap. 6. children = sons. The reference to the fact that Hesekiah was rejoicing in Isaiah's message that he should have a son, made it a suitable Psalm for Hesekiah to select (2 Kings 20, 18). Ps. 120. 1, 2. See Ap. 67. 18. When his trouble came, he was childless. Hence he remembered Jehovah's promise to David (182. 11). off = from. Hence he sings Jehovah's praise. 5 Happy is the man. Hesekiah was that man. See the Beatitudes. Ap. 63. VI. man. Heb. geder. Ap. 14. IV. They: i.e. the sons. not be ashamed. Fig. Topetinosa (Ap. 6): quite the opposite. speak = meet, whether for negotiation or for fighting.

A Song of degrees.

1 "Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth,"
May Israel now say:
2 "Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth:
Yet they have not prevailed against me.
3 The plowers plowed upon my back:
They made long their furrows."

4 The LORD is righteous:
He hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.
5 Let them all be confounded and turned back
That hate Zion.
6 Let them be as the grass upon the housetops,
Which withereth afore it groweth up:
7 Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand;
Nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.
8 Neither do they which go by say,
"The blessing of the LORD be upon you:
We bless you in the name of the LORD."

2 LORD, hear my voice:

My soul is even as a weaned child.

132 A Song of degrees.

1 LORD, remember David, All his afflictions;
How he sware unto the LORD, And vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob;
Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, Nor go up into my bed;
I will not give sleep to mine eyes, Or slumber to mine eyelids,
Until I find out a place for the LORD, An habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

6 Lo, we have heard of it at Ephratah: We found it in the fields of the wood.

7 We will go into His tabernacles: We will worship at His footstool.

8 Arise, O LORD, into Thy rest; Thou, and the ark of Thy strength.

9 Let Thy priests be clothed with righteousness;
And let Thy saints shout for joy.

10 For Thy servant David's sake Turn not away the face of Thine anointed.

Title. A Song of degrees. Same as 120. The three subjects of the three Psalms of this last group are merged in blessing. of David = by David. Hezekiah found this Psalm exactly suited for his purpose. David wrote it on the experience of a similar blessing of "unity," when "all Israel" were united as the heart of ONE MAN (2 Sam. 19. 1-14). It was the same with Hezekiah. Read 2 Chron. 30. 5, 6, 11, 18, and note the "ONE HEART" (v. 12). See Ap. 67. xv.

3 Praise ONE LORD; for ONE LORD is good; Sing praises unto His name; for IT is pleasant.

4 For ONE LORD hath chosen Jacob unto Himself, And Israel for His peculiar treasure.

5 For I know that ONE LORD is great, And IT is above all gods. Whatsoever ONE LORD pleased, THAT did He In heaven, and in earth, and all deep places.

11 And gave their land for an heritage, An heritage unto Israel His People.

Psalm 135 and 136 are a pair; and have a corresponding Structure when viewed together. This does not interfere with their own Independent Structures. In Ps. 135, verses 19-22 are not "an addition" or "interpolation" from 135, 16, in order to make twenty-two verses (the number of letters in the Hebrew alphabet). Without these verses (vv. 19-22) the Structure below would fail.

Psalm 135
E 1-5. Exhortation to praise.
F 6-7. Creative wonders.
G 8, 9. Deliverance from Egypt.
H 10, 11. Deliverance on Journey.
K 14. Goodness to His People.
L 15-18. False gods.

Psalm 136

F 6-7. Creative wonders.
G 8, 9. Deliverance from Egypt.
H 10, 11. Deliverance on Journey.
K 14. Goodness to His People.

8 great lights. Gen. 1, 14, "lightholders".
9 to rule = to have dominion. Gen. 1, 16-18.
14 Sihon, &c. These two verses (vv. 19, 20) not an "interpolation". See note above.
15 their = Sihon's and Og's. Not a verse "clearly dropped out", which contained the noun for this pronoun. The kings named show "whose" land is referred to. An "interpolation" from which a verse has "dropped out" is a new idea in the field of imaginative criticism; and, if true, would be quite unworthy of a "commentator's" time and trouble.

1 Babylon. The Psalm is anonymous, and probably by Hezekiah. No need to refer it to post-exilic times. The Psalm reads as though it were a reminiscence of past experience in Babylon, and a contrast with previous joys in Zion; during or after the seventy years, or an experience of a then present exile in Babylon. The writer is in Jerusalem after an absence not of long duration; and is full of joy. The post-exilic captives were full of sorrow on their return (Ezra 8:12). The text had obeyed Isaiah's call (Isa. 48. 20. Cp. 43. 14–21).

2 they that carried us away: i.e. the captives of Judah, as those of Israel had been by Shalmaneser and Sargon. The latter took away only 27,800 from Samaria. See note on 1 Chron. 5. 6. and Ap. 67. xi.

138 A Psalm of David.

1 I will praise Thee with my whole heart:
Before the gods will I sing praise unto Thee.

2 I will worship toward Thy holy temple,
And praise Thy name for Thy loving-kindness and for Thy truth:
For Thou hast magnified Thy word above all Thy name.

3 In the day when I cried Thou answeredst me, And strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise Thee, O LORD,
When they hear the words of Thy mouth.

6 Though 'tis the Lord be high, yet hath He respect unto the lowly:
But the proud He knoweth afar off.
7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
Thou wilt revive me:
Thou shalt stretch forth Thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies,
And Thy right hand shall save me.
8 The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me:
Thy 'mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever:
Forsake not the works of Thine own hands.

A Psalm of David.

1 O Lord, Thou hast searched me, and known me.

2 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising.
Thou understandest my thoughts afar off.
3 Thou comest and all my ways are before mine eyes,
And art acquainted with all my ways.
4 For there is not a word in my tongue,
But lo, O Lord, Thou knowest it altogether.
5 Thou hast beset me behind and before,
And laid Thine hand upon me.
6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain unto it.
7 Whither shall I go from Thy spirit?
Or whither shall I fly from Thy presence?
8 If I ascend up into heaven, art thou there?
If I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.
9 If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
10 Even there shall Thy hand lead me,
And Thy right hand shall hold me.
11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me;
Even the night shall be light about me.
12 Yes, the darkness hideth not from Thee;
But the night shineth as the day:
The darkness and the light are both alike to Thee.
13 For thou hast possessed my reins:
Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.
14 I will praise Thee; for I am fearful and wonderfully made:
Marvelous are Thy works;
And that 'my soul knoweth right well.
15 My substance was not hid from Thee;
When I was made in secret,
And curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.
16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect;
And in Thy book all my members were written.

Which in continuance were fashioned,
When as yet there was none of them.

17 How precious also are Thy thoughts unto me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:
When I awake, I am still with Thee.
19 Surely, Thou wilt slay the wicked, O God:
Depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.
20 For they speak against Thee wickedly,
And Thine enemies take Thy name in vain.
21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate Thee?
And am not I grieved with those that rise up against Thee?
22 I hate them with perfect hatred:
I count mine enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart:
Try me, and know my thoughts:
24 And see if there be any wicked way in me,
And lead me in the way everlasting.

A Psalm of David.

1 Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil man:
Preserve me from the violent man;
2 Which imagine mischief in their heart;
Continually are they gathered together for war;
3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent;
Adders' poison is under their lips.

4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked;
Preserve me from the violent man;
Who have purposed to overthrow my going;
5 They would have hid a snare for me, and cords;
They have spread a net
by the wayside;
They have set gins for me.

6 I said unto the LORD, "Thou art my strength:
Hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.
7 O LORD, the strength of my salvation,
Thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked:
Further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves.

9 As for the head of those that compass me about,
Let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
10 Let burning coals fall upon them:
Let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again.
11 Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth:
Evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

To practise wicked works.

And let him reproove me; it shall be an excellent oil,
Which shall not break my head:
For yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places,
They shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me:
Refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

I cried unto Thee, O Lord: I said, “I have art my refuge
And my portion in the land of the living.”

Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low:
Deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.

Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Thy name:
The righteous shall compass me about;
For Thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

A Psalm of David.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, give ear to my supplications:
In Thy faithfulness answer me, and in Thy righteousness.

And enter not into judgment with Thy servant:
For in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

For the enemy hath persecuted my soul;
He hath smitten my life down to the ground;
He hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me;
My heart within me is desolate.

I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all Thy works;
I muse on the work of Thy hands.

I stretch forth my hands unto Thee;
My soul thirsteth after Thee, as a thirsty land.

Hear me speedily, O Lord: my spirit faileth:
Hide not Thy face from me, Lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

Cause me to hear Thy lovingkindness in the morning;
For in Thee do I trust:
Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk;
For I lift up my soul unto Thee.

Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies:
I flee unto Thee to hide me.

Teach me to do Thy will; for Thou art my God:
Thy Spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.

Quickly me, O Lord, for Thy name’s sake:

144

A Psalm of David.

1 Blessed be the LORD my strength, Which teacheth my hands to war, And my fingers to fight: 2 My goodness and my fortress, My high tower, and my deliverer; My shield, and He in Whom I trust; Who subdueth my People under me. 3 LORD, what is man, that Thou taketh knowledge of him! 4 Or the son of man, that Thou maketh account of him! 5 Man is like to vanity: His days are as a shadow that passeth away. 6 Bow Thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke. 7 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: Shoot out Thine arrows, and destroy them. 8 Send Thine hand from above; Rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, From the hand of all strange children; 9 Whose mouth speaketh vanity, And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood. 10 I will sing a new song unto Thee, O God: Upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto Thee. 11 It is He that giveth salvation unto kings: Who delivereth David His servant from the hurtful sword. 12 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; That our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace: 13 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of store: That our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets: 14 That our oxen may be strong to labour; That there be no breaking in, nor going out; That there be no complaining in our streets. 15 Happy is that people, that is in such a case:

Yea, happy is that People, whose God is the LORD.

THE PROVERBS.

INT.
(p. 864)

1 THE PROVERBS of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;
2 To know wisdom and instruction;
3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;
4 To give subtlety to the simple,
5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning;
6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation of a word.
7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge;
   But fools despise wisdom and instruction.

of lines, synonymous, or gradational, or synthetic (i.e. constructive), or antithetic (i.e. contrastive). These again are arranged (as to order) either in alternate or introverted lines. 1 of. Genitive of Relation (Ap. 17), being the title or heading of the whole book, some being "for" him; others "by" him. If not, why the words of 10. 17? Chapters 10—19. 19 are not to "my son", but are in the third person, "he" and him. See Ap. 74, and note also other sub-headings, 25. 1; 30. 1; 31. 1. All these are covered by the Genitive of Relation (Ap. 17).

2 To know — For discerning. So in wv. 5, 6, a psalm. Heb. chokmah. There are several rendered "wisdom" in this book. (1) chokmah, rendered "wisdom" except in the passages below. It occurs thirty-nine times in song, and three times in pl. (1. 26; 9. 1; 21. 1 = true wisdom); forty-two times altogether (8 X 7. See Ap. 10). (2) binah = discernment or discrimination. Once rendered "wisdom" (23. 4). Elsewhere, in twelve passages rendered "understanding"; once "knowledge" (2. 3). (3) leb = heart; rendered "wisdom" four times (10. 11; 11. 12; 18. 1; 19. 8). (4) dmrkh = shrewdness; rendered "wisdom" only in 8. 5; elsewhere only in 1. 4 rendered "subtlety"; 1. 12 rendered "prudence". (5) sldh = prudence, or good sense, rendered "wisdom" once (1. 3). and (6) sezql = insight, rendered "wisdom" (12. 8; 23. 9); elsewhere rendered "understanding" (3. 4; 13. 15; 16, 22), and "prudence" (19. 11). For "sound wisdom", see note on 2. 7. instruction = admonition or discipline. Sometimes rendered "chastening".

5 will hear. Illustrations: Eunch (Acts 3. 7; 36; Sappius Paulus Acts 17. 11, 12); Apollos (Acts 18. 24-26).
6 the interpretation = satire, or the point of what is said. Occurs only here and Hab. 2. 6.

(Repeated Alternation.)

words. Heb. dbur. Ap. 73. x. 7 fear = reverence. This expression occurs fourteen times in Proverbs (1. 7; 29; 2. 2; 8. 10; 9. 10; 10. 27; 14. 26; 27; 15. 16; 33; 16. 5; 19. 23; 22. 4; 29. 17). See Ap. 78. the LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. 11. the beginning. And only the "beginning", not the end. It is not "wisdom" itself. True wisdom is to justify God and condemn oneself. See note on Job 28. 28, and cp. 9. 10. Fs. 111, 10. fools. Heb. "bel. In this book three Heb. words are rendered "fools": (1) bel = lax or careless habit of mind and body. Occurs nineteen times in Proverbs, viz. here, 7. 22; 10. 6; 16; 14; 21; 11. 29; 12. 15; 14. 8; 15. 5; 16. 22; 17. 28; 20. 3; 24. 7; 27. 3; 22. 9. (2) sef = feet, and hence, or stupid, which comes of showing itself in impiety. Occurs forty-nine times in Proverbs, viz. 22. 22; 3. 35; 5. 8; 10. 18; 23. 12; 13. 16; 19; 20; 14. 7; 8; 16; 24.; 16. 7; 17; 20.; 17. 16; 12; 21; 24; 25.; 18. 6; 7; 19. 1; 19; 13; 29; 21; 29; 23. 9; 26. 1; 5; 6; 7; 8; 9; 10; 11; 12; 28.; 29; 11; 20; and eighteen times in Ecclesiastes. (3) mel = a vulgar churl. Occurs only three times in Proverbs: viz. 17. 7; 21; 30. 24; not in Ecclesiastes. despise = have always despised, &c. Illustrations: Cain (Gen. 4. 6-8); Hophni and Phinehas (1 Sam. 2. 12, 25); Nabal (1 Sam. 25, 25); Rehoboam (1 Kings 12. 19); Athenians (Acts 17. 18, 22); Jews and Greeks (1 Cor. 1. 1. 23, 24).
18. My son, hear the instruction of thy father
   And forsake not the law of thy mother:
9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head,
   And chains about thy *neck.
10 My son, if thou art wise and subtle;
   Let us hear your wisdom:
11 If they say, Come with us;
   Let us lie wait for blood,
   Let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:
12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave;
   And whole, as those that go down into the pit;
13 We shall find all precious substance,
   We shall fill our houses with spoil:
14 Cast in thy lot among us;
   Let us all have one purse:"
15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them;
   Refrain thy foot from their path;
16 For their feet run to evil,
   And make haste to shed blood.
17 Surely the net is spread in the sight of any bird.
18 And the lay wait for their own blood;
   They lurk privily for their own lives;
19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of soul:
   Which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.
20 Wisdom crieth without;
   She uttereth her voice in the streets;
21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse;
   In the openings of the gates:
22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity?
   And the sons of whoredom delight in their scorning,
   And the fools hate knowledge?
23 Turn you at my reproof;
   Behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you,
   I will make known my words unto *you;"
24 Because I have called, and ye refused;
   I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;*
25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel,
   And would none of my reproof;
26 I also will laugh at your *calamity;
   I will mock when your fear cometh;
27 When your fear cometh as desolation,
   And your destruction cometh as a whirlwind;
   When distress and anguish cometh upon you;
28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer;
   They shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:
29 For that they hated knowledge,
   And did not choose the fear of the LORD:

Proverbs.

30 They would none of my counsel: They despised all my reproof.

31 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, And be filled with their own devices.

32 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, And the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, And shall be quiet from fear of evil.

2 My son, if thou wilt receive my words, And hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, "And apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, And liftest up thv voice for understanding;

4 If thou seekest her as silver, And searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, And find the knowledge of God.

6 For the Lord giveth wisdom:

7 He layeth up knowledge for the righteous;

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, And preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, And equity; yea, every good path.

10 When wisdom entereth into thine heart, And knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, Understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, From the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, To walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoiced to do evil, And delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 Whose ways are crooked, And they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from the stranger woman, Even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 Which Forsaketh the guide of her youth, And forsook the covenant of her God.

PROVERBS.

14 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold. And the hand of the laborer is more precious than rubies; and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

15 Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honor. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths peace.

16 And happy is every one that retaineth her. The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath He established the heavens.

17 By knowledge is dwelleth the habitation of righteousness, and the wealth is his reward.

18 He that despised his master's word, and left his inheritance in the days of his youth, shall not only be put to shame in the gate, but also be ashamed all the days of his life.

19 The hand of the oppressor shall be filled with food; but the poor shall have satiation.

20 When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid; neither shall thy foot stir outside.

21 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool; but he that walketh uprightly shall be delivered.

22 Pour out the words of thy mouth, and open not thy lips; wait thou for him that pleaseth thee.

23 Say not unto thy soul, I will go back to the days of old, when I was comforted; neither again let my eyes weep for those who oppress me.

24 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold. And the hand of the laborer is more precious than rubies; and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

25 The hand of the laborer is better than the hand of the oppressor; for the wise of heart shall receive of his labor.

26 But he that despises his master's word, and leaves his inheritance in the days of his youth, shall not only be put to shame in the gate, but also be ashamed all the days of his life.

27 The hand of the oppressor shall be filled with food; but the poor shall have satiation.

28 But the hand of the laborer is better than the hand of the oppressor; for the wise of heart shall receive of his labor.

29 The hand of the laborer is better than the hand of the oppressor; for the wise of heart shall receive of his labor.

30 But he that despises his master's word, and leaves his inheritance in the days of his youth, shall not only be put to shame in the gate, but also be ashamed all the days of his life.

31 The hand of the oppressor shall be filled with food; but the poor shall have satiation.

32 The hand of the laborer is better than the hand of the oppressor; for the wise of heart shall receive of his labor.

33 But he that despises his master's word, and leaves his inheritance in the days of his youth, shall not only be put to shame in the gate, but also be ashamed all the days of his life.

34 The hand of the oppressor shall be filled with food; but the poor shall have satiation.

35 The wise shall inherit glory; but the shame shall be the promotion of fools.

4 Hear ye children, the instruction of a father, And attend to know understanding. For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.
3 For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.
4 He taught me also, and said unto me, "Let thine heart retain my words,
5 And get wisdom, get understanding:
6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee:
7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom:
8 And with all thy getting get understanding:
9 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee:
10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings;
11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths.
12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened:
13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go:
14 Enter not into the path of the wicked, And go not in the way of evil men.
15 Avoid it, pass not by it, Turn from it, and pass away.
16 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; And their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.
17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, And drink the wine of violence.
18 But the path of the just is as the shining light, That shineth more and more unto the perfect day.
19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: They know not at what they stumble.
20 My son, attend to my words; Incline thine ear unto my sayings.
21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; Keep them in the midst of thine heart.
22 For they are life unto those that find them, And health to all their flesh.
23 Keep thy heart with all diligence; For out of it are the issues of life.

5. 21. PROVERBS.

21 For the ways of a man are before the eyes of the LORD, and He pondereth all his goings.

22 His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

23 Go thou without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

9 as an armed man = as a man with a shield.

10 12 naughty person. Heb. a man of Belial = a worthless person. Like Anglo-Saxon má (= no, or not) and eft (= a thing) = thing of naught: i.e. worthless.

14 Frowardness = frowardness. Same word as in 4. 24; 11. 20; 17. 20; 22. 5. Not the same as elsewhere in Proverbs.

15 Frowardness = deceitfulness. See note on 2. 12. The same word as in 2. 12, 14; 5. 13; 10. 31, 32; 16. 28, 30. Not the same as elsewhere in Proverbs.

17 the LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II.

20 Yea, seven. Fig. 'Epenorthēs. Ap. 6. To imply that the list is not exhausted.

21 abomination. See note on 8. 32.

23 A proud look = eyes lifted up. Fig. Symmachod (of Part), Ap. 6, put for pride, which is indicated by this act. This is the first, and the others proceed downward: "eyes", "tongue", "hands", "heart", "feet", and then the whole man.

24 them. This is mas, and cannot refer to the two, above. Does it refer to the words and sayings of 4. 20?

25 it = she: referring to the "commandment" or "law" of ch. 26, which are fem. sleepest = liest down. talk = commune. Three, the number of Divine completeness (Ap. 10). Not four (as some suppose) and one "dropped out".

26 When thou goest, "it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, "it shall keep thee; and when thou awaketh, "it shall talk with thee."
23 For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; And the reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

B3
(p. 865)

24 To keep thee from the evil woman, From the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; Neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: And the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, And his clothes not be burned? And can one go upon hot coals, And his feet not be burned?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; Whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal To satisfy his soul when he is hungry; But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold;

31 He shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding:

33 A wound and dishonour shall he get; And his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy is the rage of a man: Therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He will not regard any ransom; Neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

7. 1-4 (A1, p. 865). WISDOM'S CALL.

My son, keep my words,
And lay up my commandments with thee.

2 Keep my commandments, and live; And my law as the apple of thine eye.

3 Bind them upon thy fingers, Write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 Say unto wisdom, "Thou art my sister;" And call understanding thy kinswoman:

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, From the stranger which flattereth with her words.

8 For at the window of my house I looked through my casement, And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, A young man void of understanding, Passing through the street near her corner; And he went the way to her house, In the twilight, in the evening, In the black and dark night:

10 And, behold, there met him a woman With the attire of an harlot, and a subtil of heart.

11 (She is loud and stubborn; Her feet abide not in her house: Now is she without, now in the streets, And lieth in wait at every corner.)

23 law is light. Fig. In Latin it would be similar: Lex est lux. reproofs of instruction = what is directed. Cp. v. 20. way of life = way to life: i.e. life eternal. See note on Lev. 18. 5.

6. 24-35 (B3, p. 865). THE FOREIGN WOMAN.

24 evil. Heb. r'al'. Ap. 44. viii. strange woman = alien, or foreign woman. Heb. wbn. See note on 5. 3.

26 the ... life = the soul. Heb. naphesh. Ap. 19. 27 Can a man ... 9 Fig. Parame. Ap. 6. take = shovel up. 30 despise. Heb. tzq (from tzqah), is here followed by ' - h. Rend. it therefore: "Men will not think it a trifl (or a light matter) for a thief that he should steal:[even] to satisfy," &c. So if he be found, &c. soul. Heb. naphesh. Ap. 13.

32 But whoso = How much more he who understand. Heb. = heart: put by Fig. Metonymy (of Subject), Ap. 6, for understanding.

34 a man = a strong man. Heb. gbr. Ap. 14. IV. Here, it is used of the jealous husband.

7. 5-23 (B1, p. 865). THE FOREIGN WOMAN.

(Alternation.)

My son, keep my words, And lay up my commandments with thee.

2 Keep my commandments, and live; And my law as the apple of thine eye.

3 Bind them upon thy fingers, Write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 Say unto wisdom, "Thou art my sister;" And call understanding thy kinswoman:

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, From the stranger which flattereth with her words.

8 For at the window of my house I looked through my casement, And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, A young man void of understanding, Passing through the street near her corner; And he went the way to her house, In the twilight, in the evening, In the black and dark night:

10 And, behold, there met him a woman With the attire of an harlot, and a subtil of heart.

11 (She is loud and stubborn; Her feet abide not in her house: Now is she without, now in the streets, And lieth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, And with an impudent face said unto him, 14 I have peace offerings with me; This day have I paid my vows.

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, Diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, With carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: Let us solace ourselves with loves.
7. 19. PROVERBS.

19 For the "goodman is not at home,
He is gone a long journey:
20 He hath taken a bag of money with him,
And will come home at the day appointed.
21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield,
With the flattering of her lips she forced him.
22 He goeth after her straightway,
As an ox goeth to the slaughter,
Or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;
23 Till a dart strike through his liver;
As a bird hasteth to the snare,
And knoweth not that it is for his life.
24 Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children,
And attend to the words of my mouth.
25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways,
Go not astray in her paths.
26 For she hath cast down many wounded;
Yea, many strong men have been slain by her.
27 Her house is the way to hell,
Going down to the chambers of death.

A. C. (p. 874)

8 Doth not wisdom cry?
And understanding put forth her voice?
2 She standeth in the top of high places,
By the way in the places of the paths.
3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city,
At the coming in at the doors.
4 Unto you, O men, I call:
And my voice is to the sons of man.
5 O ye simple, understand wisdom:
And, ye fools, be ye of understanding.
6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things:
And the opening of my lips shall be right things.
7 For my mouth shall speak truth;
And wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
8 All the words of my mouth are righteousness;
There is nothing froward or perverse in them.
9 They are all plain to him that understandeth,
And right to them that find knowledge.

H. J. 10 Receive my instruction, and not silver;
And knowledge rather than choice gold.
11 For wisdom is better than rubies;
And all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

K. L. 12 Wisdom dwelleth with prudence,
And find out knowledge of witty inventions.
13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil:
Pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way,
And the froward mouth, do I hate.

8. 13. WISDOM'S CALL.
(Simple and Extended Alternation.)

A. C. | B. 8, 1. Wisdom's call.
D. E. | D. 8, 2, 3. From high places.
F. G. | F. 8, 4-6. To the simple.

2 high places = places of vantage. In the places of the paths = in the places where the paths meet.
3 doors = entrances.
6 simple. See note on 1, 4.
7 wisdom. Heb. 'arnah, Not the same word as in v. 1 = shrewdness. See note on 1, 2.
8 fools. Heb. k sil. See note on 1, 7.
9 excellent. Heb. négid = a prince, or representative things. Heb. dibhar = words (see Ap. 73, x). Hence = representative truths.
12 froward = twisted, or crafty.

10-31 (H, above). WISDOM SELF-COMMENDED.
(Introversion and Extended Alternation.)

N. 17. Recompense.
18. Riches, &c.

11 better. Note the seventeen occurrences of this rendering of Heb. tôb in Proverbs: 8, 14; 8, 11, 19; 12, 9; 10, 16, 17; 16, 32; 17, 1; 19, 1, 22; 21, 9, 19; 25, 7, 24; 27, 5, 10; 28, 5.
13 witty = sagacious. Anglo-Saxon witan, to know; like Greek oída = to know intuitively: not by effort, which is ginôkô = to get to know.
14 The fear, &c. See note on 1, 7.
18 froward = perverse.
19 mouth. Put by Fig. Synecdoché (of Part), Ap. 6, for the whole man.
14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I understand; I have strength.

15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 Love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

18 Riches and honour are with me; Yea, durable riches and righteousness.

19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold;
And my revenue than choice silver.

20 I lead in the way of righteousness, In the midst of the paths of judgment:

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance;
And I will fill their treasures.

22 The Lord possessed me in the beginning of His way,
Before His works of old.

23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
Or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth:
When there were no fountains amusing with water.

25 Before the mountains were settled,
Before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet He had not made the earth, nor the fields,
Nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When He prepared the heavens, I was there:
When He set a compass upon the face of the depth:

28 When He established the clouds above:
When He strengthened the fountains of the deep:

29 When He gave to the sea His decree,
That the waters should not pass His commandment:

30 Then was I by Him, as one brought up with Him:
And I was daily His delight,
Rejoicing always before Him;

25 Settled. Cp. Ps. 104:4. 26 Earth. Heb. "aretz" the highest part; or, the first atom or particles. 27 Compass = a circle, or vault. 28 Clouds = skies, or finer clouds. 29 Appointed = fixed by statute, or marked out. 30 I was by = I became beside Him. John 1:1. See note on "was", Gen. 1:2. by = close by. as one brought up with Him = as one constantly with Him, or under His constant care. Heb. "simon", from root "siman" to be constant or steady, and denoting "aretz" as meaning the land of Israel, from the world as meaning the outside lands. Cp. Matt. 20:20.

23 before. See Col. 1:15-17; 2:3. Rev. 3:4. John 1:1; 17:5. "begotten before the world ... born in the world.", Elohim taking creature form in order to create; as He later, took human form (flesh) to redeem. Hence "creation" and "redemption" combined in Christ (Rev. 4:11; 5:9). Man created in likeness: that in which He appeared to the patriarchs and to Joshua (6:13) was not temporary, or assumed for the moment, but was permanent in His Way. As distinct from His "works" (Ps. 103:7). Before. To this must be referred Eph. 1:4, and Col. 1:17. Three times we have "before the foundation (or disruption, Gen. 1:2. See note on Matt. 13:59) of the world" (John 17:24. Eph. 1:6, and 1 Pet. 1:20). Cp. the expression "from (or, since) the foundation of the world", seven times (Matt. 13:53; 35:34; Luke 12:15. Heb. 4:13; 9:28. Rev. 15:18; 17:4). See note on Matt. 13:59. The former has to do with the "Church", the latter with the "Kingdom"; the former with God's "purpose", the latter with His "counsel".

23-29 (P, above). BEFORE CREATION.

(Repeated Alternation and Introversions.)
8. 31. PROVERBS.

31 rejoicing in the habitable part of His earth; And my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: For blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, And refuse it not.

34 Blessed is the man that heareth me, Watching daily at my gates, Waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, And shall obtain favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: All they that hate me love death.

9. 1 Wisdom. Pl. as in 1 39 9 1; and 14 1.

2 mingled. Cp. Isa. 32. 2. Not with water but with spices.

3 sent forth her maidens. An Eastern custom. In N.T. the invitation was carried by menservants (Matt. 22 2, Luke 14 17).

4 Who so is simple, let him turn in hither: As for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 Come, eat of my bread, And drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; And go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame; And he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: Rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he shall be yet wiser:

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: And the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied, And the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: But if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 A foolish woman is clamy: She is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of house, On a seat in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers, "Who go right on their ways:

16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: And as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

17 "Stolen waters are sweet, And bread eaten in secret is pleasant."

18 But he knoweth not that the dead are there; And that her guests are in the depths of hell.

9. 18. THE FOOLISH WOMAN. (Alteration and Introversio.)

13 A foolish woman. The contrast is with the wise woman. See note on 1. 2.

14 door = entrance.

15 Who go right, &c. = passing on their way, or (to call them) that go straightforward, &c.

16 the dead = Refalhillm. (No Art.) See Ap. 25.

The proverbs of Solomon, a wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish; but He will casteth away the substance of the wicked.

4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand; but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but a prating fool shall fall.

9 He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: but a prating fool shall fall.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strife: but love covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding is the entrance of wisdom: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The rich man’s wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.
10. 17.

PROVERBS.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction:
But be that refuseth reproof errareth.
18 So that he careth not with lying lips, and be that uttereth a slander, is a fool.
19 In the multitude of words there is wanteth not sin:
But he that refraineth his lips is wise.
20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver:
The heart of the wicked is little worth.
21 The lips of the righteous feed many:
But fools die for want of wisdom.
22 The blessing of the LORD maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.
23 It is as sport to a fool to do mischief:
But a man of understanding hath wisdom.
24 The fear of the wicked shall come upon him:
But the desire of the righteous shall be granted.
25 As the whirlwind passeth so is the wicked no more:
But the righteous is an everlasting foundation.
26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes,
So is the sluggard to them that send him.
27 The fear of the LORD prolongeth days:
But the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness:
But the expectation of the wicked shall perish.
29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright:
But destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.
30 The righteous shall never be moved:
But the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.
31 The mouth of the just is brought forth wisdom:
But the froward tongue shall be cut out.
32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable:
But the mouth of the wicked speaketh frowardness.

But he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding.
12 The wicked desireth the net of evil men:

PROVERBS.

14 14 filled-satisfied.

The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways:
And a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word:
But the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil:
But the fool rgeteth, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly:
And a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly:
But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow before the good:
And the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbour:
But the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth:
But he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

22 Do they not consider that devise evil?
But mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit:
But the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is his riches:
But the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 A true witness delivereth souls:
But a false witness speaketh lies.

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence:
And His children shall have a place of refuge.

27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life:
To depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the king's honour:
But in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding:
But he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh:
But envy the rottenness of the bones.

31 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker:
But he that honoureth Him hath mercy on the poor.

32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness:
But the righteous hath hope in his death.

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding:
But that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

34 Righteousness exalteth a nation:
But sin is reproach to any people.

35 The king's favour is toward a wise servant:
But his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

36 A soft answer turneth away wrath:
But grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright:
But the mouth of a fool poureth out folly.
3 The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.
4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.
5 A fool despiseth his father’s instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is wise.
6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.
7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doth not so.
8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is His delight.
9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the Lord:
But He loveth him that followeth after wisdom.
10 Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way:
And he that hateth reproof shall die.
11 Hell and destruction are before the Lord: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?
12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him:
Neither will he go unto the wise.
13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance:
But by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.
14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: and the mouth of fools feedeth on folly.
15 All the days of the afflicted are evil:
But he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.
16 Better is a little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble therewith.
17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.
18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but the gentle answereth softly.
19 The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.
20 A wise son maketh glad a father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.
21 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom:
But a man of understanding walketh uprightly.
22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.
23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth:
And a word spoken in due season, how good is it!
24 The way of life is above to the wise:
That he may depart from hell beneath.
25 The Lord will destroy the house of the proud:
But He will establish the border of the widow.
The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord;

But the words of the pure are pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain troubledth his own house;

But he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer;

But the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The Lord is far from the wicked:

But he that heareth the prayer of the righteous,

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart:

And a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The ear that heareth the reproof of life

Abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul:

But he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

33 The fear of the Lord is the instruction of wisdom;

And before honour is humility.

16 The preparations of the heart in man,

And the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord.

2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes;

But the Lord weigheth the spirits.

3 Commit thy works unto the Lord,

And thy thoughts shall be established.

4 The Lord hath made all things for Himself:

Yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord:

Though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is purged:

And by the fear of the Lord men depart from evil.

7 When a man’s ways please the Lord,

He maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousness

Than great revenues without right.

9 A man’s heart deviseth his way:

But the Lord directeth his steps.

10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king:

His mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

11 A just weight and balance are the Lord’s:

All the weights of the bag are His work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness:

For the throne is established by righteousness.

But the LORD trieth the hearts.

4. A wicked doer giveth head to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 Whoso  mocks the poor reproacheth his Maker: And he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

6 Children’s children are the crown of old men; And the glory of children is their fathers.

7 Excellent speech becometh not a fool: Nor to strike princes for equity.

8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: Whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

9 He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; But he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man, Than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man secketh only rebellion: Therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, Seeing he hath no heart to it?

17 A friend loveth at all times, And a brother is born for adversity.

18 A man void of understanding striketh hands, And becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression that loveth strife: And he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 Hath a froward heart findeth no good: And he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

21 He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow: And the father of a fool hath no joy.

22 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: But a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom To pervert the ways of judgment.

24 Wisdom is before him that hath understanding: But the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, And bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also to punish the just is not good, Nor to strike princes for equity.

27 He that hath knowledge spareth his words: And a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

28 Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: And he that shuddeth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.
18. Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh.
And intermeddled with all wisdom.
2 A fool hath no delight in understanding,
But that his heart may discover itself.
3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt,
And with ignominy reproach.
4 The words of a man’s mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.
5 It is not good to accept the person of the wicked,
To overthrow the righteous in judgment.
6 A fool’s lips enter into contention,
And his mouth calleth for strokes.
7 A fool’s mouth is his destruction,
And his lips are the snare of his soul.
8 The words of a talebearer are as wounds,* and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.
9 Or also that is slothful in his work
Is brother to him that is a great waster.
10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous man runneth into it, and is safe.
11 The rich man’s wrath is his strong city,*
And as an high wall in his own conceit.
12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty,
And before honour is humility.
13 He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is foolish and shame unto him.
14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity,*
But a wounded spirit who can bear it?
15 The heart of the prudent gettest knowledge,*
And the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.
16 A man’s gift maketh room for him,*
And bringeth him before great men.
17 He that is first in his own countenance seemeth just,
But his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.
18 The lot causeth contentions to cease,*
And parteth between the mighty.
19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.
20 A man’s belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth,*
And with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.
21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: And they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.
22 Who so findeth a wife findeth a good thing,
And obtaineth favour of the LORD.
23 The poor useth intreaties,
But the rich answereth roughly.
24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly,
And there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

24 A man. A special various reading called sevir reads as yerath, instead of lah, which means "there is," or "there are," instead of "a man." It occurs three times: here, 2 Sam. 14. 19, and Mic. 6. 10. friends. Heb. rd’m = feeders, from dvódh to feed (Ps. 23. 1, shepherd).

must shew himself friendly = who break in pieces. Heb. Hithpolel of rd’ (Ap. 44. viii.). there is. Heb. yerath, as in preceding line. a friend, a lover (who loves "without cause"). Note the Fig. Paronomasia (Ap. 9) in these words, which may be thus represented in English: "There are friends who rend us,
But there is a lover who is closer than a brother."
19.  Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

20 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hatheth with his feet, sinneth.

21 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart freteth against the LORD.

22 Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

23 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

24 Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

25 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? He pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

26 He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: and he that hath understanding shall find good.

27 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

28 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

29 The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

30 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion: but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

31 A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual droning.

32 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD.

33 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

34 He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul: but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

35 He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth to the LORD, and that which he hath given will He pay again.

36 Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

37 A man of great wrath shall make much punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.

38 Hear counsel, and receive instruction: that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.

39 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

40 The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.
PROVERBS.

23. The fear of the Lord tendeth to life; and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

24. A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom; and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25. Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: and rebuke one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

26. He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

27. Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

28. An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

29. Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

20. Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

2. The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: Who so provoketh him to anger, sinneth against his own soul.

3. It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

4. The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he be in harvest, and have nothing.

5. Counsel in the heart of a man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6. Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?

7. The judgment is uprightness in a man's integrity: His children are blessed after him.

PROVERBS.

11.21

11 Even a child is known by his doings,
Whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.
12 The earing ear, and the seeing eye,
The LORD hath made even both of them.
13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty;
Open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.
14 “It is naught, it is naught,” saith the buyer;
But when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.
15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies:
But the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger;
And take a pledge of him for a strange woman.
17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man;
But afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.
18 Every purpose is established by counsel:
And with good advice make war.
19 He that goeth about as a talebearer reveals secrets:
Therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.
20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother,
His lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.
21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning;
But the end thereof shall not be sweet.
22 Say not thou, “I will recompense evil;”
But wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.
23 Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD;
And a false balance is not good.
24 Man’s goings are of the LORD;
How can a man understand his own way?
25 It is a snare to the man who deviseth which is holy,
And after vows to make enquiry.
26 A wise king scattereth the wicked,
And bringeth the wheel over them.
27 The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD,
Searching all the inward parts of the belly.
28 Mercy and truth preserve the king:
And his throne is upholden by mercy.
29 The glory of young men is their strength;
And the beauty of old men is the gray head.
30 The blueness of a wound a cleanseth away evil:
So do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

21 The king’s heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water:
He turneth it whithersoever He will.
2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes:
But the LORD pondereth the hearts.
To do "justice and judgment
Is "more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice.
An high look, and a proud heart,
"And the "plowing of the wicked, is "sin.
The "thoughts of the "diligent tend only to plenteousness;
But of every one that is hasty only to want.
The getting of treasures by a lying tongue Is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.
The "robbery of the wicked shall destroy them;
Because they refuse to do judgment.
The way of "man is froward and strange:
But as for the "pure, his work is right.
It is "better to dwell in a corner of the housetop,
Than with a brawling woman in a wide house.
The "soul of the "wicked desireth "evil:
His neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes.
When the "scornful is punished, the simple is made wise:
And when the wise is "instructed, he receiveth knowledge.
The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the "wicked:
But God overthroweth the wicked for their "wickedness.
Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the "poor,
Sç also shall cry himself, but shall not be "heard.
A gift in secret pacifieth anger:
And a reward in the bosom strong wrath.
It is joy to "the just to do judgment:
But destruction shall be to the workers of "iniquity.
The "man that wandereth out of the way of understanding Shall remain in the "congregation of the dead.
Hethatloveth pleasure shall be a "poor "man:
Hethatloveth wine and oil shall not be "rich.
The "wicked shall be a ransom for "the righteous,
And the "transgressor for the upright.
It is "better to dwell in the wilderness,
Than with a contentious and an "angry woman.
There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise;
But a "foolish "man spendeth it up.
He that followeth after righteousness and "mercy
Findeth life, righteousness, and honour.
A wise "man sealeth the city of the mighty,
And casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.
Whoso "keepeth his mouth and his "tongue
Keepeth his "soul from "troubles.
Proud and "haughty "scorn is his name, Who dealeth in proud wrath.
The desire of the slothful killeth him;
For his hands refuse to labour.
He "coveth greedily all the day long:
But the righteous giveth and spareth not.
The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination:
How much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked "mind?
A false witness "shall perish:
Justice = righteousness.

The wicked = lawless ones. Heb. "rashâ. Ap. 44. x. sin. Heb. "chôdâ. Ap. 44. i. The special word for the sin offering. Render the verse "A lofty look and a proud heart, [which is] the tillage of the lawless, [is] more acceptable to them than the sin offering." This subject of the Ellipsis (Ap. 6. III) from the preceding verse completes the sense, and shows that the two are strictly related.

The diligent = a diligent one.
Robbery = rapacity. Illustrations: the princes of Judah (Isa. 1. 23, 24); the Jews (Jer. 7. 4-11, 15; 34. 10-12, Mic. 3. 9-12).

Mind = purpose.

Safety, &c. = to Jehovah [belongeth] the salvation.

But the "man that heareth "speaketh constantly.
A "wicked "man hardeneth his face:
But as for the upright, he "directeth his way.
There is "no wisdom nor understanding
Nor counsel against the Lord.
The horse is "prepared against the day of battle:
But "safety is of the Lord.
22 A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, And loving favor rather than silver and gold.

2 The rich and the poor meet together: *The LORD is the Maker of them all. *

3 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: But the simple pass on, and are punished.

4 By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches, and honour, and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward:

6 Train up a child in the way he should go: And when he is old, he will not depart from it.

7 The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

8 He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: And the rod of his anger shall be blessed.

9 By kindness is the vilest person purified; For he giveth of his bread to the poor.

10 Cast out the scorners, and contention shall go out; And strife and reproach shall cease.

11 He that loveth kindness and mercy shall be found faithful; For grace shall be on his head, And mercy shall crown him.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, And He hath brought out the words of the transgressor.

13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be in the streets.

14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: He that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; But the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, And he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.

17 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, And apply thine heart unto my knowledge.

18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee; They shall be like the words of my lips.

19 That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, even to thy father.

20 Have not I written thee excellent things In counsels and knowledge, That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; That thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?

21 Rob not the poor, because he is poor: Neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

22 For the LORD will plead their cause, And spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

23 Make no friendship with an angry man; And with a furious man thou shalt not go:

24 For there is no favor, nor kindness, nor familiarity, nor wisdom in him.

PROVERBS.

25
Less thou learn his ways,
And get a snare to thy soul,
Be not thou one of them that strike hands,
Of them that are surety for debts.
If thou hast nothing to pay,
Why should he take away thy bed from under thee?
Remove not the ancient landmark,
Whose fathers have set.
Seest thou a man diligent in his business?
He shall stand before kings;
He shall not stand before mean men.

26
When thou sittest to eat with a ruler,
Consider diligently what is before thee:
And put a knife to thy throat,
If thou seest a man given to appetite,
Be not desirous of his dainties:
For they are deceitful meat.
Labour not to be rich:
Cease from thine own wisdom;
Wilt thou set thine eyes upon which is not?
For riches certainly make themselves wings;
They fly away as an eagle toward heaven.
Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye,
Neither desire thou his dainty meats:
For he thinketh in his heart, so is he:
"Eat and drink," saith he to thee;
But his heart is not with thee.
The morse which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up,
And lose thy sweet words.
Speak not in the ears of a fool:
For he will despise the wisdom of thy words.
Remove not the old landmark;
And enter not into the fields of the fatherless;
For their Redeemer is mighty;
And shall plead their cause with thee.
Apply thine heart unto instruction,
And thine ears to the words of knowledge.
Withhold not correction from the child;
For if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.
Thou shalt beat him with the rod,
And shalt deliver his soul from hell.
My son, if thine heart be wise,
My heart shall rejoice, even mine.
Yea, my reaps shall rejoice,
When thy lips speak right things.
Let not thine heart envy sinners:
But be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.
For surely there is an end;
And thine expectation shall not be cut off.
Hear thou, my son, and be wise,
And guide thine heart in the way.
Be not among winebibbers;
Among riotous eaters of flesh:
For the drunkard and the gluton shall come to poverty;
And drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.
Hearken unto thy father that begat thee,
And despise not thy mother when she is old.
Buy the truth, and sell it not;

27 For a whored is a deep ditch;
And a "strange woman is a narrow pit.
And increaseth the "transgressors among men.
Who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause?
Who hath redness of eyes?
30 They that tarry long at the "wine;
They that go to seek "mixed wine.
31 Look not thou upon the "wine; when it is red,
When it giveth his colour in the cup,
When it moveth itself aright.
32 At the last it biteth like a serpent,
And stingeth like an adder.
33 Thine eye shall behold "strange women,
And thine heart shall utter perverse things.
34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea,
Or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.
35 "They have stricken me," shalt thou say,
"and I was not sick;
They have beaten me, and I felt it not:
When shall I awake? "I will seek it yet again."

Be not thou envious against evil men,
Neither desire to be with them.
2 For their heart studieth destruction,
And their lips talk of mischief.
3 Through wisdom is an house builded;
And by understanding it is established:
And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled
With all pleasantness and pleasant riches.
5 A wise "man is strong;
Yea, "a man of knowledge" increaseth strength.
6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war:
And in multitude of counsellors there is safety.
7 "Wisdom is too high for a fool:
He openeth not his mouth in the gate.
8 He that deviseth to do evil
Shall be called a "mischief" person.
9 The "thought of foolishness is sin;
And the "scorner is an abomination to men.
10 If thou faint in the day of adversity,
The strength is small.
11 If thou forsake to deliver them that are drown unto death,
And those that are ready to be slain;
12 If thou sayest, "Behold, we knew it not;"
Dost not she that pendereth the heart consider it?
And "he that keepeth thy soul, doth not she know it?
And shall not He render to every man according to his works?
13 "My son, eat thou honey, because it is good;
And the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste:
14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul;
When thou hast found it, then shall there be a reward,
And thy expectation shall not be cut off.
15 Lay not wait, O "wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous;
24. 19. PROVERBS. 25. 7.

19 Fret not thyself because of the evil men, Neither be thou envious at the wicked;
For there shall be no reward to the evil man,
The candle of the wicked shall be put out.

20 For their calamity shall rise suddenly;
And who knoweth the ruin of them both?
23 These things also belong to the wise.
It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.
24 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous;
Him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:
25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight,
And a good blessing shall come upon them.
26 Every man shall kiss his lips That giveth a right answer.
27 Prepare thy word without, And make it fit for thyself in the field;
And afterwards build thine house.
28 Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause;
And deceive not with thy lips.
29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me:
I will render to him according to his work.

30 I went by the field of the slothful,
And by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;
31 And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns,
And nettles had covered the face thereof.
And the stone wall thereof was broken down.
32 Then I saw, and considered it well:
I looked upon it, and received instruction.
33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep:
34 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth;
And thy want as an armed man.

These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing:
But the honour of kings is to search out a matter.
3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth,
And the heart of kings is unsearchable.
4 Take away the dross from the silver,
And there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.
5 Take away the wicked from before the king,
And his throne shall be established in righteousness.
6 Put not thyself in the presence of the king,
And stand not in the place of great men:
7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither;’’

19 Fret not—the word is the same as in v. 6. envious—excited.
20 reward—posterity, or future.
candle—lamp. The idiom is used for having no posterity.

21 (A§, p. 891). CALL TO HEAR.
21 meddle not—mingle not, i.e. have nothing to do with them that are given to change—i.e. with them that make a difference between a wicked king and a wicked common man.

22 their: i.e. the king and a common man.

24 (C, p. 891). PERSONAL CONDUCT.
24 kissed his lips=do homage with his lips to him.
righteousness=overthrow.
ruin=catastrophe.
both: i.e. the two who are the subjects of this counsel.

25 (C, p. 891). WARNING AGAINST TRAVELLING.
25 light=overthrow.
ruin=catastrophe.
both: i.e. the two who are the subjects of this counsel.

26 (D, p. 891). PERSONAL CHARACTER.
understanding. Heb. ’enSsh. Ap. 44. x
people=peoples.

26 kissed his lips=do homage with his lips to him.
right=straightforward.

27 (B, p. 891). PROVERBS BY SOLOMON. THIRD PERSON (‘HE’, ‘HIM’, ‘HIS’).

25. 1—26. 28 (D, p. 891). ADMONITION TO THE FEAR OF GOD. (Division.)

1 of Solomon = by Solomon, as author: i.e. written by him. Characterising this section of the book, the men of Hezekiah. Evidently a special guild of scribes employed in the work of editing and putting together the O.T. books. At the end of each book are three Mansionary letters, Cheth (ר—ר), Zayin (ז—ז), and Koph (ך—ך), which are the initials of Hezekiah, and his sign-manual, confirming the work done. This trigrammaton is found in all MSS. and printed editions up to the end of 2 Kings. After the death of Hezekiah it obtains varied forms and additions; subsequent writers and editors having lost the origin and meaning of these three letters, and taken it as a word which means “Be strong”, put there for their encouragement. See Ap. 67.

4 honour=glory, as in preceding line.
5 finer=refiner.
8 Take away, &c. Illustrations: David (1 Kings 2. 4, 8. Cp. v. 48); Asa (1 Kings 15. 13).

7 better. See note on 8. 11.

Than that thou shouldst be put lower in the presence of the prince Whom thine eyes have seen.
8 Go not forth hastily to strive,
Lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof.
When thy neighbour hath put thee to shame,
Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself;
And discover not a secret to another;
Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame,
And thine infamy turn not away.
A word fitly spoken
Is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.
As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold,
So is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.
As the cold of snow in the time of harvest,
So is a faithful messenger to them that send him:
For he refresheth the soul of his masters.
Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift
Is like clouds and wind without rain.
By long forbearing is a prince persuaded,
And a soft tongue breaketh the bone.
Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee,
Lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.
Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house;
Lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.
A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour
Is as a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.
Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble
Is like a broken bow, and a foot out of joint.
As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather,
And as vinegar upon nitre.
So is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.
If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat;
And if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:
For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head,
And the LORD shall reward thee.
The north wind driveth away rain:
Sooth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.
It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,
Than with a brawling woman in a wide house.
As cold waters to a thirsty soul,
So is good news from a far country.
A righteous man falling down before the wicked
Is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.
It is not good to eat much honey:
So for men to search their own glory is not glory.
He that hath no rule over his own spirit
Is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

26 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest,
So honour is not seemly for a fool.
As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying,
So the curse causeless shall not come.
8 Go not forth, &c. Illustrations: Gaal (Judg. 9. 26–40); the ten tribes (Josh. 22. 12–34); Abner (2 Sam. 2. 14, 17); Asahel (2 Sam. 2. 18–22); Amaziah (2 Kings 14. 8–14); Josiah (2 Chron. 35. 20–24).
9 with thy neighbour. Illustrations: Abraham (Gen. 19. 1; 21. 22–32; Jephthah (Judg. 11. 11–27).
10 shama, A Homonym. Heb. chessed, meaning (1) mercy, or loving-kindness, but also (2) a disgraceful thing. Lev. 20. 14, 17. Job 37. 13. See notes there.
11 fitly = timely. As we say "on the spur of the moment".
12 apples of gold. The difficulty is not in this expression, for jewellry is evidently intended from the first clause of the next verse.
13 cold of snow. Or cold harvest. Illustration: Ezek. 16. 5.
14 false = pretended. Illustrations: Zedekiah (Kings 25. 31); Hananiah (Jer. 29. 1–4); Shemaiah (Jer. 29. 24–31); false apostles (2 Cor. 11. 13–15; Jude 12).
16 breaketh the bone. I.e. overcometh obstinacy.
17 weary = full of.
18 maul = a mallet, or large wooden hammer, or club, from the Latin malleus.
19 unfaithful = treacherous. Heb. baged. See note on "transgressors" (11. 9).
20 foot out of joint = a tottering foot. Illustrations: Ezekiel (Judg. 18. 20); Ben-hadad (2 Kings 6. 8–15; 2 Chron. 28. 20, 21); Israelites (Isa. 20. 5–6); Zedekiah (Jer. 37. 5–7); cp. Ezek. 17. 10; 29. 7; and Prov. 19. 22.
21 takest away, &c. = decketh himself out in. Heb. 'odah. See Job 40. 19. Isa. 61. 10. Jer. 4. 30; 51. 4. Ezek. 1. 13; 25. 46. Hos. 2. 13; 2. 8. That thinks more of his appearance than his comfort and health.
22 nitre = natron. Now called soda. With any acid it causes strong effervescence.
So is he, the point is in the incongruity of the three things named.
23 if thine enemy be hungry, &c. Quoted in Rom. 12. 20; cp. 1 Sam. 24. 6; 26. 9. Illustrations: Azariah, Berachiah, &c. (2 Chron. 28. 12–10); Elisha (2 Kings 6. 19–23). By the Fig. Synecdoche (of Species), Op. 6, these examples are put for all similar kinds.
24 heep = receive from thine enemy [and place] upon his head. Fig. Ellipsis (Relative), Op. 6. As ἴδθα = receive, the Ellipsis must be thus supplied: i.e. if thou dost good to one whose burning words (18. 17; 28. 13) thou hast received, they will burn him in another sense. Illustration: David (1 Sam. 24. 16–22), the LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II.
26 good news, &c. Illustrations: Jacob (Gen. 46. 25–28); Paul (Col. 1. 5, 4; Eph. 1. 15, 16; Phil. 1. 3–6).
27 troubled = trampled, or fouled.

1 snow in summer... rain. These are as rare and as exceptional as honour is to a fool.
3 by... by... for... for... or [has cause] for. So the curse, &c. Illustrations: Baalam's (Neh. 13. 20); Goliath's (1 Sam. 17. 45); Shimel's (2 Sam. 16. 5, 12).

PROVERBS.

27. 2

3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, And a rod for the fool's back.
4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, Lest thou also be like unto him.
5 Answer a fool according to his folly, Lest he be wise in his own conceit.
6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool Cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.
7 The legs of the lame are not equal: So is a parable in the mouth of fools.
8 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, So is he that giveth honour to a fool.
9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, So is a parable in the mouth of fools.
10 The great God that formed all things Both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

11 As a dog returneth to his vomit, So a fool returneth to his folly.
Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? There is more hope of a fool than of him.
13 The slothful man saith, "There is a lion in the way; A lion is in the streets."
14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, So doth the slothful upon his bed.
15 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; It grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.
16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit Than seven men that can render a reason.
17 He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, Is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.
18 As a mad man who casteth firebrands, Arrows, and death,
19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, And saith, "Am not I in sport?"
20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: So where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.
21 As coal is to burning coals, and wood to fire, So is a contentious man to kindle strife.
22 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, And strengtheneth them, when they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.
23 Burning lips and a wicked heart Are like a potsherd covered with silver dross. He that hath dissembleth with his lips, And layeth up deceit within him.
25 When he speaketh fair, believe him not: For there are seven abominations in his heart.
26 Whose hatred is covered by deceit, His wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.
27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: And he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.
28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; And a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

27 Boast not thyself of to morrow; For thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.
Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; A stranger, and not thine own lips.
A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty;
3 the fool's back = the back of fools.
4 Answer not. The point of v. 3 is that you cannot reason with a fool; v. 4 gives the reason. If you answer not according to his folly, he will think he is wise like you. If you do answer him according to his folly, he will think you are a fool like he is. i. according to v. 3 you cannot reason with him. These are finely stated facts, not commands. folly. Heb. ve'il. See note on 1. 7. 5 conceit = eyes.
6 sendeth a message: or, transacteth business. Cutteth off the feet: i.e. his own feet renders himself helpless.
7 legs = clothes; "legs" put by Fig. Metonymy (of Subject), Ap. 6, for the clothes on them. are not equal = are lifted up: i.e. the clothes being lifted up expose the lame legs. So a fool exposes his folly in expounding a parable.
8 bindeth = bindeth tight: a foolish thing to do.
9 a drunkard = i. e. insensible to a scorn.
10 The great God, &c. Render: "A master workman formeth all himself aright: but he that hateth a fool, hireth a transgressor [who will spoil the work]." rewardedeth. Heb. mākār, to hire.
11 As a dog, &c. Quoted in 2 Pet. 2. 22. returneth = repeateth. Illustrations: Pharaoh (Ex. 9. 27-34); Ahab (1 Kings 21. 22-26); Herod (Mark 6. 20-27).
13 a lion = a black lion. 15 hideth = barieth. bosom = dish, as in 2 Kings 21. 13. Prov. 19. 24. He giveth him = It is hard for him, or he is too lazy.
16 man. No Heb. for this word here.
23 Burning lips: i.e. warm professions wicked. Heb. rdā'. Ap. 44. viii.
silver dross. Fig. Hypallage (Ap. 6). Heb. = silver of dross.
25 speaketh fair = maketh his voice gresces.
congregation = assembly.
27 shall fall therein. Illustrations: Jacob, who deceived with a kid (Gen. 27. 14), was deceived by a kid (Gen. 37. 31, 32); David and the sword (2 Sam. 11. 14, 15, and 2 Sam. 12. 10); Haman and the gallows (Est. 7. 10; see Ps. 9. 13); Daniel and his accusers (Dan. 6. 4-9, 13, and 24).
28 hateth, &c. = i.e. - "Forgiving to the injured doth belong; They forgive pardon who have done the wrong."

27. 1—29. 27 (D, p. 864). "WORDS OF THE WISE". FOR SOLOMON (A KING AND PRINCE, 29. 16; 29. 4, 14). SECOND PERSON. "MY SON" (27. 11), "THYSELF" (27. 1). "THOU" (27. 1, 22, 29), "THY" (27. 10, 23, 24, 27).

E (p. 899)
3 fool's. Heb. 'oel. See note on 1. 7.
4 them. Should be "they." 4 envy = jealousy.

28. 1-28 (E, p. 899). AGAINST UNSCRUPULOUS DEALING.

1. The wicked flee, &c. = A lawless one. Illustrations: Adam (Gen. 5. 8); Joseph, his brother (Gen. 50. 15); the Jews (Lev. 26. 24); Abah (1 Kings 21. 20); Herod Antipas (Matt. 14. 2; Cp. Prov. 20. 27); Felix (Acts 24. 25). Cp. Eph. 2. 13.

2. The wicked = a lawless one. Heb. 'ṭsiḏa'. Ap. 44. x.
3. the righteous = righteous ones. Are bold as a lion. Illustrations: Moses (Ex. 32. 20); the prophet (1 Kings 13. 1-10); Elijah (1 Kings 18. 15, 18). 2 Kings 1. 16; Azariah (2 Chron. 26. 17, 18); Nehemiah (Neh. 8. 11); Shadrach, &c. (Dan. 3); Peter and John (Acts 4. 16, 22; 5. 41, 49); Stephen (Acts 7. 51-60); Paul (Acts 20. 22-24).

5. transgression. Heb. 'ṭsiḏa'. Ap. 44. ix.
6. transgression = a lawless one. Illustrations: Saul (1 Sam. 23. 21); Ababolim (2 Sam. 15. 6); Judah's nobles (Neh. 6. 19); false prophets (Jer. 5. 20, 31); Jews (Acts 12. 21-23). Contend with them. Illustrations: Nehemiah (Neh. 5. 7-11, 15, 13); John (Matt. 14. 4).
5 Evil men understand not judgment: But they that seek the LORD understand all things.
6 Better is the poor that walketh in uprightness, Than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.
7 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: But he that is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.
8 He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, He shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.
9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, Even his prayer shall be abomination.
10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, Shall fall himself into his own pit:
11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit; But the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.
12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory:
13 But when the wicked arise, an hid man is hidden.
14 Happy is the man that feareth always:
15 And he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.
16 As a roaring lion, and a raging bear;
17 So is a wicked ruler over the poor people.
18 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor:
19 But he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.
20 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person Shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.
21 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved:
22 But he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.
23 He that tilleteth his land shall have plenty of bread:
24 But he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.
25 A faithful man shall abound with blessings:
26 But he that maketh haste to rich shall not be innocent.
27 To have respect of persons is not good:
28 For a piece of bread that man will transgress.
29 He that hateth his own flesh shall come upon him.
30 He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall find more favour.
31 Than he that flattereth with the tongue.
24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, ‘It is no transgression’:
25 The same is the companion of a destroyer.
26 So that trusteth in his own heart is a fool:
27 But whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

PROVERBS.

15 The 1 horseleach hath two daughters, crying, "Give, give.
There are three things that are never satisfied.
Yea, four things say not, It is enough:
16 The grave; and the barren womb;
The earth that is not filled with water;
And the fire that saith not, It is enough.
L
17 The eye that mocketh at his father,
And despiseth to obey his mother,
The ravens of the valley shall pick it out,
And the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me:
Yea, four which I know not:
19 The way of an eagle in the air;
The way of a serpent upon a rock;
The way of a ship in the midst of the sea;
And the way of a man with a maid.
20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman;
She eateth, and wipeth her mouth,
And saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted,
And for four which it cannot bear:
22 For a servant when he reigneth;
And a fool when he is filled with meat;
23 For an odious woman when she is married;
And an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth,
But they are exceeding wise:
25 The ants are a people not strong,
Yet they prepare their meat in the summer;
26 The 2 conies are but a feeble folk,
Yet make they their houses in the 3 rocks;
27 The locusts have no king,
Yet go they forth all of them by bands;
28 The spider taketh hold with her hands,
And is in king's palaces.

29 There be three things which go well,
Yea, four are comely in going:
30 A lion which is strong among beasts,
And turneth not away for any;
31 A greyhound; an he goat also;
And a king, against whom there is no rising up.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or thou hast thought evil,
Lay thine hand upon thy mouth.
33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter,
And the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood:
So the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

10. Who can find . . .? This heading is the Fig. Erotetis. Ap. 6. The twenty-two verses which follow, each begin with the twenty-two successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet. The acrostic cannot be re-produced in English, because the letters of the two alphabets vary in their number, order, and equivalents. This is to emphasise the great lesson King Solomon was to learn. Note the warnings against foreign woman (A.p. 865), which, alas! Solomon failed to heed. This is why the book closes with the elegy of the model Israelitish matron. See the evidence in Ap. 74.

11. *who. The English use of this word limits it to one kind of excellence. The meaning of the Hebrew is wider: hagilah = strong in all moral qualities. Ruth is the only one so called in the O.T. May it not be that we have here Bathsheba’s or Solomon’s (and David’s) commendation of Ruth?

THE STRUCTURE OF THE BOOK AS A WHOLE.

B | 1.2—6.9. THE CHIEF GOOD. WHAT IT IS NOT.
B | 6.10—12.12. THE CHIEF GOOD. WHAT IT IS.
A | 12.13,14. CONCLUSION.

1 The name of this book comes direct from the Latin Vulgate through the Sept. version. The Hebrew name is ḤOHELETH = Assembler or Convener (an appellative, not a proper name). It is feminine, to agree with the word "Wisdom", which is feminine, and is therefore Wisdom personified (as in Prov. 1.26; 8.1, and always with masculine verbs. Cf. Matt. 11.29; Luke 7.32; 11.49, 50). KOHELETH is from ḥāḳel—to call, assemble, or gather together. This is what Solomon did (1 Kings 8.1,2,5). It occurs with a feminine verb in 7.27. The word Koheleth occurs seven times in the book (Ap. 10): three times at the beginning (1.1,5,19); three times at the end (12.8,9,10); and once in the middle (7.27).

This book formed part of the Hebrew Bible long before the time of Christ, and is therefore included in His word, "the Scriptures" (Matt. 22.8; 2 Tim. 3.15, &c.). It is given in the list of canonical books by Josephus (A.D. 75), and is included in all the Ancient Versions made before Christ. It has been rejected by some, or put to a late date, on account of its alleged Theology. Theology is man's reasoning about the Word of God, as Science (so called) is man's reasoning about the Works of God. Because Genesis does not agree with Science that book is rejected by Rationalists. Because Ecclesiastes does not agree with Theology, this book is rejected, as uninspired, even by some Evangelical theologians.

True, the Bible contains an inspired record of what people said and did; and it does not follow that all that they said or did was inspired. Nevertheless, it is inconceivable that this can apply to a whole book, without a word of warning. Those who can imagine such a thing refuse the evidence that Christ in Luke 16.19—30 is using the language of His enemies, and in v. 31 giving His own Divine pronouncement. They strain out the gnat and swallow the camel. They do not see that, if anyone whole book is not a part of "the oracles of God", every Christian doctrine loses its foundation. There could have been in that case no Divine selection or preservation of books, and no Divine Canon or Scripture. If one book is thus ruled out, then another may be. Doubt is thus cast upon the whole Bible, and we have no "Word of God" at all! If this book be not part of the Word and words of God, then we have no reply to those who reject Genesis, Daniel, Jonah, or the Apocalypse, who do so on the same ground of human reasoning. If the inner consciousness of each individual is to decide what is and what is not "Scripture", there is an end of Divine Revelation altogether.

In any case Solomon's "wisdom" was given him by God (1 Kings 3.5—13; 8.29—34), and this "wisdom" was therefore "from above" (Jas. 3.17), as Luke's was (see note on Luke 1.3). Moreover, Solomon did not lose it, for it "remained with" him (Ecc. 2.9).
ECCLESIASTES; OR, THE PREACHER.

1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, all is vanity.

3 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth forever.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and returneth to his place where he arose.

6 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; and wherethrough the wind cometh, thither it returneth again according to his circuits.

7 All the rivers go into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither it returneth again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 The Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are

1 The words. Rashi says that, when this expression occurs at the beginning of a book, it shows that the book is meant for reproof, and he gives evidence from Deut. 1. 1 (cp. 92. 15) Amos 1. 1 (cp. 4. 1). Jer. 1. 1 (cp. 30. 6). David, 2 Sam. 25. 1 (cp. 6). the Preacher. This comes from Luther's version "Prediger"; but "Koheloth" does not include the idea of preaching. Some of its teaching is individual (9, 17); and succeeding appeals are in the second person.

1. 2—6. 9 (B, p. 906). THE CHIEF GOOD. WHAT IT IS NOT. (Division and Repeated Introversion.)

2 Vanity of vanities. Fig. Polyptoton. Ap. 6. Note also the Fig. Epanadiplôsis (Ap. 6), by which v. 2 begins and ends with the same word. These Figures are used for the greatest emphasis, and denote utter vanity, all the whole, or "the sum total." Not everything in the universe, but all the human labours of this, &c., vanity. Heb. habal, used of that which soon vanishes.

under the sun. This expression is peculiar to this book, and occurs twenty-nine times: (1, 3, 5, 14; 2, 11, 17, 18, 19, 20, 22; 3, 16; 4, 1, 3, 7, 15; 5, 13, 18; 6, 11, 12; 8, 9, 18, 16, 17; 9, 3, 6, 9, 11, 13; 10, 8.) It is equivalent to "upon the earth" (5, 2; 8, 14, 16; 10, 7, 11; 2, 3). It refers to all that is connected with earthly things, and as such, with man apart from God, but what is stated is inspired truth. If what is stated here seems to be a "discrepancy" when compared with other scriptures, then these latter must be dealt with and reconciled and harmonised as other supposed "discrepancies" usually are; not cast aside as uninspired. It may be that it is man's theology which has yet to be conformed to these inspired statements.

4 abideth = standeth still, as in first occurrence (Gen. 18, 8, 22; 19, 37. Jos. 18, 5. Ps. 119, 90). for ever. Heb. 'olam = for ages; 'olam occurs in Ecc. seven times: 1, 4, 10; 2, 16; 3, 11, 14; 9, 6; 12, 5. See the notes thereon. It = the world in relation to time past and future: as we use it when we speak of the ancient world, the old world, the modern world, the world to come, the Roman world.

5 The Heb. pause in this verse are remarkable, and need a parenthesis between each clause.

6 wind. Heb. nôach. Ap. 9. The first part of v. 6 continues the motion of the sun, going to the south (in winter) and turning about to the north (in summer). It whirleth: i.e. the wind whirleth. This is the subject of v. 6.

7 they return again. This is the point of the illustration. Cp. Job 36, 27.

9 these latter must be dealt with and reconciled and harmonised as other supposed "discrepancies" usually are; not cast aside as uninspired. It may be that it is man's theology which has yet to be conformed to these inspired statements.

10 and the sun again.

11 labour = weariness.

12 Solomon knew that the kingdom was to be rent (1 Kings 11, 11, 12) and the People scattered; therefore he sought to kill Jeroboam (1 Kings 11, 39-40). The Chalde. Targum says, on v. 1: "These are the words of the prophecy which Koheloth delivered when Solomon foresaw, by the Spirit of prophecy, that the kingdom of Rehoboam his son would be divided by Jeroboam the son of Nebat". was = came to be. over Israel. Solomon was the only king of which this was wholly true.

done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith.

14 I have seen all the works that are done 3 under the sun; and, behold, all is 4 vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

16 a 3 communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more 3 wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of 3 wisdom and knowledge.

17 And I gave my heart to know 3 wisdom, and to know 4 madness and folly: I perceived that this also is 4 vexation of spirit.

18 For in much 3 wisdom is much 4 grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth 5 sorrow.

2 3 said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure; and, behold, this also is vanity.

2 1 I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

3 I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

4 a I made great works; I built me houses; I planted me vineyards;

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruits:

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

8 a I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gave me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

were cultivated (Deut. 11:10. 1 Kings 21:2). Paradises were formed by eastern monarchs. In the British Museum may be seen the inscriptions of Gudea, the greatest of the Sumerian rulers of Chaldea (2500 B.C.), and Assur-nazir-pal, king of Assyria (885 B.C.), describing what he stocked it; what he brought, and whence he obtained the national history collection. The British Museum contains a portion of a similar catalogue of Sennacherib. The Paradisae in Rev. 2:7; 22:1, 2, refers to the future paradise, which will be as literal and real, not figurative.

ECCLESIASTES.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then looked I on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I hadlaboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and mischiefs, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done.

13 Then saw I that wisdom excelleth folly, as light excelleth darkness.

14 The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness.

15 Then said I in my heart, 'As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why is this then more wise?'

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool, for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated wisdom and mischiefs, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done.

18 Yea, I hated all my labour which I took under the sun: because I should leave it to him that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour of man which I laboured to do under the sun;

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This is also vanity and a great evil.

22 For what hath a man of all his labour wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days are sorrows, and his heart travail grieveth; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 For there is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also is a gift of God.

25 For who can eat, or who can have contentment, more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good in His sight 3 knowledge, and knowledge, and joy:

This also is 11 vanity and 11 vexation of 11 spirit.

ECCLESIASTES.

2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
6 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.
9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also He hath set the world in their heart, that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, for to the end of his days, which he hath been; for that is his portion of the days of his life.

14 I know that whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor anything taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before Him.

15 That which hath been is seen; and that which is done from the beginning is done after; and there is nothing new under the sun.

(Repeated and Extended Alteration.)

10 seen the travail = considered the business.

11 his time = its proper season. set = put.

world. Heb. olam = the ages; or the world (in relation to time). Here, put by Fig. Metonymy (of Subject) for that which is incorruptible by man, viz. obscurity as to the past and the future ages, resulting in man's incapacity for finding out, or comprehending the whole of what God doeth. This has resulted in God. Heb. Elohim (with Art.) = the true God, or the Deity. Ap. 4. I. maketh = hath made, or done.

12 beginning to the end. The reason being given in v. 14. Man can see his own times of ev. 1—8; but what God doeth is from time past to time future (v. 14); so that man cannot find that out to the end from the beginning.

18 A said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth 18 beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a 18 beast: for all is vanity.

20 All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 Who knoweth the 3 spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the 18 beast that goeth downward to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

4 So 3 returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and beheld the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

2 Wherefore 3 praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

3 Yes, better is he than both they, which hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 Again, 3 considered all travail, and envied every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 Better is an handfull with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 Then 3 returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother; yet is there no end of all his labour: neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

9 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

points as he came, so shall he go: and what a profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

16 All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness:

17 Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for it is his portion.

18 Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men: 2 And it is common to all flesh that the man shall labor, and shall be filled with his labors.

7 Yet God giveth them power to eat to death, and to a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

8 If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his life be many,

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 Yea, though he live a thousand years twice fold, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.

8 And what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with Him That is mightier than he.

whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

15 Then 3 commended mirth, because a 1 man hath no 2 better thing 7 under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry:

16 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done 11 upon the earth:

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a 1 man cannot find out the work that is done 2 under the sun, because though a 1 man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

9 For all this 9 I considered: even to declare all this, that 9 the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of 9 God: no 9 man knoweth either love or 9 hatred by all 9 that is before 9 them. All 9 things come alike to all: there is 9 one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the 9 sinner; and 9 he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is 3 an 9 evil among all 9 things that are done 9 under the sun, that there is 9 one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of 1 men is full of 9 evil, and 9 madness is in their heart while they live, and after that 9 they go to the dead.

4 For to him that is joined to all the living there is 4 hope: for a 4 living dog is 4 better than a dead 4 lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but 5 the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more 5 a reward; for the 5 memory of 5 them 5 is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now 6 perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in anything 6 that is done 6 under the sun.

7 Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for 7 God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no 8 ointment.

9 Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which He hath given thee 9 under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this 9 life, and in thy 9 labour which thou 9 takest 9 under the sun.

No evidence of a late origin of this book, for we read of them in 1 Kings 4, 26, 28; 10, 26, 31; 22, 4. 2 Kings 9, 33; 14, 20. If not in common use, it was because of Solomon's disobedience (1 Kings 10, 28). 2 Chron. 1, 16, 17; 9, 28; upon the earth. See note on 5, 2. 8 hedge = a wall built of loose stones without mortar. Heb. נַפַר. used especially of sheep-folds (Num. 32, 16, 24, 32). 1 Sam. 24, 5. Zeph. 2, 4; also for fending pathways between the vineyards (Num. 22, 24. Ps. 62, 3; 80, 12). The crevices between the loose stones form hiding-places for lizards and other creeping things.

11. 10. thy hand findest to do. Hand put by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause), Ap. 8, for the strength put forth by it (Lev. 12, 8; 25, 28).

10. do it with thy might = do it while thou art able, and have time to do it.

11. none knoweth, &c. See note on v. 5, above.

12. wisdom. Heb. חָכָם. See note on 1, 2.

14. chance = occurrence. Heb. פַּתָּה; i.e., "time [of misfortune]." Occurs only here and 1 Kings 5, 4, where it is associated with "evil" (or calamity).

15. happeneth = meeteth, or befalleth.

16. for man, &c. Connect this sentence with v. 11. man ... men, Heb. נֵסָיָם (or with Art.). Ap. 14, 1.

17. a little city. For the application of v. 14, 16, note the following illustrations: poor (2 Cor. 8, 9; Phil. 2, 6); wise (1 Cor. 1, 24); delivered (1 Cor. 1, 18, 25); none remembered (Isa. 55, 3); despised (1 Cor. 1, 26); words heard in quiet (Job 6, 24; Ezek. 1, 24, 26. Luke 10, 29).

18. was found = [some one] was found. poor = unfortunate. Heb. עֶזִּים. See note on Prov. 6, 11.

19. poor wise. Some codices, with three early printed editions, Aram., Sept., and Vulg., read "poor but wise".

23. him. Note the Fig. Ellipsis (Ap. 6); "So do thou stupidity [cause him] that is in reputation for wisdom and honour [to send forth an offensive savour]"

24. wisdom. Heb. חָכָם. See note on 1, 2.

27. saith = tells. See note on Prov. 1, 7.

desire shall fail. "Desire" = Heb. = the caperberry.
Here the A.V. beautifully renders the figure of speech (as a version should do), while the R.V. renders it literally (as a translation too often does). The Fig. is Metonymy: i.e. a double Metonymy (Ap. 6), by which (1) the "caperberry" is put for the condiment made from it, and then (2) the condiment is put for the appetite produced by it. And further, since, because of its shape, as well as from the notion that it was supposed to create sexual desire, all that is intended by the figure is included in the rendering "desire shall fail": on L. 13.

D | 5.2—8.4. THE SHULAMITE AND HER BELOVED APART.

A 8.5—14. THE CONCLUSION. THE SHULAMITE RESTORED. RETURN FROM SOLOMON TO HER HOME WITH HER BELOVED (SHEPHERD).

* In the Hebrew, הָשׁלוֹמֹה is not the Genitive case, meaning "of Solomon", or "Solomon's" (v.1). The Preposition את (Lamed = l) means "to", or "for", as in the Psalm-Titles, and in the expression "for the chief Musician". It is therefore not necessarily limited to authorship, as may be further seen from the title of Ps. 72, where we have the same word (לְשׁוֹלָם) rendered "for Solomon". It may well mean "concerning or relating to Solomon" or "the king's son". Moreover, the Relative Pronoun "אֲשֶׁר (=which)" takes it out of the category of ordinary authorship, and may rightly require the rendering "which [is] concerning Solomon". The Preposition has a wide range of meaning (divided into some twenty-two classes) according to the Verbs used; but, when used without a Verb (as it is here), it may refer to the subject, and be well rendered "concerning", as it is in Jer. 49, 1, 7, 23, 28, etc. The question of authorship therefore does not, of necessity, arise, and need not be discussed.

† For further notes on the book as a whole, see p. 921.
NOTE ON THE STRUCTURE OF THE SONG OF SOLOMON (PAGE 920).

The scope of the book is determined by the Structure of the book as a whole.

The story gradually develops itself; and, from the key which is found in the last chapter (8. 5–14), the whole may be pieced together in the words of Dr. C. D. Ginsburg (Commentary, London, 1857, pp. 4–6), to which the references have been added in order to connect the threads of the events.

"There was a family living at Shulam, consisting of a widowed mother, several sons, and one daughter, who maintained themselves by farming and pasturage. The brothers were particularly fond of their sister, and took her under their special care, promising that her prudence and virtue should be greatly rewarded by them (8. 8–14).

"In the course of time, while tending the flock, and, according to the custom of the shepherds, resorting at noon beneath a tree for shelter against the meridian sun, she met with a graceful shepherd youth to whom she afterward became espoused (1. 7; 2. 16; 6. 3).

"One morning, in the spring, this youth invited her to accompany him into the field; but the brothers, overhearing the invitation, and anxious for the reputation of their sister, sent her [in order to prevent their meeting] to take care of the vineyards (2. 15).

"The damsels, however, consoled her beloved and herself with the assurance that, though separated bodily, indissoluble ties subsisted between them, over which her brothers had no control (2. 16).

"She requested him to meet her in the evening (3. 1); and, as he did not come, she feared that some accident had befallen him on the way, and went in search of him (3. 2), and found him (3. 4).

"The evening now was the only time in which they could enjoy each other's company, as, during the day, the damsel was occupied in the vineyards.

"On one occasion, when entering a garden, she accidentally came into the presence of King Solomon (6. 11, 12), who happened to be on a summer visit to that neighbourhood (6. 6–11).

"Struck with the beauty of the damsels, the King conducted her into his royal tent (1. 2–4), and there, assisted by his court-ladies (1. 5–8), endeavoured with alluring flatteries and promises, to gain her affections, but without effect (1. 6–11).

"Released from the King's presence, the damsels soon sought an interview with her beloved shepherd (1. 12–2. 7).

"The King, however, took her with him to his capital in great pomp, in the hope of dazzling her with his splendour (3. 1–11); but neither did this prevail: while even there, she told her beloved shepherd, who had followed her into the capital (4. 1–5), and obtained an interview with her, that she was anxious to quit the gaudy scene for her own home (4. 6).

"The shepherd, on hearing this, praised her constancy (4. 7–16); and such a manifestation of their mutual attachment took place, that several of the court-ladies were greatly affected by it (6. 1).

"The King, still determined if possible to win her affections, watched for another favourable opportunity; and with flatteries and allurements, surpassing all that he had used before, tried to obtain his purpose (6. 4–7. 3).

"He promised to elevate her to the highest rank, and to raise her above all his concubines and queens, if she would comply with his wishes; but, faithful to her espousals, she refused all his overtures, on the plea that her affections were pledged to another (7. 10–8. 4).

"The King, convinced at last that he could not possibly prevail, was obliged to dismiss her; and the shepherdess, in company with her beloved shepherd, returned to her native place (8. 5–14).

"On their way home (8. 5–7), they visited the tree under which they had first met, and there renewed their vows of fidelity to each other.

"On her arrival in safety at her home, her brothers, according to their promise, rewarded her greatly for her virtuous conduct " (8. 8, 9).

The above is an Interpretation. The Application is an incentive to loyalty and fidelity to the One "Who loved us and gave Himself for us"; and to stand fast, in our love and loyalty to Him, in the face of the fiercest temptations and severest trials.

To Israel this would be expressed: "Be thou faithful unto death" (Jas. 1. 3; 1 Pet. 1. 7; Heb. 10. 23); "To him that overcometh", &c. (Rev. 2. 7, 11, 17, 26; 3. 5, 19, 21); also Heb. 12. 1, 3; 1 Pet. 4. 1–7, &c.

To the Church of God this would be expressed in such passages as Gal. 5. 1; Eph. 4. 14; 6. 13, 18; Phil. 1. 6; 4. 1. Col. 1. 10, 22, 23; 2. 7; 2 Tim. 3. 14. Tit. 1. 9.

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.

C

3 Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.

D

4 Draw me, we will run after thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: the uprightness of love thee.

E

5 I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

F

6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's daughters were angry with me; they made me keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

7 Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

8 If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

9 I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON.

1 I song of songs, which is Solomon's. Heb. title Solôn-Asmoné = Song of Songs. In the Sept. it is Asmoné Asmônon, Vulg. Canticus Canticorum, all with the same meaning. Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 4), meaning the most beautiful or excellent song. It belongs to the third division of the O.T. Canon (see Ap. 1). The order of the title "Megilloth" (or Scroll) is the order of the festivals on which they are read. The Song is read annually at the Feast of the Passover, as Ruth is read at Pentecost; Lamentations on 9th of Ab; Ecclesiastes at the Feast of Tabernacles; and Esther at the Feast of Purim.

2 From the most ancient times it has formed part of the Hebrew Canonical Scriptures. It is a poem based on the true facts of a story which unfolds itself as it proceeds. Various interpretations have been given of it: the literal, the allegorical, and the typical. The allegorical embrace Jehovah and Israel (which was the view of the Jewish commentators); the Roman Catholic views it of the Virgin Mary; the Protestant commentators view it of "Christ and the Church"; the typical view regards it as a type of Solomon's nuptials, or as that of Christ and the Gentiles. The allegorical view puts the coarse flatteries and language of a seducer into the lips of "Christ", which is inconsistent with His dignity and holiness (cp. 6. 4-10, 13: 7. 9). It is the language of seduction put into the mouth of Him "Who spake as never man spake.

3 The number of speakers forbids all the interpretations which depend on there being only two. There are seven in all, and they can be easily distinguished by the structures: viz. (1) the Shulamite; (2) the daughters of Jerusalem; (3) Solomon; (4) the shepherd lover of the Shulamite; (5) the brothers of the Shulamite; (6) the companions of the shepherd; (7) the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

4 Solomon's. See note on p. 920.

Introducing most of the seven speakers of the book: the Shulamite's soliloquy of her beloved shepherd (vv. 2-4, 7); the king (vv. 4, 9-11); the court-ladies (vv. 5, 8); her brothers (v. 4).

(Introversion and Alternation.)

A 1. Solomon's Song about the Shulamite.

B (C 2-4. The Shulamite soliloquizes about her beloved (shepherd).

D 5, 8. The Court-Ladies (who disdain him) answered by the Shulamite).

B (C 7. The Shulamite soliloquizes about her beloved (shepherd).

D 8. The Court-Ladies (who tell her to return) answered by the Shulamite.

The Shulamite speaks. She has been taken into Solomon's tents, and soliloquizes about her beloved (vv. 2, 3); she implores him to come and rescue her (v. 4); she repels the scorn of the court-ladies (v. 9); and implores her beloved to tell her where she may find him (v. 7); the court-ladies ironically reply (vv. 8); meanwhile the king comes in and commences by expressing his admiration (vv. 9-11).

2 Let him kiss me = Oh for a kiss. him = i.e. the Shulamite's beloved, the shepherd, from whom she has been taken by Solomon. thy love = thy endearments &c. Heb. dodin. Only here, (v. 4, 10, 10, and 7. 12. A man is addressed. wine, Heb. gésin, Ap. 27. 1. 3 Because of the savour = Sweet is the odour. thy name = thou ( emph.). Name put for the person. See note on Ps. 20. 1. virgins = damsels. Heb. 'dámóth, not 'bíthalóth (virgins). Draw me after = run after = run to any one for refuge. The king. This explains the circumstances described on p. 921. chambers = inner apartments. remember = praise. the upright love thee = upright ones have loved thee. 5 black = swartly (Fem.). The daughters of Jerusalem: i.e. the ladies of Solomon's court. Kedar = dark. All Kedar's tents were black. a (v. 4, 6) = Supply the Ellipsis (Ap. 6), "[but comely] as the curtains of Solomon," required by the Alternation:— a swartly. a as Kedar's tents. (b) comely. b as Solomon's curtains.

6 Look not upon me = Look not down on: i.e. regard me not. Cp. 1 Chron. 17. 17. Ps. 109. 44. the sun hath looked. Fig. Prospogasia (Ap. 6), to emphasise the cause of her swarthiness. children = sons: i.e. her brothers are referred to as speaking as in 2. 15, and see note on p. 921 and cp. Sg. I was not kept = I never kept. She says this to show the harsh treatment of her brothers. Tell me, &c. Again soliloquizing. See Structure above. soul. Heb. nephesh. Ap. 13. feedest = shepherdest. This cannot refer to Solomon! rest = lie down. turneth aside = strayeth, or wandereth. by = to, or among. If thou, &c. Answer of the court-ladies: ironical. I have, &c. Solomon now speaks to her. my love = my friend, or one beloved. Heb. rú'yth. Fem. here, v. 10, 12, 18. 4, 1, 7; 6, 4. a company of horses = my mare.
SONG OF SOLOMON.

10 Thy cheeks are comely rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

11 We will make thee borders of gold with studs of silver.

12 While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof. A bundle of myrrh is my beloved unto me; he shall lick all night betwixt my breasts.

13 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of En-gezi.

Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou host doves' eyes.

Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is green.

The beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.

2 As the rose among thorns, so is my love among thine daughters.

3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love.

5 Stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples: for I am sick of love.

6 He brought me to the vineyards, and his right hand girded me with girdles.

7 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

8 The voice of my beloved! behold, it is my comely beloved, going upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

my love = my friend. Heb. ra'ath. See note on 1.9. Feminine again, showing that it is the shepherd who is speaking. daughters = damseels. Heb. beth, fam. pl. of beth, a son. apple tree = for 3.3 sick of love. roes = gazelles. flagons = grape-cakes. comfort = refresh. of = with. doth embrace = will embrace. Charge = I adjure. you. This and the verbs here are Masculine. It is not uncommon to find this: but when we do, we find true femininity has been lost. roes = gazelles. stir not up = excite not. Heb. 'ar (in the Hiphil). awake = incite. Heb. 'ar (in the Piel) = not to rouse from sleep, but to excite the passions. See Isa. 42.13. render = my love — my feelings or affection (Pent.). fill he = till she. It is Feminine, to agree with love, 'ahabhô — love never used in the abstract, as in 3.10, and 8.4 (a person). This is an appeal to the court-ladies not to try and incite her affection for Solomon.

2.8–3.5 (D, p. 920). THE SHULAMITE AND HER BELOVED, APART.

(She still in the royal tents in the country, tells the court-ladies the story of her love.)

(Repealed Alternation.)

2.8–14. The Shulamite tells the court-ladies about her beloved: how he once came and invited her to go out with him.

2.15. Hindered by her brothers, she tells how they set her a task in the vineyards.

2.16, 17. The Shulamite tells the court-ladies how she waited for her beloved to come again in the evening.

3.1–3. Hindered by the watchmen, she tells how she went out and sought him.

3.4. The Shulamite tells the court-ladies how she found her beloved again.

3.5. Hindered by the court-ladies, she again adjures them not to hinder, as before, in 2.7; in her silence, and again in 8.4.

a voice = sound: e.g. footsteps (Gen. 3.8), my beloved. Masculine. Showing that the Shulamite is the speaker. emphatic = this (very one).
SONG OF SOLOMON.

9 * My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, shewing himself through the lattices.

10 * My beloved spake, and said unto me, * 'Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away."

For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth; the voice of the singing of birds is heard, and the turtle is heard in our land.

13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; because thy voice is sweet, and thy countenance is comely.""

3 By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: but I found him not. I will rise now, and go abroad in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: but I found him not.

3 The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, "Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?"

4 * 'It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth; I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

6 * Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant? * Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; three-score valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel. * They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the * night.

3. 6-5. 1 (C, p. 926). THE SHULAMITE AND HER BELOVED, TOGETHER. The procession of Solomon's court to Jerusalem. (Introversion and Repeated Alternation.)

(J. 13, 6-11. The inhabitants of Jerusalem see the procession approaching. Remark of one (v. 6); of another (vv. 7, 8); of a third (vv. 9, 10); of a fourth (6. 11).

K 41. 4-1. THE BELOVED (shepherd), who has followed the court, comes to Jerusalem to rescue the Shulamite. He obtains an interview, and again expresses his delight in her. [Contrast his modesty with Solomon's coarse flattery in 6. 4-10 and 7. 1-9.]

M 4. 6. THE SHULAMITE PROPOSES TO RETURN, referring to 2. 17.

L 4. 7-10. THE BELOVED (shepherd) immediately professes assistance, embroidered by her beauty (vv. 7-11) and by her faithfulness (vv. 12-16).

M 4. 10. THE SHULAMITE declares that all she has is for his pleasure.

L 5. 1-5. THE BELOVED (shepherd) suitably responds: "I am coming".

it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11. Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold the king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

4. Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast two eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that are clean from mount Gilead.

2. Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one twain, and none is barren among them.

3. Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy teeth are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

4. Thy neck is like the tower of David built up for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

5. Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

6. Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

7. Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

8. Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

9. Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse: thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

10. How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

11. Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

12. A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

13. Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard,

14. Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices.

15. A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon.

16. Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out.

5. I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have drunk my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk:

eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

4 Thou art beautiful, Solomon breaks in as soon as the Shulamite called for her beloved (shepherd), as he did in 1.9. my love = my friend. Heb. ra'yah, Feminine. See note on 1.9. Tirzah. Became the royal residence of the kings of Israel after the division of the kingdom, until Omri built Samaria (1 Kings 14.17; 15.1, 21, 35; 16.5, 18, 17). Cp. 16.24. Tirzah means "delightful." Hence the flattering comparison.

SONG OF SOLOMON.

6. 4—8. 4 (N. p. 926). HER COLLOQUIES WITH SOLOMON. (Repeated Altercation.)

N2 Q1 6. 4—10. Solomon comes forward with flatteries (vv. 4—6). What his court-ladies said was true (v. 10).

R1 6. 11, 12. The Shulamite explains that her meeting with him was "unwittingly" (see notes). She withdraws.

Q2 6. 13— Solomon: "Return, return".
R2 6. 13— The Shulamite: "What is there to look at in me?"

Q2 6. 15—7. 5. Solomon renews his flatteries.

R2 7. 10—8. 4. The Shulamite rejects him: "I belong to my beloved; not to you". Calls on her beloved to fetch her away, and again adjures the court-ladies not to excite her feelings (as in 2. 7, and 8. 6).

terrible, &c. = majestic, or awe-inspiring, as bannered host.

an army with banners = the bannered (hosts). Fem. pl., with no noun expressed. Perhaps a reference to the Hosts of Israel in their journeys in Num. 2.

overcome me = taken me by storm (as we say). This is the force of the Hebrew as-like. The A.V. edition of 1611 did not have "as", that appear = springing down. Cp. 4. 1.

the chariots of Ammi-nadib. So various are the renderings that the text is said to be "hopelessly corrupt" by modern critics. The A.V. follows the Sept., Arach, Ethiopic, and Vulgate, by treating it as a proper name (with variations in the orthography). The Heb. is "the chariots of my People, the noble", or, of my noble People. From which, we note the context, and who is speaking, and what fact she is referring to, the Shulamite plainly seems to be saying that she came unwittingly on the royal chariots and the retinue of nobles with Solomon when he first saw her (see p. 921).

13 Return, return. This was the courtesy of Solomon, as she turned to go away.

Shulamite. Shulam is thought to be the same as Shunem, now Ṣūmān, about three and a half miles from Adar, north of Jezreel, mentioned in Josh. 19. 18. 1 Sam. 28. 4. 1 Kings 1. 5, 15; 2. 17, 21, 22. 2 Kings 4. 8, 12, 23, 36. Instead of this proper name, the A.V. reads "Ammi-nadib", "poor man", "he that is without wealth". The latter is synonymous with "Ammi-nadib", or "poor man", "he that is without wealth". In v. 12.

The Quarterly Statement of the Palestine Exploration Fund (1891, pp. 244, 245) shows that in kîbhâṣâh hâmâmanâyim, the root of the former word (kîb, to be round) is the common name for a circle (hence another suggested rendering is "like a dance to double choirs"; one even ventures on "a sword-dance"), or geographical "basin", and מַהַמַּאִית as meaning a plain or camp on a plain. Remembering that a man was seen by David's watchman from "the wood Ephraim" (2 Sam. 18. 6. Cp. 17. 27) running on "a plain" (2 Sam. 18. 24—27. Cp. 2 Sam. 19. 22), and now putting the word "plain" by Fig. Metonymy (of Adjunct), Ap. 6, for the view obtained of it, we have the suitable rendering, "like the view of Mahanaim", i.e. a view as beautiful as that, which would be the answer to her question, "What will ye behold in the Shulamite?" See then "of Mahanaim". For "Mahanaim" see on 92. 2.

7. 1 with shoes = with sandals. prince's daughter = noble maiden. the joints of thy thighs = thy rounded thighs. the hands of a cunning workman = hands of steadiness; i.e. work not hastily done. See note on "as one brought up", &c., Prov. 8. 30. 2 liquor =spiced wine. belly = body.

6 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This thy stature is like a palm tree, and thy breasts like clusters of paste.

8 I said, "I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof;" now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;

4 the gate of Bath-rabbim = the populous gate.

° held in the galleries = captivated by the ringlets.

°Carmel = [mount] Carmel.

°the lips of those that are asleep = slumbering lips.

°I am my beloved's = belong to my beloved: referring to her beloved shepherd. The Shulamite speaks, and thus gently but firmly refuses the king's advances.

°Come, my beloved. (Macc.). See note on 1. 2. Thus she apostrophises her beloved (shepherd).

°loves = endearments. Heb. dodim, as in 1. 2, 4; and 4. 16, 10.

SONG OF SOLOMON.

8 8. We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.

10 If she be a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found favour.

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and them that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, let me hear thy voice: cause me to hear it.

14 Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices.

13 Thou that dwellest — Oh thou that dwellest. Spoken by the shepherd: dwellest in the gardens. No longer in "the city" of 5, 7, but now abidest permanently. Heb. yaghab, the companions = my companions (who were the speakers of v. 5). hearken = are listening. me, &c.: or "me [and our companions] to hear".

14 Make haste, &c. The Shulamite lets him hear it; and, before all, announces and avows him as her beloved, biding him always to hasten to her like a gazelle. upon = (that turneth itself about) upon: or that boundeth over the mountains of spices (4. 6), "Bethlem " (= spices); and no longer over the mountains of separation " Behemoth" (5. 17).
THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET
ISAIAH.

THE STRUCTURE OF THE BOOK AS A WHOLE.

(Introduction.)

1.1. The Title.

For the Canonical order and place of the Prophets, see Ap. 1 and notes on the Structure of the Minor Prophets as a whole (p. 1207).

For the Chronological order of the Prophets, see Ap. 77.

For the Inter-relation of the Prophetic Books, see Ap. 78.

For the Prophets and their calling, see Ap. 49.

For the Formula of Prophetic Utterances, see Ap. 82.

For References to the Pentateuch in the Prophets, see Ap. 92.

For the Quotations and verbal allusions to Isaiah in the New Testament, see Ap. 80.

For the Evidences of one Authorship, see Ap. 79.

The Structure, above, declares the unity of the book, and effectually disposes of the alleged dual authorship and the hypothetical division of the book by modern critics into two parts: the "former" part being chs. 1-36, the "latter" part chs. 39-66. The "Voice", in ch. 40. 1-11, is necessitated in order to complete the "Correspondence" with 6.1-13; and, if an hypothesis is admitted on the one side, then it must be admitted on the other; and it is hypothetically incredible that this dual reference to the "voice" could have been the outcome of a dual authorship. For other evidences, see Ap. 79, 80, and 82.

The Date of the book is given as "in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah". In ch. 6.1, the prophecy there is given as being "in the year that king Uzziah died".

According to Ap. 50, p. 59 (op. Ap. 77), Uzziah died in 649 b.c. Historically, Isaiah disappears from view after delivering the great prophecy of the Babylonian Servitude (2 Kings 25. 16-17 and Isa. 39. 1-8). This was in the year 605 b.c., after Hezekiah's illness at the close of the siege of Jerusalem by Sennacherib in Hezekiah's fourteenth year (cp. Ap. 50, p. 60).

We have thus two fixed dates, and between them a period of forty-six years, during which, undoubtedly, "the Word of Jehovah came" through Isaiah, and "God spake" by him.

Though this period was covered and overlapped by the Prophet's life, it was not the whole of the period covered by the "vision", which goes far beyond the prediction of the Babylonish Captivity.

Hezekiah lived for fifteen years after his illness, dying therefore in 688 b.c. Manasseh, his son, born in the third of the fifteen added years, succeeded in the same year (588 b.c.). How soon after his accession the Manassean persecution began we are not told; but it is highly improbable that a boy of twelve years would immediately commence the horrible things of which we are told in 2 Kings 21 and 2 Chron. 33.

The unutterable "religious" practices that lie behind the descriptive words in these chapters point clearly to some or four or five years later, when Manasseh would be sixteen or seventeen.

According to Jewish tradition, Isaiah perished in the Manassean persecution; when, it is said, he took refuge inside a hollow mulberry tree, which Manasseh ordered to be sawn through. This may be referred to in Heb. 11. 37.

If we take the fifth year of Manasseh (584 b.c.) as the date of Isaiah's death (violent or natural, we have no means of determining), then, from "the year that king Uzziah died" (6.1), which forcibly suggests the terminus a quo of the whole book) to this point, we have sixty-five years from the commencement of the "visions" till the supposed date of his death (649-584 b.c. = 55). See Ap. 77.

If Isaiah was about the same age as Samuel, Jeremiah, and Daniel were, at the beginning of their ministries, viz. 18-19, then we may conclude that the length of his life was some 81-85 years.

There is no evidence that "the Word of the Lord came" to Isaiah after the reign of Hezekiah ended in 588 b.c., therefore the whole period covered by "the vision" of Isaiah is sixty-one years (649-588 = 61).

From that year onward till the thirteenth year of Josiah in 518 b.c., there were seventy years during which God did not speak "by the prophets" (588-518 = 70).

The chart of the Prophets (see Ap. 77) shows that Isaiah was contemporary with Hosea from 649-611 b.c. = 38 years; with Micah from 682-611 b.c. = 21 years; and with Nahum in the year 603 b.c. = 1 year.

LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

5 Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mingled with ointment.

7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 "To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto Me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of hogs. When ye come to appear before Me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread My courts? Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto Me: the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

12 Your new moons and your appointed feasts I soul hateth: they are a trouble unto Me; I am weary to bear them. And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide Mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

13 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before Mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

14 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

15 Why are we stricken every man? for the iniquity of My people is great, and for the iniquity of their fathers will I not turn away My face: because they said, The sword is far from us, and the pestilence shall not come upon us.

16 The Lord hath slain Me, and has taken My life from the beginning. But the sinners in Zion, and the princes thereof, say when they see the innocent blood that He has slain, He said, Let us walk in the light of the morning.

17 Fatherless shall not be among you; neither shall widow, for I will set before your eyes the salvation of our God.

b a later sense „reading“), outside the Pentateuch.

l Lord = Jehovah. Prov. 3. 18. Job 28. 28. Ps. 102. 14. The prayers (of the 17th chapter) are a plea for the restoration of the Ten Tribes, which are said to revolt against the Lord their God. Their name is used for the Gentiles who have apostatized from the Jewish religion.

21 The last word in the text. The reference is to the conquest of Jerusalem by the Babylonians, in the year 586 B.C.

Proverbs, however, is not a chronological record of events, but a collection of proverbs and wise sayings, arranged in a series. It is divided into three parts: the first part contains proverbs of Solomon, the second part contains proverbs of the later prophets, and the third part contains proverbs of the later priests. The proverbs are arranged according to their subject, and each proverb is followed by a brief explanation or commentary. The book is a rich source of wisdom and insight, and it continues to be read and studied today.
19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:
20 But if ye resist and rebel, ye shall be consumed with the sword: "for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it."

How is the faithful city become a harlot! it was full of judgment, righteousness lodged in it: but now murderers.

Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:
23 "Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

Therefore saith "THE LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, "Ah, I will ease Me of Mine adversaries, and avenge Me of Mine enemies:

And I will turn My hand upon them, and utterly purge away thy dross, and take away all thy "sin:

And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning:

afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the "faithful city.

Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and "her converts with righteousness.

And the destruction of the "transgressors and of the "sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

And "the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall burn together, and none shall quench them".

The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saith concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

And it shall come to pass in the last days that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow into it.

And many peoples shall go and say, "Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, "to the house of the "God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths: "for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

And He shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many peoples: and they shall beat their "swords into plowshares, and their "spears into pruninghooks: "nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

2. 20. 1 The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.
  14 The Lord will enter into judgment with the ancients of His people, and with the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.
  15 What mean ye that ye beat My People to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor?" saith the Lord God of hosts.

D P1 g1 (P. 935)

3 For, behold, the Lord, the Lord of hosts, shall take away from Judah the totality of the citizens, and from Jerusalem the totality of the substance; and the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water.
  2 The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient,
  3 The captain of fifty, and the o honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator.

h1 4 And I will give children to be their princes, and their children shall rule over them.

Q1 8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the Lord, to provoke the eyes of His glory.

P1 g1 10 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

5 If a child shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, "Thou hast clothing; be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand:"

7 In that day shall he swear, saying, "I will not be an heifer for an house; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the People."

Q1 14 I The Lord will enter into judgment with the ancients of His people, and with the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

h3 15 What mean ye that ye beat My People to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor?" saith the Lord God of hosts.

17 Therefore the LORD will smite with a sore crown the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will discover their secret parts.

18 In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their wimples, and their round tires like the moon,

19 The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the earrings, and the rings, and nose jewels,

21 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crispings, 22 The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails.

24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of that which is well set in their midst that was full of idleness and pride, and of the haughty draperies and apparel, and of the fine workmanship and the ornamental ornaments, and of the burning instead of beauty.

25 Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war.

26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she shall desolate shall sit upon the ground.

4 "And it was in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel; only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach."

2 In that day shall the Branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem:

4 When the LORD shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.

5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for upon all the glory shall be a defence.

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.
5 Now will I sing to My wellbeloved a song of My beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful 'hill:

2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt Me and My vineyard: 4 What could have been done more to My vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to My vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down: 6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah His pleasant plant:

8 Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the land!

9 "In Mine ears" said the LORD of hosts; "Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

11 Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

12 And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and the flute, and the wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of His hands.

13 Therefore My People are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honoured men are ashamed, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hath hell enlarged herself, expanded over all the earth, turned the inhabitants of Jerusalem into a wilderness.

"Woe unto them that draw iniquity with "cords of vanity, and "sin as it were with a "cart rope:

"That say, "Let Him make speed, and hasten His work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of "the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

"Woe unto them that call "evil good, and "good evil; that "put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that "put bitter for sweet, and "sweet for bitter!

"Woe unto them that are "wise in their own eyes, and "prudent in their own "sight!

"Woe unto them that are "mighty to drink "wine, and "men of strength to mingle "strong drink!

"Which justify "the wicked for "reward, and take away the righteousness of "the righteous from "him!

Therefore as the fire devoureth stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so "their root shall be as rottenness, and "their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away "the law of "the LORD of hosts, and despised "the word of "the Holy One of Israel.

Therefore is the anger of "the LORD kindled against "His People, and He hath "stretched forth His hand against them, and has smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and "their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is "stretched out still.

And He will lift up an ensign to the "nations from far, and will "hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly:

None shall be weary nor "stumble among them; none shall slumber nor "sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be "loosed, nor "the latchet of "their shoes be broken:

Whose arrows are "sharp, and all their "bows bent, their horses' "hoofs shall be "counted like flint, and their wheels like a "whirlwind:

Their roaring "shall be like a "lion, they shall "roar like young "lions: yea, they shall "roar, and "lay hold of the "prey, and shall carry it away "safe, and "none shall deliver it.

And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the "sea: and if "one look unto the "land, behold darkness "and "sorrow, and the light is darkened in the "heavens thereof."

In "the year that "king Uzziah "died I saw also "the "LORD sitting upon "a throne, high and lifted up, and His "train filled the temple.
6.3. ISAIAH.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, "Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of His glory." 4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 Then said I, "Woe is me! for I am undone; because 3 am a clean man of unclean lips, and 3 dwell in the midst of a People of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with 7 the tongs from off the altar: 7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, "Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged." 8 Also I heard the voice of 7 the Lord, saying, 7 "Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?"

Then said I, "Here am I; send me." 9 And He said, "Go, and tell this People, "Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not."

10 Go, and make the heart of this People fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, "O LORD, how long?"

And He answered, "Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without a man, and the land be utterly desolate, 12 And the Lord have removed 11 men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land. 13 But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a 7 tree, and as an oak, whose substance is set in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

7 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

3 Holy, holy, holy. Fig. Epiceneus (Ap. 6) for intense and solemn emphasis. Cp. the threefold blessing of Num. 6: 24-26 and Rev. 4, 8, a threefold unity, the Lord of hosts. See note on 1, 9 and 1 Sam. 3, 1. 5 Woe. Fig. Epiphanes. Ap. 6. undone = dumb, or lost. The essence of true conviction is a concern for what I am, not for what I have done or not done.

13 voice. See the Structure (p. 980). This is the voice from the Temple concerning the "scattering", corresponding with 40, 6, which is the voice from the wilderness concerning the "gathering".

Whom shall I send? This was not Isaiah's original commission to prophecy, but his special commission for this great dispensational prophecy. Chs. 1-5 form a general introduction to the whole book (see p. 980).

Us. Ref. to Pent. (Gen. 1, 26; 8, 23; 11, 7). Ap. 92. 11 in. in edition 1611 this was "I said".

9 Hear ye indeed. Heb. "a hearing, hear ye". Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6) for emphasis. See note on Gen. 20, 38, see ye indeed. Heb. "a seeing ye". Fig. Polyptoton, as above.

10 Make, &c. Declare or foretell that the heart of this People will be fat. Isaiah could do no more. A common Hebrew idiom.

This prophecy is of the deepest import in Israel's history. Written down seven times (Matt. 13, 14, Mark 4, 21; Luke 8, 10. John 12, 40. Acts 8; 37. Rom. 11, 7). Solemnly quoted in three great dispensational crises:

(1) By Christ (Matt. 13, 11), as coming from Jehovah on the day a council was held "to destroy Him".

(2) By Christ, as coming from Messiah in His glory (John 12, 40, 41) after counsel taken to "put Him to death" (John 11, 53, and cp. 12, 37).

(3) By Paul, as coming from the Holy Ghost when, after a whole day's conference, they "believed not" (Acts 20, 25-37).

heart. Note the Fig. Epanodos (Ap. 6), in verse 10:

a. heart.

b. ears.

c. eyes.

d. ears.

e. heart.

11 how long? See the answer (Rom. 11, 25). wasted = desolate.

C | 9, 8-10, 32. Confederacy. (Jehovah's) Particular. "I will punish."

7. Ahaz. For the history explaining this prophecy see 2 Kin. 15, 27-16, 6.

9. Pekah. His war the last prosperous reign in Israel. It began in the last year of Uzziah, king of Judah, the son of Remaliah. Repeated for emphasis in rv. 1, 4, 5, 6. A murderer (2 Kin. 15, 20), could not prevail against it. Cp. 2 Kin. 16, 5.
7. 2.

ISAIAH.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, "Syria is confederate with Ephraim."

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, "Go forth now to meet Ahaz, then, and Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field; and say unto him, 'Take heed, and be quiet, neither let him be facetious; for both these two tails of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying, "Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal.'"

7 Thus saith the LORD God, 'It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.'

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it shall not be a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.'"

10 Moreover, the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 "Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.'"

12 But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.'"

13 And he said, "Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary me? Ask a sign, either for Thabor, or for Gilgal, or for Shechem.'"

14 Therefore the LORD Himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Emmanuel.

14 Moreover. It seems as though Isaiah wanted to see what Ahaz would say to v. 6. This identifies the words with Jehovah Himself, and not merely with Isaiah. It shows the vast importance of the coming prophecy. 11 sign. Heb. 'oth, a present visible token or pledge, as in Gen. 1. 14, Ex. 4, 8, 9, 12; and especially 8, 18. This word is used eight times in the "former" portion (here: v. 14; 8, 18; 19, 20; 20, 3; 27, 30; 38, 5, 9), and three times in the "latter" portion (44, 25; 55, 13; 66, 19). See Ap. 79, II, and cp. Hezekiah's sign (38, 7).

12 I will not ask. He had already made up his mind to appeal to Assyria, and had probably sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser (2 Kings 16, 7, 8 Chron. 28, 16). His selfishness is manifested by his apparently pious words. 13 He spake. i.e. Jehovah by the prophet; thus identifying Himself with this important prophecy.

14 the LORD. One of the 184 passages where Jehovah, in the primitive text, was altered by the Sopherim to "Adonai". See Ap. 32. Behold. Fig. Aterismos (Ap. 8) for emphasis. A virgin. Heb. the virgin; i.e. some definite well-known damsel, whose identity was then unmistakable, though unknown to us. See Matt. 1, 21-23, Luke 1, 31. See Ap. 101, virgin = damsel. Heb. ha-'almeth. It occurs seven times (Gen. 24, 43, Ex. 2, 8, Ps. 68, 25, Prov. 21, 19, Song 1, 3; 6, 8, and Isa. 7, 14). The Heb. for virgin (in our technical sense) is b'tilah, and occurs fifty times (2 x 55, see Ap. 10). Its first occurrence is Gen. 24, 16, where, compared with v. 42, it shows that while every Bethulah is indeed an Almah, yet not every Almah is a Bethulah. The prophecy does not lose its Messianic character, for Mary, in whom it was fulfilled, is designated by the same holy and blessed Spirit as "parthenos" (not gene). As a sign to Ahaz this damsel was an Almah. As a sign, when the prophecy was fulfilled (or filled full), it was Mary, the parthenos or virgin. shall conceive, and bear is pregnant and beareth. Ref. to Pent. The two words occur together only here, Gen. 16, 11, and Judg. 13, 5, 7; and v. 12 shows that birth was imminent. Perhaps the Almah was "Abi" (2 Kings 18, 2, 2 Chron. 28, 1), but the son was not named thereafter. 14, 16. He spake. Some codices, with the three early printed editions, and Sept., read "thou (Ahaz) wilt call". Emmanuel = "God (E) with us". Most codices, and six early printed editions, give it as two words. Some, with two early printed editions, as one word.
15. Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil and choose the good.
16. For before the child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that thou shalt abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17. The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy house, and upon thy ser vant-house, days that shall not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall h g for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19. And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

20. In the same day shall the LORD shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21. And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep;

22. And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land.

23. And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns.

24. With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25. And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

E  The LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz.
2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Josedech.

3 And I went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son.

Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

a man's pen = the carving tool of the people. The writing was to be legible, in the language of the common people (not in the language of the priests or educated classes). Eastern languages have these two, down to the present day. Ap. Hab. 2, 2. "Pen" is put by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause), Ap. 6, for the writing "Enosh. Ap. 14, III. concerning = "for Maher, &c."

(Note the Alternation.) These words are explained in "before the child shall know to cry, My father, and my mother," the richer the father-in-law of Ahaz (2 Kings 18, 2), from the prophecy, twelve from the birth, in v. 18, shall be taken. So it was: Rezin was slain, taken = carried away.

rejoice in Rezin. This is not "a wrong reading of the Hebrew text", but it refers to the trust reposed in the king of Syria instead of in Jehovah (7, 9). They despised God's covenant with Zion (symbolized by its secret stream), and preferred the help of the heathen; therefore the Assyrian floods should overwhelm them. (Cp. the same contrast in Ps. 46, 3, 4; and see notes there.) This applied specially to Israel; and the judgment overtook Israel first.

°Idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;
11 Shall I not, 12 as I have done unto Samaria and her "Idols, so do to Jerusalem and her "Idols?"

13 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the LORD hath performed His whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

14 For he saith, "By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the "bounds of the "people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man:"

15 And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or "peeped."

16 Therefore shall the LORD, "the LORD of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory He shall "kindle a "burning like the burning of a fire. And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers 1 in one day;

17 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both "soul and "body: and they shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth.

18 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a "child may 2 write them.

19 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the "house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, 3 in truth.

20 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty GOD.

21 For though Thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet 2 as a remnant of them shall return: the "consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

22 For 4 the Lord 5 GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land:"

23 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, 4 My people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall "smite thee with a "rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt.

24 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and Mine "anger in their destruction.

25 And "he shall stir up a "scoffing for him 4 according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; and as His rod was upon the sea, so shall He lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

26 And it is the LORD of hosts shall stir up a "scoffing for him 4 according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; and as His rod was upon the sea, so shall He lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

28 He is come. This is a prophetic description of Sennacherib’s advance against Judah.

33 Behold, THE LORD, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.
34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

11 And there shall come forth a rod out of the "stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

3 And he shall make His word standing in the fear of the LORD; and he shall not depart from the sight of His eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:
4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth:

poor = impoverished, reduced. Heb. dal. See note on "poverty" (Prov. 6. 11). reprove = set right, or righten. Same word as in 15.
smite. Same word as in 15. "the oppressor," for ereg, "the earth." This reading is confirmed by the Structure of the clause (which is an Intemposition):

11. 2 He shall smite the oppressor

h | with the rod of His mouth, with the blast of His lips
11. 3 He shall slay the lawless one.

This reading ("oppressor," for "the earth") depends on whether the first letter is Aleph (א) or Ayin (ע). If with נ the word is "ereg," earth; and if with י it is "arai," oppression. These two letters are often interchanged. See notes on Ps. 28. 8 (their); 35. 18 (tear me). Mic. 1. 10 (at all). Hos. 7. 5 (baker sleepeth). The word ge'ul (to redeem) is spelt with Aleph (א), but it has been mistaken for ge'al (to pollute), and is actually so rendered in Ezrk. 2. 22. Neh. 7. 64. Ism. 55. 3; 63. 3. Lam. 4. 14. Dan. 1. 8. The word "power" is spelt 'el (with Aleph) in Ps. 76. 7, but 'aw (with Ayin) in 90. 11. See further note on Hos. 7. 6 ("in their lying in wait"). The Masoretic contains several systems of words which are different. See Ginsburg's Masorah (Vol. I, p. 59, letter M, § 54 b, and Vol. II, p. 380, letter y, §§ 889-92).

cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!
18 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:
14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High.

15 Yet shalt thou be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.
16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;
17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?
D 21 Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.
22 For I will rise up against them, saith the Lord of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the Lord.
E 23 I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of hosts.

24 The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:
25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.
26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

28 In the year that king Ahaz died was this burden.
29 Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because of the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.
30 And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.
31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city, thou, whole Palaestina, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and a smoke shall be alone in his appointed times.
32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That the Lord hath founded Zion, and the poor of His People shall trust in it.

15 The burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence;
2 But he is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to woe: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.
3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth; on the tops of their houses, in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.
4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh:
their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz:
therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.
5 My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugiitives unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing:
7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.
8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling unto Beerselim.
9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab,
and upon the remnant of the land.

Send ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.
2 For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.
3 Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noontide; hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth.
4 Let Mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler:

u^t for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler caseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be established; and He shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

G^t: 6 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his heightens, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.

u^t Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kirhareseth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

u^t Therefore will I bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with My tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for they shall make thee abundant for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards shall there be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treader shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore My bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and Mine inward parts for Kirhareseth.

12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be consumed, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

3 The fortresses also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

b 2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

3 The fortresses also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

K 4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

d 6 Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shewing of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof," saith the LORD God of Israel.

L 7 At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect unto the Holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves, or the images.

9 In that day shall his strong cities be forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel:

c and there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the Rock of thy strength, therefore shall thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

H a 11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

b 12 Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rolling of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

f 3 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when He lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when He bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

N 4 For so the LORD said unto me, I will take My rest, and I will consider In My dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

N 5 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

Q | 11 Surely the princes of Zoon are "fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become bruitish:

m how say ye unto Pharaoh, 'Is am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?'

12 Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the "Lord of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoon are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The "Lord hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.
15. Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

\[m\] In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of \(\text{the hand of the LORD of hosts, which shaketh over it.}\)

17. And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of \(\text{the LORD of hosts, which shaketh over it.}\)

18. In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and swear to \(\text{the LORD of hosts; one shall be called, The city of destruction.}\)

20. And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto \(\text{the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto \(\text{the LORD because of the oppressors, and \(\text{He shall send them a Saviour, and a great One, and \(\text{He shall deliver them.}\)}

21. And \(\text{the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know \(\text{the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto \(\text{the LORD, and perform it.}\)

22. And \(\text{the LORD shall smite Egypt: He shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to \(\text{the LORD, and \(\text{He shall be interreated of them, and shall heal them.}\)}

23. In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24. In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the \(\text{land; \(\text{Whom \(\text{the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, \text{Blessed be Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel Mine inheritance.}}\)

2. At the same time spake the \(\text{LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot.} \text{And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.}\)

3. And the \(\text{LORD said, Like as My servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;\)

4. So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

5. And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

ISAIAH.

21. The burden of the desert of the sea.

As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.

2 A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth.

3 Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

4 Therefore are my loins filled with pain; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

5 My heart panted, fearfulness afflicted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

6 Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

7 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, "Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth."
The Lord shall come forth as a chariot with a couple of horsemen. A chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed:

8 And he cried, "A lion: My Lord, stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward whole nights:

9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen." And he answered and said, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground."

10 O my threshing, and the o'corn of my floor:

that which I have heard of the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you."

11 The burden of Dumat. He calleth to me out of Seir, "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?"

12 The watchman said, "The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye: return, come."

13 The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge; O ye travelling companies of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread that fled.

15 For they fled from the sword, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the spoil.

16 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, "Within a year, according to the years of an hirling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail:"

17 burden. The seventh and last of the seven burdens (see D, p. 980). upon Arabia: ba'rab = in Arabia. travelling companies = caravans. by Ketarah: Dedan, son of Midian (Gen. 25. 3). 1 Chron. 1. 30. 14 Tema. Descendants of Abraham through Hagar and Ishmael (Gen. 25. 14). 1 Chron. 1. 30): both mentioned in Jer. 25. 23, Job 6. 12. See note on p. 696. brought = bring ye. from the Assyrian invaders. 16 Within a year. Later afflictions were foretold in Jer. 49. 28. Kedar. Another descendant of Abraham by Hagar through Ishmael (Gen. 25. 19).
22 The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor are dead in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled 0 from far.

4 Therefore said I, “Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my People.”

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by 0 the Lord 0 God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array 0 at the gate.

8 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.

9 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 Ye made also a 0 ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto Him That fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did 0 the Lord 0 God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: "Let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die".

14 And it was revealed in mine ears by 0 the Lord of hosts, "Surely this 0 iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die," saith 0 the Lord 0 God of hosts.

15 Thus saith 0 the Lord 0 God of hosts,

16 Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, 0 and say, What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, 0 as he that Heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that gra夫eth an habitation for himself in a rock?

17 Behold, 0 the Lord 0 will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee.

18 He will 0 surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shall thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.

19 And I will 0 drive thee from thy 0 station, and from thy state shall He pull thee down.'

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:

21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

23 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house.

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all the vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.'

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off:

23 The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zion, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zion: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I will travail, not bring forth children, neither do I nourish young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

ISAIAH.

649-658

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee: because he trusteth in Thee.

4 Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord everlasting strength.

5 For He bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city, He layeth it low; He layeth it low, even to the ground; He bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is uprightness: Thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, in the way of Thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for Thee; the desire of our soul is to Thy name, and to the remembrance of Thee.

9 With my soul have I desired Thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek Thee early: for when Thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the Lord.

11 When Thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of Thine enemies shall devour them.

12 O Lord, Thou wilt ordain peace for us: for Thou also hast wrought all our works in us.

13 O Lord our God, other gods beside Thee have had dominion over us; but by Thee only will we make mention of Thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast Thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O Lord; Thou hast increased the nation: Thou art glorified: Thou hast removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 In trouble have they visited Thee, they poured out a prayer when Thou chastening was upon them.

17 As a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in Thy sight, O Lord.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; should not be translated. Where it is translated.

5 LORD. Heb. Yah. Ap. 4. III. In Isaiah, only here and 12. 2; 88. 11, 12.

(Deut. 32. 4, 15, 20, same word as here). See Ap. 92. Found only in Deuteronomy and as applied to God (see Ap. 79. 11); and here, and 30. 7, in the "former" portion; and 44. 8 in the "latter" portion. Cp. Hab. 1. 12. 1 Sam. 2. 2. 2 Sam. 22. 3, and Psalms.

deceased = the "Rephaim". This is a proper name, and should not be translated. Where it is translated.

26. 5. Ps. 85. 10. Prov. 2. 18; 9. 18; 21. 16. Isa. 14. 9) why not so here? or transliterated, as it is in 17. 5., they shall not rise. These Rephaim will not rise. They were the progeny of the fallen angels: these latter are kept "in prison" (1 Pet. 3. 19), in "chains" (2 Pet. 2. 4. Jude 6), "reserved unto judgment", but their progeny will "not rise" (Rev. 14. 10) or be judged, for they have been "visited", "destroyed", and "perished". See Ap. 23 and 25.

Ps. 88, 8. Ecc. 6. 3.
world = the inhabited world. Heb. tébel.
19 Thy dead men—Thy dead ones. Heb. méthim, as in v. 14. These are very different from the dead in
ev. 14. They are Jehovah’s dead. These shall rise.
My dead body shall . . . arise = my corpse (a noun of Jehovah’s people. All these shall awake and sing (Ps. 17. 15).

with Satan himself behind them all, as their great instigator.
piercing = stinging, or fugitive (like the Tigris).

6 He shall cause, &c. This verse is not an “addendum”, or “irrelevant”, or “an illegible gap”. It is necessary in order to give us the subject of the song, which is reserved till this verse. The symbol is to tell us that Israel is the vineyard (cp. v. 12). See the Structure

ISAIAH.

28. 10

10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness; there shall be the calf fed, and there shall be lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

11 When the boughs thereof are withered, then shall they be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore He That made them will not have mercy on them, and He That formed them will shew them no favour.

12 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall beat off from the channel of Egypt, and shall be gathered one by one, 0 ye children of Israel.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is as a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet:

4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up.

5 In that day shall the Lord of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of His People.

6 For a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 But figs also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all table are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 Whom shall He teach knowledge? and whom shall He make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

| 11 | "For with" stammering lips and another tongue will He speak to this People. |
| 12 | "To whom He said, "This is the rest wherev'y ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing;" yet they would not hear. |
| 13 | But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. |
| 14 | Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this People which is in Jerusalem. |
| 15 | Because ye have said, "We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the over flowing scoure shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves;" |
| 16 | Therefore thus saith the LORD God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. |
| 17 | Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. |
| 18 | And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it. |
| 19 | From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report. |
| 20 | For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it. |
| 21 | For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, He shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that He may do His work, His strange work; and bring to pass His act, His strange act. |
| 22 | Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption, even determined, upon the whole earth. |

| 17 | Behold. Fig. Asterias (Ap. 6), emphasising the contrast between the false foundation of v. 15 with the true foundation. (This is quoted in Rom. 4. 23; Pet. 2. 6.) |
| 18 | a tried stone = a test stone: i.e. tested itself, and testing others. Op. v. 17, and Zech. 8. 9. |

| 20 | not make haste = be constant, steady, not fleeing away. See note on Prov. 8. 36. Note the Fig. Metonymy (of Subject), Ap. 6; by which the has, or sight, is put for the confusion and shame which is the cause of it. Sept. reads "ashamed." In Rom. 9. 33; 10. 11; 1 Pet. 2. 6, the Fig. is translated, and means therefore exactly the same thing: shall have no need for ✠ to be entered. (ep. 49. 23). |

| 25 | This could not be known or understood without reference to 2 Sam. 5. 23, and Josh. 10. 10; and this reference must have been in writing: too long before (700 years) to be a matter of mere memory. See Ap. 92. |

28 Bread = Corn. Bread is put by Fig. Metonymy (of Effect), Ap. 6, for the corn of which it is made.
brized = crushed; i.e. reduced to powder. Cp. Ex. 13. 28, 3 Kings 22. 6. Render, as a question: Is corn crushed?
because = nay. The Heb. accent "bir is disjunctive and requires this rendering. Cp. R. V. marg., and Job 21. 20. ever = for ever.

14 Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this People, even a marvelous work and a wonder; for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid."

15 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, "Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?".
16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay; for shall the work say of him that made it, "He made me not?" or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, "He had no understanding?"
17 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?
18 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. That the "meech also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the "poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel."
19 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorners are consumed, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off:
20 That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought.

24 They also that err'd in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall "learn doctrine."

Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of Me; and that cover with a covering, but not of My Spirit, that they may add sin to sin:

2 That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at My mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

6 The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from where come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

8 Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever:

9 That this is a rebellious People, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD:

10 Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits:

11 Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And He shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; He shall not spare: so that shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lord GOD, in the Holy One of Israel: In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not.

18 And therefore will I the Lord wait, that He may be gracious unto you, and therefore will He be exalted, that He may have mercy upon you: for the Lord is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for Him.

19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: He will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when He shall hear it, He will answer thee.

20 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, wait = look for.

20 though. Omit "though" and read it as a direct promise: "Jehovah will give you afflicion [as] bread and adversity [as] water".

18 be gracious = show you favour, or grace, have mercy upon you = show you compassion.

3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not GOD; and their horses flesh, and not spirit.

When 'the LORD shall stretch out His hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fall together.

4 For thus hath 'the LORD spoken unto me, "Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 As birds flying, so will 'the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also He will deliver it; and passing over He will preserve it."

6 Turn ye unto Him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your hands have made unto you for a sin.

8 Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be cut off.

9 And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign," saith 'the LORD, Whose fire is in Zion, and His furnace in Jerusalem.

10 Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women:
for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the teats, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 Upon the land of My people shall come up thorns and briers; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city:

14 Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasturage of flocks; and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And My People shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;

19 When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place.

2 O Lord, be gracious unto us; we have waited for Thee: be Thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of Thysel the nations were scattered.

4 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the-caterpillar: as the running to and fro of locusts shall He run upon them.

5 The Lord is exalted; for He dwelleth on high: He hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the Lord is his treasure.

7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without: the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 The highways are waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9 The earth mourneth and languishteth: Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down; Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

9 No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there;

but the redeemed shall walk there:

10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing, and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

36 Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army: and he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria: What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereof is a man, that it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: Is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

prophecy are thus combined: for the latter is history foretold, and the former is (in this and many cases) prophecy fulfilled: the two accounts being perfectly independent.

in the fourteenth year: i.e. 728 B.C. After Hezekiah's reformation (2 Chron. 29, 1-92). 1 Samaria had been taken by Shalmaneser in Hezekiah's sixth year (2 Kings 15, 16). The date (fourteenth year) no "error!" defended cities = fortified cities, and took them. See the list and number of them (forty-six) on Sennacherib's hexagonal cylinder in the British Museum. 9 Egypt. Hezekiah at first looked for help there (see 30, 3–4; 30, 2–4; 2 Kings 19). 10 And I am now come up. As foretold twenty-eight years before (10, 6–8). If Rabshakeh knew of this, it shows the falsehood of "half the truth". 11 Then said, &c. This led only to grosser insults. 12 Then Rabshakeh replied, "This name by which the People were known of old, to foreigners. See note on v. 2. No proof of a later authorship. "Hebrew" is the later word for the language (cp. 19, 16). 13 Thus said Isaiah. Some codices, with two early printed editions,Sept., and S.V., read "and this city": i.e. there reduced to these extremities. 14 Thus the city. Some codices, with two early printed editions, read "and this city": i.e. "therefore this city." 15 Hezekiah's. See note on 36, 3. 16 Thus said the Lord, saying, &c. The Lord will surely deliver us. This city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. 17 Until I come and take away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. 18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, &c. The Lord will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? 19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? &c. They delivered Samaria out of my hand? 20 Speak ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern; 21 Until I come and take away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. 22 Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

x 37 And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the Lord. 10 And he sent &c. Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. 3 And they said unto him, 'Thus said Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children 603 he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."

8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He is come forth to make war with thee." And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 "Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, 'Let not thy God, in Whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'"

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have delivered, as Go'gin, and Haman, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Ar'phad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?"

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying, "O LORD, the God of Hosts, God of Israel, That dwellest between the cherubims, The horn art even Thine alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: The horn hast made heaven and earth.

17 Thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open Thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries;

19 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that The art the LORD, even Thou only."

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, "Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, 'Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria;"

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him: 'Thou virgin, the daughter of Zion, hast despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the LORD, and hast said, 'By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; a rumour. Not that of ev. 8, 8, but that of ev. 36, on hearing which he returned to his own land (v. 57).

37. 26.

26 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldst be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against Me.

29 Because thy rage against Me, and thy tumult, is come up into Mine ears, therefore will I put My hook in thy nose, and My bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way with which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee. Ye shall eat this year such as it growth of itself; and in the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion; the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it for My servant David's sake.

36 Then the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as it was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and Ishmael escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

38 In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thin house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD.

3 And said, "Remember now, O LORD, I beseech Thee, how I have walked before Thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in Thy sight." And Hezekiah wept sore.

4 Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, that He hath spoken;

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of 9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

10 I said, in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.
11 Therefore, I said, I will not see THE LOR D even THE LOR D, in the land of the living: I shall behold no more with the inhabitants of the world.
12 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: He will cut me off with pining sickness from day to day even to night wilt Thou make an end of me.
13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will He break all my bones: from day even to night wilt Thou make an end of me.
14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter:
I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LOR D, I am oppressed; undertake for me.
15 What shall I say? He hath both spoken unto me, and Himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.
16 O LOR D, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my soul: so wilt Thou recover me, and make me to live.
17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness:
but Thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for Thou hast cast all my sins behind Thy back.
18 For the grave cannot praise Thee, death cannot celebrate Thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for Thy truth.
19 The living, the living, shall praise Thee, as I do this day: the father to the children shall make known Thy truth.
20 The LOR D was ready to save me:
therefore will I sing my songs to the strung instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LOR D.

ISAIAH.

0 21 For Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover."
0 22 Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up the house of the LORD?"

39 0 At that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered,
0 2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

C 3 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, "What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee?"

H 1 And Hezekiah said, "They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon."
C 2 4 Then said he, "What have they seen in thine house?"

H 1 And Hezekiah answered, "All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them."
C 2 5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the Lord of Hosts:
0 6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the Lord.
0 7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

D 3 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, "Is the word of the Lord which thou hast spoken true?"
C 0 He said moreover, "For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

K 0 4 glad of them. This is further Divine information, given by Him Who knew Hezekiah's heart. 2 Kings 20, 13 records what Hezekiah did: viz. "heardken unto them". Man could see the ear, but only Jehovah could know the heart. Hezekiah forgot to pray, as in 37, 4, 14, 15; and 36, 2. Hence his failure, and. ### EXHORTATIONS: PROMISSORY AND PROPHETIC

Alteration and Introdution

Extended and Repeated Alteration

These chapters (40. 12–66, 24) form a group corresponding with chs. 1–8; and, like them, consist of exhortations and prophecies, while they are set in contrast with them, being promissory instead of reprehensory. Their subjects, as respectively repeated, will be seen in the Structure of A, p. 980. They look beyond the Captivity. 12–14 Who . . . Who . . . With whom . . . ? in ev. 12–14 are introductory: while the Fig. Erotesis emphasises the importance of Him Who speaks. a measure = a [Hebrew] measure. See Ap. 51. III. 8 (11).
13. Who hath directed the spirit of the Lord? or being His counsellor hath taught Him?

14. With whom took He counsel, and who instructed Him, and taught Him in the path of judgment, and taught Him knowledge and shewed to Him the way of understanding?

15. Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: 16. Behold, He taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16. And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

17. All nations before Him are as nothing; and they are counted to Him less than nothing, and vanity.

18. To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto Him? 19. The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20. He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seethketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21. Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22. It is He that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; That stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in;

23. That bringeth the princes to nothing; He maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24. Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown: yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and He shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25. To whom then will ye liken Me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26. Lift up your eyes on high, and behold Who hath created these things, That bringeth out their host by number: He calleth them all by names by the greatness of His might, for that He is strong in power; not one faieth.

27. Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28. Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, faileth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of His understanding.

29. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might He increaseth strength.

30. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

31. But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

8 My servant. See note on 37. 35 for the three "servants" in Isaiah. This was Israel, as the seed of Abraham, not Cyrus (yet). Cp. v. 21-29.

9 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

9 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing; and as a thing of nought.

ISAIAH.

43.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and His praise from the ends of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the islands, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare His praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, He shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: He shall cry, yea, roar; He shall prevail against His enemies.

14 I have long time held My peace; I have been still, and refrained Myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers 'islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight.

17 These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

18 They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that 'trust in graven images, 'that say to the molten images, 'ye are our gods.'

19 Who is blind, but My servant? or deaf, as My messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

20 Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is well pleased for His righteousness' sake; He will magnify the law, and make it honourable.

22 But this is a People robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, "Restore.'

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, He against Whom we have 'sinned? for they would not walk in His ways, 25 Therefore He hath poured upon him the fury of His anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

43. But now thus saith the LORD That created thee, O Jacob, and He That formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art Mine.

2 When thou passest through the waters, 3 shall be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burnt; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

For 3 am I the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour:

I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

Since thou wast precious in My sight, thou hast been honourable, and 3 have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

I will bring thy seed forth from the east, and gather thee from the 3 west;

I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring My sons from far, and My daughters from the ends of the earth;

Even every one that is called by My name: for I have created him for My glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

Bring forth the blind People that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the 3 people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

My witnesses, saith the LORD, and My Servant Whom I have chosen:

that ye may know and believe Me, and understand that 3 am He: before Me there was no 3 GOD formed, neither shall there be after Me.

3, even 3, am the LORD; and beside Me there is no saviour.

3 have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you:

therefore ye are My witnesses, saith the LORD.

That 3 am GOD.

Yea, before the day was 3 am 5:

I will work, and who shall let it?

Thus saith the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; “they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as ‘tow.

18 3 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.
19 Behold, I will do a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.
20 The beauty of the field shall honour Me, the dragons and the owls: because 3I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to My people, My chosen.
21 3This People have I formed for Myself; they shall shew forth My praise.

22 But thou hast not 3called upon Me, O Jacob; but thou hast 3been weary of Me, O Israel.
23 3Thou hast not brought Me the small cistern of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured Me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.
24 Thou hast bought Me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled Me with the fat of thy sacrifices: “but thou hast 3made Me to serve with thy 3sins, thou hast wearied Me with thine 3iniquities.

2 Thus saith 1the LORD That made thee, and 2formed thee from the womb, Which 3will help thee; “Fear not, O Jacob, 1My servant; and thou, 3Jerusum, whom I have 3chosen.
3 For 3I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour My 3spirit upon thy seed, and My blessing upon thine offspring:

world without end — the ages of futurity.
Note how these expressions are heaped together to avoid being told us, better than ignorant man, how He created it.
That formed — The Maker of. He created: It did not come of itself by evolution (see Ap. 6 and 8). Ref. to Pent. (Gen. 1. 1).
10 That created — the Creator of.

He made — the Maker of.
He created: It did not come in vain = tohah. The same word as in Gen. 1. 2 ("without form"). Therefore it must have become tohah: which is exactly what Gen. 1. 2 declares (see note there). In Gen. 1. 1 we have the "world that then was" (cp. 2 Pet. 3. 6); and in v. 2 we have the ruin into which it fell. We are not told how, when, or why, or how long it lasted. When geologists have settled how many years they require may place them between 22 and 3 of Gen. 1. In Gen. 1. 2—3, we have the heavens and the earth which are now" of 2 Pet. 3. 13.

46. 19. in vain. Heb. tahā. Repeated from v. 18. Jehovah did not command His People to seek Him in a restless and trackless waste, where there are no indications of how He is to be found; but in His Word, where He has revealed Himself clearly and distinctly: not "in secret" or "in darkness" (same words as in v. 18). 2 Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will execute retribution, thee and thine eminent persons, and the latter end of it.

4 As for our Redeemer, the Lord of hosts is His name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of Chaldea: for thou shalt no more be called The lady of kingdoms.

6 I was wroth with My people, I have polluted Mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever, so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, 3 am, and no one else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children.

9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. 'Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, 3 am, and no one else beside me.'

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou maest prevail.

13 Thou art weary and to be wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the star-gazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

time have I heard Thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped Thee: and I will preserve Thee, and give Thee for a covenant of the People, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;

9 That Thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for He that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall He guide them.

11 And I will make all My mountains a way, and My highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

13 Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the Lord hath comforted His People, and will have mercy upon His afflicted.

14 But Zion said, Art thou able to comfort my children, and to lift up by the hand of My hands; thy walls are continually before Me.

15 Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

16 Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As those live, saith the Lord, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth.

17 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

18 The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up Mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up My standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; heard answered.

1 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of Mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

51. 1 Hearken to Me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD:

look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD shall comfort Zion: He will comfort all her waste places; and He will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 Hearken unto Me, My People; and give ear unto Me, O My nation: for a law shall proceed from Me, and I will make My judgment to rest for a light of the people.

5 My righteousness is near; My salvation is gone forth, and Mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon Me, and on Mine arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall wax old like a garment, and the earth shall pass away as a woman: and they that dwell therein shall die like all manner:

but My salvation shall be for ever, and My righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 Hearken unto Me, ye that know righteousness, the People in whose heart is My law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool:

but My righteousness shall be for ever, and My salvation from generation to generation.

Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that had made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

ISAIAH.

603-588

9 Break forth into joy,

sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted His People, He hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD hath made bare His holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch not unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ye shall not go out with haste, nor by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rearward.

13 Behold, My Servant shall deal prudently, He shall be exalted and exalted, and be very high.

v 14 As many were astonished at Thee; (His visage was so marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men):

w 15 So shall He sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at Him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

53 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: He hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see Him, there is no beauty that we should desire Him.

3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from Him; He was despised, and we esteemed Him not.

4 Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

53. 5.

ISAIAH.

54. 1.

5. But δε was wounded for our transgressions. He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed.

6. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

7. He was oppressed, and He was afflicted, yet He opened not His mouth: He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so He opened not His mouth.

8. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare His generation? for He was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of My people was He stricken.

9. And He made His grave with the wicked, and with the rich in His death; because He had done no violence, neither was any deceit in His mouth.

10. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him; He hath put Him to grief:

11. He shall see of the travail of His soul, and shall be satisfied: by His knowledge shall My righteous Servant justify many; for δε shall bear their iniquities.

12. Therefore will I divide Him a portion with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong; because He hath poured out His soul unto death; and He was numbered with the transgressors; and δε bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

---

this is a peculiarly Levitical word (Lev. 14. 12, 21), and cannot be understood apart from it. In Ps. 40 it is the aspect of the whole burnt offering. He shall see His seed: "see" corresponding with "see" in 52. 15: i.e. the result, issue, and reward of His sufferings. Cf. Ps. 22. 30; 24. 4; 25. 13. The Chaldee Targum reads, "they (His seed) shall see the kingdom of their Messiah"; which is the purpose, not disappointed. We have not an impotent Father, or a disappointed Christ, or a defeated Holy Ghost, as is commonly preached; but an omnipotent Father, an all-victorious Christ, and an almighty Holy Spirit, able to break the hardest heart and subdue the stoutest will. By His knowledge, &c. Punctuate: "Satisfied by His knowledge, My righteous Servant shall justify many, for He shall bear," &c. This introduces the break in the dispensation, which is the subject of the rest of the chapter: the "glory which shall follow" the sufferings. See Ap. 71 and 72.

55. o Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.
For wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfyeth not? Hearken diligently unto Me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your souls delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto Me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

afflicted our soul. Ref. to Pent. This is a strictly Levitical technical expression (Lev. 16, 28, 31; 28, 27, 32; Num. 29, 7). This shows that the People were not in exile as alleged, but in the Land. See also the references to other observances below (v. 13). Note that in chs. 58 and 59 we have the reference to the Day of Atonement; in chs. 60 and 61, to the Sabbath and Jubilee years. Ch. 60 refers to the feast of Tabernacles with its ingathering (Exs. 3-6, 12), which followed the Day of Atonement (Lev. 23, 27, 34).

loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke.

7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

8 Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thy health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy rereward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and He shall say, "Here am I."

10 If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity;

11 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul;

then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness as the noon day:

12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on My holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour Him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

14 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

59. 1. Behold, the LORD'S hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither His ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perver

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch cockatrice's eggs, and weave the spider's web: he eateth of their eggs, and layeth that which is crushed breakeath out into a viper.

I am sought of them that asked not for Me; I am found of them that sought Me not: I said, Behold Me, behold Me, unto a nation that was not called by My name.

I have spread out My hands all the day unto a rebellious People, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts; and a People that provoketh Me to anger continually to My face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick; and which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swine's flesh, and of broth of abominable things is in their vessels; which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. "There are a smoke in My nose, a fire that burneth all the day. Behold, it is written before Me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom. Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burnt incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed Me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom. Thus saith the LORD, "As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it:" so will I do for My servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all. And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of My mountains: and Mine elect shall inherit it, and My servants shall dwell there. And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the wilderness a habitation of shepherds.

65 I am sought of them that asked not for Me; I am found of them that sought Me not. I said, Behold Me, behold Me, unto a nation that was not called by My name.

2 I have spread out My hands all the day unto a rebellious People, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts; and a People that provoketh Me to anger continually to My face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick; and which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swine's flesh, and of broth of abominable things is in their vessels; which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. "There are a smoke in My nose, a fire that burneth all the day. Behold, it is written before Me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom. Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burnt incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed Me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom. Thus saith the LORD, "As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it:" so will I do for My servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all. And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of My mountains: and Mine elect shall inherit it, and My servants shall dwell there. And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the wilderness a habitation of shepherds.

11 But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget My holy mountain, that prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish the drink offering unto that number.

12 Therefore will I number you unto the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before Mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, My servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, My servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, My servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, My servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto Mychosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call His servants by another name:

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from Mine eyes.

17 For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be rememberedin her heart come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her People a joy.

19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in My People: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of My People, and Mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they speak, I will hear.

25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be as the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain, saith the LORD.
Thus saith the LORD, "The heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool: where is the house that ye build unto Me? and where is the place of My rest?"

For all those things hath Mine hand made, and all those things have been, "saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at My word.

He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

And they will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them.

When I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before Mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at His word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for My name's sake, said, 'Let the LORD be glorified.' But He shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

Who hath heard such a thing? Who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

Shall I bring forth to the birth, and not cause to bring forth?" saith the LORD: "shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb?" saith thy God.

"Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations: that he may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

For thus saith the LORD, "Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dallied upon her knees.

As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward His servants, and His indignation toward His enemies.

18 For they know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see My glory.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard My name, neither have seen My glory; and they shall declare My glory among the Gentiles.

For the Canonical order and place of the Prophets, see Ap. 1, and op. page 1206.
For the Canonical order of the Prophets, see Ap. 77.
For the inter-relation of the prophetic books, see Ap. 78.
For references to the Pentateuch in the Prophets, see Ap. 92.
For the Canonical order of Jeremiah’s prophecies, see below.
For the Canonical order of both Jeremiah’s prophecies, see Ap. 83.
For the Septuagint version of Jeremiah, see Ap. 84.

The prophecies of Jeremiah do not profess to be given in chronological order (see Ap. 88); nor is there any reason why they should be so given. Why, we ask, should modern critics first assume that they ought to be, and then condemn them because they are not? It is the historical portions, which concern JEHOLAKIM (D) and ZEDEKIAH (D), that are chiefly so affected. And, who was Jehoiakim that his history should be of any importance? Was it not he who “cut up the Word of Jehovah with a penknife, and cast it in the fire”? Why should his history be “cut up”? ZEDEKIAH rejected the same Word of Jehovah. Why should his history be respected?

Secular authors take the liberty of arranging their own literary matter as they choose; why should this liberty be denied to the sacred writers? The fact that the canonical and chronological portions have each their own particular Structures, and that both are perfect, shows that both orders have the same Divine Author.

Jeremiah’s prophecy is dated (1. 2, 3) as being “in the days of Josiah... in the thirteenth year of his reign. It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah... unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah... unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.”

The 13th year of Jehoiakim was 588 b.c.

The 11th year of Zedekiah was 597 b.c.

Therefore the whole period covered by Jeremiah was 41 years, as shown in Ap. 50, pp. 60, 67, 68, and Ap. 77.

It is highly probable that this period was exactly forty years—the last probationary period (see Ap. 10) vouchsafed by Jehovah, before Jerusalem was destroyed and the Temple burnt.* But, as the month in the thirteenth year of Josiah, at which the Word first came to Jeremiah, is not stated, the whole period has to be shown as above, viz. 41 years.

Having regard to the Formulae of prophetic utterances (see Ap. 89), there appear to be some fifty-one distinct and clearly marked prophecies, commencing with some such formula as “The word of the Lord came,” &c. It would have been well if the book could have been divided into fifty-one chapters (instead of fifty-two) so as to coincide with these. They commence as follows:

| I. 1. | XIV. 21. | XXVII. 34. |
| I. 11. | XV. 24. | XXVIII. 34. 8. |
| III. 13. | XVI. 25. | XXX. 34. 12. |
| IV. 2. | XVII. 26. | XXXI. 34. 12. |
| V. 3. | XVIII. 27. 1. | XXXI. 34. 12. |
| VI. 1, 7. | XIX. 28. 12. | XXXII. 34. 12. |
| VII. 11. | XX. 30. | XXXII. 36. 1. |
| VIII. 13. 3. | XXI. 32. 1. | XXXII. 36. 1. |
| IX. 13. 8. | XXII. 32. 6. | XXXII. 36. 1. |
| X. 14. 1. | XXIII. 32. 15. | XXXII. 36. 27. |
| XI. 16. 1. | XXIV. 33. 1. | XXXIV. 37. 6. |
| XII. 18. 1. | XXV. 33. 19. | XXXV. 39. 15. |
| XIII. 18. 5. | XXVI. 33. 23. | XXXVII. 40. 1. |

* Like the corresponding period of probation covered by the Acts of the Apostles, before the destruction of the second Temple.

9 Then 2 the LORD put forth His 3 hand, and 4 touched my mouth. And 5 the LORD said unto me, "Put My words in thy mouth." 10 So I have this day 0 set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, 0 to root out, 0 to pull down, and to destroy, and to 0 throw down, 0 to build, and to plant."

13 And the 1 word of 2 the LORD came unto me the 3 the second time, saying, "What seest thou?" And I said, "3 I see a 4 seething pot; and the face thereof is 5 toward the north."

14 Then 2 the LORD said unto me, "Out of the north 6 an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land."

15 For 2, lo, I will call 7 all the families of the kingdoms of the north, 8 saith 2 the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall 9 set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah. 16 And I will utter My judgments against 10 them touching all their 11 wickedness, who have forsaken Me, and have 12 burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped 13 the 14 works of their own hands."

This may be Englished: "Be not abashed. . . . Lest I abash thee."

18 made thee—gave thee (see). And. Note the Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6), brazen walls. Some codices, with two early printed editions (one in marg.), Targ. Aram., Sept., Syr., and Vulg., read "a wall of bronze" (sing.) against. Note the Fig. Anaphora (Ap. 6), by which "against" is repeated seven times, in order to emphasise the fact that as man's thoughts and ways are the opposite of Jehovah's (Isa. 56, 6), it is impossible for a prophet who is Jehovah's spokesman to be other than "against" man. See Ap. 49, the kings of Judah, ch. 36, the princes, See chs. 37 and 38, the priests. See chs. 29 and 26.

1 Moreover. Ch. 2 is the first chapter of the roll which was re-written after being burned (ch. 36), while ch. 11 is the first of the "many like words" (36, 32) added afterwards.

a rod of an almond tree. Denotes an almond tree staff, corresponding with a vigilant watchman, an almond tree. Heb. shakkēd—a watchman, or an early watcher, because it is the first of the trees to wake from its winter sleep, and is thus what the cock is among birds.

12 I will hasten . . . it. . . . I am watching. Forming the Fig. Paronomasia (Ap. 6), "an almond tree (shakkēd) . . . I am watching (ēlokkēd)", thus emphasising the certainty. Jeremiah's Third prophecy.

 Jeremiah's Soncino prophecy.
where ye the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the Lord, What iniquity have your fathers found in Me, that they are gone far from Me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the Lord? and they that handle the law knew Me not: the pastors also transgressed against Me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 Wherefore will I yet plead with you, saith the Lord, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but My people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the Lord.

13 For My people have committed two evils; they have forsaken Me; the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he spoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him, and yawned; and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after Me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holiness unto the Lord, and the firstfruits of His increase: all that devour him shall be offensive; evil shall come upon them, saith the Lord.

4 Hear ye the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the Lord, What iniquity have your fathers found in Me, that they are gone far from Me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the Lord? and they that handle the law knew Me not: the pastors also transgressed against Me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 Wherefore will I yet plead with you, saith the Lord, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but My people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the Lord.

13 For My people have committed two evils; they have forsaken Me; the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he spoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him, and yawned; and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after Me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.
18 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.
19 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?
20 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?
21 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that My fear is not in thee, saith the LORD God of hosts.
22 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, and into the harlot.
21 Yet have I planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto Me?
22 For though thou wast wvith thee nitre, and take thee much spore, yet thinkest thou iniquity is marked before Me, saith the LORD God; and I will not be grieved any more, saith the Lord: I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, knowing what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways:
24 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.
25 Withold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope; no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.
26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed: they, her kings, her princes, and her priests, and her prophets,
27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto Me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.
28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.
29 Wherefore will ye plead with Me? ye all have transgressed against Me, saith the LORD.
30 In vain have I smitten you children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.
31 O generation, see the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say My People, We are lords; we will come no more unto the LORD to ask of him benefit?
32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet My people have forgotten Me days without number, 33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.
34 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: have I not found it by secret search, but upon all these.
35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent,
35. surely His anger shall turn from me.9 Behold, I will "plead with thee, because thou sayest, "I have not "sinned." 36 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria. 37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

3 They say, "If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted?" but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; 'yet return again to Me," saith the LORD. 2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy "wickedness. 3 Therefore the "showers have been "withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hast had a whore's "forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed. 4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto Me, 'My Father, I thou art the "Guide of my youth?' 5 Will He "reserve "His anger for ever? will He keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done "evil things as thou couldest... 6 The LORD said also unto me "in the days of Josiah the king, "Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high "mountain and under every green "tree, and there hath "played the harlot. 7 And I said after she had done all these things, "Turn thou unto Me. But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. 8 'And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and "given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and "played the harlot also. 9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with "stones and with "stocks. 10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto Me with her whole heart, but "feigningly, "saith the LORD, "And I the LORD said unto me, "The backsliding Israel hath "justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 Go and proclaim these words "toward the north, and say, "Return, thou backsliding Israel, "saith the LORD; and I will not "cause Mine anger to fall upon you: 3 for am "merciful, "saith the LORD, and I will not "keep "anger for ever. 13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast "transgressed against the LORD thy God.
3. 13.

God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed My voice, saith the LORD.

14. Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15. And I will give you pastors according to Mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16. And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more.

17. At that time shall I call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem; neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart.

18. In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19. But 3 said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a going heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call Me, My Father; and shalt not turn away from Me.

20. Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with Me, O 11 house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21. A voice was heard upon high places, weeping and supplications of the 10 children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their 13 God.

22. Return, ye backsliding 12 children, and I will heal your backslidings.

23. Behold, we come unto Thee: for Thou art the LORD our 13 God.

24. Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our 13 God is the salvation of Israel.

25. For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

26. We lie down in shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our 13 God, and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our 13 God.

4 “If thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, return unto Me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of My sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in Him, and in Him shall they glory.

3 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem. Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.

4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest My fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion; retire, stay not: for the Lord will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl:

9 for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

10 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

11 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! surely Thou hast greatly deceived this People and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

12 At that time shall it be said to this People and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of My People, not to fan, nor to cleanse.

13 Even a full wind from those places shall come unto Me: now also will I give sentence against them.

14 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

20 Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.

23 But this People hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revoluted and gone.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

(p. 1032)
Thus saith the LORD, "Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not. They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good." Forasmuch as there is none like unto Thee, O Lord; Thou art great, and Thy name is great in might.

Who shall not fear Thee, O King of nations? for to Thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto Thee. But the LORD is the true God, &c is the living God, and an everlasting king: at His wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide His indignation. Thus shall ye say unto them, "The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens. He hath made the earth by His power, He hath established the world by His wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by His discretion. When He uttereth His voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: He maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of His treasures. Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. The Portion of Jacob is not like them: for She is the Former of all things; and Israel is the rod of His inheritance: The Lord of hosts is His name." Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress. For thus saith the LORD, "Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may find it so." Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, "Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it." My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD, therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 "Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem:
3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel; Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,
4 Which I commanded thy fathers, that in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey My voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be My people, and I will be your God:
5 That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day.
6 Then answered I, and said, So be it, O Lord.

7 Then the Lord said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.
8 For I earnestly protestted unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey My voice.
9 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart:

Therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

And the Lord said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear My words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers.

Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto Me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods of the heathen that are about you, but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

15 What hath My beloved to do in Mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou dost evil, then thou rejoicest.

16 The Lord called thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult He hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For of the Lord of hosts, That planted them, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of ten of the house of Israel and of ten of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke Me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 And the Lord hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewest me their doings.

19 But I said, They shall surely carry away and bear them away into all the kingdoms of the heavens: for I have spoken the word.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will punish them that have devised Devices against Me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

21 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

22 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

23 Righteous art thou, O Lord, when I plead with Thee: yet let me talk with Thee of Thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

24 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: therefore art thou near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

25 But Thee, O Lord, knowest me: Thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward Thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

26 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds: because they said, He shall not see our last end.

2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chalky, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hinds also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 O Lord, though our iniquities testify against us, do Thou it for Thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against Thee.

8 O the Hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest Thou be as a man entering into a pit, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldest Thou be as a man troubled, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet art Thou the Hope of Israel, art in the midst of us, and we are called by Thy name; leave us not.

10 Thus saith the Lord unto this People, "Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the Lord doth not accept them; He will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins."

11 Then said the Lord unto me, "Pray not for this People for their good.

12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but 3 will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence."

13 Then said I, "Ah, Lord God! behold, the prophets say unto them, 'Ye shall see the sword, neither shall ye have famine: but I will give you assured peace in this place.'"

14 Then the Lord said unto me, "The prophets prophesy lies in My name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: ifg prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that prophesy in My name, and 3 sent them not, yet they say, 'Sword and famine shall not be in this land:' By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the People to whom theg prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17 Therefore Thou shalt say this word unto them: 'Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of My People is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.'" for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble.
2 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against Thee.
21 Do not abhor us, for Thy name’s sake, neither do not disgrace the throne of Thy glory: remember, break not Thy covenant with us.
22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heathen give showers? art not Thou, O LORD, the God of Israel, in the midst thereof? therefore we will wait upon Thee, for Thou hast made all these things.
2 Then said the LORD unto me, "Though Moses and Samuel stood before Me, yet my mind could not be toward this People: cast them out of My sight, and let them go forth.
2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, 'Whither shall we go forth?' then thou shalt tell them, 'Thus saith the LORD: "Such as are for death, for death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such are for the captivity, to the captivity.'"
3 And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.
4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.
5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aslant to ask, 'how thou dost?'
6 They hast forsaken Me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out My hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary of repenting.
7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy My People, since they return not from their ways.
8 Their widows are increased to Me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly," and terrors upon the city.
9 She that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.
10 Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.
11 The LORD said, "Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

16 The word of 1 the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 "Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith 1 the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith 1 the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them:

6 For I have taken away My peace from this people, 1 saith 1 the LORD, even loving-kindness and mercies.

7 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

8 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

9 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

10 For thus saith 1 the LORD of hosts, the 1 God of Israel; 1 Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

11 And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt show this People all these words, and they shall say unto thee, "Wherefore hath 1 the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against 1 the LORD our 1 God?"
11 Then shalt thou say unto them, 1 Because your fathers have forsaken Me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken Me, and have not kept My law; 12 And ye have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearen unto Me: 13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

14 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, That brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; 15 But, 1 The LORD liveth, That brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither He had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

16 Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. 17 For Mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from My face, neither is their iniquity hid from Mine eyes. 18 And I will recompence their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled My land, they have filled Mine inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things."

19 (O LORD, my Strength, and my Fortress, and my Refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.) 20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods? 21 Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know Mine hand and My might; and they shall know that My name is The LORD."
The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it? 10 I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so be that gateth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary. 13 O the Lord, the hope of Israel, all that forsake Thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from Me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the Lord, the Fountain of living waters. 14 Heal me, O the Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for Thou art my Praise.

15 Behold, if thou say unto me, Where is the word of the Lord? let it come now. 16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow Thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; Thou knowest that which came out of my lips was right before Thee. 17 Be not a terror unto me: Thou art my Hope in the day of evil.

Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed; bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

Thus said the Lord unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; 20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the Lord, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates; 21 Thus saith the Lord; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; 22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.

But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto Me, saith the Lord, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow ye the sabbath day, to do no work therein; 25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on stream. 18 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 "Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear My words."

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he had made a vessel: but he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it:

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 "O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in Mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I speak against a nation, and concerneth a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I speak against a nation, and concerneth a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in My sight, that it obey not My voice, then will I repent of the good, whereby I said I would benefit them."

11 Now therefore go, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, "Thus saith the LORD; Behold," I will frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good."

12 And they said, "There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart."

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; "Ask ye now among the heathen, which hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

20. 7. JEREMIAH.

I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

I For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

Then I said, "I will not make mention of Him, nor speak any more in His name."

But His word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. "Report," say they, "and we will report it." All my "familiars" watched for my halting, saying, "Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him."

But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible One: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed: for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

But, O LORD of hosts, That "triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart," let me see Thy vengeance on them: for unto Thee have I opened my cause.

Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: for He hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of "evildoers."

Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

Cursed be the man which brought tidings to my father, saying, "A man child is born unto thee;" making him very glad.

And let that man child be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the "cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide;"

Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Paschur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us: so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all His wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

Then said Jeremiah unto them, "Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

Thus saith the LORD of God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the kings of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

And I Myself will fight against you with an 10 Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching Shalum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place: He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

   13. And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused My People Israel to err.

14. I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his "wickedness: they are all of them unto Me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; 2 Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, 'Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise Me, 1 'The LORD hath said, 'Ye shall have peace,' and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, 'No evil shall come upon you.'

18 For 'who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard His word? 'who hath marked His word, and 'heard it?'

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until He have executed, and till He have performed the thoughts of His heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 If I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in My counsel, and had caused My People to hear My words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am 3:1 a God at hand, 1 saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any hide himself in secret places that shall not see him? 1 saith the LORD. Do not My words fill heaven and earth? 1 saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in My name, saying, 'I have dreamed, I have dreamed.'

26 How long shall this be? shall this be the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause My People to forget My name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, 1 as their fathers have forgotten My name 2 for Baal.

28 The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath My word, let him speak My word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? 1 saith the LORD.

29 The one who prophesied of the fire? 1 saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces.

30 Therefore, 2 behold, I am against the prophets, 1 saith the LORD, that steal My words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, 3 I am against the prophets, 1 saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, 'He saith.'

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, 1 saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause My People to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet 3 sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this People at all, 1 saith the LORD.

33 And when this People, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, 'What is the burden of the LORD?' thou shalt then say unto them, 'What burden? I will even forsake you, 1 saith the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the People, that shall say, 'The burden of the LORD,' I will even punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, 'What hath the LORD answered?' and, 'What hath the LORD spoken?' And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.
Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, 'What hath the LORD answered thee?' and, 'What hath the LORD spoken?'

But since ye say, 'The burden of the LORD;' therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, 'The burden of the LORD,' and I have sent unto you, saying, 'Ye shall not say, 'The burden of the LORD;'"

Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of My presence:

And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten."

The LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe:

and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

Then said the LORD unto me, "What seest thou, Jeremiah?" And I said, "Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil."

Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

"Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of Chaldea - for their good."

For I will set Mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

And I will give them an heart to know Mine ways, that am the LORD: and they shall be My People, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto Me with their whole heart.

And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt:

And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth - for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon,
22 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the *isles which are beyond the sea,
23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners,
24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert,
25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes,
26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of *the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.
27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.'
28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.
29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by My name, and ye shall be utterly unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.
30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Roar from on high, and utter His voice against Me; let it be in My holiness; let the solemn sound of war be in My sanctuary. Roar upon His habitation; He shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the habitants of the earth.
31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations, He will plead with all flesh; He will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.
32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.
33 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.
34 Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel.
35 And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.
36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.
37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down because of the fierce anger of the LORD.
38 He hath forsaken His covert, as the lion: for their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of His fierce anger.”

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word:

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent Me of the evil, which I have purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doing.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; If ye will not hearken unto Me, to walk in My law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of My servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth."

G H 7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the People, that the priests and the prophets and all the People took him, saying, "Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant?" And all the People were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

J 10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the People, saying, "This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears."

F 12 Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the People, saying, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent Him of the evil that He hath pronounced upon you."

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears."
16 Then said the princes and all the People unto the priests and to the prophets; 2 This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the People, saying,

18 "Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the People of Judah, saying, 3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; 4 Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest."

w 19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and repented Him of the evil which He had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

v 20 "And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, 1 Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city, saying, 'Thus saith the LORD of hosts, This nation shall yet reign after me in this place.'"

w 21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, 2 the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

v 22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elinathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt. 3 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common People.

24 Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the People to put him to death.

27 "In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me; 1 Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck, 2 And send them to the king of Edom, 3 and to the king of Moab, 4 and to the king of the Ammonites, 5 and to the king of Tyre, 6 and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers 7 which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them to say unto their masters, 1 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters; 2 Contention. (Introversion and Alteration.)

Jeremiah's Eighteenth Prophecy (p. 1015).

16 Given in reign of Jehoiakim to Jeremiah. Declared, after thirteen years, in fourth year of Zedekiah; i.e. in 485. Cp. v. 12. Chs. 27 and 28 were written by Jeremiah, or at his dictation. Cp. "me", 27. 2; 28. 1. Some codices, with Syr., read "Zedekiah", as in vv. 3 and 12.

1 In the beginning. The Massoroth (Ap. 30) notes the fact that this expression occurs three times at the commencement of a verse (Gen. 1. 1; Jer. 28. 1; 27. 1). come. At the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim; but it referred to a future time, as shown in v. 12, the LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II.

2 put them, &c. This was literally done, as a prophetic symbol; and at that time prophetic of what was to happen in the reign of Zedekiah, eleven years later.

3 and. Note the Fig. Polygeniation (Ap. 6), to emphasise each respectively, which came—that are coming. Part. Ped. as in Gen. 37. 19; 41. 29; 35; Jer. 4. 4; 7. 22; 9. 22; 16. 14; 28. 3, 7; 31. 27, 31, 38; 32. 7; 33. 5, 14, &c. This was to take place eleven years later, unto Zedekiah.

Then and there we have the fulfilment of this prophecy.

5. 5 o 3 have made the earth, the o man and the beast that are upon the o ground, by My o great power and by My o outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto Me.

6. And now have 3 given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, 3 My servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7. And all nations shall serve 3 him, and his son, and his son's son, until the o very time of his land come: and then many nations and o great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8. And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the o sword, and with the o famine, and with the o pestilence, until I have consumed 3 them by his hand.

9. Therefore hearken not to your prophets, nor to your o diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your o enchanter, nor to your o sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for he will not serve the king of Babylon; but he will surely die.

10. For thus saith the LORD, As I live, I will not waste thee nor give over thy sons to be consumed with fire.

11. But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain in their own land; and they shall till it, and dwell therein, saith the LORD.

12. I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, and his people, and live; and 3 Why will ye die, 3 them and thy People, by the o sword, and by the o famine, and by the o pestilence, as 1 the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

13. Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for this 3 prophet prophesies a lie unto you.

14. For I have not sent them, saith 1 the LORD, yet 3 they prophesy a lie in My name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

15. Also I spake 3 to the priests and to all this People, saying, Thus saith 1 the LORD;

16. Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, 3 Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17. Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18. But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19. For thus saith 1 the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city, 20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive 3 Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21. Yea, thus saith 1 the LORD of hosts, the 4 God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22. They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith 1 the LORD;

23. Then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place."
And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the Lord, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, "Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon."

And in two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the Lord's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

And in two full years will I bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon; saith the Lord: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon."

Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the Lord,

"Even the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen: the Lord do so: the Lord perform this word which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the Lord's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

"Nevertheless hear thou now this word that speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people:

"The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence."

"The prophet which prophesied of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the Lord hath truly sent him."

Then Hananiah the prophet took "the yoke" from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it. And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus saith the Lord; Even I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years." And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

Then the word of the Lord came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Go and tell Hananiah, saying, 'Thus saith the Lord; Even I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and ye shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.'"

The prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, "Hear now, Hananiah; the Lord hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie."

Therefore thus saith the Lord; "Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the Lord."

So Hananiah the prophet died in the same year in the seventh month.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:
9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 Therefore saith O My servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither shall Israel be ashamed, neither shall they be dspised in the days of their return, saith the LORD.

11 For am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee; but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD: Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous. 13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.

14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they say thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Where criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, 2 This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.'

18 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before Me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto Me: for who is he that engaged his heart to approach unto Me? saith the LORD.

22 And ye shall be My People, and I will be your God.

3 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, "Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee.

5 That shall ye plant upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall "eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, "Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.”

7 For thus saith the LORD: "Sing with gladness Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, ‘O LORD, save Thy People, the remnant of Israel.’"

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return "thither.

9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is My firstborn.'"

10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, "He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth h his flock.

11 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and "routed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall "flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the younglings, and for the flock, and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and My people shall be satisfied with My goodness,” saith the LORD.”

15 Thus saith the LORD: "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping: "Rahel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD; "Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded,” saith the LORD; and they shall "come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And "there is hope in thine end," saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, ‘Thou hast chastised me, and I was cast down, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke;’ turn Thou me, and I shall be turned; ‘for thou art the LORD my God.'

19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon... my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.'

20 Is Ephraim My dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore My bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps; set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, I will bring again their captivity, saith the LORD, and will have mercy upon this people.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have repleted every sorrowful soul."

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with them in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which My covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD.

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with them; after those days, saith the LORD, I will put My law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be My People.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD; for they shall all know Me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 Thus saith the LORD, Which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night. Which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; *The LORD of Hosts is His name:

JEREMIAH.

36 If those ordinances depart from before Me, I saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before Me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the tower of Hanameel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill of Goath, and shall compass about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.'

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon’s army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah’s house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, and shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.'

6 And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.'

8 So Hanameel mine uncle’s son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself.'

Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle’s son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.
11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle’s son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying, 14 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; ‘Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.’

15 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; ‘Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.’

16 Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the Lord, saying, ‘Ah Lord God! behold, Thou hast made the heaven and the earth by Thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for Thee:

17 Thou seest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the Lord of Hosts, is His name.

18 Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for Thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

19 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made Thee a name, as at this day;

20 And hast brought forth Thy People Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror;

21 And hast given them this land, which Thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;

22 And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not Thy voice, neither walked in Thy law; they have done nothing of all that Thou commandedst them to do: therefore Thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.

23 Behold, the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what Thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, Thou seest it.

24 And Thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, ‘Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses;’ for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.’”

25 And I said, ‘Thou hast spoken according to the word;’ and, behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

26 Then came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 ‘Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for Me?’

poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke Me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before Me from their youth: for the children of Israel have provoked Me to anger, with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to Me as a provocation of Mine anger and of My fury from the day that they built it up unto this day; that I should remove it from before My face.

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto Me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by My name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into My mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; '

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in Mine anger, and in My fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely; 38 And they shall be My People, and I will be their God: 39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear Me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them: 40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put My fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from Me.

41 Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with My whole heart and with My whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD; Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. 44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities to provoke Me to anger.

27 For thus saith 1 the LORD; David shall never want a 2 man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;
28 neither shall "the priests the Levites want a 3 man before Me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually."

33. 18.
19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 "Thus saith the LORD: 'If ye can break My covenant of the day, and My covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 Then may also My covenant be broken with David My servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, My ministers.

22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured:

23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 "Considerest thou not what this People have spoken, saying, 'The two families which the LORD hath chosen, He hath even cast them off'? Thus they have despised My People, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD; 'If My covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David My servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.'"

34 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

2 "Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; 'Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, 'Thus saith the LORD;' Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire:

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they bury odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, 'Ah lord!' for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.'"

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem.

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the People which were at Jerusalem, 'to proclaim liberty unto them;'
9. That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.
10. Now when all the princes, and all the People, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 12. "Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying, 13. 'At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but thy fathers hearkened not unto Me, neither inclined their ear.

And ye were now turned, and had done right in My sight, in proclaiming liberty every man his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before Me in the house which is called by My name:

But ye turned and polluted My name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto servants and for handmaids.'

Therefore thus saith the LORD; 'Ye have not hearkened unto Me, in proclaiming liberty every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour:

Behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

And I will give the men that have transgressed My covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before Me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof;
19. The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the People of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;
20. I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of the men that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and unto the beasts of the earth.

21. And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of the men that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army; which are gone up from you.
2 “Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.”

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdalial, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, “Drink ye wine.”

6 But they said, “We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, ‘Ye shall drink no wine all our days, whether our days be few, or long; nor our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;’

7 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: nor have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed;

8 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

9 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, ‘Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.’

10 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

11 ‘Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, “Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to My words? saith the LORD.”

12 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father’s commandment:

13 notwithstanding he have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking;

14 but ye hearkened not unto Me.

15 I have sent also unto you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, ‘Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers:’

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of hosts, the 'God of Israel'; "Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the 'evil that I have pronounced against them:' because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.'" p 18 And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, "Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the 'God of Israel;" Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the 'God of Israel; Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a ten man to stand before Me 'for ever.'"

(p. 1070)

36 And it came to pass in 'the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that' this word came unto Jeremiah from 'the LORD, saying,
2 "Take thee a 'roll of a book, and write therein all the 'words that I have spoken unto thee against 'Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee,' from the days of Josiah, even unto this day:
3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the 'evil which 'I purpose to do unto them; that they may return 'every man from his 'evil way; that I may forgive their 'iniquity and their 'sin.'"

N 4 Then Jeremiah called 'Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of 'the LORD, which He had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

M 5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "'3 am 'shut up; I cannot go into the house of 'the LORD:
6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of 'the LORD in the ears of the People in 'the LORD's house upon 'the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.
7 It may be they will present their supplication before 'the LORD, and will return every one from his 'evil way; for great is the anger and the fury that 'I the LORD hath pronounced against this People.'"

N 8 And 'Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of 'the LORD in 'the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in 'the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the 'ninth month, that 'they proclaimed a fast before 'the LORD to all the People in Jerusalem, and to all the People that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.
10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of 'the LORD, in the chamber of 'Gemariah the son of 'Shaphan 'the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of 'the LORD's house, in the ears of all the People.

The name given to the five books called the meglidh (Song of Solomon, Ruth, Lamentations, Ecclesiastes, and Esther). words. Pl. Cp. 'word' (sing.) (w. 1). Israel. These words were now to be written because Israel had already been dispersed in eleven years, and could not be spoken, as they were when Judah alone was concerned. Cp. 25. 7.

from the days of Josiah. See 1. 1-3. Not only what is recorded in ch. 25, but what Jehovah had spoken to him for the past twenty-three years.

4 Baruch=Blissed. The first mention of him chronologically. Other references to him in 22. 12; 43. 3, 4; 45. 1-5. He was brother to Seraiah. Cp. 22. 12 with 51. 50.
5 shut up. Not in prison (for cp. v. 19), but in hiding, or from some unexplained reason.
6 the fasting day= a fast day. Being in the ninth month (v. 9), it was not that prescribed in the Law, which was in the seventh month (Lev. 16. 29; 23. 27).
7 the fifth year. The reading was deferred for some months, ninth month. Our December. See Ap. 51. v. they proclaimed, &c.=all the People of Jerusalem, and all the People who were coming in and out of the cities of Jerusalem, had proclaimed a fast before Jehovah.
10 Gemariah. He was brother of Ahikam (28. 14), and not the Gemariah of 29. 3, who was Hilkiah's son. Shaphan. See note on 2 Kings 22. 3. the scribe: i.e. Shaphan (not Gemariah), who was the scribe in Josiah's days. See 2 Kings 22. 3, 8, 9, 10, 12. At the time of this history Elasah was the scribe (unless there were more than one). See vv. 12, 20, 21.

11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD,
12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delai the son of Shemaiah, and "Elath the son of Achbor, and 10 Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the People.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, "Take in thine hand the 2 roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the People, and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the 3 roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, "Sit down now, and read it in our ears." So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all 4 the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, "We will surely tell the king all these words."

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?"

18 Then Baruch answered them, "He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book."

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, "Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where we be."

20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the 2 roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber.

22 And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

23 Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the "ninth month: and there was a fire "on the hearth burning before him.

24 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four "leaves, he cut it up into the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

25 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammmelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, "Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

28 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; 'They hast burned this roll, saying, 'Why hast thou written therein, saying, 'The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence 'man and beast'?'

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

ZEDEKIAH. (Introduction.)

D Q U X (p. 1071)

And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of } Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

But neither he, nor his servants, nor the People of the land, did hearken unto the } words of the LORD, which He spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of } Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Pray now unto the LORD our God } for us."

Now Jeremiah had come and went among the People: for they had not put him in prison.

Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that } besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying, }
"Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that } sent me unto thee to enquire of Me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help } you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and burn it, } and burn it with fire."

Thus saith the LORD, Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely } depart from us: for they shall not depart.

For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, } and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in } his tent, and burn this city with fire."

And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army,

Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate } himself thence in the midst of the People.

And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose } name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the } prophet, saying, "Thou fallst away to the Chaldeans."

Then said Jeremiah, "It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans." But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him } in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;
17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from the LORD?" And Jeremiah said, "There is: for," said he, "thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon."
18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, "What have I offended thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?"
19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, 'The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?'
20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king, let my supplication be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there."

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

38 Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto the land, saying, "Thus saith the LORD, 'He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.'
3 Thus saith the LORD, 'This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it."
4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, "We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus is weakness to be seen among all the people, saying, 'The men of war, that are in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this People, but the hurt.'"
5 Then Zedekiah the king said, "Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against me.
6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords.
7 And in the dungeon there was no water, but mine; so Jeremiah sunk in the mine.

7 Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;
8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying,
9 'My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the dungeon; for thus saith the king, that they shall not cast Jeremiah into the dungeon.'
10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, "Take from hence thirty men of the people, and give them to come down to the king of Babylon in the wagons, and the cords that are in thine hand."
11 So Ebed-melech took the men, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.
12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, "Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armpits under the cords." And Jeremiah did so.
13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon; and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.
Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the 2d entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, "3d will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me."

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, "If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?"

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, "As the LORD liveth, That made this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life."

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, "Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house: 18 But if thou wilt not go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand." 19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, "I am "afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me."

20 But Jeremiah said, "They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee; so shall it be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live. 21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me: 22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, 'Thy friends have set thee up to be king, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.' 23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children unto the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire."

24 Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, "Let no man know these words, and thou shalt not die. 25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, 'Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:' 26 Then thou shalt say unto them, "3 have presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there." 27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and "he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag = Nergal-sharezer, chief of the physicians (or magi). Only four names of persons in this verse, not six.

In the 9th year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the 10th month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. 2 And in the 11th year of Zedekiah, in the 4th month, the 9th day of the month, the city was "broken up."

3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the "men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls: and he went out by the way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes; also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the People, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the People that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the People that remained.

39. 10—44. 30 (R. p. 1071). 10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the People, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11 Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying,

12 "Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee."

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

14 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the People.

15 Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 "Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring My words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD, and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in Me, saith the LORD.'"

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thee. And if it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: "behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go."

5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, "Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over all the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the People: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go." So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the People that were left in the land.

7 Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the "poor" of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezeanah the son of Maachathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan spake unto them and to their men, saying, "Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, I will serve the Chaldeans, that come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken."

11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, unto Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, and said unto him, "Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to "slay thee?"

But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

One is 'al, in the compound "Ishmael", which means "whom my El heareth". It is used of five different men, and occurs forty-eight times: twenty times of Hagar's son; twenty-three times of Nethaniah's son in this history; and five times of the other three. On account of his horrible treachery, the memory of which is perpetuated by the feast of the seventh month (Zeh. 7. 5; 8. 9), the vowel points were changed to obliterate the Divine Name (El): viz. yshma'el instead of yshma'e'l, which is not observable in the ordinary English spelling.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, "Let me go, I pray thee, and I will "slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no "man shall know it."
40. 15. JEREMIAH.

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, “Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.”

41 Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the rest of all the people that were left.

4 And it came to pass the second day after, that he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it.

5 That there came certain from Shechem, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the Lord. There they slew Ishmael the son of Nethaniah.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, “Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.”

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the men that were with him, said unto the men that were come out of Shechem, and from Samaria, “Go with me, and I will shew you good, and will do nothing evil unto you, as ye have shown kindness unto those that came out of Shechem unto us.”

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, “Slay not us, but return us to our brethren, and let us die with them in the pit.”

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain, because of Gedaliah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel; and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the People that were in Mizpah, even the king’s daughters, and all the People that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, 11 and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

12 But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 13 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and gathered = gathered out.

15 As ch. 41 records the infamous treachery of Ishmael, so ch. 42 records the obstinate disobedience of Johanan. These incidents are recorded (instead of many others) because they show us something of the moral character of the People; and thus furnish us with the reasons for the calamities which overtook them, Jeremiah. In 43, 2 he has a second name, "Azariah."

35 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and to sojourn there;

36 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

37 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I have done unto them.

M s 43 And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto "all the People the all the "words of the LORD their "God, for which the LORD their "God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud "men, saying unto Jeremiah, "Thou speakest falsely: 'The LORD our "God hath not sent thee to say, 'Go not into Egypt to sojourn there."

3 But 'Baruch the son of Neriah setteth them on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon."

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and "all the People, obeyed not the voice of "the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all 'the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, "whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

Laid bare in 1866 by Flinders Petrie. See note on 8, Num. 12, 31. There could be no "brickkiln" close to the entrance of the palace. But such a platform is seen to-day outside all great, and most small, houses in Egypt. It is called mastaba, and is kept clean, and swept. Often made of beaten clay, edged with bricks. 3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, nor their fathers.

4 Howbeit I sent unto you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, 'Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.'

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore My fury and Mine anger was provoked forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the Lord, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye provoke Me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whether ye be gone as to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and a curse, and a reproach. 13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, 14 by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: 15 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which the Lord 16 have a desire to return to dwell there: 17 for none shall return but such as shall escape.'"

20 Then 20 all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the People that dwelt in the land of Egypt, answered Jeremiah, saying, 21 "As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, we will not hearken unto thee. 22 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. 23 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. 24 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, we made her cakes to worship her, and poured out drink offerings unto her, without our men?"

20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the People, to the men, and to the women, and to all the People which had given him that answer, saying: 21 "The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, 22 and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the People of the land, did not the Lord remember them, and came it not into His mind? 22 So that the Lord could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day. 23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the Lord, and have not observed the voice of the Lord, nor walked in His law, nor in His statutes, nor in His testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day:"

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the People, and to all the women, "Hear the word of the Lord, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; 7 7 7 and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, 7 We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, 7 to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: 7 ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.'

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the Lord, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; 11 Behold, 11 I have sworn by My great name, saith the Lord, that My name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, 11 The Lord God liveth.' 27 11 Behold, 11 I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. 28 Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, Mine, or theirs. 29 And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the Lord, 11 11 Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life."

45 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, "Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch; thou didst say, 'Woe is me now for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.'"

46 The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against Egypt.

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.}

f Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are felled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the LORD."
6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape: they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood? and whose waters are moved as the rivers? 8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, 'I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.'

9 'Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that He may avenge Him of His adversaries; and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood; for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 'Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen together both.'

13 The word that the Lord spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.

14 'Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahapanes: say ye, 'Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.'

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the Lord did drive them. 16 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, 'Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.'

17 They did cry there, 'Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.'

18 As I live, saith the King, Whose name is the Lord of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. 19 O thou daughter of Zion, behind thee shall be fear; and he shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away every one; and they are broken in pieces; because they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood. 23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the Lord, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.
24. JEREMIAH. 48. 1.

24. The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

26. And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the Lord.

27. But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity: and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

28. Fear thou not, O Jacob My servant, saith the Lord: for I am with thee; and I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but will correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.'

47. The word of the Lord that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

4. Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the Lord will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caphtor.

5. Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself? O thou sword of the Lord, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an army of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites, and it shall be a desolate heap, and her unintelligible cities shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

12 For thus saith the LORD; 4 Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For I have sworn by Myself, 5 saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, “Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.”

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill; though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, 6 saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation; every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 7 Behold, 8 he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong; but I will suddenly make him run away from her; and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like Me? and who will appoint Me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before Me?

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that He hath taken against Edom; and His purposes, that He hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely He shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry of the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea.

22 Behold, he shall come up and 9 fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over 10 Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 Concerning Damascus, 11 Hamath is confounded, and 12 Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are faint-hearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turned herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, 13 saith the LORD of hosts,
"Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdom of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; "Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east."

Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, "Fear is on every side."

I Arise, get you far off: dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor; saith the LORD; which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone.

And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

And shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it."

The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, "Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their nobility; and I will break their full arm, that is, their valour to go forth into the field; and I will kindle a fire among them, that shall devour the borders of their marketplaces; and they shall lay waste, as the desert is laid waste, and as a land without inhabitant is laid waste."

For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring upon them, even My fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

And I will set My throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD."
3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My People hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting-place.

7 All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the Habitation of justice, even the LORD, the Hope of their fathers.

8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

9 For lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of Mine heritage, because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down:

for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handeth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall outnumber every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the King of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebu.
496 | chadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bone:"; 18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. 19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead. 20 'In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. 21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee. 22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. 23 How is the hammer of all the earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! 24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware; thou art found, and also taken, because thou hast striven against the LORD. 25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans. 26 Come against her from the utmost border, open her storehouses: cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left. 27 Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation. 28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple. 29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: I recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her; for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. 30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD. 31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the LORD God of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee. 32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him." 33 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: "The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

31 Merathaim = double rebellion. So called, here, because the empire was founded in a double rebellion. See Prideaux, Connection, vol. i, p. 1. A symbolic name for Babylon, as Pekod is also (below) and Sheshach (25. 35; 51. 41).

Pekod = Visitati: i.e. in judgment.

32 destruction = smash; or, breaking down. Heb. shibhar. Not the same word as in 21, 30. 23 His armoury. Fig. Anthropophagia. Ap. 6. 34 Redeemer = Kinsman-Redeemer. Heb. g'dal. See notes on Isa. 60. 16, and Ex. 6, 6. strong = strong (to hold fast). Heb. ḫazaq. Not the same word as in 44.

36 liars = praters. dote = be shown to be foolish.

37 the mingled people = the rabble.

38 idols = horrors.

34 Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is His name: He shall thoroughly plead their cause, that He may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

36 A sword is upon the liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert
496. with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

II. Injunction future.

41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance: fierce pain, and will not shew mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like Me? and who will appoint Me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before Me?

45 Therefore hear ye the counsel of the LORD, that He hath taken against Babylon; and His purposes, that He hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flocks shall draw them out: surely He shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

50. 39. JEREMIAH.

51 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against Me, a "destroying" wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon "fanners," that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that liftest himself up in his "brigandine": and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of Hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for thus is the time of the LORD's vengeance; and will render unto her a recompence.

7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD'S hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

39 no more inhabited, &c. Therefore the fulfilment is still future.

41 a great nation: i.e. Medo-Persia, coast= sides: i.e. remote parts.

42 his hands, &c. See fulfilment in Dan. 5. 6.

44 like a lion, &c. See note on 49. 19 for this verse and v. 45, there spoken of Edom.

45 taken= counselled.

Me. A Massoretic note (Ap. 50) says that this is a cryptogram (Heb. "Cedim"), meaning "the Chaldeans". See note on v. 41; 26. 28.

2 fanners . . . fan= winnowers . . . winnow. Fig. Polyptoton. Ap. 6.

5 Against him that bendeth, &c. The Massorah (Ap. 50), instead of cancelling the repeated word "against . . . against" (=), directs the substitution of "al, not . . . and not," The verse will then read, "Let not the archer bend his bow, nor let him lift himself up in his coat of mail" (=, in defence of Babylon). This is so read in two early printed editions, Chald., Svr., Vulg., and R.V.

brigandine= coat of mail.

destroy= break down. Heb. hârâm. Same word as v. 24. Not the same as in vv. 1, 8, 11, 20, 25, 54, 55.

11 Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: 1 the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; for His device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of His temple.

2 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for 1 the LORD hath both devised and done that which He spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

3 Thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thin is end come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

4 The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, "Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillars; and they shall lift up a shout against thee." 25 He hath made the earth by His power. 1 He hath established the world by His wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by His understanding. 16 When He uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: He maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind of His treasures.

17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. 18 62 are vanity, the work of errors; in 1 the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 The Portion of Jacob is not like them; for 1 is the Former of all things: and 2 Israel is the rod of his inheritance: 3 the LORD of hosts is His Name. 20 "Thou art My battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms:

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out Mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.

28 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow; for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.
30 "The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; her bars are broken.

31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken "at one end, 32 And that the passages are "stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the "men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD; the "God of hosts, the "Son of Jacob; "The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come:"

34 "Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicacies, he hath cast me out.

35 The violence done to me and to my flesh upon Babylon," shall the "inhabitant of Zion say "and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea," shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD; "Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will "dry up her "sea, and make her springs dry.

37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for "dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, "without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall "yell as lions" whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their "feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, "saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats.

41 How is "Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein "no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, "the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 My People, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of "the LORD.

46 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, "behold, the days come, that I will "do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then "the heaven and the earth, and "all that is therein, "shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, "saith the LORD.

49 As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of "all the earth.

50 Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, "to the nations among whom ye are strangers.
stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind."

51. We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52. "Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53. Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from Me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD."

54. A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:

55. Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56. Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD GOD of recompenses shall surely requite.

57. "And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, Whose name is the LORD of hosts."

58. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; "The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary."

59. The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince.

60. So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61. And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see and shalt read all these words;" then shalt thou say, O LORD, their hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever."

63. And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64. And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that will upon her: and they shall be weary."

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

52. Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

55. Destroyed = caused to perish. Heb. 'abar. Not the same as in vv. 1, 3, 8, 11, 20, 26, 54.

57. Walls. Some codices, with two early printed editions, Sept., and Vulg., read "wall."

58. People = peoples. be weary = faint.

59. Seraiah. The brother of Baruch (32. 12. Cp. 45. 1), when he went, &c. Probably to renew his oath of allegiance. Cp. 27. 1; 28. 1. quiet prince. Probably chief chamberlain. R.V. marg., "quartermaster." Heb. = quiet resting-place (Isa. 32. 18). Probably his office was to prepare the night's camping place during the journey to Babylon.

61. And shalt see, &c. = then shalt thou look out and read.

62. Desolate for ever = age-abiding desolations, showing that this prophecy must wait a future fulfillment. 64. Evil. Heb. ra'a'. Ap. 44. viii.

2. And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3. For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till He had cast them out from His presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, &c. and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

6. So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.
6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the People of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem.

13 And burned the house of the L ORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the People, and the residue of the People that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vine-dressers and for husbandmen.

17 Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the L ORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the L ORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the L ORD; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapiter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapiter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapiters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.

24 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the People of the land; and threescore of men of the People of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

28 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty:
29 In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two ° persons:
30 In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five ° persons; all the ° persons were four thousand and six hundred.
31 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that "Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign " lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison,
32 And spake "kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 33 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat "bread before him all the days of his life.
34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion " until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

LONGER NOTE ON JEREMIAH 42—44.

"The Jews which dwelleth in the land of Egypt" (Jer. 44. 1).

As the end of the kingdom of Judah drew near, many of the Jews were determined to go into Egypt; and this in spite of the warning given by Jehovah through Jeremiah.

In Jer. 44 we have the latest prophecy concerning those who had gone thither; which declared that they should not escape, but should be consumed there (44. 27, &c.). This prophecy must have been fulfilled concerning that generation; but their successors, or others that subsequently followed, continued there a little longer, until the time came for Egypt itself to fall into the hands of Babylon.

Recent discoveries of Papyri in the ruins of Elephantine (an island in the Nile, opposite Assuan), dating from the fifth century B.C., bear witness to two great facts:—

(1) That Jews were then dwelling there (424—405 B.C.).

(2) That they were observing the Feast of the Passover, " as it is written in the law of Moses ".

The importance of these Papyri lies in the fact that modern critics confidently assert and assume that the greater part of the Pentateuch was not written till after the Exile; and even then neither collectively as a whole, nor separately in its distinctive books.

In Ap. 92 it is shown that all through the prophets (who lived at the time of the kings in whose reigns they prophesied) there is a constant reference to the books of the Pentateuch, which conclusively proves that their contents were well known both to the prophets themselves and those whom they addressed.

The Pentateuch, being full of legal expressions, technical ceremonial terms, and distinctive phraseology, affords abundant evidence of the above fact, and makes it easy to call continuous attention to it in the notes of The Companion Bible.

But there is further evidence found in the Papyri now discovered in the ruins at Elephantine in Upper Egypt.

They show that the Jews who dwelt there had a temple of their own and offered up sacrifices therein. That once, when this their temple was destroyed by the Egyptians, they appealed to the Persian governor of Judah, asking permission to restore it (Papyrus I).

There is a list preserved, registering the contributions towards the upkeep of the temple (containing the names of many ladies).

But the most interesting and important of these Papyri is one dated in the year 419 B.C., which is a Passover " announcement " of the approaching feast, such as were made from the earliest times to the present day (see Num. 10), containing a brief epitome of its laws and requirements. This particular announcement shows that the following passages were well known: Ex. 12. 16, Lev. 23. 7, 8, Num. 9. 1—14, Deut. 16. 6.

This Papyrus has been recently published by Professor Edward Sachau, of Berlin: Aramäische Papyrus und ostrakos aus einer jüdischen Militärdikolonie zu Elephantine. Altorientalische Sprachdenkmäler des 6. Jahrhunderts vor Chr., mit 50 Lichdrucktafeln. Leipzig, 1911. A small edition (texts only) by Professor Ungnad, of Jena, is published also under the title of Aramäische Papyrus aus Elephantine.

Nearly 2,400 years, since this announcement by Hananah to the Jews in Egypt, have gone by. Elephantine is now a heap of ruins. The colony of Jews has passed away (unless the "Falashas" of Abyssinia are their descendants), but the Jewish nation still exists, and continues to keep the Passover, a standing witness to their truth of holy Scripture.

For the place of Lamentations in the Hebrew Canon, see Ap. 1, where it is found to be the central book of the five Megillot (or scrolls).

The book consists of five Elegies on the destruction of Jerusalem; and not, as Josephus supposed, on the death of Josiah (Ant. Jud. L. x. c. 6, § 1), basing his opinion on 2 Chron. 35. 18.
This book is appropriately read on the Fast of the ninth day of the fifth month (Ab, our August. See Ap. 51. 1). For on that day are still commemorated the five great calamities which befell the nation, viz. —
1. The return of the twelve spies, and the decree of the forty years' wanderings in consequence of the rebellion of the People.
2. The destruction of the first Temple by Nebuchadnezzar.
3. The destruction of the second Temple by the Romans under Titus.
4. The taking of Bether by the Romans under Hadrian, when 880,000 were slain.
5. The ploughing of Zion like a field, in fulfilment of Jer. 26. 18, &c. and Micah 3. 12.

The five Elegies are arranged in a remarkable manner:—
The first two (chapters 1 and 2) consist of twenty-two long verses of three lines each, each verse respectively commencing with the successive letters of the alphabet.
The third (chap. 3) consists of sixty-six verses (3 x 22), each triad of verses commencing with the same letter: e.g. the first three lines commence with N (Aleph), the next three with Z (Beth), and so on through the twenty-two letters of the alphabet.
The fourth (chap. 4) is arranged in twenty-two long verses of two lines each, also arranged acrostically.
The fifth (chap. 5) Lamentation is resolved into a prayer, and the acrostic arrangement gives way before the outburst of emotion. The only connection with the alphabet is that the number of the verses corresponds with the number of letters (twenty-two).

The Septuagint (followed by the Arabic and Vulgate versions) prefaces its version with these words: "It came to pass that, after Israel was taken captive and Jerusalem was made desolate, Jeremiah sat weeping, and lamented with this lamentation over Jerusalem, and said . . . ."

The Arabic Targum begins its paraphrase thus: "Jeremiah the prophet, and great priest, said . . . ."
THE

LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

1 (o) How doth the city sit solitary, that was all of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 (p) She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her 2 lovers she hath none to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her adversaries.

3 (q) Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 (r) The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the houses of feasts; all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 (s) Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 (t) And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone with strength before the pursuer.

7 (u) Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her People fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 (v) Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her desire her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sighth, and turneth backward.

9 (w) Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembeth not her last end: therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O
LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 (x) The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom Thou didst command that they should not enter into Thy congregation.

11 (y) All her People sigh, they seek bread;
they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the "soul": see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 (z) Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherein the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of His fierce anger.

13 (AA) From above hath He sent fire into my bones, and it prevaleth against them: He hath spread a net for my feet, He hath turned

T Thile. In the Hebrew text the name of the book is its first word, 'Elykah = ALAS! The Talmud (Tract, Bab. Bathra, fol. 14b) calls it Kidath = dirges or eulogies.
The Sept. has Thronei, with the same meaning. The Vulg. has Threni, i.e. Lamentations and Lamenta.

1 How = Alas! or, O how! Heb. 'Elykah = an exclamination of pain and grief, a wailing cry preserved in Eng.
"jackal". The Massorah (Ap. 30) points out that this exclamation is used by three prophets, concerning Israel: (1) by Moses in her multiplication (Deut. 1. 12, Cp. v. 11); (2) by Isaiah in her dissipation (Isa. 1. 21);
(3) by Jeremiah in her desolation (Lam. 1. 1). This word "How" is to be supplied at the beginning of vv. 2 and 3 by Fig. Ellipsis (Ap. 6). Cp. also 2. 1; 4. 1; and solitary: i.e. empty; referring to the houses and streets.

2 weepeth sore. Note Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6). The wickedness. Heb. ra'at'. Ap. 44. viii.

20 Behold, O Lord; for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

20 (?). Behold, O Lord; for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled; my heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 (?) They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have sorely pressed upon my neck: they are glad that I am done with: Thou hast brought the day that Thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me.

22 (?) Let all their wickedness come before Thee; and do unto them, as Thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

2 (2) How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in His anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of *Israel, and remembered not His footstool in the day of His anger!

2 (2) The Lord* swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: He hath poured out his fury upon His horn.

3 (?) He hath cut off in His fierce anger all the horn of Israel: He hath drawn back His hand from before the enemy, and He burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 (?) He hath bent *His bow like an enemy: He stood with His right hand as an adversary, and slew *all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: He poured out His fury like fire.

5 (7) The Lord* was as an enemy: He hath swallowed up Israel, He hath swallowed up her palaces: He hath destroyed His strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 (8) And He hath violently taken away His tabernacle, *as if it were of a garden: He hath destroyed His places of the assembly; the Lord hath caused the 'solemns feasts and sabbath to be forgotten in Zion, and has despised in the indignation of His anger the King and the priest.

7 (c) The LORD hath cast off His altar, He hath abhorred His sanctuary, He hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 (v) The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; He hath stretched out a line; He hath not withdrawn His hand from destroying: therefore He made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 (c) Her gates are sunk into the ground; He hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 (e) The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 (b) Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of My People; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

12 (c) They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 (c) What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy treachery is greater than the sea: who can heal thee?

14 (c) They prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 (c) All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, "Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?"

16 (c) All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, "We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it."

17 (v) The LORD hath done that which He had said; He hath fulfilled His word that He had commanded in the days of old: He hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and He hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, He hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 (c) Their heart cried unto the LORD; O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 (p) Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the LORD; lift up thy hands toward Him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 (c) Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this. "Shall the women eat their fruit, and the children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD?"

21 (c) The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; Thou hast slain them in the day of Thine anger; Thou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 (c) Thou hast called as in a solemn day my terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

3 (8) "3 am the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of His wrath.
2 (9) He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.
3 (9) Surely against me is He turned; He turneth his hand against me all the day.
4 (2) My flesh and my skin hath He made old; He hath broken my bones.
5 (3) He hath built against me, and compassed me with gall and travel.
6 (2) He hath set me in dark places, "as they that be dead of old.

13 (7) He hath caused the arrows of His quiver to enter into my reins.
14 (7) I was a derision to all my People; and their song all the day.
15 (7) He hath filled me with bitterness, He hath made me drunken with wormwood.

17 (8) And Thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot prosperity.
18 (9) And I said, "My strength and my hope is perished from before the LORD:

20 (1) My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.
21 (4) This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 (2) It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not.

32 (2) But though He cause grief, yet will He have compassion according to the multitude of His mercies.
33 (2) For He doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

3. This chapter contains twenty-two verses: each verse having three lines: each line beginning with the same letter: and so, onward to the end of the alphabet.
3 am the man. The prophet is representative of the nation, and speaks in the name of the whole. He is also typical and prophetic of Another, Who, in after years, took on Himself and bore the nation's sin. Ap. 85. The chapter must be read in connection with the Passion Psalms (Pss. 22, 69, 88). The Fig. is Protoparadigm (Ap. 6), by which the nation speaks as one man.

affliction: or, humiliation.

builded against—built up against.

gall. Cp. v. 19, and Ps. 69. 21, with Matt. 27. 34. travel—travail, or labour. This line probably is put for the fortifications and the trench.

set me=made me to stand as they, &c. = like the age-long dead.

chain=iron, or bronze. Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause). Ap. 6, for the fetters made of it. Cp. Judg. 16. 21; and 2 Kings 25. 7, 2 Chron. 33. 11; 86. 6. Jer. 59. 7; all of distinguished people. 9 crooked — to turn or wind back.

as a lion. See note on Ps. 22. 16.

Remembering=to remember.

My soul. The primitive reading was "Thy soul", which the Sopherim have recorded, and state that they altered it to "My soul" (see Ap. 83), considering it an offensive anthropomorphism. By so doing they destroyed its logical sequence and deep pathos of the primitive text. The three verses (19, 20, 21) restated will show this;—

Remember my humiliation and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

Yea, verily, Thou wilt remember, and Thy soul will mourn over me.

This I bring back to my heart, Therefore I shall have hope;"

mind=heart.

hope=expectation.

mercies—lovingkindnesses.

giveth his cheek. Cp. Isa. 60. 6.

the Lord*. One of the 194 places where the Sopherim say they altered "Jehovah" of the primitive text to "Adonal." See Ap. 82. Here some codices, with two early printed editions, also read "Jehovah".

children=sons.

56 (2) O LORD, Thou hast seen my wrong: judge Thou my cause.
57 (3) Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations against me.
58 (2) Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me;
59 (2) Their thoughts rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.
60 (3) Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; and am their musician.
61 (2) Render unto them a recompense, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

46 All our enemies, &c. Here again, as in 2. 15 and 17, the letters Ps (י = P) and Ayin (י) are transposed; not from any "mistake" or "forgetfulness", but to call our attention to the truth which might otherwise have been overlooked: viz. the sorrow, on account of the destructive work of the enemies (vv. 44-46), which would have been averted by true sorrow for the sins which caused it (vv. 42-44).
49 people—peoples.

the daughter of my People is greater than the 6 punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was 16 overthrown as in a moment, and no hands 37 stayed on her.
7 (i) Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their poli thing was 8 of sapphire.
8 (7) Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not 9 known in the streets: their skin 0 cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.
9 (2) They that be slain with the sword are better than 11 they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.
10 (i) The hands of the 12 pitiful women have sodden their own 13 children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my People.
11 (2) The LORD hath accomplished His fury; He hath poured out His fierce anger, and hath 11 kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.
12 (b) The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.
13 (c) For the 11 sins of her prophets, and the 14 iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the 16 just in the midst of her,

18 (y) They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.
19 (c) Our 25 persecutors are 26 swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.
20 (y) The 0 breath of our nostrils, 0 the anointed of the 27 LORD, was taken in their 28 pits, of whom we said, 29 "Under his shadow we shall live among the 30 heathen."

33 (v) The 6 punishment of thine 34 iniquity is 35 accomplished, O daughter of Zion; He will no more carry thee away into captivity: He will 36 visit thine 37 iniquity, O daughter of Edom; He will discover thy 38 sins.

NOTES ON THE STRUCTURE OF THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL (p. 1104).

For the Canonical order and place of the Prophets, see Ap. 1 and p. 1206.
For the Chronological order of the Prophets, see Ap. 77.
For the Inter-relation of the Prophetic Books, see Ap. 78.
For the Formula of Prophetic utterances, see Ap. 82.
For the Chronological order of Ezekiel's prophecy, see below.
For the References to the Pentatuch in the Prophetic Books, see Ap. 92.
For the Plan of Ezekiel's temple, see Ap. 88.

The Canonical order of Ezekiel's prophecies is Logical, but not strictly Chronological. Later utterances and visions are recorded in their logical connections rather than in their historical sequence. This latter is noted, so that we may make no mistake. When this fact is observed, and the records discriminated, the meaning comes perfectly clear. See the table below.

They may be set out as follows:—

THE DATED YEARS IN EZEKIEL.

These are thirteen in number, and cover a period of twenty-one years (a period of three sevens) : viz. from 484-3 to 465-2 B.C.

Arranged chronologically, the seventh stands in the centre, with six on either side.

Reckoning the three in the 11th year as one year, and the three in the 12th year as one year, we have nine several years: viz. the 5th, 6th, 7th, 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th (seven): and then, after a break of thirteen years, we have two: viz. the 20th and 27th.

The 30th year of 1, 1, 2 cannot be in succession to the 27th year of ch. 29, 17-21, because the visions of chs. 1 and 10 had already been seen, and the one recorded in ch. 10 is said to have been similar to that already seen in ch. 1. Moreover, if it be in succession to the 27th year, why is it brought into the very beginning of the book without any reason being assigned, or hint given?

The 30th year of 1, 1 cannot have anything to do with Ezekiel's age, or with the commencement of his service as a priest; for this is to misread Num. 4, 3, which states that "all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle", were taken after the end of the 29th year, "from thirty years old and upward, even until fifty years". Moreover, this thirty years' rule was abrogated by Divine direction to David in 1 Chron. 23, 24-27 (cp. 2 Chron. 31, 17), and changed to "twenty years old and upward".

The 30th year cannot be fitted into any sequence of dates commencing with the fifth year of Jehoiachin's captivity (1, 2), which, in 33, 21 and 40, 1, he speaks of as "our captivity".

It must therefore be a cross-date to some unnamed terminus a quo, thirty years before the 5th year of the Captivity. This fixes it as being that epoch-making year 518 B.C., which was the year of Josiah's great Passover, and of the finding the Book of the Law in the 18th year of King Josiah. From 518 B.C. to 484 B.C. is exactly twenty-nine complete years. So also reckons the learned Prideaux (Connection, vol. 1, p. 71, McCaul's ed., 1845).

1 No month is named; but, by comparing 80, 20, it must be the 1st month.
2 No month is named; but it was probably the same as in v. 1.
THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

EZEEKIEL.

1 Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the exiles by the river of Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 The word of the Lord came expressly unto Ezekiel, the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river of Chebar; and the hand of the Lord was there upon him.

4 And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness about it, and out of the midst thereof went the likeness of an eagle.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.

8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.

Ezekiel. In Heb. יֹהֵזְקֵיָּל יַהֲזֵקֵיָּל — El is strong, or El strengthens (cp. Isa. 31.4; Gen. 49.28).

Of the four greater prophets, Ezekiel and Daniel (who prophesied in Babylonia) are compounded with "El" (Ap. 4.14); while Issiah and Jeremiah (who prophesied in the land) are compounded with "Jah".

Ezekiel was a priest (1.3), carried away eleven years before the destruction of the city and temple (1.2; 36.21; 2 Kings 24.14). He dwelt in his house (8.1; cp. Jer. 29.5). He was married; and his wife died in the year when the siege of Jerusalem began.

Probably the same as Chabor or Habor (2 Kings 17.6; 18.11; 1 Chron. 5.26), falling into the Euphrates about forty-five miles north of Babylon. On the Inscription it is called Karbar, great river, or "Grand Canal", cut between the Tigris and the Euphrates. In ch. 3.15, it is not the same "Chebar" as in 1.1, but the Chebar to which Ezekiel was sent (go, get thee). Cp. 3.4. The "Chebar" of 1.1 was where he dwelt; that of 3.15 where he was sent. of from. That is, unjointed. The living creatures did not move by walking. 8 hands. Heb. text reads "hand". Some codices, with two early printed editions and Heb. text margin, read "hands" (pl), followed by A.V. and R.V. The sing. is to be preferred, and is so rendered in 10. 7. Why not here? 10 faces. See Ap. 41. man. Heb. יַדַּם. Ap. 14.1.
Thus were their faces; and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies. And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went. As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coal of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces. The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel. When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went. As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four. And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. And Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go: and the wheels went up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the likeness upon the top of the sapphire crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies. And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, like the noise of the voice of the Almighty, like the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings. And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it. And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about.

This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of One that spake.
3 And He said unto me, 11"Son of man, 03 send they to the 2 children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against Me; and their fathers have transgressed against Me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are impudent children and stiff-hearted. 3 do send they unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, 'Thus saith the Lord God.'

5 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though thorns be with thee, and thistles dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak My words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee: Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house, open thy mouth, and eat that 3 give thee.'

9 And when I looked, 0 behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, 0 lo, a roll of a book was therein;

10 And He spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

Moreover He said unto me, 03 Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that roll.

3 And He said unto me, 11"Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that 3 give thee.' Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4 And He said unto me, 11"Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with My words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6 Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto Me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.'

This title is to remind him that Jehovah is still the sovereign Lord over all the earth, though Israel be "Lo-ammi" = not My People.

whether they will hear, or . . . forbear. The latter is evidently assumed, and to be expected; as in 2 Tim. 4: 3. But no alternative is given. "My words" correspond with "speak the word." (2 Tim. 4: 2).

forbear = abstain, or refuse to hear. a rebellious house. Heb. a house of rebellion. Not the same word as in vs. 3. Heb. mîrî, from mîrit, to be bitter, perverse, refractory. Ref. to Pent. The Noun occurs sixteen times in Ezekiel (2: 5, 6, 7, 8; 8: 3; 24: 27; 12: 2, 2, 3, 5, 25, 17: 12; 24: 3; 44: 6).

8 Behold. Fig. Asterismos. Ap. 6. strong = strong, or hard (for endurance). Heb. hazzak. Same as "harder" (v. 9). Cp. the name Ezekiel in Title.

10 Moreover he said unto me, 1 "Son of man, put on very clean linen upon thee, and go, and put on the captives, both men and women, the captives, the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear."

12 Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, "Blessed be the glory of the Lord from His place."

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-Abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar; and I sat there where they sat, and remained there seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 1 Son of man, have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at My mouth, and give them warning from Me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, "Thou shalt surely die;' and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his wickedness; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die; because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his own sin, and his righteousness which he had done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous shall not sin, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also if thou hast delivered thine soul.

22 And the hand of the Lord was there upon me; and He said unto me,

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain; and behold, the glory of the Lord stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar:

24 Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me,

25 But thou, O son of man, 2 behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will open
EZEKIEL.

24. Thou also, 4 son of man, take thee a 6 tile, and 5 lay it before thee, and 5 pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And 6 lay siege against it, and build a 6 fort against it, and cast a 6 mount against it; and set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thee unto thee an iron 6 pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and 6 set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie then also upon thy left side, and 6 lay the 6 iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it shalt thou bear their iniquity.

5 For 3 have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie 9 again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

7 Therefore shalt thou lay thy face toward 3 Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And 4 behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the 5 three hundred and ninety days. These were to be the literal “days” to Ezekiel, and were to represent 360 literal “years”. The date of the command is not material to the understanding of this prophecy. The meaning of the expression “bear their iniquity” (see note on v. 4) determines the interpretation as referring to the duration of the punishment, and not to the period of the iniquity which brought it down. The 360 days made for 360 years, and the 40 days for 40 years, the duration of the punishment of Israel and Judah respectively. As this has to do with the city Jerusalem (see 1-2), the periods must necessarily be conterminous with something that affects the ending of its punishment. This was effected solely by the decree for the restoration and rebuilding of Jerusalem in 454 B.C. (65 Ap. 60). Three hundred and ninety years take us back to the sixteenth year of Asa, when Baasha made war on Judah (944 B.C. 2 Chron. 16; 1 Ap. 59, p. 54); which was followed by the solemn announcement of the coming punishment of Israel (1 Kings 16, 1, &c.). The punishment of Judah, in like manner, began forty years before (455-4 B.C.); and 495 (his fifth year), being the year of Jehoash’s burning of the roll. The prophecy of this punishment was given in his fourth year (Jer. 25, 1, 9-11), and the execution of it speedily followed. This symbolical action of Ezekiel shows us how long Jerusalem’s punishment lasted, and when it ended. 6 again—A second time, shewing that they are not necessarily consecutive or continuous, but are conterminous, though not commencing at the same time.

484 days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof. And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it. Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink. And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of "man, in their sight."

k 13 And the Lord said, "Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them."

k 14 Then said I, "Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth."

k 15 Then He said unto me, "Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith."

m 16 Moreover He said unto me, "Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment: That they may want bread and water, and be astonied one with another, and consume away for their iniquity."

m 2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a "knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind: and I will draw out a sword after them.

n 3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts. Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire: for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel."

k 5 Thus saith the Lord God; "This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her. And she hath changed My judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and My statutes more than the countries that are round about her, for they have refused My judgments and My statutes, "they have not walked in them."

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; "Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in My statutes, neither have kept My judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore" thus saith the Lord God; "Because

9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, "as 3 live, saith the Lord
6 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 "Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,
3 And say, 'Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD God to the mountains, to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.
4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your gods.
5 And I will lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their gods; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.
6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abominable.
7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD;
8 Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.
9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed hast defiled. This charge is substantiated in ch. 8.
10 Thus saith the LORD; Diminish thee; neither shall thou diminish thee; neither shall thy name be diminished from among the nations, because I have broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed hast defiled. This charge is substantiated in ch. 8.

whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.
10 And they shall know that 3 am I the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this 9 evil unto them;
11 Thus saith 9 the Lord God; 'Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say,
'Alas for all the 9 evil abominations of the house of Israel: for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.
12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence;
and he that is near shall fall by the sword;
and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish My fury upon them.
13 Then shall 7 ye know that 3 am I the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer 'sweet savour unto all their idols.
14 So will I stretch out My hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward 9 Diblah, in all their habitations: and 8 ye shall know that
3 am I the LORD.'

Moreover the word of 9 the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith 9 the Lord God unto the land of Israel; 'An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.
3 Now is 6 the end come upon thee, and I will send Mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.
4 And 9 Mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and 9 ye shall know that
3 am I the LORD.
5 Thus saith 9 the Lord God; 'An evil, 9 an only evil, behold, is come.
6 An end is come, 'the end is come: 'it watcheth for thee; 'behold, 'it is come.
7 'The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in 9 the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the 'sounding again of the mountains.
8 Now will I shortly pour out My fury upon thee, and will accomplish Mine anger upon thee;
and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.
9 And 9 Mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and 9 ye shall know that 3 am I the Lord that smiteth.
10 Behold the day, 'behold, it is come: 'the morning is gone forth; 'the rod hath blossomed, 'pride hath budded.
11 Violence is risen up into 'a rod of 'wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of their: 'neither shall there be wailing for them.
15 "The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

16 But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.

18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it is the stumbling-block of their iniquity.

20 As for the beauty of His Ornament, He set it in the sanctuary: but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for spoil; and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute My secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 "Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I also will make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled, and there shall be none.

25 "Mischief shall come upon mischief, and a rumour shall be upon a rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

26 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the People of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD."

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

5 Then said He unto me, "Son of man, lift up thine eyes now toward the north." So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and 'behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of 'jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, "Son of man, 'seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committed here, that 'I should go far off from My sanctuary?"

7 And He brought me to the 3 door of the court; and when I looked, behold, 'a hole in the wall.

8 Then said He unto me, "Son of man, dig now in the wall;" and when I had digged in the wall, behold 'a 3 door.

9 And He said unto me, "Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here."

10 So I went in and saw; and 'behold every form of creeping things, and 'abominable beasts, and all the 'idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall about. And there stood before them seventy men of the 'anceints of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said He unto me, "Son of man, hast thou seen what the 11 ancients of the house of Israel do 'in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, 'The Lord seeth us not; 'the Lord hath forsaken the earth."

13 He said also unto me, "Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do."

14 Then He brought me to the 3 door of the gate of the LORD'S house which was toward the north; and, 'behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 Then said He unto me, "Hast thou 'seen this, O 'son of man?"

16 And He brought me into the inner court of the LORD'S house, and, 'behold, at the 3 door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about 'five and twenty men, with 'their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they 'worshipped the sun toward the east.

He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, "Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand:"

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the inckhorn by his side:

4 And the LORD said unto him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof."

5 And to the others he said in mine hearing, "Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eyes spare, neither have ye pity:

6 Slay utterly old and young, both maidens, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary."

Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth."

And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, "Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?"

Then said he unto me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, 'The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.'

Then I looked, and, behold, in the midst of the living creature there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, "Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city." And he went in and stood in my sight.

Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of "the LORD's glory.

And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the ALMIGHTY GOD when He speaketh.

And it came to pass, that when He had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, "Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims:" then he went in, and stood beside all the wheels.

And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone.

And as for their appearance, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

When they went, they went upon their faces; as one went, they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the four wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the four wheels that they four had.

As for the four wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, "O 1 wheel."

And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.

And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also went beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD'S house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.
21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings: and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.

Moreover the "spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold at the "door of the gate five and twenty men, among whom I saw "Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

2 Then said He unto me, "Son of man, these are the "men that devise "mischief, and give "wicked counsel in this city:

3 Which say, "It is not near; let us build houses: this is the city, and let be the flesh.

4 Therefore "prophesy against them, "prophesy, O "son of man.""

5 And the "Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, "Speak; Thus saith the LORD; 'Thou hast ye said, O house of Israel: for 3 know the things that come into your "mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD GOD; 'Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the LORD GOD.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you unto the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword: I will judge you in the border of Israel: and ye shall know that "I am the LORD.

11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

12 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, for ye have not walked in My "statutes, neither executed My "judgments, but have done after the manner of the heathen that are round about you, "ye shall know, saith the LORD GOD.

13 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died.

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 "Son of man, "thou brethren, even "thou brethren, the "men of thy "kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession.'

17 I will even gather you, O Jer. 31. 10. Ref. to Pent. (Deut. 30. 8. Ap. 92.)

people = peoples, the land of Israel. Here, "the land," in Heb. is 'admoth (‘admmakh) = the soil of Israel. This expression occurs seventeen times in Ezekiel (11. 17; 12. 19, 22; 13. 9; 15. 8; 20. 38, 42; 21. 3 (Heb. v. 6); 25. 8, 9; 58. 24; 30. 4, 7; 37. 12; 38. 18, 19; "unto the land" (with h); 7. 2; 21. 3 (Heb. v. 6). The three occurrences of the expression, with 'eretz instead of 'admoth, are thus safeguarded by the Massorah: viz. 27. 17; 40. 2; 47. 18. (See Ginsburg’s Massorah, vol. I. p. 107, § 1100) and Ap. 93.

19 I will give, &c. Ap. 36. 25-37, and Jer. 32. 39.

22 the God of Israel. See note on Isa. 29. 25.

23 And the glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the Lord had shewed me.

12 The word of the Lord also came unto me, saying,

2 The word of the Lord also came unto me, saying, 'Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight: and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even, in their sight, as they go forth into captivity.

5 Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the word of the Lord unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hast not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, ‘What doest thou?’

10 Say thou unto them, ‘Thus saith the Lord God; ‘This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.’

11 Say, ‘I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: they shall remove and go into captivity.

12 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder the name of Israel, saying, “Thus saith the Lord God: ‘This is a burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.’

13 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in My snare: and I will bring him unto Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans, yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.
15 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.
16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they go; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

Moreover the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
17 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;
18 And say unto the People of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate, and all that is therein. Because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.
19 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
20 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision falleth?
21 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.
22 For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.
23 For I am the Lord, I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.
24 Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
25 Son of man, behold, thou of the house of Israel, say, The vision that I saw was for many days to come, and prophesieth of the times that are far off.

Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; There shall none of My words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord God.

And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own hearts,
3 Thus saith the Lord God; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!
4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts.
5 Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither...
Therefore thus saith the Lord God; because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

And Mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies; they shall not be in the assembly of My people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that 3 am the Lord God.

Because, even because they have seduced My People, saying, 'Peace,' and 'there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, Lo, others daubed it with 'tempered mortar.'

Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, Great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, 'Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?'

Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in My fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in Mine anger, and great hailstones in My fury to consume it.

So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and 'it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that am the Lord.

Thus will I accomplish My wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say unto you, 'The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;'

To wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

Likewise, their son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of My People, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

And will ye pollute My People for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the 10 souls that should not die, and to save the 18 souls alive that should not live, by thy lying to My People that hear thy lies?

Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye have hunted the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the 18 souls go, even the 10 souls that ye 18 hunt to make them fly.

Your 18 kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver My People out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that am the Lord.
14 Then came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumbling-block of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD God: Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet,

5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from Me through their idols,'

6 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from Me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning Me;

8 And I will set My face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and will cut him off from among My people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a word, he who prophesied off the midst of My people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Israel may go no more astray from Me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be My people, and I may be their God, saith the LORD God.'

12 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against Me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out Mine hand upon it, and will the wicked one.

483 °"Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations.

3 And say, 'Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem: 'Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite."

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water, 'to supple thee; thou wast naked and salted at all.

5 None pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee, 'When thou wast in thy blood, 'Live;' yea, I said unto thee, 'When thou wast in thy blood, 'Live.'

7 I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thy mound is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, 'behold, °thy time was the time of love; and °I spread My skirt over °thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I saw unto thee, °thee, and entered into a covenant with °thee, °saith °the Lord God, and thou becamest Mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with °badger's skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel °on thy forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was °fine linen, and silk, and brodered work; s thou didst eat °fine flour, and honey, and oil:

and thou wast °exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into °a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through My comeliness, which I had put upon thee, °saith °the Lord God.

15 But thou didst °trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pourest out thy °fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and °playedst the harlot thereupon: °the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of My gold and of My silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images °of men, and didst commit °whoredom with them,

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and 19 My \^ meat also which I gave thee, \^ fine flour, and oil, and honey, \^ wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them \^ for a sweet savour: and \^ thus it was, \^ saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto Me, and these hast thou \^ sacrificed unto them to be devoured. \^ Is this \^ of thy \^ whoresoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast \^ slain My \^ children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine \^ abominations and thy \^ whoresoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, \^ and wast \^ polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass after all thy \^ wickedness, \^ (woe, woe unto thee! \^ saith the Lord God), 24 \^ That thou hast also built unto thee an \^ eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy \^ whoresoms.

26 Thou hast also committed \^ fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours, \^ great of flesh; \^ and hast increased thy \^ whoresoms, to provoke Me to anger.

27 \^ Behold, therefore \^ I have stretched out My hand over thee, and have diminished thine \^ ordinary food, \^ and delivered thee unto the \^ will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 Thou hast \^ played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; \^ yea, thou hast \^ played the harlot with them, \^ and yet couldst not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy \^ fornication in the land of Canaan \^ unto Chaldea; \^ and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, \^ saith \^ the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these \^ things, the work of an \^ infamous whorish \^ woman, \^ in that thou buildest thine \^ eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; \^ and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scorned \^ hire; \^

31 But as a wife that committeth adultery, \^ which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

32 They \^ give gifts \^ to all whores; \^ but thou givest thy \^ gifts \^ to all thy lovers, \^ and \^ hirest them, \^ that they may come unto thee on every sabbath, \^ for thy \^ whoresom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy \^ whoresoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoresoms: \^ and in that thou gavest a \^ reward, \^ and no \^ reward \^ is given unto thee, \^ therefore thou art contrary.

35 Wherefore, O \^ harlot, \^ hear the word of \^ the LORD:

36 Thus saith \^ the Lord God; \^ Because thy *filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy \^ whoresoms with thy lovers, and with all the \^ idols of thy \^ abominations, \^ and by the blood of thy \^ children, which thou didst give unto them;

37 \^ Behold, therefore \^ I will \^ gather all thy lovers, \^ with whom thou hast taken pleasure, \^ and all \^ them that thou hast loved, \^ with all \^ them that thou hast hated; \^ I will even \^ gather \^ them round about against thee, \^ and will discover thy nakedness unto \^ them, \^ that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, \^ as women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; \^ and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, \^ and they shall throw down thine \^ eminent 40 They shall also bring up a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou shalt give no hire any more.

So will I make My fury toward thee to rest, and My jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted Me with all these things; behold, therefore I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord God: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that lovesth thy husband and his children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters, that dwell at thy left hand:

and thy younger sister,

that dwelleth at thy right hand,

is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet thou hast not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord God, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before Me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins;

but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When I shall bring again their captivity,

54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thee in the day of thy pride, 57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which despise thee round about.

58 Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the LORD.

59 For thus saith the Lord God: I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

60 Nevertheless I will remember My covenant with thee, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant.

61 Then thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger; and I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant.

62 And I will establish My covenant with thee; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord:

63 That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God."

17 The word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 "Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel; 3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God: A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

R1

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine."

O3 P3 11 Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 12 Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon; 13 And hath taken of the king’s seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land; 14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

R3 15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people.

S7 e [p. 1128] 9 Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? 16 As 3 live, saith the Lord God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

d 18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

c 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; As 3 live, surely Mine oath that he hath despised, and My 10 covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will spread My net upon him, and he shall be taken in My snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against Me.

18 o The word of the Lord came unto me again, saying.

2 What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge?"
18. 3

3 As ye live, saith the Lord God, ye shall have no occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

4 Behold, all souls are Mine: as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is Mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die.

5 But if a man be just, and do that which is lawful and right,

6 And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to a menstruous woman,

7 And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

8 Hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgment between 6 man and 6 man,

9 Hath walked in My statutes, and hath kept My judgments, to deal truly: he is just; he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.

10 If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and doth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even eateth upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled none by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him.

14 Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withheld the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 Hath taken off his hand from the poor, hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed My judgments, hath walked in My statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father?

20 When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all My statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

21 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The soul shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.
21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all My statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die.
22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.
23 ‘Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die?’ saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?
24 But when the righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth all according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 Yet ye say, ‘The way of the LORD is not equal.’

T4 (p. 1129)

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.
28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, ‘The way of the LORD is not equal.’

U4

30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.
31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart, and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?
32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn yourselves from your ways, and live ye.

8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

10 Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.

11 And she had strong rods for the sceptre of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.

13 And now is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

14 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule.

15 This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation."

20 And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the Lord, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the Lord unto me, saying,

3 "Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Are ye come to enquire of Me? As My live, saith the Lord God, I will not be enquired of by you."

4 "Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:

5 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up Mine hand unto the seed of Jacob, and made Myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up Mine hand unto them, saying, 'I am the Lord your God';

6 In the day that I lifted up Mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the Lord your God."

8 But they rebelled against Me, and would not hearken unto Me; they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: 11 then I said, I will pour out My fury upon them, to accomplish My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I wrought for My name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made Myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. 11 And I gave them My statutes, and shewed them My judgments, which I a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also I gave them My sabbaths, to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctified them.

13 But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness: they walked not in My statutes, and they despoiled My judgments, which I a man do, 11 he shall even live in them; and My sabbaths they greatly polluted:

14 But I wrought for My name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out. 15 Yet also 3 lifted up My hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; 16 Because they despised My judgments, and walked not in My statutes, but polluted My sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless Mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols: 19 3 am the LORD your God; walk in My statutes, and keep My judgments, and do them: 20 And hallow My sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that ye may know that 3 am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding the children rebelled against Me: they walked not in My statutes, neither kept My judgments, which I a man do, 11 which if a man do, he shall even live in them; 22 Nevertheless I withdrew Mine hand, and 9 wrought for My name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 3 lifted up Mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries; 24 Because they had not executed My judgments, but had despoiled My judgments, and had polluted My sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore 3 gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live;

EZEKIEL.

28 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the Lord.

29 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.

30 For when I had brought them into the land, for which I lifted up Mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings.

31 Then I said unto them, What is the high place wherein ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamael unto this day.

32 Wherefore say unto Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

33 And when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As ye live, saith the Lord God, I will not be enquired of by you.

34 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

35 As ye live, saith the Lord God, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you:

36 And I will bring you out from among your brothers, and will gather you out of the countries whereinto ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out.

37 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the 39 people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

38 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

39 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:

40 For in Mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve Me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from among your brothers, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up Mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.

21. 11.

44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for My name’s sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel. 3 saith the LORD God."

14 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD; Thus saith the son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

3 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD God; Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the north shall be burned therein.

4 And all flesh shall see that I am the LORD; it shall not be quenched.

5 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

6 Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel;

7 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth My sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

8 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee both the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall My sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north:

9 That all flesh may know that I am the LORD; it shall not return any more.

10 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sign before their eyes.

11 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore seighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: 2 behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God."

8 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furnished: 10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furnished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth?

M "it commeth the rod of My son, as every tree.

L 11 And He hath given it to be furnished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furnished, to give it into the hand of the slayer."

A sword, a sword. Fig. Epitome (Ap. 6), for emphasis — a great or sharp sword.

10 make a sore slaughter. Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6), for emphasis. Heb. to slay a slaughterer.

11 the slayer: i.e. the king of Babylon.
12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon My People, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel. 13 The sword shall be upon My People; it shall be upon theEnabled by the AI Assistant. 14 Because "it is a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the 10th rod? " it shall be no more, saith the Lord God.

15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruines be multiplied; ah! it is made bright, it is wove upon for the slaughter. 16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set. 17 "unto thee will I also smite Mine hands together, and I will cause My fury to rest: 3 and the Lord have said it."

The word of the Lord came unto me again, saying, 19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, 9 that the sword of the King of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city. 20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, 9 to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, 9 and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but ye will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: 9 Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your hands do appear, because I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, 26 Thus saith the Lord God: 9 Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it; and it shall be no more, until He come Whose right it is; and I will give it Him."

28 And thou, the son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furnished, to consume because of the glitttering: These have made my bloodshed with the blood of my people; and they have dealt mockingly with my blood which I had shed, and have not forsworn themselves concerning their reproach.

29 Whilez see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their reproach is spoken against and abhorred: and will bring thee again to thine own land. And thou shalt say, Even so have I dealt with my servants the Ammonites, saith the Lord God. The wicked = wicked ones.

30 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity. And I will pour out Mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of My wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy. They shall be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the Lord have spoken it."

Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
22 "Now, therefore, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city?"

yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations.
3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, the time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years:

therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous among much vexed.

6 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised Mine holy things, and hast profaned My sabbaths.

9 In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.

10 In thee have they discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

11 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath committed lewdly his daughter in law; and another in thee hath hewed his sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten Me, saith the Lord God.
and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD."

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to Me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver.

19 Therefore saith the LORD God; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

And as they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in Mine anger and in My fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of My wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

23 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, 'Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.'

25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like as a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have violated My law, and have profaned Mine holy things: they have 'put no difference between the holy and the profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from My sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered morter, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, 'Thus saith the Lord GOD,' when I the LORD have not spoken.

29 The People of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and 'have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they 'have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30 And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before Me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out Mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother;

3 And they committed whoredoms in Egypt;

18 shalt take thine inheritance=shalt be profaned in thyself (or on thine own account).

20 I will leave thee there. The letter p (Po = P) in hiphëphët, in being transferred from the ancient Hebrew into the modern square character, was probably mistaken for the (Nmm = N), being much alike. If so, "I will blow" became "I will leave"; and the words "you there" had to be necessarily supplied. By this change the correspondence of the two verses (29, 21) is restored:—v. 20. 2 Son of man. See note on 2, 1.

two women. Two sisters, representing respectively Samaria and Jerusalem.

3 whoredoms = idolatries. Egypt. Cp. 20, 7, 8, pressed = handled, as in Ex. 8, 21.

bruzed = squeezed (in natural use).

Aholah. Heb. ḥáláh = [She has] her own tent. So named probably because Israel set up her own worship as distinct from Jehovah's elder. Refers not to age, but to extent.

Aholibah. Heb. ḥálíbáh = My tent [is] in her.

they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the texts of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were Mine, and they bare sons and daughters, Thus were their names; Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.
5 And "Aholah played the harlot when she was Mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours,
6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she committed her，请 whoredoms with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all whom on her she doted:
with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her，请 whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their，请 whoredom on her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.
10 For discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And when her sister "Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her，请 whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,
14 And that she increased her，请 whoredoms:
for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,
15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:
16 And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea.
17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their please whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from her.
18 So she discovered her please whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then "My mind was alienated from her, like as "My mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her，请 whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.
20 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.
21 Thus thou, calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy testes by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O "Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God; "Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;
23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans,
Pekod, and "Shoa, and "Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.
24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round:
and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.
25 And I will set My jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.
26 They shall also strip thee, and take away thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.
27 Thus will I make thee lewdness to cease from thee, and thy please whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.'
28 For thus saith the Lord God; "Behold,
I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hastest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated:

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a 33 cup of profaned.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the 33 cup of Samaria.

34 Thou shalt even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt 3 break the sherds thereof, and 3 pluck off thine own breasts: for 3 have spoken it, 'saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: 'Because thou hast forgotten Me, and cast Me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy 3 whoresoms.'

36 1 The Lord said moreover unto me; 2nd Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adulteries, and with their 3 idols have they committed 3 adulteries, and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto Me, 3 to pass for 3 them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover this they have done unto Me: they have defiled My sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned My sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their 3 idols, then they came the same day into My sanctuary to profane it; and, 1o, thus have they done in the midst of Mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for 3 men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, 3 lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, 3 paintedst thy eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, wherewith thou hast set Mine incense and Mine oil.

42 And a voice of multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, 'Will they now commit 3 whoresoms with her, and the with them?'

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto 3 Aholah and unto 3 Aholibah, the lewd women.

45 And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

24 Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying.

25. The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2. Son of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

3. And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God; Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;

4. Behold, therefore I will deliver thee unto the men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

5. And I will make Rabba a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couchingplace for flocks: and ye shall know that 3 am 1 the Lord.

6. For thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in 2 heart with all thy despite against 3 the land of Israel;

7. Behold, therefore I will stretch out Mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that 3 am 1 the Lord.

8. Thus saith the Lord God; Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen;

9. Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kirjathaim,

10. Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

11. And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that 3 am 1 the Lord.

12. Thus saith the Lord God; Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them;

13. Therefore saith the Lord God; I will stretch out Mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman: and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14. And I will lay My vengeance upon Edom by the hand of My People Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to Mine anger and according to My fury; and they shall know My vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15. Thus saith the Lord God; Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a spiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred;
25. 16. EZEKIEL.

18 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will stretch out Mine hand upon thee, Tyre, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast.
19 And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall lay My vengeance upon them."

26 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 2 "Son of man, because that Tyre hath said against Jerusalem, "Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people; she is turned unto me; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:'

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.
4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.
5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for hath spoken it, saith the Lord GOD: and it shall become a spoil to the nations.
6 And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring upon Tyre Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and chariots of companies, and much people.
8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.
10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.
11 With the hoofs of his horses he shall tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.
12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the water.
13 And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.
14 And I will make thee like the top of a rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I the Lord have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.
26. 15. EZEKIEL. 27. 12.

15 Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrus; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

18 Then shall the princes of the sea come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

17 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of seafaring men: or, that wast an abode from the seas. The Syr. kadosh means a lodge, and is the rendering of Heb. yeshah in Num. 25. 12.

20 descend into the pit. The people of Tyre are meant, as joining those who were dead and buried, and shall set glory. This is either a parenthetical contrast referring to Jerusalem (with which the prophecy begins, v. 2), or we may read, with Sept., “nor yet arise”, &c., completing the end of Tyre, as in v. 31, in the land of the living. This expression occurs eight times without the Article (“the living”): here, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 33; and Ps. 27. 13. It occurs three times with the Article (“the living”). See note on Isa. 38. 11. In each case it refers to the condition of life, in contrast with “Sheol”, which is the condition of death.

27. The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyre;

3 And say unto Tyre, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord God; O Tyrus, thou hast said, 3 Is am of perfect beauty.

4 Thy builders have perfected thy beauty.

5 They have made all thy ships of fir trees of Senir; they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.

6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim.

7 Fine linen with brodered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the isles of Elissa was that which covered thee.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and of Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyre, that were in thee, were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy carlelers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

10 They of Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gam-madim were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they made thy beauty perfect.

12 Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.
13 They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules.
14 They of the house of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.
15 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making; they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate.
16 Judah, and the land of Israel, were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.
17 Damascus was thy merchant in multitude of the wares of thy making; for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.
18 °Dan also and °Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.
19 °Dedan was thy merchant in precious kettles for chariots, for chariots, and for horses.
20 °Tarshish was a merchant in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and brodered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.
21 °Haran, °Canneh, °Eden, °Buz, °Elishah, °Dedan, °Togarmah, °Javan, ° Tubal, °Meshech, °Togarmah, were thy merchants.
22 Thy merchants traded in the midst of the seas; they had riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupants of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.
23 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.
24 And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land; and shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wail themselves in the ashes:
25 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and They shall wail for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.
26 Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters; the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.
27 Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupants of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

13 Javan = Ionia. Cp. Gen. 10. 4. These are named together in Gen. 10. 2.
14 house. Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Subject), Ap. 6, for descendants.
15 men = sons.
17 the land of Israel. Heb. °`erets Israel. One of three occurrences of this expression in this book with Heb. °`erets (Kings 17. 17; 40. 5; 47. 18), instead of °`adamath, which occurs seventeen times. See note on 11. 17.
20 Dan. Heb. Vedan, or Vedan.
21 Haran. Now Harran, between the Euphrates and the Khabour (Gen. 11. 25). Canneh. Probably now Calneh, a Babylonian city (Gen. 10. 10).
23 Tho rowers. Continuing the symbol of a ship, used of Tyre in this chapter.
25 occupants = barterers, or traders.
in. A special various reading called Sevir (Ap. 34), with four early printed editions, Aram., Sept., and Syr., omit this word "in".
26 company = gathered host.
27 suburbs. The root garash = to drive out or about. When used of a city it = suburbs; but, when used of the sea, it = the driving and casting about of the waves. Cp. Isa. 57. 20. It means here that the waves of the sea lash themselves at the wailing of the pilots.
29 they. Some codices, with two early printed editions, Sept., and Syr., read "their sons".
the destroyed: or, the slant one.
30 waters. See note on °fairs", v. 12.

EZEKIEL.

28.

The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God:

Though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

Organized, thou wast wiser than Daniel; there is none like to him in understanding the secret things of God.

With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches,

And thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches:

Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

Behold, therefore, I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

Wilt thou yet say after Him That slayeth thee, '3 am a God?'

But lo, thou shalt be as a man, and no God, in the hand of Him that slayeth thee.

Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for 3 have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God;

7 strangers = aliens, or foreigners: the Babylonians were noted for their barbarity. Op. 30, 11; 31, 12. Isa. 1, 7; 33, 2. defile = profane. brightness = splendour; occurs only here, and v. 17. See note on Gen. 3, 1 and Ap. 19. 8 pit = corruption. Heb. shaphath, slain = wounded. 9 God. Heb. Elohim. Ap. 4, 1. thou shalt be = thou [art]. GOD. Heb. Elohim. Ap. 4, 1. 10 die = uncircumcised: i.e. come to the miserable end of the ungodly. Op. 31, 18; 32, 19, 21, 23, 32. The word being used in its moral, not physical sense deaths. Pl. = the great, or awful death. saith the Lord God = (is) Adonai Jehovah's oracle. 12 the king of Tyrus. Here we have a supernatural being addressed: He of whom the "prince of Tyre" was only a type; He who was using that "prince" as one of his agents to secure the world-power. He is not a mere "man" as the prince of Tyre (see v. 12). His description see the Structure, vv. 12-17, below. is superterrestrial, and superhuman, and can refer to no other than Satan himself.

H | t | 12-17. His "wisdom" and "beauty".
 | u | 11, 15-17. The covering Cherub.
 | v | 11-13. His iniquity.
 | v | 14-16. His sin.
 | w | 11-16. The covering Cherub.
 17-22. His "wisdom" and "beauty".

12 Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

R | t | 2-6. Description. Type. A mere man.
 | u | 9-11. Destruction of the "Prince".

 | u | 11-12. Destruction of "the King".

The prince (Heb. melēk) is to be distinguished as the type (vv. 1-10) from the king (melēk) of Tyre, the antitype (vv. 11-19). See the Structure above. He is a mere man, as shown in v. 9, where note the emphasis marked by the Fig. Ptolemaism (Ap. 6). He was Ithobalus II. Heb. "Ebakal. See Josephus (cont. Apion, § 21).

Tyrus = Tyre (the city), as in 28, 2, the Lord GOD. Heb. Adonai Jehovah. See note on 28.14.

28.2-6 (R, above). DESCRIPTION OF THE PRINCE. (THE TYPE). (Intreversion and Alliteration.)

R | t | 2-6. Thine heart is lifted up.
 | u | 1. As the heart of God.
 | p | 4-5. Thy riches. Increased.

T | m | 4-5. Thine heart is lifted up.
 | p | 5-6. As the heart of God.

2 thine heart. Note the Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6), by which the word heart is repeated in different inflections for emphasis. "Thine heart . . . in thee . . . in the heart (midst) . . . thine heart . . . the heart." GOD. Heb. 'El (sing.). Ap. 4. IV. of God. Heb. Elohim (pl.). Ap. 4. I. midst = heart (as in ch. 27 throughout).

A man, and not GOD (El). Note the Fig. Ptolemaism (Ap. 6), by which the same thing is put in two ways (first pos. and then neg.) to emphasize the fact that the "prince" here spoken to (v. 2-10) is purely human (Elohim, and therefore not the "king" spoken to in vv. 11-19). is not GOD = not El. Ap. 4. IV.

God. Heb. Elohim. Ap. 4. I. 3 Behold, Fig. Asterismos (Ap. 6), to attract our attention. wiser. In thine own eyes.

28.7-10 (S, above). DESTRUCTION OF "THE PRINCE." (Interversion.)

S | q | 7, 8. Judgment executed by strangers.
 | r | 7-8. Thou shalt die the deaths, &c.
 | s | 9-10. I am Elohim.
 | t | 10. Thou art a man.

13 He saith the Lord GOD = (is) Adonai Jehovah's oracle. 14-15. The covering Cherub. 16-17. His "wisdom" and "beauty".
13 Thou hast been in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of them of tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 And thou anointed cherub that covereth, and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thy stroke was perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned.

17 Therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God; and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

18 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness.

19 I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

20 And again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 21 "Son of man, set thy face against Zidon, and prophesy against it.

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall by the midst of her.
be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her every side; and they shall know that 3 am 1 the LORD.

24 And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that 3 am 1 the LORD God."

25 Thus saith the Lord God: 'When I shall have gathered 24 the house of Israel from the 19 people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the 3 heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to My servant Jacob. 26 And 2 they shall dwell "safely therein, and shall 0 build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, 2 when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that 3 am 1 the LORD their 0 God.'

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 0 Son of man, set thy face against 2 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt:

3 Speak and say, 'Thus saith the Lord God: "Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, '4 My river is mine own, and 0 have made it for myself.'

4 But I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, 0 and all the fish of thy rivers; thou shalt fall upon the open fields, thou shalt not be gathered together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt 0 shall know that 3 am 1 the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to 2 the house of Israel.

7 (When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder; and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins 0 to be at a stand.),

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: 2 Behold, 0 I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off 0 man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they 0 shall know that 3 am 1 the LORD: because he hath said, 'The river is mine, and 0 have made it.'

10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, 0 from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.
29. 11. EZEKIEL. 30. 9.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.
12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.'

13 Yet thus saith the Lord God; 'At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:
14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of their fathers, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.
15 It shall be the base of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.
16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.'

B 17 And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
18 "Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was pealed: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyre, for the service that he had served against it:
19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take the wealth of his multitudes, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.
20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for Me, saith the Lord God.
21 In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.'

30. 1-19 (4, p. 1147). EGYPT AND HER ALLIES.

The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Howl ye, Woe worth the day, that be inhabited forty years.
3 For the day is near, even the day of the Lord is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.
4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.
5 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.'
6 Thus saith the Lord; 'They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.
7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.
8 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.
9 In that day shall messengers go forth from 483 Me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, "as in the day of Egypt: for, I say, it cometh."

10 Thus saith the Lord God: 'I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, he, and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy Egypt, and shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: 3 I the Lord have spoken it.'

13 Thus saith the Lord God: 'I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.'

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zaan, and will execute judgments in No.

15 And I will pour My fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt, and I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of Aven and of Pi-be-seth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I break there the yokes of Egypt; and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the Lord.'

20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall not be bound to heal it, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: "Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put My sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a dead man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries.
3. Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fatted branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4. The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5. Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6. All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwell all great nations.

7. Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8. The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9. I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10. Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and thou hast understood the height of thine heart; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am as God; therefore let me ascend into heaven, and sit upon the throne of God, and let me set myself upon the mount of God; therefore cast asunder thy heart, and let thine eye exalt no more; for thy heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, that thou saidst in thine heart, I am as God.

11. And I say this is Pharaoh in his multitude, saith the Lord God.

32. 1-16 (X, p. 1147). DESTRUCTION.

(X Introductions and Alterations.)

32. 1-4. Lamentation.

1 Thus saith the Lord: In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying.

2 Thus saith the Lord God: Son of man, see the word of the Lord come unto thee, and say unto the children of Israel, Behold, I break the ARM of Pharaoh, that had the arm of Egypt, and exalted himself like the God of Egypt.

3 And I will break his arm, that he shall not have an arm to lift himself; and I shall strengthen the ARM of Israel, that he shall not lift himself, but I shall break the ARM of Pharaoh, that he shall not lift himself.

4 I will strengthen the ARM of the house of Israel, that they may not lift themselves; and I will weaken the ARM of Pharaoh, that he may not lift himself; and I will strengthen the ARM of the house of Israel, that they may not lift themselves, but I will strengthen the ARM of Israel.

pit, and her company is round about her grave; of all them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living.
24 There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave; of all them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the midst of parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.
25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude; her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.
26 There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.
27 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.
28 Yeax, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain by the sword.
29 There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.
30 There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zidonians, which are gone down with their slain: with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.
31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord God.
32 For I have caused My terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, and with them that are slain by the sword, and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
2 "Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman:
3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;
4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.
5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.
6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.
7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at My mouth, and warn them from Me.
8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.
9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.
10. Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; ‘Thus ye speak, saying, “If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?”’

11. Say unto them, “As ye live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turneth from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?”

12. Therefore, if one son of man, say unto the children of thy people, ‘The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.’

13. Ye then shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousness shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14. Again, if I say unto the wicked, ‘Thou shalt surely die;’ if he turn from his wicked sin, and do that which is lawful and right; 15. If the wicked restore the pledge, or give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity, 16. He that hath committed; he shall surely live, 17. he shall not die.

18. None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17. Yet the children of thy people say, ‘The way of the LORD is not true:’ but as for them, their way is not true.

18. When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and commiteth iniquity, he shall die thereby.

19. But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do 10 that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20. Yet ye say, ‘The way of the LORD is not true.’ O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.”

21. And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, “The city is smitten.”

22. Now the hand of the Lord was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23. Then the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

24. “Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, ‘Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.’

25. Wherefore say unto them, ‘Thus saith
The Lord God; ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood; and shall ye possess the land? thus saith the Lord God; 3 as live, saith the Lord God, surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did My 2 shepherds search for My flock, but the 2 shepherds fed themselves, and fed not My flock; therefore, O ye 2 shepherds, hear the word of the Lord; therefore, ye 2 shepherds, hear the word of the Lord;

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God unto them: Behold, I, even 3, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save My flock, and they shall no more be a prey;

23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even My servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And the Lord will be their God, and My servant David a prince among them; 3 the Lord have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about My hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land,
30 Thus shall they know that the Lord their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are My People, saith the Lord God.

31 And ye, My flock, the flock of My pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

32 Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end;

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas I the Lord was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them: and I will make Myself known among them by them.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the Lord, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against Me, and have multiplied your words against Me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord God; When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

36 Also, (for) 0 son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord:
2 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the enemy hath said against you, "Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession!"
3 Therefore prophesy and say, "Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:
4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and desolation to the residue of the heathen that are round about;
5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of My jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Judæa, who have pointed My land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despightful minds, to cast it out for a prey."
6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and in My fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen:
7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; If ye lifted up Mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.
8 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to My People of Israel; for they are at hand to come.
9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:
10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be built up:
11 And I will multiply upon you ten man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will set you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the Lord;
12 Yea, I will cause ten men to walk upon you, even My People Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.'
13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, "Ye mountains devour up ten men, and hast bereaved thy nations:'
14 Therefore thou shalt devour ten men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, "saith the Lord GOD.
15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, "saith the Lord GOD.'
16 Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
17 "Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before Me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.
18 Wherefore I poured My fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:
19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

36. 20. And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned My holy name, when they said to them, Those are the People of the LORD, and are gone forth out of His land.

21 But I had pity on Mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; I will not do this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for Mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify My great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you in before their eyes.

24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and I will bring you unto your own land.

25 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put My spirit within you, and will cause you to walk in My statutes, and ye shall keep My judgments, and do them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be My people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses:

and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD; be it known unto you, be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become fenced, and inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will yet be enquired of by the house of Israel,

10 Thus saith "the LORD God; ‘It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt "think an "evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, ‘I will go up to the land of "unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell "safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates, are now inhabited, and upon the "People that are" gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, 'Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?'

14 Therefore, 2 son of man, prophesy and say unto 2 Gog, 'Thus saith 3 the Lord GOD: In that day when My 12 People of Israel dwelleth safely, o shalt thou not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many 6 people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great 4 company, and a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against My 12 People of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against My land, that 6 the 6 heathen may know Me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O 2 Gog, before their eyes.'

17 Thus saith 3 the Lord GOD: 'Art thou he by whom I have spoken in old time by My servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith 3 the Lord GOD, that My fury shall come up in My face.

19 For in My jealousy and in the fire of My wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in 10 the land of Israel.

20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall 13 shake at My presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all My mountains, saith 3 the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnify Myself, and sanctify Myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that 3 am the LORD.'

39 Therefore, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, 'Thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

2 And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, 1040, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for 3 have spoken it, saith 3 the Lord GOD.

6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the 3 isles:

7 So will I make My holy name known in the midst of My People Israel; and I will not let them pollute My holy name any more:

8 But the heathen shall know that 3 am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

9 Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the buck-
EZEKIEL.

43. And thus shall ye understand the doctrine of Gog, and of the princes of Hamon-gog, which goes forth from the ends of the earth to make war with the children of my people, and to fight against the land of Israel:
14. And they shall not be able to stand before the face of them: there shall be none able to stand before them:
15. And they shall turn their face towards the battle, to come up, and much people shall be brought together.
16. And they shall set up their pavement, and build the high places of the image of their gods, and make great altars for the abominations of their own heart.
17. And he shall also set the face of his countenance towards the house of Israel, to bring the captivity of Israel out of the land of Assyria, with the children of Israel again.
18. And he shall lead them about to the people, and will divide them among the nations: and they shall be scattered among the nations of the earth.
19. And they shall be, every one, after the house of his people, and they shall bring forth their children among the heathen; and their faces shall be turned to the abominations of the nations, and they shall defile themselves with the idols of the heathen.
20. And I will set my face against them; and multiply many sorrows upon them; and bring in the beast of the nations against them, to destroy them:
21. And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall be sanctified among them, and they shall know that I am the Lord, says the Lord God; that I have given it to the heathen for a possession, and the nations for a heritage, that I may possess it again.
22. And I will honour the house of Israel, and sanctify the house of Israel; and they shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day forward.
23. And the I shall turn my face towards the house of Israel, and sanctify you, and purge your name, that the nations which are among you, or upon you, may know that I am the Lord, when I shall be sanctified among you in their eyes.
24. And I will sanctify the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, and will purge them from their iniquity, and will remember no more their sins and their transgressions; and I will do them good for ever, in the beginning, and for all generations of the world.
25. And the house of Israel shall know, that I am the Lord, their God, and they shall know that I have given Israel again to the land of their fathers, and I have sanctified the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, and I will purge them from their sins and their transgressions; and I will do them good for ever, in the commencement, and for all generations of the world.
26. And thus saith the Lord God; 'These things shall be a memorial in the midst of the heathen, and a token to the heathen, for I am the Lord when I shall sanctify the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, and will sanctify them in the midst of the heathen, and will purge them from all their iniquity.'
fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the Lord was upon me, and brought me thither. Then he brought me into the inner court, and behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

And he said unto me, Son of man, behold, with thine eyes, and with thine heart, set thine heart upon all that I shall show thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

And he measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

Then he brought me into the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

And there was a man in the gate, and he said unto me, Behold, thou see the gate of Jerusalem which is by the north side.

And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

And he measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

And there were the porch of the gate of the eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure; and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

And the space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

And he measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, the door against the door.

He made also the posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to the posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees.
court, and, "lo, there were "chambers, and a "pavement made for the court round about: "thirty "chambers were upon the "pavement.

18 And the 17 pavement by the 6 side of the gates 5over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court 7without, an hundred 5cubits eastward and northward.

20 And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the 7 little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the 8 posts thereof and the 16 arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty 5cubits, and the breadth five and twenty 5cubits.

22 And their windows, and their 16 arches, and their 16 palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by 8seven steps; and the 16 arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred 5cubits.

24 After that he brought me toward the south, and beheld a gate toward the south: and he measured the 9posts thereof and the 16 arches thereof according to 6these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty 5cubits, and the breadth five and twenty 5cubits.

26 And there were 9seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had 16 palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the 9posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred 5cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to 34 these measures:

29 And the 7 little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the 16 arches thereof, according to 34 these measures: and there were windows in it and in the 16 arches thereof round about: it was fifty 5cubits long, and five and twenty 5cubits broad.

30 And the 16 arches round about were five and twenty 5cubits long, and five cubits broad.

31 And the 16 arches thereof were toward the 5 utter court; and 16 palm trees were upon the 9posts thereof: and the 9going up to it had 8eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to 34 these measures.

33 And the 7 little chambers thereof, and the 9posts thereof, and the 16 arches thereof, were according to 34 these measures: and there were windows therein and in the 16 arches thereof round about: it was fifty 5cubits long, and five and twenty 5cubits broad.

34 And the 16 arches thereof were toward the outward court; and 16 palm trees were upon the 9posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had 8eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to 34 these measures;

36 The 7 little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the 16 arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty 4cubits, and the breadth five and twenty 5cubits.

37 And the 9posts thereof were toward the north gate: and 15 palm trees were upon the 9posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had 8eight steps.

38 And the 7chambers and the entries thereof were by the 9posts of the gates, where they washed the 7 burnt offering.

39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the 38 burnt offering and the 44 sin offering and the 44 trespass offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of 4hewn stone for the 38 burnt offering, of a 5cubit and an half long, and a 5cubit and an half broad, and one 5cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the 38 burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were 3hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about; and upon the tables was the flesh of the "offering.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the north side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south:

one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, "This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the Lord to minister unto Him."

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was that before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

50 Afterward he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the temple.

2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits: and the 2 door, six cubits: and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, "This is the most holy place."

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the half chamber round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so offering—corban.

Then he brought me forth into the 2 utter court, the way toward the north:
and he brought me into the 3 chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.
2 Before the length of an hundred 4 cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty 5 cubits.
3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the 1 utter court, was 2 gallery against 3 gallery in three stories.
4 And before the 1 chambers was a walk of ten 2 cubits breadth inward, a way of one 3 cubit:
and their doors toward the north.
5 Now the upper 1 chambers were shorter: for the 2 galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.
6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the 14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the 13 holy place into the 14 utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for 13 they are 13 holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east 8 side with the measuring 9 reed, five hundred 10 reeds, with the measuring 9 reed round about.

17 He measured the north 11 side, five hundred 12 reeds, with the measuring 11 reed round about.

18 He measured the south 11 side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring 11 reed.

19 He turned about to the west 16 side, and measured five hundred 15 reeds with the measuring 15 reed.

20 He measured it by the four 16 sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long; and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east:

2 And, behold, 2 the glory of 2 the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and His voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with His glory.

3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came 4 to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of 2 the LORD came into 2 the house by the way of 2 the gate whose prospect 2 is toward the east.

5 So the 2 spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, 2 the glory of 2 the LORD filled 2 the house.

6 And I heard Him speaking unto me out of the house; and 2 the man 2 stood by me.

7 And He said unto me, 2 a Son of man, 2 the place of My throne, and the place of the soles of My feet, 9 where 9 I will dwell in the midst of 9 the children of Israel 9 for ever: and 9 My holy name, shall be the house of Israel 9 no more defiled, 9 neither 9 they, nor their kings, by their 9 whoredom, nor 9 by the carcases of their kings 9 in their high places.

8 In their 9 setting of their threshold by My thresholds, and their post 9 by My posts, 9 and the wall between Me and them, they have even defiled My 9 holy name by their 9 abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in Mine anger.

and the fashion thereof, and the going out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle upon to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto Me to minister unto Me, saith the Lord God, a young bullock for a sin offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it upon the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the Lord.

25 Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare going out the exits, coming in the entrances.

Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be of ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand:

and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, a possession for twenty chambers.

And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

A portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

In the land shall be his possession in Israel:

and My princes shall no more oppress My People; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

Thus saith the Lord GOD: Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from My People, saith the Lord GOD.

Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your manch.

This is the oblation that ye shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley:

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering.

16 Thus saith the Lord God; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons; it shall be their possession by inheritance.
17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then shall it be his to the year of liberty: after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.
18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the People's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession: but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that My People be not scattered "every man from his possession."

19 After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north; and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, "This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meat offering; that they bear not out into the utter court, to sanctify the People."

21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.
22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.
23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.
24. Then said he unto me, "These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the People."

47 Afterward he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2. Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, I beheld, there ran out waters on the right side.

3. And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ankles.

4. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5. Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6. And he said unto me, "Son of man, hast thou seen this?" Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7. Now when I had returned, behold, the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other.

8. Then said he unto me, "These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9. And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10. And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the sea, exceeding many.

11. But the miry places thereof and the marishes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt.

12. And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed; it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters thyg issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for "medicine."

13. Thus saith the Lord God; "This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions."
47. 14. EZEKIEL.

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I lifted up Mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad:

16 Hamath, Beroroth, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be Hazaran, the border of Damascus, and the northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

19 And the south side southward, from Tamar even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the river to the great sea. And this is the south side southward.

20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and the strangers that sojourn among you; whom the children of Israel shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in the tribes which the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord God.”

11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; which have kept My charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.

13 And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the Lord.

15 And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs:

k and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over against the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city.

19 And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city.

21 And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion.

24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion.

25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion.

26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulon a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion.

28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the river eastward toward the great sea.

29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord God.

30 And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures.

31 And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.

32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.

33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun.

34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

The position of the book in the "Hagiographa," or third division of the Old Testament ("the Psalms," see Ap. 1), rather than in the second division ("the Prophets"), may be explained by the fact that, unlike the other three greater prophets (Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel), it stands in relation to them as the Apocalypse of the Old Testament; and as pertaining to what is still future. And whereas those three greater prophets speak of the future from an Intro-Israelitish standpoint, Daniel has their prophecies as his background; and, instead of looking at Zion and its neighbouring localised peoples, Daniel has universal Monarchies as his perspective; and is therefore separated from them in the Hebrew Canon, becoming to us the "light" or "lamp" of 2 Pet. 1. 19, and the realization of 1 Pet. 1. 11.

The first part of the book (1. 1–6. 28, A to C) is historic, while the latter half (7. 1–12. 13, A and B) is prophetic.

Moreover, of the former portion, 2. 4—7. 28 is written in Aramaic (or Chaldee), while the latter portion, 8. 1–12. 13, is written in Hebrew. This is to teach us that the historic portion is in the Gentile language, because it is concerned with "the times of the Gentiles," and with Gentile supremacy in relation to Israel; while the prophetic portion is in Hebrew (the language of Israel), because it is concerned with "the time of the end," and with the events which will lead up to the time when God will "restore again the kingdom to Israel" (Acts 1. 6).

In Hezekiah's day (684 b.C.) Syriac (or Aramaic) was not understood by the Jews (2 Kings 18. 26); but after the Exile, in Ezra's day (496 a.C.), Hebrew had been so far forgotten that it had to be explained (Neh. 8. 8). In Daniel's day (405 a.C.) both languages were generally understood; and both could be, and were, thus used by him.

If an impostor had written the book in Hebrew some 250 years later (as alleged by modern critics), why should he have defeated his own object by writing any portion in Aramaic as well, thus proving himself to be a fool as well as a "fooler"?
1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah did Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon come to Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon carried away some of the young men of the king's宫 and with them of the children of the land, and with the princes of the land; which he brought forth from the land of Judah; and they came to Nebuchadnezzar to Babylon with the king of Babylon.

3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz, the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: that they might stand before the king. And some of these were of ten years, some of eight, and some of seven.

6 So I was left by the king's charge; and as the first one of the firstborn of my father's house, they appointed me ruler over the palace over all the king's sons.

7 So I continued there above a year, and perceived that the work was not done for the house of my God.

8 Then I spoke unto the princes of the province over the land, and laid the mouth of the words against them.

9 I said unto them, Which of all the princes over the land have prospered? then they said, No man: for we be servants.

10 Neither then have I eaten the bread of mourning, nor drunk wine; and no manicure have I done, until the present time, until these words came unto me.

11 And now am I made to minister in the palace, and to teach the children of the land; and they compass me about with good words: but they look upon me as they would have seen me in my former estate in other days.

12 Therefore let my Prince consider the matter, and show the word that I should speak in his hearing. Daniel 1:1-13

DANIEL.

A B C

p. 1179

Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are dealt with of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king."

Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,

"Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants."

So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat of the king's meat.

Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king.

And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

p. 1180

And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

Therefore Jehoiakim's fifth year, the year of the burning of the roll which marked the official rejection of Jehovah. Hence Nebuchadnezzar's dream. Daniel was in Babylon, and writes from that standpoint. The supposed difficulty is a proof of genuineness; for the writer would have been a fool as well as a forger to have left it unexplained.

2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know not of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king’s matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain.

14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king’s guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king’s captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

2 to call, &c.—to send for. This tells us of the religious system of Babylon, of which subsequent Jewish commentators and Greek translators would know little or nothing. There were six classes of the Chaldean priesthood.

magicians. Heb. chartummin. Connected with the kheru (the sceptre) or rod of office of those who repelled demons and evil spirits by incantations, &c.

astrologers. Heb. ashtaphim—in Babylonian, asipi, prophets who assumed to announce the will of heaven and predict the future. These were a class apart from the others. The inscriptions speak of bab Assagud—the gate of the oracle; also of bit Assapud—the house of the oracle.

sorcerers. Heb. nakah shphim—wizard (Ex. 7, 11; 22, 18, 23, Mal. 3, 5, fem.).

3 I have dreamed. Contrast this with Daniel’s vision, in the Structure on p. 1178; and note the other recorded dreams (Gen. 20, 3).

4 in Syriack. Heb. aramath=Aramaic. The insertion of this word here is to call our attention to the fact that what follows is written not in Hebrew, but in Aramaic, as far as the end of ch. 7. See note on the Structure, p. 1178; and see also note on the other Aramaic portions (Ezra 4, 6—8, 18 and 7, 12–26; also Jer. 10, 11. The Syrac and Chaldee are properly Western and Eastern Aramaic.

O king. This is the first Aramaic word so written. Cp. 2, 9; 5, 10; 6, 6, 21. Neh. 2, 3.

6 rewards. Chald. n’biskbkh= a present.

8 gain the time—gain time. It may have reference to that day being an unlucky day. Cp. Est. 3, 7.

11 net. Is emphatic. They held that there were gods who dwelt in men. But these were beyond mortal men altogether.

12 wise men: i.e. the members of all the classes collectively, mentioned in v. 2 above. Chald. chakam, denoting acquired wisdom.

13 fellows=companions.

14 counsel and wisdom=prudence and discretion.

16 give him time=appoint him a time.

17 Hananiah, &c. See note on 1, 6.

18 mercies=great mercy. Fig. Heterosis (of Number), Ap. 6.

19 from the time of the God of heaven. See note on 2 Chron. 36, 23.

secret. Chald. r&x, which the Sept. renders mustérion. Occurs in O.T. only here, in vv. 18, 19, 27, 28, 29, 39, 47, 48, and 4, 9. Not the same word as in v. 22.

20 answered and said. See note on Deut. 1, 41.

There was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, ‘Blessed be the name of the God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are His:

seasons: "He removeth kings, and setteth up kings; he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: 22 he revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him." 23 I thank Thee, and praise Thee, O Thou God of my fathers, Who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of Thee: for Thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter." 24 Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him: "Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation." 25 Then Arioch brougb th to Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, "I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation." 26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?" 27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, "The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king; 28 But there is a God in heaven That revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; 29 As for me, O king, thy thoughts "came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and He That revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass; 30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart. 31 O king, sawest, and beheld a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. 32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of 4 silver, his belly and his thighs of brass; 33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of 32 clay. 34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of 32 iron and 32 clay, and brake them to pieces. 35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, 4 broken to pieces before him, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors: and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. 36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. As united at the time of the end (forming the sixth power), the kingdom of the "Beast" (Rev. 13). wind. Heb. ruach. Ap. 9. filled the whole earth. Thus marking the seventh kingdom, that of Messiah. 37 a kingdom. The O.T. is not designed to be a compendium of "ancient history". It is the history of Jehovah's People, Israel; and other nations are referred to only as, and in so far as, they come into connection with Israel. Babylon was the most ancient kingdom (Gen. 10, 10). Cp. Deut. 28, 32. Nebuchadnezzar was not the first king; but he was the "head" or beginning of Gentile dominion in the earth when Israel had been "removed" (according to Jer. 15, 4; 24, 9; 29, 18). These successive kingdoms are reckoned only as they obtained possession of Jerusalem. They existed before that; and each, in turn, was absorbed in the one that succeeded. 37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.
38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heavens hath He given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. "This art thou head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof of sure.

Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded them that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

The king answered unto Daniel, and said, "O of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a Revenger of secrets, seeing thou coudest reveal this secret."

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: "but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

3. 1-30 (C. p. 1175). DANIEL’S COMPANIONS.

FURNACE. (Alterations.)

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was three-score and six cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. 2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the rulers of the provinces, and the captains of the thousands, and the captains of the hundreds, and all the rulers of the kingdom, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3 Then the princes, the governors, and the captains, the rulers of the provinces, and the captains of the thousands, and the captains of the hundreds, and all the princes, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then an herald cried aloud, “To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages, 5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up: 6 And whoso falleth not down and worshipeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.”

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, they fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 8 Wherefore at that time, certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, “O king, live for ever.” 10 And the king, living for ever, had made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image: 11 And whoso falleth not down and worshipeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.”

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, “Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye wor-
18 12 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar 1 full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against 12 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the 12 most mighty men that were in his army 6 to bind 12 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these 12 men were 20 bound in their coats, their tunics, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the king's 6 commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those 12 men that took up 12 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three 12 men, 12 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down 20 bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counselors, "Did not we cast three 12 men 21 bound into the midst of the fire?" They answered and said unto the king, "2 True, O king."

25 He answered and said, "Lo, I see four men, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the son of the living God."

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither." Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the 2 princes, 2 governors, and 2 captains, and the king's 24 counselors, being gathered together, saw these 12 men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, "Blessed be the 15 God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, Who hath sent His angel, and delivered His servants that trusted in Him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any 15 god, except their own 15 God."

29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which 2 shall speak any thing 3 amiss against the 15 God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall 2 be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other 15 God that can 2 deliver after this sort."

30 Then the king promoted 12 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

3. 19-30 (M, p. 1184). CONDEMNATION OF THE THREE. (Extended Alteration.)
2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.
3 How great are His signs! and how mighty are His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:
5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.
7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.
8 But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed: I saw, and beheld a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.
11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:
12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.
13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed; I saw, and beheld, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven;
14 He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:
15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the grass of the earth:
16 Let his heart be changed from man’s, and let a beast’s heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.
17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most high God ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever He will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream 3 king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now 3, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, O Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies,
20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;
21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:
22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hesthe tree down, and destroy
23. They praised him, and he was exalted in his kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto him.

24. Now Nebuchadnezzar praised and extolled the God of heaven, and the King of heaven, all whose works are true, and his ways are judgment: and that which walketh in pride he is able to abase.
5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels that his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the color departed from the king, and his countenance was changed.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed; and his lords were astonished.

10 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, "O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father's light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding of interpreting dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation."

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, "Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

father Nebuchadnezzar. No "historical difficulty". Critics should tell us what word Daniel could have used, seeing there is no word in Chaldean or Hebrew for "grandfather". The word "father" is used by Fix. Synechoch (of Species), Ap. 6, for ancestor. Op. 4. 15. Kings 15. 11-15, where David is called the "father" of Asa, and Maachah is called his mother (cp. 2 Kings 15. 1, 2 with 11-15). In 2 Kings 14. 5 the same is said of Amaziah; and in 2 Chron. 24. 1, 2, of Josiah. Op. Rom. 9. 16, where Paul speaks of "our father Isaac". But Jer. 14. 7 explains the matter fully: "all nations shall serve him (i.e. Nebuchadnezzar), and his son (Nabonidus), and his son's son (Belshazzar), until the very time of his land come". See note on 7. 1.

15 And now the wise men, the sages, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not show the interpretation of the thing.

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom."

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, "Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory: and for the majesty that He gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: he fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the Most High God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that He appointeth over it whomsoever He will.

22 And thou, his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this.

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of His house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in Whose hand thy breath is, and Whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from Him; and this writing was written."

25 And this is the writing that was written, "MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians."

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

24 this writing. The Divine prophetic meaning could not be known or understood till interpreted by Daniel:

25 MENE, MENE = NUMBERED, NUMBERED. Fig. Epiphanies (Ap. 6), for great emphasis. Chald. mene, mene = numbered [yes] ended. See note on Jer. 27. 7.

27 UPHARSIN = AND DIVIDED (or BROKEN). Chald. 'apharsin (the "u" being the conjunction = and), from Chald. parasa = to break. See note on 4. 27. There is a further reference, by the Fig. Syllepsis (or combination), Ap. 6, to the Persians, by whom the kingdom of Babylon was broken up.

slain. Either by the Persians, or it may have been by assassination by one of his own officers, or accidentally in the tumult. Chald. 'atul, used of a violent death. Cp. v. 19. This was on the third of the month Marchesvan. On the eleventh, Belshazzar's wife died, perhaps from grief. See Engel. Brit., vol. iii, p. 711, 712, 112, (Cambridge) edition. See Ap. 57.

31 Darius the Median. Through not noting the fact that "Darius" was an appellative denoting "the Maintainer", and used by Xenes and others, modern critics have denied the existence of such a king. Astyages was called "Darius". Cyrus (his son) was co-regent. His general Gobryas took the city in the name of Cyrus. See Isa. 45. 1. Cp. Jer. 51. 30, 31. See notes there. Consult Ap. 57.

took. Chald. k'fel = to take from another. Cp. 7. 18. Not the same word as in v. 2, 3, which is naphaq = to take out; or 'a, which is 'dha = remove.

three score and two. Born 488 a.c. Herodotus states that Cyrus was about forty years of age at the taking of Babylon (in 426 a.c.). At that age his father Astyages ("Darius the Median") was about "three score and two years old" (5. 31). Cyrus would therefore be just forty, according to the chronology of Ap. 60, having been born in 486 a.c.

30 In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

31 And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about three score and two years old.
6. 1-28 (C, p. 1178). DANIEL HIMSELF. THE DEN OF LIONS. (Alterations.)

1 Darius. A careful study of Ap. 57 will show that this "Darius the Median" of 5.31 is the Artaxerxes (the great king) of Neh. 2.1 and Ezra 6.14, and the Ahasuerus of Est. 1.1. These names are all used of one and the same person; and by comparison of the Median kings, according to Herodotus, compared with the genealogy of Cyrus in his Cuneiform Cylinder, the important fact becomes clear that this man was Astyages; and the names Armagese = Cambyses, common to Herodotus, the Behistun Rock, and the Cylinder of Cyrus, all refer to one and the same person.

If this be so, and Astyages is to be identified with "Darius the Median," then all difficulty vanishes. The Scripture record harmonizes exactly with the accounts given in the three sources named above; and we have the real clue to the parentage of Cyrus the Great (Ap. 57, p. 80).

If this be so, then "Darius the Median" remains an insoluble riddle to history and chronology alike, for there can be found no place for him on the page of history, an hundred and twenty. Darius Hystaspis, in his inscription on the Behistun Rock (Ap. 57), enumerates twenty-three names. This number was continually altered according to historical changes and conquests. In Est. 1.13, 14, there were seven when Astyages took the kingdom; but he added 120 more (Dan. 6.1), and made 127 (Est. 1.1; 8; 8.30).

18 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, "Thy God Whom thou servest continually, B will deliver thee."

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the 3 mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were 2 instruments of musick brought before him: and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose 3 very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, "O Daniel, servant of the living B God, is thy B God, Whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?"

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, "O king, live for ever.

22 My B God hath 5 sent His angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me; forasmuch as before B Him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt."

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he 5 believed in his B God.

24 And the king commanded, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their 12 children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces as they came at the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote unto all 2 people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; 4 Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 Take a 2 decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the B God of Daniel: for 5 B is the living B God, and stedfast for ever, and His kingdom 5 that which shall not be destroyed, and His dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and He worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, Who hath delivered Daniel from the 5 power of the lions."

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of 1 Darius, and in the reign of 5 Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of 8 Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his bed upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the 5 matters.

18 passed the night fasting. Showing the long-standing affection which Astyages had for Daniel.

26 decree. Chald. t'ar'm = a decision, implying the pleasure or approval with which it was made.

28 Cyrus the Persian. The son of Darius the Mede. He is the young Darius, his father Astyages being the old Darius. "Darius" meaning "the Maintainer". Cp. Isa. 45. 1. See Ap. 57.

In the first year of Belshazzar. This was 429 B.C. See Ap. 50, pp. 69 and 72. Daniel being eighty-four years old. Three years before the events of ch. 6. Cp. 1-28, and the notes on the other dates (8. 1; 9. 1; 10. 1; 11. 1, &c.).

This vision (ch. 7) is still in Chaldee (the Gentile language), because it is the continuation of 2. 44, and shows what will take place in the "days of those kings" before the stone strikes the image. It brings us up to the end of Gentile dominion over Israel. Ch. 8 is in Hebrew, because it specially concerns Israel. It is the writing of "Daniel the prophet" (Matt. 24). This is directly stated by our Lord, who, seven times in the Gospel of John, declared that what He spoke were not His own words, but the Father's (John 7. 16; 8. 28, 40, 47; 12. 49; 14. 10, 24; 17. 8. Cp. Deut. 18. 18 and Isa. 51, 16).

This member B consists of two visions. Each is distinct and complete in itself (21, 7. 1-28; 27, 8. 1-21).

The dream of Nebuchadnezzar (ch. 2) was interpreted to him by Daniel; while the dream (or vision) of Daniel was interpreted to him by the Angel. The former referred to the beginning and duration of Gentile dominion over Israel; the latter concerns the end of it. See the Structure, p. 1178.

The second (ch. 8) was given two years later than the first (cp. 7. 1 with 8. 1), and is subsequent to the first, giving further details concerning the latter time of their dominion (i.e. that of the four beasts of the first vision in ch. 7). Further details are given in chs. 9, 11, and 12.

The interpretation is given in vs. 17, 18; and shows that these visions (chs. 7 and 8) are still future, and are therefore to be confounded with the dream of ch. 2. See the notes on vs. 17, 18, below.

The interpretations given to us of these two separate visions need no further interpretation by us. The source of the dream is the source of the interpretation also. They are for us to understand and to believe. We may comment on the interpretations given, but not interpret them.

Belshazzar. The last king of Babylon. Until 1854, when Sir H. C. Rawlinson discovered the cuneiform texts, all was speculation. An inscription belonging to the first year of Nabonidus, his father (see note on 5. 5, and Jer. 27. 7), calls him his "firstborn son" and gives his name Bel-sarra-uzer = "O Bel defend the king". There are frequent references to him in contracts and similar documents (Encycl. Brit., 11th (Cambridge) ed., vol. iii, p. 711). He was the last king of Babylon (5. 30, 31). See note on 5. 5. He had a dream. One of twenty recorded dreams. See note on Gen. 20. 1. he wrote. This is to be noted, as it was afterward "told" in speech (vs. 1, 2).

2 Daniel "spake" and said, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven 'strove upon the great sea.

3 And 'four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 'The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld 'till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon 'the feet as a man, and 'a man's heart was given to it.

5 And 'behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and 'it raised itself up on one side, and 'it had 'three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.'

6 After this 'I beheld, and 'lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it 'four wings of 'a fowl; the beast had also 'four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this 'I saw in the night visions, and 'behold 'a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had 'great iron teeth: it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it; and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had 'ten horns.

8 'I considered the horns, and 'behold, there came up among them another 'little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and 'behold, in this horn were 'eyes like the eyes of 'man, and a mouth 'speaking great things.

9 'I beheld 'till 'the thrones were 'cast down, and 'the Ancient of days 'did sit, Whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of His head like the pure wool: His throne was like the fiery flame, and 'his wheels as burning fire.

(see notes on v. 1). Daniel could not see that kingdom arise now. He had said, "Thou art this head of gold" shall arise" (v. 17). Therefore Babylon is not included. Therefore Babylon is not included. 10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before Him: thousand thousands were ministered before Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 "I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: "I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame."

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged two a season and time.

13 "I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of Man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought Him near before Him.

14 And there was given Him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve Him: His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 (Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 "These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the MOST HIGH shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.'

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the ten which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 "I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and a judgment was given to the saints of the Highest; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 "Thus he said, "The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak great words against the MOST HIGH, and shall wear out the saints of the Highest, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and destroy it unto the end. This is the determining factor of the interpretation. Cp. 8, 17-19; 9, 26; 11, 40; 12, 4, 9, 13. Matt. 24, 14. See note on v. 17.

The king wore a ram's head of gold, and rams' heads are to be seen on the sculptured pillars of Persepolis. two horns. In v. 20 these are interpreted of the kings of the Media and Persia.

b higher, &c. Cyrus (the latter) became greater than his father Astyages. Both were in existence when Daniel saw the vision. Cp. v. 20. pushing = butting: always hostile. great = acted proudly.

c his goat = a leaper of the goats. The acknowledged symbol of Greece, as the ram was of Persia (see v. 3), because the first colony was directed by an oracle to take a goat for a guide and build a city, which they did, and called it Egesta (from Ec = a goat). Figures of a goat are found to-day on ancient Macedonian monuments. westward = to the west. Not the same word as in v. 5.

d he goat = a leaper of the goats. The acknowledged symbol of Greece, as the ram was of Persia (see v. 3), because the first colony was directed by an oracle to take a goat for a guide and build a city, which they did, and called it Egesta (from Ec = a goat). 7 was moved with choler = moved himself, or strove violently with. choler = bile. Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause), Ap. 6, for anger or wrath, which was supposed to be due to excess of bile. Greek, choler = bile: whence we have "cholera", none that could, &c. = no deliverer for.

hand = power. Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause), Ap. 6, for the power put forth by it.
8 Therefore the one goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host of the stars to the ground, and it stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the Prince of the host, and by him the 'daily sacrifice' was taken away, and the place of His sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred and four hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning thereof, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee to understand what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

miah the prophet, that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

2 And I set my face unto the LORD God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

3 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, "O LORD, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love Him, and to them that keep His commandments;

4 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from Thy precepts and from Thy judgments:

5 Neither have we hearkened unto Thy servants the prophets, which spake in Thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the People of the land.

6 We have trespassed against Thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither Thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against Thee;

7 LORD, to us belong confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against Thee;

8 To the LORD our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against Him;

9 Neither have we he obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets.

10 Yea, all Israel have transgressed Thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey Thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against Him.

11 And confirmed His words, which He spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

12 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand Thy truth.

13 Therefore hast the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all His works which He doeth: for we obeyed not His voice.

14 And now, O LORD our God, that hast brought Thy people forth out of the land of Egypt, with a mighty hand, and hast gotten Thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

15 LORD, according to all Thy righteousness, I beseech Thee, let Thine anger and Thy fury be turned away from Thy city Jerusalem, Thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Thy People are become a reproach to all that are about us.

16 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of Thy servant, and his supplications, and cause Thy face to shine upon Thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the LORD'S sake, accomplish—fulfil [within], seventy years. Note the bearing of this on v. 44, the desolations of Jerusalem. From 470 to 409 B.C. See note on p. 615. The "desolations" had therefore lasted 42 (6 x 7) years, and had yet 25 (4 x 7) years to run before they were "accomplished." We find the same subdivisions of the "servitude," for from the first year of Nebuchadnezzar (490) to the decree of Artaxerxes (454) was forty-two years; and from the decree to the end of the servitude was twenty-eight years.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy People and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy.

Note the special emphasis as to the admonition for ourselves in the Structures below. It is not a vision that requires interpretation, but a direct prophecy given in simple words by the angel Gabriel, sent by God for the express purpose of making everything clear, and solving the most weighty problems that perplex the human mind. There is no "difficulty", as supposed. All that is required of us is to understand, and consider, and believe what is thus written for our learning.

O | 25-. Admotions. "Know", "Understand".

9. 24 (P, above). THE SEVENTY SEvens. IN WHOLE. (Extended Alternation.)

z | And to make reconciliation for iniquity,
x | And to bring in everlasting righteousness,
y | And to seal up (hatham) the vision and prophecy,

24 Seventy weeks = Seventy sevens: i.e. of years.

Not on any "year-day" theory. If "days" had been intended, it would be so expressed, as in 10. 3 (cp. Lev. 25: 6). Moreover, 40 years had been the subject of Daniel's prayer (v. 3). The last "seven" is "one", and it is divided in half in v. 7, and the half is three and a half years (7. 25; cp. 8. 11-14; 11. 33). In Rev. 11. 2 this half is expressed by "forty-two months"; and in the next verse as "1,260 days". See Ap. 99. The whole period is therefore 480 years. determined = cut off: i.e. divided off from all other years.

The verb is in the singular to indicate the unity of the whole period, however it may be divided up. Heb. ἱδνακ. Occurs only here. "Ye People": i.e. Daniel's People, Israel, with which alone the prophecy is concerned.

thy holy city = i.e. Jerusalem (vv. 2, 7, 15). finish = put an end to. transgression. Heb. ἄπασα (with Art.), Ap. 44. vii. Cp. 8. 12, 23. and. Note the Fig. Polysyndeton (Ap. 6) in this verse, to emphasise each of these six special announcements and their connection with the whole period.

make an end of. Heb. ἱδνακ, as below ("to seal up"). sin. Heb. ἢφατ. Ap. 44. i.

Heb. marg., with four early printed editions, some codices, and Vulg., read "sin" (sing.). make reconciliation = make expiation or atonement.

iniquity. Heb. ἢφατ. Ap. 44. iv. seal up, &c. = make an end of by fulfilling all that has been the subject of prophecy. prophecy = prophet. the most Holy = Holy of Holies. Never used of a person. This answers to the cleansing of the sanctuary (8. 16) which immediately precedes "the end". See Ap. 99. 23 Know therefore and understand. Note this second admonition, as shown in the Structure ("O") above.

R | 26-. Messiah. Cut off.
9. 25. DANIEL.

9. 27.

Unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

And after threescore and two weeks, Messiah shall be cut off; but not for Himself; and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood; and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

And he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and take away the covering, by SKU.

Messiah = anointed. Only priests and kings were anointed, lepers, and Elisha (2 Kings 19. 14) being the only exceptions.

Messiah the Prince = "Messiah [that is to say] the Prince [of the People]". Messiah is a noun, and is connected with Prince by apposition: i.e. a priest-king. Only one such known to Scripture (Ps. 110. 4; Zech. 6. 13; Job 4. 29; Ap. 90. 69, and Ap. 91. 13). threescore and two weeks = 434 years (405 b.c.-a.d. 29): the two together being 49 + 434 = 483 years; leaving seven years to make up the full 490 years of v. 24. See Ap. 56, p. 69, and Ap. 91.

the street = the broadway or open space by the gates or elsewhere.

V. 27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week:

And in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease; and he shall make a firm covenant: i.e. the little horn will do this at the beginning of the last seven years. See note below on "one week.

The prince that shall come = a prince, &c. This is "the little horn" of Zech. 6. 13; 9. 9; 14. 12-25; 26-28; 28. 29; 29. 3. See Ap. 89. shall destroy the city, &c. See Matt. 21. 41; 22. 7. This also was "after threescore and two weeks", but not within the last seven; which are confined to the doings of "the prince's people, the people that is coming" ("the little horn") after the doings of "the people" in the destruction of the city, which ends v. 26. What "the little horn" will do is stated in the words which follow. Antiochus never did this. He defied it, but left it uninjured.

The end thereof: or, his own end [come): i.e. the end of the desolator looking on to the end of the last seven years.

And unto the end of the war the desolations = desolate places. Cp. Matt. 23. 34, 27 he shall confirm the covenant = make a firm covenant: i.e. the little horn will do this at the beginning of the last seven years. See note below on "one week: It may even be the beginning of the 2,900 days of 8. 14. Cp. 11. 21-24.

The covenant = a covenant; and many = the many. one week: This is the last seven years which completes the "seventy" of v. 24; the time when action commences in connection with Daniel's "city", and "People" (i.e. Jerusalem and Israel). These have been in abeyance since v. 26. Israel is "Lo-ammi" (not my people, Hos. 1. 9. 14). For the present interval between "R" and "T", v. 26 and 27, see Luke 4. 18-20; 21. 24; Ap. 50. 11-14 (pp. 42 and 60); also Ap. 63. IX.; 72; and 91. This fills the first half of the "week" (see Rev. 11. 3-11). the midst of the week = the middle of the week (i.e. at the end of the first three and a half years, the sacrifice and the oblation to cease. This is the action of "the little horn" (see 8. 11, 12, 13; 11. 31; 12. 11). This belongs to the time of the end, and will be accompanied by the setting up of the abomination mentioned below and by our Lord in Matt. 24. 15. See Ap. 89 and 90.

and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days 3 Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as 3 was by the side of the great river which is Hiddekel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and beheld a certain 3 man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And 3 Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision: but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a 3 man greatly beloved, understand the words that 3 speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I sent.' And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to 3 chaste thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and 3 am for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia 3 withstood me one and twenty days: but, 10, for the overspreading of—on the wing, or battle-ment of; but Ginsburg suggests 'al konaph — instead of 'al konaph — in its stead [shall be]: i.e. in place of the daily sacrifice. Cp. 11. 7.

abominations he shall make it desolate—the abomination that maketh desolate. See Ap. 90. This is certainly future. See Matt. 24. 15. Our Lord tells us where it will stand 'in the holy place': i.e. in the Temple at Jerusalem: and we have the same admonition to 'understand' (cp. vv. 23, 26, above). Antiochus, typifying the type of 'the little horn', defiled the sanctuary, but he did not destroy it. He cannot therefore be the fuller of this prophecy, though he foreshadowed him. abominations. DANIEL.

Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and 3 remained there with the kings of Persia.

Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy People in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became as one dumb.

16 And, 10 behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips:

then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with my lord this? for as far as, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me,

And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong.' And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he,

Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the 13 prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, 12 lo, the 13 prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but 13 Michael your 13 prince.

11 (Also 3 in the first year of 4 Darius the Made, even I, 1 stood to confirm and to strengthen him.)

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. "Behold, there shall stand up 6 yet 3 kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches shall he stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and 6 not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for 6 others beside those.

5 And 6 the king of the south shall be strong, and 6 one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

But ancient histories "contain much that is admittedly fabulous" (Encycl. Brit., 11th ed., vol. 21, p. 210), and the commentaries based on them differing among themselves are therefore not to be relied on. We know from this verse that there were three, after Cyrus, and of fourth. Whoever he was, he was succeeded by the "mighty king" of v. 4 (Alexander the Great), by his strength through his riches. Some codices, and five early printed editions, read "by strengthening himself in his riches he will stir up" &c.

That there is a break between the past and the future is manifest from 10. 14, of which this chapter is the continuation. Dr. Tragels prefers to make it at v. 5. This would alter the above Structure, and require only two members: A1, v. 1-4, the past; and A3, v. 5-12, future. Those who take vv. 5-20 as belonging to the past do not agree as to the interpretation from history. We give the commonly held view, making the break between vv. 21 and 31.

6 And  in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for  the king's daughter of the south shall come to  the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but  shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against thrones: and he shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and  shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

11. 7.

10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and they shall certainly come, and pass through, and pass through: then shall he return, and he shall be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And of the south shall be moved with cholera, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For of the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall stand up against of the king of the south: also of the robbers of thy People shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So of the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against of him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the islands, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers’ fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army: but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings’ hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

neither in anger. Ginsburg suggests ‘and not with hands’, because it was by poison.

21 a vile person. One of the twelve titles given to the antichrist. See note on 7, 8. The prophecy concerning him is continuous to the end of the chapter. It is parallel with 7, 8, &c.; 8, 9, &c.; and 9—25, 27. He is not another successional king of the north, but is totally different and unique personage, still future. He comes in by ‘flatteries’, and in v. 40 he is attacked by both a ‘king of the south’ and a ‘king of the north’. Note the parallel exhibited in Ap. 89, vile = despicable. Cp. Ps. 15, 4. they shall not give = to whom was not given.

honour = dignity.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall be corrupt by flatteries:

but the people that do know God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by fire, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help:

but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every God, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any God: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for his gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships:

and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

31 pollute the sanctuary. By putting up the "abomination" (the Asherah, Ap. 43), which brings on the judgment of "desolation." The end is marked by the "cleansing of the sanctuary" (8. 14; 9. 24). place the abomination, &c. This accompanies the taking away of the daily sacrifice (8. 13; 9. 27; 12. 11; and Ap. 89). Our Lord refers to this verse in Matt. 24. 15.

37 the desire of women. In view of the context this must refer to any gods desired by women: such as Baaltes, Astarte, or Myllitta of the Babylonians; the Persian Artemis, or the Nana of the Syrians; or the "queen of heaven" of Jer. 7. 18; 44. 17, &c.

Cp.
44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

12 And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that be mighty shall shine as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and they knowledge shall be increased.

5 Then I Daniel looked, and beheld; there stood two others, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swear by Him that liveth for ever and ever;

b that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

L O 8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these wonders?

9 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

44 make away many—devote many (to extermination). Rev. 13. 8.

45 plant—spread out. tabernacles, &c.—palatial tent. come to his end. This could not be said of Antiochus, for he died at Tabae, in Persia. "The wilful king" comes to his end in Judea, between Jerusalem and the Mediterranean Sea: and none shall help him. For he is smitten by God Himself. See Isa. 11. 4. Zech. chs. 12 and 14. 2 Thess. 2. 8. Rev. 19. 20. The grave does not receive him (for Isa. 14. 19 is only a comparison "like") and he is not joined with them in burial. He is cast into the lake of fire.

12 This is not the epilogue to the book. Verses 1–3 are the conclusion of the prophecy given by the hierophant, which commenced at 10. 26. 1 at that time. This fixes the end of the Tribulation. Note the three subjects thus connected with "the time of the end": Michael. See note on 10. 13. children—sons.

NOTES ON THE STRUCTURE OF THE MINOR PROPHETS (Page 1206).

* Called "Minor", not because they are less inspired, or of less importance, but only because the prophecies are shorter.

† The Prophets of the Old Testament are divided in the Hebrew Bible into two groups:
   I. The "Former" Prophets (Joshua to Kings, Zechariah) in unbroken sequence (Daniel being by man's arrangement and nomenclature in the Hagiographa). See Ap. I. II; and therefore by inference,
   II. The "Latter" Prophets (Isaiah to Malachi) in unbroken sequence (Daniel being by man's arrangement and nomenclature in the Hagiographa). See Ap. I. III.

‡ In all Hebrew manuscripts, and printed Hebrew Bibles, the Twelve Minor (or Shorter) Prophets are written, and printed in unbroken sequence; and have always been counted, and have come down to us, as one book.

Just as each Tribe was a separate entity in Israel, and yet all the twelve together formed one Nation, so these Twelve Prophets are combined together to form one book.

As the former (the twelve Tribes) are called "dodekaphulon" = twelve tribes (from dodeca = twelve, and phulē = tribe), Luke 22. 30; Acts 26. 7; and James 1. 1; so the latter (the twelve prophets) are called "dodeca prophētōn" (Ecclesiastics 49. 10). In his praise of "famous men", the writer (Jesus, the son of Sirach) says: "and of the twelve prophets (τὸν δώδεκα προφήτων) let their memorial be blessed, and let their bones flourish again out of their place; for they comforted Jacob (i.e. the twelve-tribed Nation) and delivered them by assured hope."

The Hebrew text of this twelve-volumed book is divided into twenty-one Sedarim (or sections for public reading), and these read on without regard to the beginnings or endings of the separate books, thus showing that the twelve books are to be treated as one book. The twenty-one Sedarim are as follows:

1. Hos. 1. 1—5. 15.
2. " 6. 1—10. 11.
5. Joel 2. 7—Amos 2. 9.
6. Amos 2. 10—5. 15.
10. Mic. 1. 1—4. 4.
15. Zeph. 3. 20—Haggai 2. 22.

From the above twenty-one Sedarim it will be noticed that only four books begin with a Seder (Hosea, Micah, Habakkuk, and Zephaniah); while seven others overlap, and include portions of two books (as in the case of Nos. 5, 8, 9, 12, 15, 16, and 21). See notes on pp. 386 and 618.

§ In seeking for the Structure of their Canonical order as a whole, it will be noted that six are dated (Hosea, Amos,Micah, Zephaniah, Haggai, and Zechariah), and the other six are not dated (Joel, Obadiah, Jonah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Malachi). These twelve are again divided into two groups: nine before the Captivity and three after it. Of the dated prophecies, two contain the names of a King of Israel; two contain Kings of Judah only; and two contain Kings of Medo-Persia only.

|| Thus, three groups are formed, consisting of (1) three books (א'); six books (ב); and three books (ג').

As thus set out on p. 1206, further correspondences will be noted as to the special and general scope of the several prophecies, as indicated by the respective index-letters.

For the Inter-relation of the Prophetic Books, see Ap. 78.

For the Inter-relation of the Minor (or Shorter) Prophets, see pp. 1206 and 1207.
For References to the Pentateuch by the Prophets, see Ap. 92.

HOSEA was a prophet to the Ten Tribes (or Northern Kingdom), but he had warnings for Judah also, as well as promises of future blessings.

His prophecy is dated as being in the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, Kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, King of Israel (1. 1).

The period covered must have been about seventy-two years: for Jeroboam II ended in 687 B.C., in the fourteenth of Uzziah; Uzziah died in 649 B.C., a period of thirty-eight years. If we assume that Hosea prophesied during the last two or three years of Jeroboam, we have, then, say two years; Uzziah, thirty-eight years; Jotham, sixteen years (647-631 = 16); Ahaz, sixteen years (632-616 = 16), a period of seventy-two years to the commencement of Hezekiah (689-617 B.C. = 72). See Ap. 50, pp. 59, 68; and notes on 2 Kings 15. 6, and 17. 13.

The book of Hosea points to the events immediately preceding the fall of Samaria (the capital of the Ten Tribes), which took place in the sixth year of Hezekiah; and the last statement, in 13. 16, is a terrible prophecy of Samaria’s end. This took place in 611 B.C., and Hosea’s latest date would therefore be 613 B.C., if 13. 15 were, say, two years before Samaria’s fall in 611 B.C.

This gives us, for the whole period covered by Hosea’s prophecy, some seventy-six or seventy-eight years (from 689-611 B.C.). See Ap. 50. VII (6), p. 68, and Ap. 77.

If Hosea were, say, twenty when he received his mission, he would be ninety-eight years of age at the destruction of the Northern Kingdom, which ended his prophesying—and probably his life too (cp. Ele, 1 Sam. 4. 16).

Hosea is quoted, in the New Testament, in Matt. 2. 16; 9. 13; 12. 7. Rom. 9. 25, 26. 1 Cor. 15. 55. 1 Pet. 2. 5, 10.
HOSEA.

1. The word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2. The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms:

b. for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

c. So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

D. E. G. 1. And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel;

H. I. for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jothan, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5. And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6. And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah:

2. The beginning, &c. This may be understood not merely of Hosea’s prophecies, but as referring to the fact that Hosea was the first (canonically) of fifteen prophets included in the Hebrew canon. See Ap. 77. by in, as in Num 12. 6, 8. Hab 2. 1. Zech. 1. 9. i.e. through. a wife of whoredoms: i.e. a woman of the national kingdom, and therefore regarded as an idolatress. whoredoms = idolatries. The one term is used for the other by Fig. Metonymy (of the Subject), Ap. 6, because both were characterised by unfaithfulness; the former to a husband, and the latter to Jehovah, Who sustained that relation to Israel (Jer. 31. 20). Cp. 2 Kings 9. 23. 2 Chron. 21. 12. Jer. 5. 2. Ezech. 16. 17-34; 20. 30; 23. 7, 12. Nah. 3. 4. See 4. 2, 12; 5. 3-4; 6. 10; 7. 4, &c. children = offspring. The mother is symbolical of the kingdom, and the offspring of the people. for the land, &c. Note this reason (“E”, above): which explains what is meant by, and gives the interpretation of, “whoredoms”. Ref. to Pent. (Ex. 34. 14. Lev. 17. 7; 20. 5. Num. 15. 32. Deut. 31. 14). Ap. 92. land, Heb. tereb = earth. Put by Fig. Synecdoche (of the Whole), Ap. 6, for the land of Israel. Rendered “land” in 4. 1. Cp. Joel 1. 2, &c. departing, &c. Cp. 4. 10; 7. 8; 8. 11, 14; 10. 1; 12. 14; 13. 9.

3. Gomer = completion (i.e. the filling up the measure of idolatry). Diblaim = a double cake of figs, symbolical of sensual pleasure.

4. Jezreel. Note the Fig. Paronomasia (Ap. 6) between Israel (v. 1) and Jezreel (Heb. يِزَرَعֵל and يِزَرُوع). The name is prophetic of coming judgment (see v. 6) and future mercy. Jezreel is a Homonym, having two meanings: (1) may mean God scatter (Jer. 31. 10) and (2) may mean sow (Zech. 10. 5). These bind up the two prophetic announcements. Jezreel, the fruitful field, had been defiled with blood (2 Kings 9. 16; 25. 33; 10. 11, 14), and Israel shall be scattered, and sow among the nations; but, when God’s counsels are ripe, Israel shall be renown in their own land (see 2. 22, 23). a little while. See the fulfilment in 10. 14. will avenge shall have visited. blood = blood-guiltiness. Jezreel, Here, it is used of the valley where the blood was shed. the house of Jehu. Jehu had carried out the judgment of God on the house of Ahaz, because it accorded with his own will; but he was guilty of murder, because it was not executed purely according to the will of God. He would have disobeyed if it had not served his own interest. This is seen from the fact that he practised Jeroboam’s idolatries, for which Ahaz had been judged. cause to cease, &c. This was fulfilled in 611 B.C. (Ap. 50. V. p. 60). See 2 Kings 18. 11. at that day. i.e. the day of 2 Kings 15. 11. bow. Put by Fig. Metonymy (of the Adjunct), Ap. 6, for the armies of Israel.

5. Lo-ruhamah = not compassionated. Rendered “not beloved” in Rom. 9. 25, and “not having obtained mercy” in 1 Pet. 2. 10. These latter are the Holy Spirit’s Divine interpretation of His own prophecies.
for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, nor by horses, nor by horsemen."

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, "Call his name Lo-ammi:

for ye are not My People, and 3 will not be your God.

10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be 2 as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, "Ye are not My People, there it shall be said unto them, 'Ye are the sons of the living God.'

11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Say ye unto your brethren, 0 Ammi; and to your sisters, 0 Ruhamah.

2 Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not My wife, neither am I 3 her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts:

3 lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, 'I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.'

6 Therefore, 0 behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them:

then shall she say, 'I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me 0 than now.'

Heb. lākhem = to them.

7 Judah. Verse 7 is not an "interpolation", but is a definite and distinctive contrast with the prophecy concerning Israel.

by the LORD their God = by Jehovah their Elohim: i.e. the Messiah, or the angel of Jehovah. See 2 Kings 19, 35. But it looks forward to the future fulfillment, which will exhaust the prophecy in the destruction of antichrist (Isa. 11, 4. 2 Thess. 2, 8. &c.).

Lo-ammi = 0 Not my people.

Hosea.

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away My corn in the time thereof, and My wine and oil, in the season thereof, and will recover My wool and My flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of Mine hand.

11 And I will destroy her vineyards and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, 'These are my rewards that my lovers have given me:' and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

12 I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot Me, saith the LORD.

13 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

14 And I will give her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

15 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call Me Ishi; and shalt call Me no more Baali.

16 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by her name.

17 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.

18 And I will betroth thee unto Me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto Me in righteousness and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

19 I will even betroth thee unto Me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth; And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil, and they shall hear Jezreel.

21 And I will sow her unto Me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not My People, 'Thou art My People;' and they shall say, 'Thou art My God.'
Then said "the LORD unto me, " Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend,
yet an adulteress,
according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, yea, to look to other gods, and love flagons of wine.
I said unto her, "Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee."
I came not to bring the children of Israel to a land of milk and honey, and to give them inheritance, and a land of corn and wine, and to give them inheritance; but I am come to give them inheritance for an inheritable land.
Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and His goodness in the latter days.
Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.
By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and play the whoredom of them that are not of my people.
Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

Do not "play," as in 1. 2, love. Not "take," as in 1. 3, or love again.

a controversy = judicial inquiry and cause.
knowledge = or, acknowledgment. See note on 2. 29. Ap. 4. 6; 5. 4.

2. By swearing, &c. These are the evils which flow from a want of the knowledge of God. Cp. v. 6: 20. Rom. 1. 21. 1 John 2. 3; 4. 7, 8. blood toucheth blood; or, murderer follows murder; "blood" being put for Fig. Sympoideco, Ap. 6, for bloodshed.

the beasts = the very beasts (apbadd).

be taken away = be gathered [into the ranks of the mourners].
4. Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another:

5. Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6. My People are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, Sis will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to Me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, 3 will also forget thy children.

7. As they were increased, so they sinned against Me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8. They eat up the sin of My People, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9. And there shall be, 1 like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

10. For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11. Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart.

12. My People ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13. They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14. I will not punish your daughter when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that both understand shall not understand.

15. Though Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, the Lord liveth.

16. For Israel slieth back as a backsliding

Heather: now the Lord will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love. "Give ye,"

10 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

5 "Hear ye this, O priests: and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king: for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, though 3 have been a rebuker of them all.

P 3 3 know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from Me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for "the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the Lord.

5 And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the Lord; but they shall not find Him; He hath withdrawn Himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions.

Q 8 Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes ofJudah were like them: that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out My wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment.

12 Therefore will 3 be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as 4 rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet a lamb — a young ram of more than a year old.

in a large place — an uncircumcised place: i.e. the lands of the heathen. 17 joined — mated, or united to. 18 sour. Heb. turned, turned back, thrust aside as having turned bad.

Give ye. By the Fig. Metathesis (Ap. 6) the fact of continual whoredom (or idolatrous worship) is changed to the new thought of the rulers loving to continually command, "Give ye [sacrifices]", with contempt for the sacrifices Jehovah commanded. See 8. 13. Thus, the verse is not "in confusion", as alleged.

19 wind, e. = the spirit of whoredoms (v. 12) has bound itself up. Ap. 9.

in her wings = in her skirts (so as to impede her gait), they shall be ashamed. Cp. Isa. 1. 29. Jer. 2. 28.

This verse is not "in confusion", as alleged.

These verses (16-19) are not "scraps", as alleged, but are closely connected with the context. They are required by the Structure "Q" and "Q" on p. 1213.

5. 1 Hear ... O priests. This is a call to the priests and others, as 4. 1-6 was also a call to Israel. See the Structure, "Q" and "O" on p. 1213.

judgment is toward you — judgment is denounced upon you.

Mizpah. There were five places with this name: (1) Now Saf (Gen. 31. 46. Judg. 10. 17; 11. 11, 32; 21. 1. 8). (2) In Moab (1 Sam. 12. 20). (3) The land (or valley) of Moab, now the Bukea's (Josh. 13. 11). (4) In Judah, not identified (Josh. 15. 38). (5) In Benjamin, not identified (Josh. 18. 26. Judg. 22. 1-3; 21. 1. 8. 1 Sam. 7. 5—16; 10. 7. 1 Kings 12. 23. 2 Kings 25. 12, 25. 2 Chron. 16. 6. Neh. 3. 7, 15, 18. Jer. 40. 6-15; 41. 1-16, and in this passage, Hos. 5. 1). Mizpah was a symbol of keeping apart, not of meeting again, as erroneously used to-day.

Tabor is on the west of Jordan and not connected with Ephraim; but Tabor means a mound; so that the idolatrous altar may have been called Mizpah, while Tabor was the "mound" of Gen. 31, both belonging to the same district. Hosea is said to have been buried at Mizpah.

2 revolters = apostates are profound to make slaughter = have deeply designed a slaughter.

though 3 have been, &c. and 3 [will denote] chastisement to them all. The Ellipsis thus supplied explains "these difficult words".

3 Ephraim, the largest of the ten tribes, is put by Fig. Synecdoche (of the Part), Ap. 6, for the whole.

whoredom = idolatry. See note on 1. 2.

5 the pride of Israel. An appellation of Jehovah = the excellency, or the glory of Israel. He in Whom Israel should have gloried; so again in 7. 10. Cp. Amos 8. 7, where it is "the Excellency of Jacob". His: i.e. Ephraim's, or Israel's iniquity. Heb. 'ach. Ap. 44. iv.

12 Therefore will 3 be — For 3 [am] rottenness: or, a worm.

13 king Jareb. Professor Sayce (Higher Criticism and the Hebrew Pentateuch, pp. 416, 417) thinks "Jareb" may be the birth-name of the usurper Sargon II, the successor of Shalmaneser. Shalmaneser did not take Samaria, but his successor did, as stated in an inscription found in the palace which he built near Nineveh. This gets rid of several fanciful hypotheses as to the meaning of "Jareb", besides explaining an historical difficulty. Cp. 10. 6.

could it not heal you, or cure any of your wounds?

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah; I will roar and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 I will go and return to My place, till they acknowledge their offense, and seek My face; in their affliction they will seek Me early.

6 Come, and let us return unto the LORD; for He hath torn, and He will heal us; He hath smitten, and He will bind us up.

2 After two days will He revive us: in the third day He will raise us up, and we shall live in His sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: His going forth is prepared as the morning; and He shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of My mouth: and they judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But they like men have transgressed the covenant; there have they dealt treacherously against Me.

8 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, He hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of My People.

seek My face. Ref. to Pent. (Deut. 4. 29). Ap. 92. seek Me early. This expression, thus found in the Pentateuch, occurs in Job 7. 21; 8. 5; 24. 5. Ps. 63. 1; 74. 3. Prov. 1. 28; 7. 13; 8. 17; 11. 27; 13. 24. Heb. rising up before dawn to seek. Not the same word as in the preceding clause. Supply the ellipse after "after" early. "[they shall say]—Come," etc.

6. 1 let us return. These are the words of Israel in a yet future day, as already symbolized by the return of Gomer (3, 2, 3, and foretold in 3. 5. 15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them, for the wickedness of their doings: I will drive them out of Mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolters.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto Him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself; according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2 Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: shall break down their altars, He shall spoil their images.

3 Or, they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven; for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 Zl shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the throne and the hill shall stand upon their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in My desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground for it is time to seek the LORD, till He come and rain righteousness upon you.
659-611

13 Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten of the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Bethel do unto you because of thy great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

11 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called My son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

3 They taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And My People are bent to backsliding from Me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt Him.

8 How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zebolim? Mine heart is turned within Me, My repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of Mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am GOD, and not a man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD: he shall roar like a lion: when he saith, children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

13 Ye have plowed = Ye have sown. Heb. haranash. Occurs, with this spelling, only here and Judg. 14, 18. The Massorah (Ap. 30 and 85) places it in an alphabetical list of words, occurring twice, with two different meanings (see Ginsburg's Massorah, vol. 1, p. 498, §411). It is therefore a Homonym with one meaning: ye have plowed (Judg. 14, 18); and another, ye have sown (10, 12).

12 Ephraim feeleth on wind, and follows after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do not make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt.

3 He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God: 4 Yea, he had power over the Angel, and prevailed: he went, and made supplication unto Him.

Joel’s prophecy is undated. No references are made to time, because it looks onward to the time of the end, and to the events that will usher in “the Day of the Lord.”

As Hosea was sent to guilty Israel, so Joel was sent to guilty Judah. Hosea’s “burden” relates to the end of the Northern Kingdom; Joel’s prophecy relates to the end of the Kingdom of Judah, and probably covers the last seven years of Zedekiah. In that case he would commence in the fifth year of Jehoiachin’s captivity, the very year that Ezekiel begins, and 100 years after Isaiah ends. If “Joel completed his prophecy before Amos collected his” (as alleged), then, in the period of Uziah-Jeroboam II, which ended in 877 B.C., there is no historical background for Joel’s burning words concerning Judah and the great “Day of the Lord.”

Similar passages in Joel 3, 16 and Amos 1, 2 no more prove that Amos quotes from Joel than they prove that Joel quoted from Amos. The same may be said of Joel 1, 18 and Isa. 13, 6.

In Joel’s summons to fasting and prayer, many as are the classes invited, no mention is made of the royal house; and, throughout his prophecy, no king of Judah is mentioned later than Jehoshaphat, and then only in connection with his “valley.”

But if the period covered by Joel be taken as from 488 to 477 B.C., then we have, as contemporaries:

Jeremiah in Jerusalem;
Joel in Judah;
Daniel in Babylon;
Ezekiel in Babylonia and in the Land.

All prophesying together during the last seven years of the kingdom of Judah.
1. The word of the LORD that came to

2. Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. "Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers? 3. Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4. That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten.

5. Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth. 6. For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion. 7. He hath laid my vine waste, and my fig tree; he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8. Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9. The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn. 10. The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11. Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12. The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13. Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God:

for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

by the locusts. Cp. 2, 5, 11, 16. Rev. 9. My land. So called because Jehovah is about to put it in his hand. The end-time is here referred to, when He will do this: "the day of the Lord." See v. 16, and 2, 1, 2c.

1. 14. Joel.

2. 8. Call to Repentance. (Simple and Extended Alternations)

14—3. Keep a fast, and call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD, 15. Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as the destruction from the Almighty shall it come. 16. Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God? 17. The sun is set and the light is gone, the herd of cattle are perished, because there is no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate. 18. O Lord, to Thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field. 19. The beasts of the field cry also unto Thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

E J Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in My holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble:

K for the day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

L A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3. A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them. 4. The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run. 5. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. 6. Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness. 7. They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks: 8. Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

8 thrust = joust, or press. Heb. shēlāq = missiles, supposed to be "a late word" because not used earlier than Chron. 23. 12; 32. 5. Neh. 4. 17, 23; but it is used in Job 53. 18; 36. 12. Song 4. 13. They shall not, &c. Cp. Rev. 9. 9. The confusion arises from not keeping the symbol distinct from what is symbolized.

be wounded = stop.
9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 And the Lord shall utter His voice before His army: for His camp is very great: for He is strong that executeth His word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

12 Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to Me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God:

14 Who knoweth if He will return and have compassion, and留下 a blessing behind Him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the Lord thy God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the People, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her chamber.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare Thine People, O Lord, and give not Thy heritage to reproach that the heathen should rule over them:

18 Then will I the Lord be jealous for His land, and pity my people.

19 Yea, the Lord will answer and say unto His People, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the wilderness; and he shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

Luke 2. 32); "the days of the Son of Man" were then present (Luke 17. 22). "Afterward" would come the days of the Spirit; and "this is that" which was seen on "the day of Pentecost", when Joel 2. 28, 29 began to be fulfilled. Had the nation repented at the summons of Peter in Acts 3. 14-26, "all things

S 30, 31. Before the day of the Lord.
For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, and will plead with them there for My People and for My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted My land.

And they have cast lots for My People; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

Yea, and what have ye to do with Me, O Tyre, and Sidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render Me a recompence? and if ye recompense Me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompense upon your own head;

Because ye have taken My silver and My gold, and have carried into your temples My goodly pleasant things:

The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them; and will return your recompense upon your own head:

And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabians, to a people far off: for the L ORD hath spoken it.

Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together: there is thither cause Thy mighty ones come down, O L ORD.

Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat:

for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fatted beasts overflown; for their wickedness is great.

Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision:

for the day of the L ORD is near in the valley of decision.

Amos corresponds to Hosea, the link being Jeroboam II (2 Kings 14. 27). See p. 1206. A native of Judah, he prophesied in Israel (1. 1; 7. 10), and against Israel. As Jeroboam II died in the fourteenth year of Uzziah king of Judah, Amos was among the earliest of all the prophets (chronologically). Hence:

The references to Israel's Religious History show that the Law and Commandments were known (2. 4) though not kept, but despised (2. 4); that Israel was oppressive (2. 6), impure (2. 7), luxurious (6. 1-6), idolatrous (2. 8); that they had had earlier prophets (2. 11; 7. 14; 8. 11); that Israel alone knew the true God (3. 2); that Beth-el and Gilgal had been places of transgression (3. 14; 4. 4; 5. 5).

The references to Israel's Internal History show that the nation had once been one (3. 1); that Joseph's history was well known (6. 6); that the high places of Israel were known (7. 9) as was David (8. 5).

The references to Israel's External History show that the Exodus was known (2. 10; 3. 1; 5. 25; 3. 7); that the nation had wandered in the wilderness (2. 10; 5. 25); and were idolaters there (5. 25, 26); that the Amorites had been destroyed (2. 9, 10); that Gilead (1. 12) and Sodom (4. 11) had been destroyed.

The references to the Ceremonial Law show that it could not have been written after the days of Amos. Note the references to Burnt offerings (4. 4; 5. 22), and the Altar of Burnt offerings (9. 1); Meal offerings (5. 22); Peace offerings (5. 22); Thank offerings (4. 5); Free-will offerings (4. 5); Feast days (5. 21); Feast of New Moon (8. 5); the Sabbath laws (8. 5); laws as to debt (8. 6); to vows (2. 11, 13); to baldness for the dead (8. 10); to pledges (2. 8), and many other things.

As to the dating of Amos, it is "concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah and Jeroboam II, two years before the earthquake" (1. 1).

Uzziah and Jeroboam II were contemporary from the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam till the forty-second year; i.e. fourteen years (from 761-687 B.C.). See Ap. 60.

The inference is that the earthquake and Jeroboam's end coincided; and that the "gap" of twenty-four years in the history of Israel (see Ap. 50, p. 50) was caused by, or in some way related to, the earthquake (687 B.C.), and before Zachariah began his reign of six months.

"Two years before the earthquake" would be 689-688 (a jubilee year). At that time prophecy of Amos commenced (689 B.C.). He declared the death of Jeroboam by the sword (7. 11), and the captivity (7. 13), which took place seventy-eight years later (in 611 B.C.).

Possibly he was "chased out" of Israel into Judah by Amaziah the priest of Beth-el, on the charge of treason against Jeroboam (7. 10-11); or he may have remained (most probably) and perished in the earthquake, as there is no reference to that catastrophe, which might be expected, if his prophecies had extended beyond that great landmark in the history of Israel. It would, in that case, follow that the period covered by Amos was during those two years, which would be 689-687 B.C.

The death of Jeroboam II presumably took place before, or about the time of, the earthquake.
THE words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

And he said, "The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither." Thus saith the LORD; "For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four.

I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:

But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kezir, saith the LORD.

6 Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom is the house of Israel come! 2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines; be they better than these kingdoms? or is your border greater than their border? 3 Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near; 4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall; 5 That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, like David: 6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

Therefore shall you go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

The Lord God hath sworn by Himself, saith the Lord the God of Hosts, that I will do this unto thee.

Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the Lord, Whose name is the "God of Hosts."
6. 10. AMOS.

B1 Q1 a1 (p. 1240)

7 Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the midst of the latter generation; and, lo, it was the latter generation after the king's mowings.

b1 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord God, forgive me.

b2 Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech Thee; 2 by whom shall Jacob arise? for his is small.

c1 3 The Lord repented for this: It shall not be, saith the Lord.

Q2 a2

4 Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me: and, behold, he shall call to contend by fire, and it devour the great deep, and did eat up a part.

b2 Then I said, O Lord God, cease, I beseech Thee; 2 by whom shall Jacob arise? for his is small.

c2 5 The Lord repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

Q3 a2

7 Thus He shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plummet, with a plummet in his hand.

b3 And the Lord said unto me, 24 Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plummet.

c3 Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plummet in the midst of my People Israel: I will not again pass by them any more: 9 And the high places of Israel shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, "I am no prophet, neither was I an anointed prophet's son; but the Lord took me as I followed the flock, and the Lord said unto me, 'Go, prophesy unto My People Israel.'"

15 And the Lord said, "There shall be a band of thirty men come from Sechem, and from mount Ephraim, and from3 the great king of Israel; they shall slay thy son, and they shall cut off thine eyes, and they shall slay thy sons by the sword.

16 Now therefore hear thou the word of the Lord: Thus saith the Lord, "A basket of summer fruit."

2 And He said, "Amos, what seest thou?"

And I said, "A basket of summer fruit."

3 And then said the Lord unto me, "The end is come upon My People Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

4 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

5 Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

8 The Lord hath sworn by the Excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord:

And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from My sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set Mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

Here it is fallen down: hence the prophecy here given. In Acts 15 the time had come, had the People obeyed Peter’s call in Acts 8, 13-15. But it was finally rejected (Acts 28, 25-28) and this prophecy, therefore, yet awaits its fulfilment.

For the Canonical order and place of the Prophets, see Ap. 1, and p. 1206.
For the Chronological order of the Prophets, see Ap. 77.
For the Inter-relation of the Prophetic Books, see Ap. 78.
For the Formulae of Prophetic utterance, see Ap. 82.
For References to the Pentateuch by the Prophets, see Ap. 92.
For the Inter-relation of the Minor (or Shorter) Prophets, see pp. 1206 and 1207.

The Minor Prophets do not profess to be chronological. The order seems to be logical; hence, Obadiah corresponds with Joel, and takes up Joel’s theme, and shows (by contrast) what Joel’s “day of the Lord” shall be for Israel’s enemies. See pp. 1206-7. Edom is the one enemy in Joel (3.19) as in Obadiah: indeed, from the first, Gen. 27.39, 40 was fulfilled (see notes on Kings 22.47 and 2 Kings 8.20-22. 2 Chron. 21.8-10). After that we find prophecies against Edom (Isa. 34.5-17. Jer. 49.17-22. Ezek. 25.12-14; 35; and Obadiah).

The correspondence between Jer. 49 and Obadiah may be thus shown:

Obad. 6 = Jer. 49. 10.
Obad. 8 = Jer. 49. 16.
Obad. 9 = Jer. 49. 22.

The two prophecies are independent and original. There is no need to discuss which of the two quoted the other, or whether both refer to an earlier prophet. All beyond the Scripture record is conjecture.

That Obadiah gives details which are complementary may well be explained by the Fig. Hysterēsis (Ap. 6).

For the partial fulfillment of the prophecy, see the notes.

The prophecy of Obadiah is undated; but, from the internal evidence, referred to above, it was almost certainly subsequent to the captivity of Jehoiachin (498-8 b.c.), or to the destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, and the end of Judah. This would bring it to either 492 b.c. or 472 b.c.
1 THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord God concerning Edom; I said, We have heard a rumour from the Lord, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despaired.

3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, that thou dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

5 If itfiefes came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? If the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

6 How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the Lord, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou standest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction: neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of My people in the day of their calamity: yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

NOTES ON THE STRUCTURE OF JONAH (PAGE 1246).

For the Canonical order and place of the Prophets, see Ap. 1, and p. 1206.
For the Chronological order of the Prophets, see Ap. 77.
For the Inter-relations of the Prophetic Books, see Ap. 78.
For the Formulae of prophetic utterance, see Ap. 82.
For References to the Pentateuch by the Prophets, see Ap. 92.
For the Inter-relations of the Minor (or Shorter) Prophets, see pp. 1206-7.

The clue to the date is given in 1:1: which, by comparison with 2 Kings 14.25, falls within the time of Jeroboam II and the earlier years of Uzziah: therefore about 860 a.c. (see Ap. 50, p. 59).

Modern critics are practically unanimous in declaring that the book is a "combination of allegory and myth". But the fact that Jonah the prophet was a historic personage is settled by 2 Kings 14.25. And the fact that the prophecy, with its great miracle, was referred to by Christ as a type of Himself, places the book in an as high a position as any other prophecy.

The Century Bible says that "we are not to conclude that the literal validity of the history of Jonah is established by this reference" (note on Matt. 12.40, p. 206). But, apart from the fact that the Lord referred to the Queen of Sheba in the very next sentence, and thus places Jonah on the same level of "literal validity", the question is placed beyond all controversy by the further fact that seven times in John's Gospel the Lord declared that everyone of His words that He uttered was given Him to speak by the Father (see below). Those who strike at these words of Christ are striking at God Himself, and are making the whole of Divine Revelation of none effect. All the puerile and fanciful assumptions used for arguments are swept away with one stroke, and are overwhelmed by this decisive and conclusive fact. Modern critics must now perforce find the answers to their own objections. We need not be at the pains to repeat the refutation of their assumption, that, because certain words have not been required or necessitated by the subjects of the earlier Scriptures, therefore such words did not exist before, and are thus evidences of the book's being written at a later period of time. Only a mind already hostile could invent such a proposition, and only those who are ignorant of "the laws of evidence" could make use of it.

The prophecy of Jonah is literal history, and is besides a twofold type.

(1) He was a type of the death, burial, and resurrection of our Lord: see Matt. 12.40, where the "as" and the "so" are sufficient to show us that a man's being miraculously kept alive for a particular period can be no type of another's being dead and buried for the same period.

As our Lord was raised from the dead at the end of that period (see Ap. 156), so Jonah must have been, as miraculously, raised from the dead.

Jonah's prayer could have been uttered in the last few moments of life. In any case the words of the prayer were not written down till after he had been vomited up alive (Jonah 2:1-10).

(2) "As Jonah was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of Man be to this generation" (Luke 11.30). That generation were as grieved and angry at the faith and repentance of those to whom the resurrection of our Lord was proclaimed, as Jonah was at the repentance of the Ninevites.

Both these types were hidden in the history by the One Who knew the end from the beginning, and are declared to be so by Him of Whom Jehovah said, "I will put My words in His mouth".

Seven times in John's Gospel our Lord testified to the fulfillment of that promise—

"My doctrine (i.e. teaching) is not Mine, but His that sent Me" (7.16).

"As My Father hath taught Me, I speak these things" (8.28).

"Why do ye not believe Me? He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God" (8.40, 42).

"I have not spoken of (or from) Myself: but the Father which sent Me, He gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak" (12.49).

"The words that I speak unto you I speak not of (i.e. from) Myself: but the Father that dwelleth in Me" (14.10).

"The word which ye hear is not Mine, but the Father's Which sent Me" (14.24).

"I have given unto them the words which Thou [the Father] gavest Me" (17.8).

The Century Bible (Jonah; Introduction, p. 200) may say: "It is humiliating for a commentator to collect doubtful stories of sailors swallowed by sharks and vomited out alive." There is truth in this. But if we recognise the fact that the word "alive", includes the thought of resurrection, then we have ample evidence that this is conveyed and taught by the "as" and "so" in Matt. 12.40. In any case we have to remember the words of Jehovah in Deut. 18.18, 19: "I will put My words in His mouth, and He shall speak unto them all that I shall command Him. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken to My words which He shall speak in My name, I will require it of him." We leave the question with these solemn words: "It will require it of him."

The notes will show us Jonah, not as a wayward, thoughtless child, but as a "man of God", willing to sacrifice himself (mistakenly, of course) in order to save his nation. He knew that Assyria at that time was in great difficulties. There is a silence of eighteen years in Assyrian history at that time, and the surrounding nations were beginning to assert themselves. Jonah had just been commissioned to encourage Israel to a restored position (2 Kings 14.25, 26). He must have known also that Nineveh (Assyria) was to be Jehovah's rod of judgment for Israel. He knew the well-known character of Jehovah, and feared that if he made Jehovah's proclamation Nineveh might repent, and her overthrow be averted. See Jehovah's words (4.1). If, however, for the sake of his nation, he did not make the proclamation at all, Nineveh might be overthrown and Israel saved. He was mistaken, and had to be corrected (ch. 4.4-11).

The great lesson of the book is—not "Jehovah's care for children and cattle", &c., but that the devices of men shall not frustrate His purpose, and that what He hath said shall surely come to pass.

That is the lesson which gives to the book a dignity and importance which is worthy of it, and of its place in the Word of God.
JONAH.

1. 1 the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2. Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city; and cry against it: for their wickedness is come up before me.

3. But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

4. But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea,

5. so that the ship was like to be broken. And the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his God, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6. So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.'

3. rose up to flee. Jonah knew that Assyria was to be God's sword of judgment against Israel. If Nineveh perished, Israel might be saved. God's mercy might arrest this overthrow of Nineveh. Was this why Jonah would sacrifice himself to save his nation? This would explain his flight here, and his displeasure, as clearly stated in 4. 1-3. When he said (v. 2), 'Take me up', &c., he had counted the cost. He confesses to the men (v. 9, 10), but not to God. He gave his life to save his People. The type of Christ may have begun here. See Gn. 3:13; and cp. Rom. 9:1-3.

   Professor Rawlinson has shown that just at this time Nineveh was in a state of trouble, and Assyrian history was neighbouring countries; as in Gen. 24. 13, 2 Sam. 7. 15, 1 Chron. 19. 2, 2 Chron. 6. 14. Ps. 106, 4, 8, 11, 17, &c.;

MICAH.

1 THE word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaiz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that is therein; and say to the Lord, "Is it not Samaria? and are the high places of Judah which are they not Jerusalem?"

3 For behold, the Lord cometh forth out of His place, and will come down, and trend upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under Him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah which are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered all the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.

9 For her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of My people, even to Jerusalem.

MICAH.

7. O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the Lord strained? are these His doings? do not My words do good to him that walketh uprightly?

8. Even of late My People is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9. The women of My People have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children ye have taken away My glory for ever.

10. Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11. If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12. I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13. The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the Lord on the head of them.

3. And I said, "Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel: Is it not for you to know judgment?

2. Who have not behaved the good, but the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3. Who also eat the flesh of My People, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4. Even shall they cry unto the Lord, but He will not hear them: He will even hide His face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings."

5. Thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that make My People "err," that "bite with their teeth," and "cry, Peace;" and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

6. "Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision, and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7. Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God."

8. But truly I am full of power of the Spirit of the Lord, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9. Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10. They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us."
12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

4 But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above all the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, "Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths:" for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 But you shall sit ever man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For all peoples will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted:

7 And I will make her that halteth a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion henceforth, even for ever.

8 And in that day, with song, you shall throw a tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counselor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail:

11 for now shalt thou go out from the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon;

12 there thou shalt be delivered; there shall the LORD redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

13 And Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.
11 Now also "many nations are gathered against thee, that say, "Let her be defiled, and let our "eye look upon Zion.”

12 But "they know not the "thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they His "counsel:
for He shall gather them as the shews into the floor.

13 Arise and "thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine "horn iron, and I will make thy "hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and "I will "consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the LORD of the whole earth.

5 "Now go "thryselth in troops, O daughter of troops: the hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 "But thou, "Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall "He come forth unto me That is "to be ruler in Israel: Whose goings forth have been from of old, from "ever-lasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that "she which travaileth hath brought forth:

4 And "He shall stand and "feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD His "God; and "they shall abide: for now "shall He be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And "this Man shall be the peace, when the "Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, "then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal "men.

6 And they shall "waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and "the land of Nimrod in the "entrances thereof:

7 Thus shall He deliver us from the Assyrian, "when He cometh into our land, and "when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people "as "a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarryth not for "man, nor waiteth for the sons of "men.

8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many "people "as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.
9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more sorcerers:

13 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee:

so I will destroy thy cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.”

6 Hear ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD’S controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth:

for the LORD hath a controversy with His People, and He will plead with Israel.

3 O My People, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against Me.

4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O My People, remember now what Baalak king of Moab consulted, and what Balak the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

6 Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and how shall I appease His high God? shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORD’S voice crieth unto the city.
the man of wisdom shall see Thy name—[such as would have] true stability (or safety) will regard Thy name. The Mughah Codex, quoted in the Massorah (Ap. 30), reads: "such as revere".

Thy. The Sept. reads: "and He (the Lord) will save such as revere His name".

rod. Heb. נַפְשָׁה (staff for support or chastisement), Not the same word as in 5:1; 7:14. Either put by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause), Ap. 6, for the chastisement inflicted, or supply the Ellipsis thus: "hear ye the rod and [Him] Who hath appointed [the chastisement]." The suffix of the verb, "it," is fem.; while "rod" is masc. Therefore we may supply "chastisement" (Heb. הֹשֶׁה, which is fem.

Verse 7 gives the true remedy ("S") in contrast with the vain remedies of vv. 5, 6 ("S").
7 Therefore will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against Him, until He plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: He will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold His righteousness.

10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and they that hate me shall shame; because I shall be confident in the day of trouble, and shall sing praises unto God.

11 In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the Lord decree that it shall be found her: and thine eyes shall behold it; and they shall be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

12 Feed Thy People with Thy rod, the flock of Thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

13 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I shew unto him marvellous things; things past ages, things as yet unpublished, things to ear.

14 The nations shall see and confound at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, and their ears shall be deaf.

15 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of Thee.

16 Who is a God like unto Thee? Who pardoned transgression for the remnant of His heritage? He retaieth not His anger for ever, because He delighteth in mercy.

17 He will turn again, He will have compassion upon us: He will subdue our iniquities; and Thou wilt cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

18 Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which Thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

Nahum concludes the seven pre-captivity Prophets, being the last of the second group of three; and corresponding with Jonah, which also has Nineveh for its subject. See the Structure (p. 1206).

Some eighty-seven years before, Jonah had proclaimed Jehovah's favour to Nineveh, which had prolonged its existence till now, when Nahum's prophecy of coming judgment was fulfilled without further delay.

Nahum is undated; but, if 1.11 refers primarily to the Rab-shakeh (as we believe it does) of 2 Kings 18.25-28, then we have a clue of great importance, for that speaks of the fourteenth year of Hezekiah, and gives us the date as 603 B.C.

The Rab-shakeh—the chief of the captains, was apparently a renegade Jew, and a "counsellor" high in favour with the Assyrian king (Sennacherib). He was apparently, as to office, similar to our "Political Officer" in the Indian Frontier campaigns. He insisted on speaking to the common People on the wall in the Jews' language; indicating a freedom in the use of Hebrew that would scarcely be possessed by an Assyrian ambassador.

The Rab-shakeh's words certainly show a deadly animosity towards Jehovah; which is borne out by Nah. 1.11, and Pss. 120.2; 123.3. See Ap. 67.

If this be correct, then we may date Nahum as living and prophesying in 603 B.C.
NAHUM.

1. 1 burden. Cp. Isa. 13., 1—27. 13. See the Structure, p. 980, and Habakkuk. = A prophetic oracle: or, the prophetic doom of Nineveh, written about ninety (603-514 = c.c.) years before Nineveh’s doom; and while the Assyrian Empire was at its height. The doom of Nineveh came therefore 176 years after Jonah’s mission. The prophecy was addressed to Nahum’s own People, but as a menace to Nineveh.

2. GOD is jealous, and the Lord revengest; the Lord revengest, and is furious; the Lord will take vengeance on His adversaries, and reserveth wrath for His enemies.

3. 2 The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked:

4. The Lord hath His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet.

5. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

6. The mountains quake at Him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at His presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

7. Who can stand before His indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of His anger? His fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are taken down by Him.

8. But with an overrunning flood He will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue His enemies.

9. What do ye imagine against the Lord? ye will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10. For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11. There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the Lord, a wicked counsellor.

12. Thus saith the Lord; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through.
 Though I have afflicted thee, I will affright thee no more.

For now will I break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thine bonds in sunder.

And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the empieters have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

He shall recount his worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

And Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall be gathered.
Only Jehovah. Read "hostilis", or "hostile", for emphasis. Cp. Isa. 47. 9.

9 Teach ye the spoil of silver, the spoil of gold: for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of all them gather blackness.

11. Where is the dwelling of the old lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12. The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his dens with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13. Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions; and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

3 Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not:

2. The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pruning horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3. The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses:

4. Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5. Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6. And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazlingstock.

And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than No, that lead her—mourn for, or bemoaning.

THE STRUCTURE OF THE BOOK AS A WHOLE.

(Division.)

| F2 | A1 | 1.1—2.20. THE BURDEN OF HABAKKUK. |
| A2 | 3.1—12. THE PRAYER OF HABAKKUK. |

For the Canonical order and place of the Prophets, see Ap. 1, and pp. 1206 and 1207.
For the Chronological order of the Prophets, see Ap. 77.
For the Inter-relation of the Prophetic Books, see Ap. 78.
For the Formulae of Prophetic Utterance. See Ap. 82.
For References to the Pentateuch by the Prophets, see Ap. 92.
For the Inter-relation of the Minor (or Shorter) Prophets, see pp. 1206 and 1207.

Of Habakkuk (pronounced Ḥabak'kūk) nothing can be really known beyond what he says of himself. From this it is clear that he lived in evil days, and was perplexed with the silence and forbearance of a holy God in permitting the evil to continue. Cp. Ps. 73.

His prophecy takes the form of a colloquy with Jehovah; and Jehovah answers his cry by revealing the fact that a time will come when the evil will be visited upon Judah by the Chaldaean successors of Assyria (1. 6), and by the Dispersion of Judah (1. 2—11).

The prayer in chap. 3 is very important as being a summary of Jehovah's dealings with His People from the passage of the Red Sea to the prophet's own time.

The prayer is important also, as being the model (together with Isa. 38), outside the Psalter, of the proper construction of a Psalm, with (1) the super-scription, (2) the text, and (3) sub-scription (see Ap. 66); and also, of the meaning and use of the word "Selah" (Ap. 66. 11).

The prophecy is undated; but we have a clue afforded in 1. 5. 6. It is given to Habakkuk before the fall of Nineveh, which placed Babylon at the head of the Gentile world. According to traditional or "received" dating, this took place in 625 B.C., but, according to the chronology given in Ap. 65, it was 518 B.C., i.e. 110 years later.

If the hints given in 1. 5, 11 are to be accepted on the above lines, we may date the prophecy of Habakkuk as being given (as a whole), or at any rate commenced, in the year with which Jeremiah begins: viz. in the thirteenth year of Josiah, 518 B.C., i.e. three years before the destruction of Nineveh.

In this case, supposing one among those Habakkuk addressed to be twenty years old, he would be forty-two in Jehoiakim's fourth year and Nebuchadnezzar's first. At the carrying away to Babylon he would be forty-nine; and at the destruction of Jerusalem he would be sixty-one.

1. 1—2. 20 (A. p. 1266). THE BURDEN OF HABAKKUK. (Alternation.)

   A | 1. 12—2. 1. The prophet's cry.

1. burden. See note on Neh. 1. 11 did see. The Heb. accent places the chief pause on this verb to emphasise the fact that the giving of the vision was of more importance than what was revealed by it. A second and lesser pause is placed on "burden", leaving "Habakkuk" as being less important. The verse therefore should read, "The burden which he saw, Habakkuk the prophet".

2 LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II. cry=cry for help in distress; as in Ps. 18. 4; 22. 24. 4. Ap. 19. 7. Jer. 20. 1. Showing that the cry is not personal, but made in the name of all who suffered from the evil times. cry out=cry with a loud voice, implying the complaint.

Iniquity=oppression, or injustice. Heb. 'amal. Ap. 44. v.

There are that raise up. A reading is found in some codices (named in the Massorah), "I had to endure", strife and contention. There should not be a comma after "strife", as in the R.V. The Heb. accents indicate the one act, "and contention rising up", like "spoil and violence are before me" in the preceding clause.

The wicked=a lawless one: looking forward from the Chaldeans to the future Antichrist. Heb. rasha'. Ap. 44. x. the righteous=the just one (Art. with Heb. 'eth) wrong=perverted.

live: i.e. live for ever in resurrection life. See note on Lev. 18. 8. The wicked go on living, without faith, if it refers to this life; therefore "live" must refer to a future life. The Heb. seevel place the emphasis on "shall live"; not "the just by his faith", but "a just one, by his faith, will live", and make the contrast not between faith and unbelief, but between the fate of each—perishing and living for ever. In Rom. 1. 17 the context places the emphasis on "the righteous"; in Gal. 3. 11 it is placed on "faith".

the revelings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached People, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of My People shall spoil them, and the remnant of My People shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the People of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for He will smite all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship Him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 If Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by My sword.

13 And He will stretch out His hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for He shall uncover the cedar work.

15 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, 3 am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

3 Woe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!

2 She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God. 3 Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law. 5 The just LORD is in the midst thereof; He will not do iniquity: every morning doth He bring His judgment to light, He faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant. 7 I said, Surely thou wilt fear Me, thou wilt receive instruction; so their dwelling shall not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

8 Therefore wait ye upon Me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for My determination is against the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them Mine indignation, even all My fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of My jealousy.
9 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve Him with one consent.

10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia My suppliants, even the daughter of My dispersed, shall bring Mine offering.

11 In that day shall thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against Me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of My holy mountain.

12 I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor People, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

13 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

14 Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, He hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee:

16 Thou shalt not see evil any more.

17 The LORD thy God is in the midst of thee a mighty; He will save, He will rejoice over thee with joy; He will rest in His love, He will joy over thee with singing.

18 I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.

19 Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee; and I will save her that haleth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.

20 At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

Between Zephaniah and Haggai lay the seventy years' captivity in Babylon.

Haggai was the first prophet by whom "God spake" after the Return. Heb. 1. 1, and Ap. 96.

His prophecy is dated "in the second year of Darius" (Hystaspis), sixteen years after the decree of Cyrus, see Ap. 57; and therefore in the year 410 B.C., from the sixth to the ninth month; covering a period of about four months. See Ap. 50, p. 67, and Ap. 77.

There were four distinct messages:
1. The first, on the first day of the sixth month, 1. 1-11.
2. The second, on the twenty-first day of the seventh month, 2. 1-9.
3. The third, on the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, 2. 10-19.
4. The fourth, on the same day as the third, 2. 20-23.

Zechariah's prophecy began midway between Haggai's second and third messages. See Zech. 1. 1.

1 The message in 1. 13 is not a dated message, but it refers to the time when Jehovah stirred up the spirit of obedience in Zerubbabel, recorded in v. 14, twenty-three days after the delivery of Haggai's first message; nearly a month before the second message (2. 1-9).
HAGGAI

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, came the word of the Lord by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying, (1)

2 Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, This People say, The time is not come, the time that the Lord's house should be built. (2)

3 Then said Haggai, If one man amongst you were to build an oven of straw and hay, would he not cease to undertake the work because of this? (3)

4 So now consider the house of the Lord your God, and the fate of this People. (4)

5 Now therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts; Consider your ways. (5)

6 Ye have sown much, and brought in little; (6)

7 For ye have eaten, and ye have not been filled; for ye have drunk, and ye were not satisfied; but ye have sown much, and ye have not gathered in, for the Lord smote the land. (7)

8 Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is withholdeth her fruit. (8)

9 And I called for a drought upon the land and the mountains, and on the grain, and on the new wine, and on the oil, and upon all the fruit of the ground, and upon all the labours of the hands of man, from this time even to this, saith the Lord. (9)

10 For I smote you with a famine in the land, so that ye are diseased, and the remnant of Israel consumes; (10)

11 And I have broken thee in drawing water for thy seed; (11)

12 And I have given thy bread for food to thy adversaries; and all thy labours have I given unto thy adversaries; yet ye have not returned unto me, saith the Lord. (12)

13 Therefore the house of the Lord shall be built in this place, and to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord; and I will hear again the prayer of Israel, and I will bless them. (13)

14 Yet now, consider from this day forward, from the four and twentieth year even to the twenty-fourth year, the word of the Lord has come to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying, (14)

15 Who is among you that would work? Here is the stone, say ye; the master-builders have it despised. (15)

16 Therefore the word of the Lord came by the hand of Haggai, saying, (16)

17 This is the message which the Lord hath spoken concerning this house: (17)

18 In the four and twentieth year of our captivity, in the first month, the word of the Lord came to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying, (18)

19 Go up to the hills, and take wood from thence, and build the house of the Lord which is at Jerusalem. (19)

20 Then spake Haggai, the word of the Lord, saying, (20)

21 Is it a time for ye to dwell in your barns, and not to build the house of the Lord? (21)

22 Therefore the Lord of hosts hath the disapprobation of this people; (22)

23 Therefore the Lord of hosts shall smite all the people of the land with cancer and leprosy. (23)

24 Ye have sown much, and brought in little; ye have eaten, and ye have not been filled; for the Lord smote the land. (24)

25 Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is withholdeth her fruit. (25)

26 And I smote you with the drought upon the land, and the mountains, and on the grain, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon all the fruit of the ground, and upon all the labours of the hands of man, from this time even to this. (26)

27 Yet now, consider from this day forward, from the four and twentieth year even to the twenty-fourth year, the word of the Lord has come to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying, (27)

28 Who is among you that would work? Here is the stone, say ye; the master-builders have it despised. (28)

29 Then spake Haggai, the word of the Lord, saying, (29)

30 Go up to the hills, and take wood from thence, and build the house of the Lord which is at Jerusalem. (30)

31 Then the word of the Lord came by the hand of Haggai, saying, (31)

32 Speak ye among the people, saying, The word of the Lord is upon the lips of him that speaketh, and the spirit of the Lord is upon him that heareth. (32)

33 But ye, O high places, prepared by the hands of reapers, sit ye alone upon every high hill; in the low place shall all the hosts of heaven, even the host of the cloud, be evermore upon you. (33)

34 And Haggai spake to the Lord, saying, I have heard the voice of the people which is speaking against me. (34)

35 To whom will ye liken me, or what shall I liken unto you, saith the Lord? (35)

36 What can be compared to me? says the Lord. (36)

37 What thing is this, saith the Lord, which ye have spoken of against me? (37)

38 Behold, I have shaken the heaven and the earth. (38)

39 And I will shake all nations, and the fruit of the earth shall be consumed, and the fruit of the trees shall be cut down, saith the Lord. (39)

40 But if ye will return, and keep my commandments; (40)

41 Then shall ye eat in the land, and the old wine and the new will go into your barns, and the oil and the honey will be in your houses: and ye shall dwell in the land that I gave unto your fathers; (41)

42 But if ye will not hear, I will smite, even to the consumption of the children. (42)

43 And I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will smite thee most grievously. (43)

44 And I will also smite the children of your people; and they shall fall by the sword and by famine; and I will deliver them to be a prey to all their enemies; (44)

45 For I will stretch out mine hand against them, saith the Lord, and I will bring all the hosts of heaven upon them from nations far and near; and I will smite them with the edge of the sword, my terror, and with the fire of my wrath, and with the smoke of them all. (45)
11 "And I called for a drought upon the land,
12 and upon the mountains,
13 and upon the corn,
14 and upon the new wine,
15 and upon the oil,
16 and upon that which the ground bringeth forth,
17 and upon men,
18 and upon cattle,
19 and upon all the labour of the hands."

12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all "the remnant of the People, 13 obeyed the voice of the LORD their "God,
14 and of the words of Haggai the prophet,
15 "as the LORD their "God had said to him, and the People did fear before the LORD.

F 13 Then spake Haggai "the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the People, saying, "Am I with you, saith the LORD?"

F 14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the People; and "they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their "God,

Yet now will I be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong, all ye People of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for with am I with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

Not "convert"; but shake violently, as in Ex. 40. 21; 7. 12. Jer. 10. 19, &c. and. Note the Fig. Polymenadon (Ap. 9): emphasising the universality of this last shaking, in contrast with all former shakeings. It refers to the great tribulation (Matt. 24. 29, 30). Cp. Zech.1.1 prophecy is dated (1.1) "in the eighth month in the second year of Darius" (Hystaspis) (410 b.c.); sixteen years after the Decree of Cyrus. It thus comes midway between Haggai's second and third messages. See notes on p. 1277.

His last date is in the fourth year of Darius (7.1).

The Temple was completed in the sixth year of Darius, and was dedicated in Adar (Ap. 51), 405 B.C. The first Passover, and the last Feast of Tabernacles were in 404 B.C. (see p. 617, Ap. 56, and Neb. 9). This marks the close of Zech.1's dated Prophecies; but, as Zech.1 really closes the O.T. (see Ap. 77.2), his prophecies would extend to and cover the latest date in the O.T., which is the eighth year of Darius Hystaspis in the year 403 B.C. (see Ezra 10.17 and Ap. 58). The whole period therefore covered by the book of Zech.1 is seven years, 410—403 B.C. (Ap. 77).
ZECHARIAH.

1. 1 In the eighth month, &c. See note on p. 1280. Modern critics first assume that the day ought to be named, and then further assume that it has "fallen out accidentally." Darius. Darius (Hystaspis). See Ap. 57. Berechiah = Remembered of Jehovah. Hebrew Jehovah. Ap. 4, II. Zechariah = Blessed of Jehovah. Ap. 23, 23. This prophet would be the one referred to by the Lord, unless the father of the Zechariah of Chron. 24, 20, 21 had more than one name, which was sometimes the case. See Esau's wives (Gen. 26, 34; 28, 9; 36, 2, 3). The latter would be the last (and Abel the first in the O.T.), according to the place of Chronicles in the Heb. Canon (see Ap. 1). For descendant. It is characteristic of this book: twenty-nine times it is with the verbs saith or speaketh. All are referred to in the notes. Turn = Return. Note the Fig. Epiménon (Ap. 6), in vv. 5-6, in which the fact is emphasised by dwelling upon it as the cause of all Jehovah's displeasure.

4 And the *angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a "man that is wakened out of his sleep.

2 And said unto me, "What seest thou?" And I said, "I have looked, and *behold, a *candle-it, and his seven lamps thereon, and *seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:"

4 So I answered and spake to the *angel that talked with me, saying, "What are these, *my lord?"

5 Then the *angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, "Knowest thou not what there be?" And I said, "No, *my lord."

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, "This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, ‘Not by *might, *nor by *power, but by My "Spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou? O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof, with shoutings, crying, ‘Grace, grace unto it."

8 Then said I, "Who are the seven pipes that run forth among the whole earth."

A

11 Then answered I, and said unto him, "What are these two *candle trees upon the right side of the *candlestick and upon the left side thereof?"

12 And I answered again, and said unto him,
"What be these two *olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?"

13 And he answered me and said, "Knowest thou not what these be?" And I said, "No, *my lord."

14 Then said he, "These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth."
5. Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes; and, lo, behold, a flying roll: 2 And he said unto me, "What seest thou?" And I answered, "I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits." 3 Then said he unto me, "This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it. 4 I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by My name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house; and shall consume it with the timbers thereof and the stones thereof. 5 Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, "Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth." 6 And I said, "What is it?" And he said, "This is an ephah that goeth forth." He said moreover, "This is their resemblance through all the earth." 7 And behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead; and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah. 8 And he said, "This is wickedness." And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof. 9 Then lifted I up mine eyes; and looked, and behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven. 10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, "Whither goest thou with the ephah?" 11 And he said unto me, "To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base." 6 And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

"if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

If ye will, &c. This condition was not fulfilled; for the command to "repeat" (the one condition of national restoration), given by John the Baptist (Matt. 3. 1, 2; Messiah (Matt. 4. 17); and Peter (Acts 2. 38; 3. 19), was not waited for; and this promise therefore remains for an obedience that is yet future. The verse therefore is not "left unfinished" as alleged.

P s 4 "Thus saith "the LORD my "God; "Eat the flock "of the slaughter; mighty = honourable, or majestic ones.

forest of the vintage = the inaccessible forest.
3 shepherds = the rulers of the State.
young lions. The rapacious nobles.
4 Thysaith = Thus hath said the LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II.
v. Feed = Tend. Zechariah is to represent a good shepherd, and is sent to shepherd the People whose rulers destroyed them (rev. 5, 14).
5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty; and they that sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich'; and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock 'of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock.' And I took unto me two 'staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I 'cut off in one month; and my soul abhorred them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, 'I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one of the flesh of another.'

10 And I took my staff, even 'Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, "If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear." So they weighed for my price 'thirty pieces of silver.

13 And 'the LORD said unto me, "Cast it unto the potter: a 'goodly price that I was 'prised at of them." And I took the 'thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even 'Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

Ps 15 And 'the LORD said unto me, "Take unto thee yet the 'instruments of a 'foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the 'young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor 'feed that 'that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Woe to the 'idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword 'shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be 'clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly 'darkened.'

12 The 'burden of the word of 'the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, 'Which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and 'formeth the 'spirit of 'man within him, and 'trembleth 'unto all the 'people round about, and 'formeth 'the spirit within him, and "Behold, 3 will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the 'people round about.

5 am rich—am become rich, [and therefore can sell them cheaply].

6 saith the LORD—[is] Jehovah's oracle.

7 And I will feed—So I [Zechariah] tended.

8 staves. Which shepherds use; the crook or staff, and the club. See note on Ps. 23, 4.

Beauty = Graciousness. Bands = Union.

9 cut off = sent off. They are unnamed.

10 people = peoples: i.e. here, tribes.

11 the poor of the flock = the sheep-traffickers; as v. 5, 7, waited upon = were watching me (1 Sam. 1, 19; 19, 11. Ps. 59, title).

12 price = wage.

13 thirty pieces of silver. The damages for injury done to a servant. Ref. to Pent. (Ex. 21, 30). This is not the passage referred to in Matt. 27, 9. See Ap. 161. That was "spoken" by Jeremiah; this was written by Zechariah.

14 Cast it. As in Gen. 21, 15. 2 Chron. 24, 10.

unto the potter. The Syr. reads "into the treasury": potter = fashioner. The material cast to, so as to be used by, the fashioner determines the meaning of the word (Heb. ydpzr). If clay, then a potter (Jer. 18, 4; 19, 1). If stone, then a jeweller, or mason (Ex. 31, 9. 1 Sam. 5, 11. 1 Chron. 22, 15). If wood, then a carpenter (2 Sam. 5, 11. 2 Kings 12, 11. 1 Chron. 14, 1. Isa. 44, 12). If iron, then a smith (2 Chron. 12, 12. Isa. 44, 12). If gold, then a goldsmith (Hos. 8, 6). If silver, then a silversmith (Hos. 13, 2). The casting of silver to a potter was as incongruous as casting clay to a silversmith. See Ap. 161. Goodly = ample. Used of a wide garment. There is no evidence of irony here or elsewhere in Zechariah. The Heb. yeder denotes size and magnitude, as in Jonah 1, 6 and Mic. 2, 8. Priced = priced, of them: i.e. by them. But some codices read "by you".

15 instruments = implements.

foolish = worthless. Judah and Israel had rejected these, and later on they rejected Messiah the good Shepherd; hence the threatening in vv. 16, 17.

16 10. Fig. Ast erosomos. Ap. 6. This looks forward to the Antichrist; for one of his titles is "the idol shepherd" of v. 17.

that which be cut off = the perishing.

the young one = the straying.

that is broken = the wounded.

feed = nourish.

that standeth still = the weak.

17 idol = idol'. For the sequel to this prophecy see 13, 7–9.

clean dried up = withered.

darkened = blinded.

Which stretcheth forth, &c. The omnipotence of Jehovah is the guarantee that His word will be carried out. Cp. Isa. 42, 5; 44, 24; 45, 12, 18; 48, 13.

2 Behold. Fig. Ast erosomos. Ap. 6.
when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all 2 people: all that 6 burden themselves with it shall be 6 cut in pieces, though all the 2 people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open Mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the 2 people with blindness.

V 5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their 6 God.

W 6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an 5 fire of among the wood, and as a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the 2 people round about, on the right hand and on the left:

X and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, 6 even in Jerusalem.

W 7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

Y 8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as 6 God, as the angel of 1 the LORD before them.

U 9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

SYZ 10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the 5 spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall 6 look upon Me, 6 whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for Him, as one is in bitterness for his firstborn.

11 In that day 6 shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 And the land shall 11 mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their 6 wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their 6 wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their 12 wives apart; the family of 6 Shimei apart, and their 6 wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their 12 wives apart.

Z 15 In that day there 6 shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem 6 for sin and for uncleanness.

a fountain. This waits for a literal fulfilment.

opened: i.e., set open. The only occ. of this participle in the O.T.: and the last occ. of the verb itself.

Cp. the first in Gen. 7. 11. for = for [the expiation of] sin, &c. sin. Heb. châdâ'. Ap. 44. 1.
12. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any prophet shall speak in the name of the LORD; and his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive:

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

T 6 And o one shall say unto Him, What are these wounds in Thine hands? Then He shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of My friends.

7 Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, and against the Man That Is My Fellow, saith the LORD of hosts; smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn Mine hand upon the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9 As I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on My Name, and I will hear them: I will say, Save Thy people shall I say, My God.

and the Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

10 All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the house of the forest, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's winepresses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction: but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

12 And this shall be the plague with which the Lord will smite all the heathen that have fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the Lord shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that whoso shall not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the Lord will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLLINESS UPON THE LORD; and the pots in the Lord's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Ye shall see every pot in Jerusalem, and in Judah, shall be 10 holliness unto the Lord of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day shall there be no more the Canaanite in the house of the Lord of hosts.

Malachi is one of the six undated Minor (or Shorter) Prophets. His book shows that the Temple-worship, with its sacrifices, &c., had been fully restored; but the ceremonial formalism and hypocrisy, which culminated in the days of our Lord's ministry, are seen actively at work.

No sooner were the restraining influences of Ezra and Nehemiah removed, than the corruption began; and went on apace, as evidenced by Mal. 1. 7, 8; 3. 8, &c.

From the "Restoration" and the First Passover to the birth of Messiah was exactly 400 years, the last great period of Probation (40 x 10; see Ap. 10). It was the great testing-time given to the Nation in the Land.

If we take the date of Malachi as being 400 years before the anointing of Messiah and the commencement of His Ministry (A.D. 26), then we have, reckoning back from A.D. 26, the year 374 B.C. This gives thirty years from the Restoration to the condition of the Nation described in this prophecy, and twenty-nine clear years from Ezra's last date (1st Nisan, 408 B.C.): a period amply sufficient for the terrible declension of which Malachi speaks. Milner, in his valuable Church History, remarks that great reformations seldom seem to last in their purity more than thirty years.

If this be so, then Malachi may be dated as about 374 B.C., thirty years after the commencement of the Temple-worship, which marked the beginning of the 400 years till the birth of the Messenger (John the Baptist), and of the Messiah. (See Ap. 77. §.)

3. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against those that oppress the hirling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him and the offereth an offering unto the Lord of hosts.

19. And did not He make one? Yet had He the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That He might seek a godly seed.

20. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

21. For the Lord, the God of Israel, saith that He hateth putting away: “for one coveteth violence with his garment,” saith the Lord of hosts:

22. therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.”

23. Ye have weariied the Lord with your words. Yet ye say, “Wherein have we wearied Him?” When ye say, “Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and He delighteth in them;” or, “Where is the God of judgment?”

24. Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me:

25. And the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, He shall come, saith the Lord of hosts:

26. And He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purify them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

27. Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

28. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hirling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, wakener and answerer. Referring to the Temple watchers (Ps. 118.1).
3. 5. MALACHI.

374 aside the stranger from his right, and fear not Me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

7 Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from Mine ordinances, and have not kept them.

W Return unto Me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

U But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

T V 8 Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed Me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed Thee? In tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed Me, even this whole nation.

W 10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house, and prove Me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

D X Your words have been stout against Me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against Thee?

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept His ordinances, and that we have walked mournfully before Him?

15 And now, saith the LORD, return ye again unto Me; I will take no pleasure in the致 of Mine host.

16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon His name.

17 And they shall be Mine, saith the LORD, of hosts, in that day when I will make up and. See note above.

3. 17. MALACHI.

6 For, &c. Reader, according to the Structure, a For 9 (am) Jehovah;

b I have not changed;

c And ye [are] Jacob's sons;

d Ye have not failed.

I change not. Ref. to Pent. (Num. 23, 19). Ap. 92. Not in Himself, nor in His purpose, to change His dealings on the condition stated.

3. 7—12 (Gen. 12). ISRAEL'S DEEDS REPROVED. (Introversion and Alternation.)

9 are cursed with a curse. The primitive text read, "ye have cursed Me with a curse." The Sopherim say (Ap. 33) that they altered the letter כ (Mem = מ) into י (Nun = נ), thus making it passive instead of active, and detaching it from the rest of the sentence. This was done to avoid a supposed irreligious curse this whole nation = the nation, the whole of it.

10 all = the whole; implying that a part had been withheld.

11 the devourer = the eater: i.e. the locust. Cp. Joel 1, 4. Amos 4, 9.

12 their sakes = for you (the Dative of Reference).

3. 13—4. 4 (D, p. 1297). ISRAEL'S WORDS REPROVED. (Alternation.)

Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Subject). Ap. 6, for being prospered. Cp. Job 22, 23. Jan. 12, 14. yea = yea, [they, proud ones]. Marking a climax. tempt = have tempted. Same as "prove" in v. 10; but here in a bad sense, as though to challenge or put to the proof. Then; i.e. when Malachi had spoken thus unto them, and at a time of such apostasy, showing us what is possible and practicable in these like days and "perilous times" which are closing this present Dispensation. feared = revered, spoke. As in v. 12, one to another. One each with his friend. And, Note the Fig. Polyptoton. Ap. 9, hearkened, and heard. As He heard the groaning of Israel (Ex. 2, 21, 24); Moses, without words (Ex. 14, 15); and Nehemiah (Neh. 2, 4); Hannah, without words (1 Sam. 1, 13); Jeremiah, his breathing (Lam. 3, 85, 96); Jonah, when dying (Jonah 2, 2); the disciples, their thoughts (Luke 24, 38, 35); and a book of remembrance was written. Some codices, with Syriac, read a record was written in a book of remembrance; remembrance. Ref. to Pent. (Ex. 28, 28, Num. 10, 19, 19, the same word). Ap. 92. comfort for those now who cannot speak. We can walk with God (like Enoch, in the darkest days), and think of Him with these God-reverers now, in these similar days.

17 make up, &c. I am preparing.
My jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.
18 Then shall ye return, and discern between that which serveth God and him that serveth Him not.

4 For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave neither root nor branch.

2 But unto you that fear My name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in His wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.
3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.
4 Remember ye the law of Moses My servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

3 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:
6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

3 shall do this—that I am preparing; as in 3.17. 4 the law of Moses. Ref. to Pent. (Ex. 20, 1, &c.). Ap. 92. Moses My servant. Ref. to Pent. (Deut. 1. 8; 4. 10). Ap. 92. which I commanded, &c. Elsewhere, always “Elijah the Tishbite”, to indicate his own person; but here “Elijah the prophet” because had Israel received Messiah, John the Baptist would have been reckoned as Elijah (see notes on Matt. 17. 1–13. Mark 9. 11–13): and, at His last supper, the wine, representing His blood, would have been (as it will yet be) reckoned as “the blood of the (New) Covenant”, as foretold in Jer. 31. 21–34. Heb. 8. 8–12; 10. 15–17; 19. 24. day of the LORD. See note on Isa. 2. 12, 17; 13. 4, &c. the LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II. 6 children = sons.
